PART 1443—BRASS MILL PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

[MPR 408, Amdt. 2]

DISTRIBUTORS' PRICES FOR BRASS MILL PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Section 8 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Maximum prices. On all warehouse shipments of brass mill products other than pipe and water tube, by distributors, the maximum price shall be figured by applying the appropriate rule of the four rules set out below in this paragraph, but in no case shall the maximum price be higher than 3 cents per pound above the current mill list price for the same quantity of that product:

Rule 1. Where the distributor had a price[1] during October 1941 for the same product in the same mill list price quantity class, the maximum price shall be the current mill list price for the same product in the same mill list price quantity class plus the highest differential, if any, above mill list price, included in the price that the distributor had[1] during October, 1941, for the same product in the same mill list price quantity class.

Rule 2. Where the distributor had a price[1] during October 1941, for the same product but not in the same mill list price quantity class, the maximum price shall be the current mill list price for the same quantity of the same product, plus the highest differential, if any, above mill list price included in the price that the distributor had[1] during October 1941, for the nearest quantity of the same product.

Rule 3. Where the distributor did not have a price[1] for the same product during October 1941, the maximum price shall the current mill list price for the same quantity of the same product, plus the highest differential, if any, above mill list price included in the price that the distributor had[1] during October 1941, for the nearest quantity of a product of the same alloy or of a different alloy in the same shape.

Examples (prices are exclusive of size and other extras):

Rule 1. Distributor sells 1,000 pounds of Naval brass sheet, ½ inch thick, on July 15, 1943. His list price in October, 1941, for the same sheet in the same quantity was 26 cents per pound. Mill list price in October, 1941, for the same sheet in the same quantity was 25 cents per pound. Distributor's differential in October, 1941, was thus 1 cent per pound. Current mill list price in July is 20 cents per pound. Distributor's maximum price is thus 20 cents plus 1 cent or 21 cents per pound.

Example:

Rule 2. Distributor sells 500 pounds of Naval brass sheet of less than ½ inch thickness on July 15, 1943. This quantity was not listed or dealt in by the distributor in October, 1941. However, the distributor's price sheet in October, 1941, listed a 300 pound quantity of this product, which was the nearest quantity of the same product. The mill list price on such a quantity in October, 1941, was 27½ cents per pound and the distributor added a 1 cent differential, making a price of 28½ cents per pound. Distributor is now entitled to add this 1 cent per pound differential to the current mill list price in July. This mill list price is 26 cents per pound. The maximum price that the distributor may now charge is thus 27 cents per pound.

Example:

Rule 3. Distributor sells 300 pounds of Muntz metal sheets on July 15, 1943. No sheets of such metal were dealt in or listed by the distributor in October of 1941. However, in October, 1941, distributor listed 250 pounds of Naval brass sheet of less than ½ inch thickness, which was the nearest quantity of the same shape. On the October, 1941, order he charged a ½ cent per pound differential above mill list price. Distributor may now add this differential to the current mill list price of Muntz metal sheet, which was 25¾ cents per pound in July, 1943. Maximum price which the distributor may charge is therefore 26¼ cents per pound.

Rule 4. (1) Whenever a distributor's maximum price is not provided by Rules 1, 2 or 3, he shall figure the price at which he expects to sell or deliver by applying the pricing method used by him for figuring the maximum price of the most nearly comparable product, and shall then file such price for approval as his maximum price. Such price shall be filed within 15 days after the first sale after the effective date of this regulation, by letter addressed to the Metals Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. Included with such filing of price, the distributor shall set forth (i) a full description of the product, (ii) a statement as to why Rules 1, 2, and 3 cannot be applied, and (iii) an explanation of how the proposed price was figured.

(2) Pending approval or disapproval of a price filed under this Rule 4, and for 15 days before such filing, the price reported may be paid and received subject to adjustment between the parties if it is disapproved. A price once reported and approved need not thereafter be reported by the same distributor.

(3) The price reported may be approved or disapproved by the Office of Price Administration. Where a price is disapproved, the Price Administrator will issue a formal order to that effect. It is necessary that such formal order be entered if the distributor reporting a price which is disapproved wishes to file a formal protest under Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration, which provides a basis for an appeal to the United States Emergency Court of Appeals.

(4) A price filed in accordance with this Rule 4 shall be considered approved unless it is disapproved within 30 days from the date on which it is received by the Office of Price Administration, or, if additional information is requested, then within 30 days from the date on which all such information is received. However, at any time after any such 30 day period, the Office of Price Administration may disapprove the maximum price so established; such disapproval shall take effect seven days after the mailing of such notice of disapproval and shall apply to all sales or deliveries on or after the effective date of such notice regardless of then existing contracts.

This amendment shall become effective as of April 1, 1946.

NOTE: The reporting provisions in this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 22d day of April 1946.

PAUL A. PORTER,
Administrator.

SUBPART A—GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 299.1 Definitions. For the purpose of these regulations (§§ 299.1 to 299.91, inclusive):

(a) Commission. "Commission" means the United States Maritime Commission.

(b) War-built vessel. "War-built vessel" means an ocean-going vessel of one thousand five hundred gross tons or more, owned by the United States and suitable for commercial use:

(1) Which was constructed or contracted for by or for the account of the United States during the period beginning January 1, 1941, and ending September 2, 1945; or

(2) Which, having been constructed during the period beginning September 3, 1939, and ending September 2, 1945, was acquired by the United States during such period.

(c) Dry-cargo vessel. "Dry-cargo vessel" means, except where the context indicates otherwise, any vessel other than a tanker, but the term "dry-cargo vessel" includes a Liberty type tanker except for § 299.31.

(d) Prewar domestic cost. "Prewar domestic cost," as applied to any type of vessel, means the amount determined by the Commission, and published by the Commission in the FEDERAL REGISTER (§ 299.56), to be the amount for which a standard vessel of such type could have been constructed (without its national defense features) in the United States under normal conditions relating to labor, materials, and other elements of cost, obtaining on or about January 1, 1941. In no case shall the prewar domestic cost of any type of vessel be considered to be greater than 80% of the domestic war cost of vessels of the same type.

(e) Domestic war cost. "Domestic war cost," as applied to any type of vessel, means the average construction cost (without national defense features) as determined by the Commission, of vessels of such type delivered during the calendar year 1944, except for any type of vessel the principal deliveries of which were made after the calendar year 1944, in which case there shall be used in lieu of such year 1944 such period of not less than six consecutive calendar months as the Commission shall find to be most representative of war production costs of such type.

In the case of any vessel for which there is no domestic war cost as defined in this paragraph, such domestic war cost shall be in the same ratio to the prewar domestic cost (as defined in paragraph (d) of this section) as the domestic war cost of the most nearly comparable type of vessel for which a domestic war cost is available is to the prewar domestic cost of such similar vessel.

(f) Statutory sales price. "Statutory sales price," as applied to a particular vessel, means, in the case of a dry-cargo vessel (as defined in paragraph (c) of this section), an amount equal to 50% of the prewar domestic cost of that type of vessel, and in the case of a tanker (excluding Liberty tankers), such term means an amount equal to 87½% of the prewar domestic cost of a tanker of that type, such amount in each case being adjusted as follows:

(1) If the Commission is of the opinion that the vessel is not in class, there shall be subtracted the amount estimated by the Commission as the cost of putting the vessel in class;

(2) If the Commission is of the opinion that the vessel lacks desirable features which are incorporated in the standard vessel used for the purpose of determining prewar domestic cost, and that the statutory sales price (unadjusted) would be lower if the standard vessel had also lacked such features, there shall be subtracted the amount estimated by the Commission as the amount of such resulting difference in the statutory sales price;

(3) If the Commission is of the opinion that the vessel contains desirable features which are not incorporated in the standard vessel used for the purpose of determining the prewar domestic cost, and that the statutory sales price (unadjusted) would be higher if the standard vessel had also contained such features, there shall be added the amount estimated by the Commission as the amount of such resulting difference in statutory sales price;

(4) There shall be subtracted, as representing normal depreciation, an amount computed by applying to the statutory sales price (determined without regard to this paragraph) the rate of 5% per year for the period beginning with the date of the original delivery of the vessel by its builder and ending with the date of sale or charter to the applicant in question, and there shall also be subtracted an amount computed by applying to the statutory sales price (determined without regard to this paragraph) such rate not in excess of 3 per cent per year in the case of a vessel other than a tanker, and not in excess of 4 per cent per year in the case of a tanker, for the period of war service as the Commission determines will make reasonable allowance for excessive wear and tear by reason of war service which cannot be or has not been otherwise compensated for under this paragraph. The period of war service in ordinary cases shall be from the date of delivery of the vessel to the Government for operation or December 7, 1941, whichever was later, until September 2, 1945.

(5) In the case of any vessel covered by subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, the amount of difference in statutory sales price resulting from the presence of desirable features not contained in the standard vessel of the same type shall be depreciated from the date of delivery of the vessel or the date of installation of such features if such features were installed after delivery.

No adjustment, except in respect of passenger vessels constructed before January 1, 1941, shall be made under the Act which will result in a statutory sales price which (1) in the case of any Liberty type vessel will be less than 31½% of the domestic war cost of vessels of such type, (2) in the case of dry-cargo vessels (except Liberty type vessels) will be less than 35% of the domestic war cost of vessels of the same type, or (3) in the case of a tanker (except a Liberty tanker) will be less than 50% of the domestic war cost of tankers of the same type.

(g) Cessation of hostilities. "Cessation of hostilities" means the date proclaimed by the President as the date of the cessation of hostilities in the present war, or the date so specified in a concurrent resolution of the two houses of the Congress, whichever is the earlier.

(h) Citizen of the United States. "Citizen of the United States" includes a corporation, partnership, or association only if it is a citizen of the United States within the meaning of section 2 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, and section 905 (c) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended. The Secretary of the Commission will furnish, on request, copies of memoranda dealing with citizenship.

(i) Affiliated interest. The term "affiliated interest" shall include any person or concern that directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the applicant. The term "control" (including the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") as used in this paragraph means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of the applicant, whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise.

(j) Constructed or date constructed. "Constructed" or "date constructed" means the date upon which a vessel was originally delivered by the shipbuilder.

(k) Act. "Act" means, except where the context clearly indicates otherwise, the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946 (Public Law 321, 79th Cong., 2d Sess., approved March 8, 1946).

(l) Regulations. "Regulations" mean the rules and regulations prescribed by the Commission, under the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946 (Public Law 321, 79th Cong., 2d Sess.), §§ 299.1 to 299.91, inclusive, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and all succeeding amendments and supplements thereto similarly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(m) Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of the United States Maritime Commission or any Assistant Secretary thereof or any other official or employee of the Commission designated by the Commission to perform the duties required of the Secretary under these regulations. (Communications sent to the Secretary should be addressed "Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C.").

§ 299.2 Order of preference—(a) In general. All citizen applications received by the Secretary within a given calendar month shall be given preference over all applications received by the Secretary in any subsequent calendar month. For the purposes of this section the first calendar month shall be considered to include the period from the date of publications of these regulations in the FEDERAL REGISTER to June 1, 1946.

(b) Citizen applications over noncitizen applications; purchase over charter. The Commission will give preference to citizen applications over noncitizen applications, and, as between citizen applications to purchase and citizen applications to charter, will, as far as practicable and consistent with the policies of the act, give preference to citizen applications to purchase.

(c) Preference among citizen applications. In determining the order of preference between citizen applications to purchase or between citizen applications to charter, the Commission will consider, among other relevant factors, the extent to which losses and requisitions of the applicant's prewar tonnage have been overcome, and will, in all cases, in the sale and charter of war-built vessels, give preference in such sale or charter, as the case may be, to the former owner of such vessel or to the person for whom the vessel was constructed but to whom delivery thereof was prevented by the United States.

(d) Preference among noncitizen applications. In determining the order of preference between noncitizen applications to purchase filed prior to June 1, 1946 and thereafter within the same calendar month as provided for in paragraph (a) of this section the Commission will give preference to citizens of the Commonwealth of the Philippines and in determining the order of preference between other noncitizen applicants will consider the extent to which losses in prewar tonnage of the various member nations of the United Nations, incurred in the interest of the war effort, have been overcome, and the relative effects of such losses upon the national economy of such member nation.

(e) Preference where citizen application shows intent to transfer vessel(s) to foreign registry or flag after purchase. With respect to any application in which the citizen applicant states that it will apply to the Commission for approval to transfer the vessel(s) to foreign registry or flag, if and when purchased by the applicant, the Commission reserves the right to defer action until after all other applications by citizens of the United States filed within the same preference period have been acted upon and the Commission reserves entire discretion in determining whether transfer to foreign registry and flag will be approved.

If the citizen applicant states that it will not apply to the Commission for approval to transfer the vessel(s) to foreign registry or flag, if and when purchased by the applicant, the Commission will give the application the preference provided for applications by citizens of the United States, but if, thereafter, a request is made (pursuant to section 9 or section 37 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended), to transfer or place any of such vessel(s) under foreign registry or flag, the Commission will take into consideration the fact that the applicant stated in the application that such a request would not be made.

In no case will the Commission approve transfer of a P–2 type or other passenger type or a Liberty type collier or Liberty type tanker.

§ 299.5 Limitation on eligibility for benefits of Act. No person shall be eligible to purchase or charter a war-built vessel under the Act, or to receive an adjustment under section 9 of the act, unless such person makes an agreement with the Commission (which agreement shall be incorporated in every contract for sale or charter entered into pursuant to the provisions of the act) binding upon such person and any affiliated interest to the effect that the liability of the United States under any charter party or taking for use, made or effected prior to the date of the enactment of the act, for the loss, on or after such date of enactment and prior to September 3, 1947, of any vessel owned by such person and under charter to the United States (excluding a vessel with respect to which an adjustment under section 9 of the act is made) shall be limited to an amount equal to just compensation as of the date of said loss, determined pursuant to existing law, or such amount as may be mutually agreed upon subsequent to March 8, 1946 as just compensation under the provisions of existing law.

§ 299.7 Reconversion, alteration or modification. (a) Any person applying to purchase or charter under the regulations may attach to his application an application in substantially the form provided in § 299.91, that the Commission reconvert or restore the vessel(s) for normal operation in commercial services, including the removal of national defense or war service features. Any such request shall include such detailed information as is necessary to advise the Commission fully of the work required.

(b) Any person applying to purchase or charter a war-built vessel under the regulations may attach to this application an application substantially in the form provided in § 299.91, that the Commission make replacements, alterations, or modifications with respect to the vessel applied for or install therein such special features as may be necessary or advisable to make such vessel suitable for commercial operation on trade routes or services or comparable as to commercial utility to other vessels of the same general type. Any such request shall include such detailed information as is necessary to advise the Commission fully of the work required.

(c) In approving or disapproving applications under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, the Commission will consider, among other relevant factors:

(1) The availability of other suitable vessels for sale or charter to the applicant;

(2) Whether such reconversion, restoration, replacement, alteration or modification is essential in order to dispose of the vessel under the provisions of the act;

(3) Whether such reconversion, restoration, replacement, alteration or modification could be effected under any other provisions of law; and

(4) Whether such reconversion, restoration, replacement, alteration or modification is essential to the foreign or domestic commerce of the United States and would otherwise effectuate the policy and purposes of the act.

(d) Restoration or installation of special features, unless such features are on the standard vessel, must, under the act, be considered as added desirable features and, therefore, will require an adjustment in the statutory sales price of the vessel.

§ 299.8 Form of affidavit. An affidavit in substantially the following form shall be attached to all applications filed pursuant to these regulations.

(b) Any of the forms set forth in these regulations may be modified to meet the requirements of the Commission in any particular case.

§ 299.10 Termination date. No contract of sale or of charter will be made under these regulations after December 31, 1947.

SUBPART B—SALES OF WAR-BUILT VESSELS

§ 299.21 Sales of war-built vessels to citizens of the United States—(a) Application. Any citizen of the United States as defined in § 299.1 (h) may apply to the Commission to purchase a war-built vessel at the statutory sales price. The application to receive consideration must be substantially in the form prescribed by the Commission in § 299.71. Three executed copies and fifteen conformed copies of the application must be filed with the Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Each application should contain sufficient information to enable the Commission to make all necessary determinations including those relating to (1) citizenship of the applicant, (2) ability of the applicant to make the required payment of not less than 25% of the statutory sales price of the vessel and to pay the balance of the purchase price in equal annual installments for a period not in excess of the remainder of the life of the vessel, which generally shall be considered to be twenty years from the date the vessel was built except for vessels for which additional depreciation is allowed in accordance with § 299.1 (f) in order to compensate for excessive wear and tear by reason of war service, with interest on the portion of the statutory sales price remaining unpaid at the rate of 3½% per annum, and (3) that the applicant possesses the ability, experience, financial resources, and other qualifications, necessary to enable him to operate and maintain the vessel under normal competitive conditions. Items or parts of items in the application which are inapplicable may be omitted. If any information called for by an applicable item is not furnished, an explanation of the omission shall be given. Detailed descriptions of exhibits need not be given. The applicant may furnish such relevant information as it may desire, in addition to that specified in the form.

(b) Amendment of application. Such application may be amended at any time before the Commission has acted upon it. Three executed copies and fifteen conformed copies of the amendment must be filed with the Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Amendments involving substitution of a different vessel for the vessel applied for, unless made promptly at the written request of the Commission, shall be effective as of the filing date of the amendment. All other timely amendments (including amendments involving substitutions for the vessels applied for when made at the request of the Commission) shall be effective as of the filing date of the original application. Any information called for by the Commission from time to time shall be furnished as an amendment or amendments to the application. The applicant shall file from time to time as amendments any information necessary to keep current and correct, while the application is pending, the information contained therein or furnished in connection therewith.

(c) Approval or disapproval by the Commission. The Commission will approve the application if it determines that the applicant is a citizen of the United States as defined in § 299.1 (h) and possesses the ability, experience, financial resources, and other qualifications, necessary to enable him to operate and maintain the vessel under normal competitive conditions, and that such sale will aid in carrying out the policies of the act, and that the vessel is available for sale to the applicant. If the application is disapproved by the Commission, the Secretary will promptly advise the applicant.

(d) Contract of sale. If the application is approved by the Commission, the Secretary will furnish the applicant five counterparts of a contract of sale in form prescribed by the Commission which shall be executed by the applicant and redelivered to the Secretary within fifteen (15) days of the date of its receipt by the applicant, accompanied by the applicant's certified check payable to the order of the United States of America in the amount specified in the contract as the initial payment required to be made upon the execution of the contract of sale, which will be not less than ten per cent of the purchase price and shall be retained as liquidated damages in the event the buyer defaults in his obligation to purchase the vessel under the terms of the contract. After the contract of sale has been executed on behalf of the Commission, one of the counterparts will be sent to the applicant. Upon delivery of the vessel to the buyer, the buyer shall pay by certified check a sum equal to the excess of the required down payment over the initial payment referred to above and the buyer shall also give to the Commission negotiable promissory notes and a first preferred mortage on the vessel equal to the excess of the statutory sales price over the sum of the total down payment and the trade-in allowance, if any.

§ 299.22 Allowance of credit for exchange of vessel—(a) In general. The Commission is authorized to acquire in exchange for an allowance of credit on the sales price of a vessel purchased by a citizen of the United States, any vessel owned by a citizen of the United States or by a foreign corporation, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section. The allowance may not be applied in reduction of the down payment required to be made by the applicant, but may be applied in reduction of any unpaid balance remaining after applying the credit resulting from the down payment.

A war-built vessel shall be deemed a "new vessel" for the purpose of section 511 (construction reserve fund and tax provisions) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended. Section 510 (e) (tax provisions) of such Act shall be applicable with respect to vessels exchanged under this section of the regulations to the same extent as it is applicable to obsolete vessels exchanged under section 510 of such act.

[1] If applicant is an American citizen, insert "the United States within the meaning of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended (U.S.C. Title 46, sec. 802), and section 905 (c) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended." If applicant is not an American citizen insert the name of the country of which applicant is a citizen.

(b) Vessels ineligible for exchange. No vessel (1) which was purchased under the act, or (2) which is less than one thousand three hundred and fifty (1,350) gross tons, provided that the Commission may under special circumstances declare a smaller vessel eligible, or (3) which is not owned by a citizen of the United States except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, will be accepted by the Commission in exchange for an allowance on the purchase price of any war-built vessel.

(c) Exchange of vessel owned by foreign corporation. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, any vessel owned by a foreign corporation is eligible for an exchange allowance, if:

(1) The vessel was constructed in the United States, and was after December 7, 1941, chartered to, or otherwise taken for use by, the United States;

(2) The controlling interest in such corporation is, at the time of the exchange, owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, and has been so owned for a period of at least three years immediately prior to the time of exchange; and

(3) Such corporation agrees that the war-built vessel purchased with the use of such credit shall be owned by such citizen or citizens and shall be documented under the laws of the United States.

(d) Application for determination of an allowance of credit. An application for determination of an allowance of credit for exchange of a vessel must be in substantially the form prescribed by the Commission in § 299.76. Three executed copies and fifteen conformed copies of the application must be filed with the Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Items or parts of items in the application which are inapplicable may be omitted. If any information called for by an applicable item is not furnished, an explanation of the omission shall be given. Detailed description of exhibits need not be given.

(e) Amendment of application. Such application may be amended at any time before the Commission has acted upon it. Three executed copies and fifteen conformed copies of the amendment must be filed with the Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

(f) Determination by Commission of allowance of credit for exchange of vessel and offer of applicant. Upon determination by the Commission of the amount which it will allow as credit for exchange of a vessel, the applicant may execute a firm offer in substantially the form provided in § 299.78, binding for at least 90 days, to transfer the vessel to the Commission in exchange for an allowance of credit which offer must be filed by the applicant with the Commission within 15 days from the date of receipt of the determination of allowance and in any event not later than December 31, 1946.

(g) Amount of allowance. The amount of the allowance shall be the fair and reasonable value of the vessel as determined by the Commission and shall be subject to the following considerations and limitations:

(1) In determining the fair and reasonable value of the vessel for the purpose of the allowance, the Commission will consider:

(i) The value of the vessel, determined in accordance with the standards of valuation established pursuant to Executive Order 9387 (8 F.R. 14105), as of the date of the application,

(ii) Any liability of the United States for repair and restoration of the vessel,

(iii) The utility value of the vessel,

(iv) The effect of the act upon the market value of such vessel, and

(v) The public interest in promoting exchanges of vessels as a means of rehabilitating and modernizing the American merchant marine.

(2) In no event will the amount of such allowance, in case of dry-cargo vessels and tankers, exceed:

(i) If the vessel or vessels tendered in exchange are of equal or greater deadweight tonnage than the war-built vessel or vessels being acquired, 33⅓ percent of the statutory sales price (without taking into account the adjustments provided for in subparagraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, of § 299.1 (f)) of the war-built vessel or vessels, or

(ii) If the vessel or vessels tendered in exchange are of lesser deadweight tonnage than the war-built vessel or vessels, such proportionate part of 33⅓ percent of the statutory sales price (without taking into account the adjustments provided for in subparagraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, of § 299.1 (f)) of such war-built vessel or vessels as the deadweight tonnage of such vessel or vessels, tendered in exchange, bear to the deadweight tonnage of such war-built vessel or vessels, or

(iii) The liability of the United States in connection with the repair or restoration of such vessel under any charter to which the United States is a party, whichever is the higher.

(3) In the case of passenger vessels tendered in exchange, the amount of the allowance shall not exceed the percentage of the statutory sales price computed under subparagraph (2) (i) and (ii) of this paragraph by gross tons instead of deadweight tons, or such liability for the repair or restoration of such passenger vessel, whichever is the higher.

(4) In any case where the vessel tendered in exchange was acquired from the United States at any time and by any person whomsoever, the allowance of credit shall not exceed the price originally paid the United States therefor plus the depreciated cost of any improvement thereon.

(5) In the case of any vessel tendered in exchange which has been restored to condition by the United States for the purpose of redelivering such vessel to its owner in compliance with the charter of such vessel with the United States, or where, for such restoration a cash allowance has been made to the owner, there will be deducted from the amount of the allowance of credit for such vessel determined by the Commission, an amount equal to the cost incurred by the United States for such restoration, including charter hire paid during the period of restoration, or such cash allowance as has been made to the owner, provided that the cost of, or allowance for, removal of national defense features shall not be deducted from the amount of the allowance of credit.

(h) Loss of vessel tendered in exchange. If, after an offer for an exchange allowance, pursuant to paragraph (f) of this section, has been executed by the buyer, and before title to applicant's vessel has been transferred to the Commission by a bill of sale, such vessel is lost by reason of causes for which the United States is responsible, then, in lieu of paying the applicant any amount on account of such loss, the offer shall, for the purposes of this section, be considered as having been accepted and the applicant's vessel as having been acquired by the Commission immediately prior to such loss. In such event the Commission shall apply the amount set forth in such offer (but not more than the amount to which applicant is entitled under any other agreement with the United States covering the vessel) as an additional down-payment on the purchase price of the Commission vessel, and the seller agrees to accept such allowance of credit in full settlement of any and all claims against the United States in connection with the loss of applicant's vessel. Subsequent to the transfer of title of applicant's vessel to the Commission, such vessel shall be deemed to be the property of the United States, and the amount set forth in the offer shall be applied irrespective of subsequent loss of the vessel from whatsoever cause. The United States shall, whether the vessel is lost before or after execution of the bill of sale, be subrogated with respect to all insurance or other claims arising out of such loss.

"Causes for which the United States is responsible," as used above, include liability under contractual obligations of the United States, such as those arising under a charter or policy of insurance, and liability arising from collision or other torts.

§ 299.25 Sales of war-built vessels to persons not citizens of the United States—(a) Application. Any person not a citizen of the United States as defined in § 299.1 (h) may apply to the Commission to purchase, at not less than the statutory sales price, a war-built vessel other than a P–2 type or other passenger type and other than a Liberty type collier or Liberty type tanker. The application to receive consideration must be substantially in the form prescribed by the Commission in § 299.71. Three executed copies and fifteen conformed copies of the application must be filed with the Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Each application should contain sufficient information to enable the Commission to make all necessary determinations including determinations that the applicant has the financial resources, ability and experience necessary to enable him to fulfill all obligations with respect to payment for the vessel on such terms and conditions as the Commission shall approve. Items or parts of items in the application which are inapplicable may be omitted. If any information called for by an applicable item is not furnished, an explanation of the omission shall be given. Detailed descriptions of exhibits need not be given. The applicant may furnish such relevant information as it may desire, in addition to that specified in the form.

(b) Amendment of application. Such application may be amended at any time before the Commission has acted upon it. Three executed copies and fifteen conformed copies of the amendment must be filed with the Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Amendments involving substitution of a different vessel for the vessel applied for, unless promptly made at the written request of the Commission, shall be effective as of the filing date of the amendment. All other timely amendments (including amendments involving substitutions for the vessel applied for when made at the written request of the Commission) shall be effective as of the filing date of the original application. Any information called for by the Commission from time to time shall be furnished as an amendment or amendments to the application. The applicant shall file from time to time as amendments any information necessary to keep current and correct, while the application is pending, the information contained therein or furnished in connection therewith.

(c) Approval or disapproval by the Commission. (1) The Commission may approve the application if it determines:

(i) That the applicant has the financial resources, ability, and experience necessary to enable him to fulfill all obligations with respect to payment for the vessel on such terms and conditions as the Commission shall approve, and that sale of the vessel to him would not be inconsistent with any policy of the United States in permitting foreign sales under section 9 or section 37 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, and

(ii) After consultation with the Secretary of the Navy, that such vessel is not nessary to the defense of the United States, and

(iii) That such vessel is not necessary to the promotion and maintenance of an American merchant marine described in section 2 of the act, and

(iv) That for a reasonable period of time, which in the case of tankers and, except as provided below, "C" type vessels shall not end before ninety days after publication of the applicable prewar domestic cost in the FEDERAL REGISTER, such vessel has been available for sale at the statutory sales price to citizens of the United States, or for charter to citizens of the United States, and that no responsible offer has been made by a citizen of the United States to purchase or charter such vessel.

(v) That such vessel is available for sale to the applicant.

(2) If the application is disapproved by the Commission, the Secretary will promptly advise the applicant.

(d) Contract of sale. If the application is approved by the Commission, the Secretary will furnish the applicant five counterparts of a contract of sale in the form prescribed by the Commission, which shall be executed by the applicant and redelivered to the Secretary within fifteen (15) days of the date of its receipt by the applicant, accompanied by the applicant's check payable in United States dollars to the order of the United States of America in the amount specified in the contract as the initial payment required to be made upon the execution of the contract of sale, which will be not less than ten per cent of the purchase price and shall be retained as liquidated damages in the event the buyer defaults in his obligations to purchase the vessel under the terms of the contract. The applicant's check shall be certified by a bank or trust company authorized to do business under the laws of the United States, or any state, territory or possession thereof. After the contract of sale has been executed on behalf of the Commission, one of the counterparts will be sent to the applicant. Upon delivery of the vessel to the buyer, the buyer shall pay by certified check as described above a sum equal to the excess of the required down payment over the initial payment referred to above and the buyer shall also give to the Commission, if mortgage aid has been granted, negotiable promissory notes and a mortgage on the vessel equal to the excess of the purchase price over the total down payment. The contract of sale shall require that the balance of the down payment and the amount to be evidenced by the notes and secured by the mortgage and all amounts of insurance required by the mortgage shall be expressed in and payable in United States dollars at the Commission's office in Washington, D. C. The contract of sale provided in § 299.73 (a) shall otherwise be modified by the General Counsel as may be appropriate fully to protect the interest of the Commission with respect to sales to non-citizens.

(e) Other conditions. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no war-built vessel will be sold to any person not a citizen of the United States, except in accordance with this section, or upon terms or conditions more favorable than those at which such war-built vessel is offered to a citizen of the United States, but where the vessel so sold is being transferred to foreign register and flag, the mortgage securing the unpaid balance of the purchase price and interest thereon shall contain provisions according to such mortgage the priorities over other liens and encumbrances accorded such mortgages on merchant vessels under the laws of such registry and flag.

(f) Transfer to foreign flag. If the vessel sold to a person not a citizen of the United States is to be transferred to foreign register and flag, approval by the Commission of the application for purchase will also constitute approval, under section 9 or section 37 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, to transfer such vessel when purchased, to foreign ownership, registry and flag.

SUBPART C—CHARTER OF WAR-BUILT VESSELS TO CITIZENS

§ 299.31 Charter of war-built vessels to citizens of the United States—(a) Application. Any citizen of the United States as defined in § 299.1 (h), and until July 4, 1946, any citizen of the Commonwealth of the Philippines, may apply to the Commission to charter a war-built dry cargo vessel including passenger type vessels, for bareboat use. The application to receive consideration must be substantially in the form prescribed by the Commission in § 299.81 of these regulations. Three executed copies and fifteen conformed copies of the application must be filed with the Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Each application shall contain sufficient information to enable the Commission to make all necessary determinations including those (1) as to citizenship of the applicant, and (2) that the applicant possesses the ability, experience, financial resources, and other qualifications, necessary to enable him to fulfill the terms of the charter. Items or parts of items in the application which are inapplicable may be omitted. If any information called for by an applicable item is not furnished, an explanation of the omission shall be given. Detailed descriptions of exhibits need not be given. The applicant may furnish such relevant information as it may desire, in addition to that specified in the form.

(b) Amendment of application. Such application may be amended at any time before the Commission has acted upon it. Three executed copies and fifteen conformed copies of the amendment must be filed with the Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Amendments involving substitution of a different vessel for the vessel applied for, unless promptly made at the written request of the Commission, shall be effective as of the filing date of the amendment. All other timely amendments (including amendments involving substitutions for the vessels applied for when made at the written request of the Commission) shall be effective as of the filing date of the original application. Any information called for by the Commission from time to time shall be furnished as an amendment or amendments to the application. The applicant shall file from time to time as amendments any information necessary to keep current and correct, while the application is pending, the information contained therein or furnished in connection therewith.

(c) Approval or rejection by the Commission. The Commission may, in its discretion, either approve or reject the application and will not approve the application unless it determines that the applicant is a citizen of the United States as defined in § 299.1 (h) or in case of an application filed prior to July 4, 1946, is a citizen of the Commonwealth of the Philippines and, in its opinion, the chartering of the vessel to the applicant will be consistent with the policies of the Act and the vessel is available for charter to the applicant. In determining whether or not to approve the application, the Commission will take into consideration the applicant's financial resources and credit standing, practical experience in the operation of vessels, and any other factors that would be considered by a prudent businessman in entering into a transaction involving a large investment of his capital; and the Commission will not charter a vessel to any person, appearing to lack sufficient capital, credit, and experience to fulfill the terms of the charter. No vessel will be chartered until 60 days after publication of the applicable prewar domestic cost in the FEDERAL REGISTER. If the application is rejected by the Commission, the Secretary will promptly advise the applicant.

(d) Charter party. If the application is approved by the Commission, the Secretary will furnish the applicant five counterparts of a charter party covering the vessel(s) in such form as the Commission may prescribe, which shall be executed by the applicant and redelivered to the Secretary within fifteen (15) days of the date of its receipt by the applicant. After the charter party has been executed on behalf of the Commission, one of the counterparts will be sent to the applicant.

(e) Period of charter. The period of the charter shall be determined by the Commission in each particular case.

(f) Charter hire. The monthly charter hire for any vessel chartered under the provisions of the act shall be one-twelfth of an amount not less than 15% of the statutory sales price (computed as of the date of delivery of the vessel under the charter), except upon the affirmative vote of not less than four members of the Commission. Except in the case of vessels having passenger accommodations for not less than eighty passengers, rates of charter hire fixed by the Commission on any war-built vessel which differ from the rate specified in this subsection shall not be less than the prevailing world market charter rates for similar vessels for similar use as determined by the Commission.

(g) Mandatory provisions in charter. Every charter made by the Commission pursuant to the provisions of the act shall provide:

(1) Excess profits of charterer. That whenever, at the end of any calendar year subsequent to the execution of such charter, the cumulative net voyage profits (after payment of the charter hire reserved in the charter and payment of the charterer's fair and reasonable overhead expenses applicable to operation of the chartered vessels) shall exceed 10% per annum on the charterer's capital necessarily employed in the business of the vessel or vessels covered by the same charter, the charterer shall pay over to the Commission, as additional charter hire, one-half of such cumulative net voyage profit in excess of 10% per annum on such capital: Provided, That the cumulative net profit so accounted for shall not be included in any calculation of cumulative net profit in subsequent years. (Every charter shall contain definitions of the terms "net voyage profit" and "fair and reasonable overhead expenses" and "capital necessarily employed", as said terms are used in this subparagraph, such definitions to set forth the formulae for determining such profits, overhead expense, and capital necessarily employed.)

(2) Charterer to insure vessel. That the charterer shall carry in the chartered vessels, at its own expense, policies of insurance covering all marine and port risks, protection and indemnity risks, and all other hazards and liabilities, in such amounts, in such form, and in such insurance companies as the Commission shall require and approve, adequate to cover all insurable damage claims against and losses sustained by the chartered vessels arising during the life of the charterer: Provided, That in accordance with existing law, some or all of such insurance risks may be underwritten by the Commission itself as in its discretion it may determine.

(3) Charterer to maintain and repair vessel. That the charterer shall at its own expense keep the chartered vessel in good state of repair and in efficient operating condition and shall at its own expense make any and all repairs as may be required by the Commission.

(4) Commission inspection of vessel. That the Commission shall have the right to inspect the vessel at any and all times to ascertain its condition.

(5) Books and accounts of charterer; Commission examination and audit. That the charterer shall keep its books and accounts relating to the vessel in such form as the Commission may prescribe, shall file such financial statements as the Commission may require, and shall permit the Commission to examine and audit its books, records and accounts.

(6) Emergency termination of charter. That whenever the President shall proclaim that the security of the national defense makes it advisable, or during any national emergency declared by proclamation of the President, the Commission may terminate the charter without cost to the United States, upon such notice to the charterer as the President shall determine.

(7) Bond of charterer. That the charterer shall be required to deposit with the Commission an undertaking with approved sureties as security for the faithful performance of all of the conditions of the charter, including indemnity against liens on the chartered vessels, in such amount as the Commission shall require. The charterer may, in lieu of furnishing such bond, pledge United States Government securities in the face value of the required amount.

(h) Operating - differential subsidy. The Commission may, if in its discretion financial aid is deemed necessary, enter into a contract with any citizen of the United States chartering a vessel under the provisions of the Act for payment to such charterer of an operating-differential subsidy upon the same terms and conditions and subject to the same limitations and restrictions, where applicable, as are provided in the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, with respect to payments of such subsidies to operators of privately owned vessels.

(i) Application where request is made for an operating-differential subsidy. Where the applicant requests financial aid in the operation of a vessel chartered under the Act, pursuant to paragraph (h) of this section, the application provided for in paragraph (a) of this section shall be accompanied by an application for an operating-differential subsidy in substantially the form prescribed in § 251.11 of this chapter (the Commission's General Order No. 13).

If the application to charter is conditioned upon the granting of financial aid pursuant to paragraph (h) of this section, such application to charter shall be considered for the purpose of § 299.2 as having been filed as of the date of approval by the Commission of the application for financial aid.

If the application for financial aid is disapproved by the Commission, the Secretary will promptly advise the applicant. Unless the applicant notifies the Secretary within 15 days that the application for charter is withdrawn, it will be considered as an application to charter without financial aid and for the purpose of § 299.2 shall be considered as filed as of date of disapproval of the application for financial aid.

(j) Sub-chartering. Vessels chartered from the Commission may be sub-chartered only with the prior written consent of the Commission.

SUBPART D—TRANSFER OF WAR-BUILT VESSELS

§ 299.41 Transfer of war-built vessel in settlement of a claim against the United States—(a) Application. Anyone who has a claim against the United States for (1) just compensation due him for a vessel requisitioned for title by the United States, or (2) indemnity for the loss of any vessel which was acquired for use by the United States, may make application to the Commission for the transfer to him of a war-built vessel or vessels at the statutory sales prices in complete or partial settlement of such claim. The application to receive consideration must be substantially in the form prescribed in § 299.83 including the submission of the certificate of settling department or agency provided therein. Three executed copies and fifteen conformed copies of the application must be filed with the Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Items or parts of items in the application which are inapplicable may be omitted. If any information called for by an applicable item is not furnished, an explanation of the omission shall be given. Detailed descriptions of exhibits need not be given. The applicant may furnish such relevant information as it may desire, in addition to that specified in the form.

(b) Amendment of application. Such application may be amended at any time before the Commission has acted upon it. Three executed copies and fifteen conformed copies of the amendment must be filed with the Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Amendments involving substitution of a different vessel for the vessel applied for, unless made promptly at the written request of the Commission, shall be effective as of the filing date of the amendment. All other timely amendments (including amendments involving substitutions for the vessel applied for when made at the request of the Commission) shall be effective as of the filing date of the original application. Any information called for by the Commission from time to time shall be furnished as an amendment or amendments to the application. The applicant shall file from time to time as amendments any information necessary to keep current and correct, while the application is pending, the information contained therein or furnished in connection therewith.

(c) Approval or disapproval by the Commission. If the Commission determines that, in its opinion, such transfer is in the interests of the United States and that the vessel applied for by the applicant is available for sale to him, the application may be granted. In determining whether the transfer should be made, the Commission among relevant factors will take into account the preferences provided for in § 299.2. If the application is disapproved by the Commission, the Secretary will promptly advise the applicant.

(d) Contract of settlement. If the application is approved by the Commission and if the Commission is the settling agency, the Secretary will furnish the applicant five counterparts of a contract of settlement which shall be executed by the applicant and redelivered to the Secretary within fifteen (15) days of the date of its receipt by the applicant. After the contract of settlement has been executed on behalf of the Commission, one of the counterparts will be sent to the applicant. If the settling agency is other than the Commission, the Commission will arrange to make the vessel or vessels available for the purposes of the settlement.

(e) Determination of claim. If claim is against the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, the application may be filed, but will be dated as of the date the certificate of settling agency is filed by applicant. If it is against another agency or department, the application must be accompanied by a certificate of settling department or agency.

(f) Types of settlements. Commission procedure will be generally as outlined below in the three usual types of settlements which are available under the act.

(1) Claim equal to the statutory sales price of the vessel. The Commission will in this case transfer the vessel without cash transaction and will execute a contract of sale to accompany the contract of settlement.

(2) Claim more than the statutory sales price. The Commission will in this case transfer the vessel and will execute a contract of sale. The balance of the amount of the claim will be handled by the settling agency as part of the consummation of settlement of the whole claim.

(3) Claim less than the statutory sales price. The Commission will in this case transfer the vessel and execute a contract of sale. If the application for purchase accompanying the application for transfer of the vessel in settlement requests mortage aid with respect to the excess of the statutory sales price over the claim, provided the claim exceeds the required down payment, and such application is approved by the Commission, a preferred mortage will be executed covering such excess. If the claim does not cover the down payment required on the vessel, the claimant will be required to arrange for the necessary additional down payment.

In all cases the Commission's action will be predicated upon the execution of instruments for the release of the claims satisfactory to the settling agency.

If more than one vessel is applied for in connection with the settlement of the claim, then in all cases the amount thereof to be applied toward the purchase of each vessel shall be indicated in the application and shall be subject to the approval of the Commission.

§ 299.42 Transfer of another vessel for a vessel constructed in the United States since January 1, 1937, which has been taken for use by the United States—(a) Application. Anyone who owns a vessel that was constructed in the United States after January 1, 1937, and which was taken by the United States for use in any manner and has not been redelivered may make application to the Commission for the transfer to him of another built vessel of comparable type in lieu of such vessel. The application to receive consideration must be substantially in the form prescribed by the Commission in § 299.85. Three executed copies and fifteen conformed copies of the application must be filed with the Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Items or parts of items in the application which are inapplicable may be omitted. If any information called for by an applicable item is not furnished, an explanation of the omission shall be given. Detailed descriptions of exhibits need not be given. The applicant may furnish such relevant information as it may desire, in addition to that specified in the form.

(b) Amendment of application. Such application may be amended at any time before the Commission has acted upon it. Three executed copies and fifteen conformed copies of the amendment must be filed with the Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Amendments involving substitution of a different vessel for the vessel applied for, unless promptly made at the written request of the Commission, shall be effective as of the filing date of the amendment. All other timely amendments (including amendments involving a substitution for the vessel applied for when made at the request of the Commission) shall be effective as of the filing date of the original application. Any information called for by the Commission from time to time shall be furnished as an amendment or amendments to the application. The applicant shall file from time to time as amendments any information necessary to keep current and correct, while the application is pending the information contained therein or furnished in connection therewith.

(c) Approval or disapproval by the Commission. If the Commission determines that, in its opinion, such transfer would aid in carrying out the policies of the act, the application may be granted. If the application is disapproved by the Commission, the Secretary will promptly advise the applicant.

(d) Contract for transfer. If the application is approved by the Commission, the Secretary will furnish the applicant five counterparts of a contract for transfer in exchange which shall be executed by the applicant and redelivery to the Secretary within fifteen (15) days of the date of its receipt by the applicant. Such contract for transfer in exchange shall provide for adjustments for depreciation and difference in design or speed and, to the extent applicable, adjustments provided in § 299.51 with respect to the applicant's vessel retained by the United States and such other adjustments and terms and conditions, including transfer of mortgage obligations in favor of the United States binding upon the applicant's vessel, as the Commission may prescribe. After the contract has been executed on behalf of the Commission, one of the counterparts will be sent to the applicant.

SUBPART E—ADJUSTMENT FOR PRIOR SALES TO CITIZENS

§ 299.51 Adjustment for prior sales to citizens—(a) Application. Within sixty days after the date of publication of the applicable prewar domestic costs in the FEDERAL REGISTER, any citizen of the United States, as defined in § 299.1 (h), who is entitled to an adjustment in the price of a vessel as provided for in paragraph (c) of this section may apply to the Commission for such adjustment. The application to receive consideration must be substantially in the form prescribed by the Commission in § 299.87 and shall be accompanied by applicant's own computation. Three executed copies and fifteen conformed copies of the application must be filed with the Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Items or parts of items in the application which are inapplicable may be omitted. If any information called for by an applicable item is not furnished, an explanation of the omission shall be given. Detailed descriptions of exhibits need not be given. The applicant may furnish such relevant information as it may desire, in addition to that specified in the form.

(b) Amendment of application. Such application may be amended at any time before the Commission has acted upon it. Three executed copies and fifteen conformed copies of the amendment must be filed with the Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Any information called for by the Commission from time to time shall be furnished as an amendment or amendments to the application. The applicant shall file from time to time as amendments any information necessary to keep current and correct, while the application is pending, the information contained therein or furnished in connection therewith.

(c) Persons entitled to adjustment. Any citizen of the United States, as defined in § 299.1 (h), who on March 8, 1946:

(1) Owned a vessel which he purchased from the Commission prior to such date and which was delivered by its builder after December 31, 1940; or

(2) Was a party to a contract with the Commission to purchase from the Commission a vessel, which had not yet been delivered to him; or

(3) Owned a vessel on account of which a construction-differential subsidy was paid, or agreed to be paid, by the Commission under section 504 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, and which was delivered by its builder after December 31, 1940; or

(4) Was a party to a contract with a shipbuilder for the construction for him of a vessel, which had not yet been delivered to him, and on account of which a construction-differential subsidy was agreed, prior to such date, to be paid by the Commission under section 504 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, shall, except as hereinafter provided, be entitled to an adjustment in the price of such vessel as provided in paragraph (a) of this section. No adjustment will be made in respect of any vessel the contract for the construction of which was made after September 2, 1945; under the provisions of Title V (including section 504) or Title VII of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended.

(d) Amount of adjustment. An adjustment will be made, as hereinafter provided, by treating the vessel as if it were being sold to the applicant on March 8, 1946, and not before that time. The amount of such adjustment will be determined as follows:

(1) The Commission will credit the applicant, for the purposes of subparagraph (8) of this paragraph, with the excess of all cash payments made upon the original purchase price of the vessel over 25 percentum of the statutory sales price of the vessel as of March 8, 1946. If such payment was less than 25 percentum of the statutory sales price of the vessel, the applicant will pay the difference to the Commission.

(2) The applicant's indebtedness under any mortgage to the United States with respect to the vessel will be adjusted.

(3) The adjusted mortgage indebtedness will be in an amount equal to the excess of the statutory sales price of the vessel as of March 8, 1946, over the sum of the cash payment retained by the United States under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph plus the readjusted trade-in allowance (determined under subparagraph (7)) with respect to any vessel exchanged by the applicant on the original purchase. The adjusted mortgage indebtedness will be payable in equal annual installments thereafter during the remaining life of such mortgage with interest on the portion of the statutory sales price remaining unpaid at the rate of three and one-half (3½%) percentum per annum.

(4) The Commission will credit the applicant, for the purposes of subparagraph (8) of this paragraph, with the excess, if any, of the sum of the cash payments made by the applicant upon the original purchase price of the vessel plus the readjusted trade-in allowance (determined under subparagraph (7)) over the statutory sales price of the vessel as of March 8, 1946, to the extent not credited under subparagraph (1).

(5) The Commission will also credit the applicant, for the purposes of subparagraph (8) of this paragraph, with an amount equal to interest at the rate of three and one-half (3½%) percentum per annum (for the period beginning with the date of the original delivery of the vessel to the applicant and ending with March 8, 1946), on the excess of the original purchase price of the vessel over the amount of any allowance originally allowed by the Commission to the applicant on the exchange of any vessel on such purchase; the amount of such credit first being reduced by any interest on the original mortgage indebtedness accrued up to such date of enactment and unpaid. Interest so accrued and unpaid will be cancelled.

(6) The applicant will credit the Commission, for the purposes of subparagraph (8) of this paragraph, with all amounts paid by the United States to him as charter hire for the bareboat use of the vessel, whether the vessel was under time or bareboat charter, under any charter party made prior to March 8, 1946, and any charter hire for such use accrued up to such date and unpaid shall be cancelled; and the Commission will credit the applicant for the purposes of subparagraph (8) with the amount that would have been paid by the United States to the applicant as charter hire for bareboat use of vessels exchanged by the applicant on the original purchase (for the period beginning with date on which the vessels so exchanged were delivered to the Commission and ending with March 8, 1946.)

(7) The allowance made to the applicant on any vessel exchanged by him on the original purchase will be readjusted so as to limit such allowance to the amount provided for under § 299.22.

(8) There will be subtracted from the sum of the credits in favor of the Commission under the foregoing provisions of this subparagraph the amount of any overpayments of Federal taxes by the applicant resulting from the application of paragraph (e) (1) of this section, and there will be subtracted from the sum of the credits in favor of the applicant under the foregoing provisions of this subparagraph the amount of any deficiencies in Federal taxes of the applicant resulting from the application of said paragraph (e) (1). If, after making such subtractions, the sum of the credits in favor of the applicant exceeds the sum of the credits in favor of the Commission, such excess will be paid by the Commission to the applicant. If, after making such subtractions, the sum of the credits in favor of the Commission exceeds the sum of the credits in favor of the applicant, such excess will be paid by the applicant to the Commission. Upon such payment by the Commission or the applicant, such overpayments will be treated as having been refunded and such deficiencies as having been paid.

For the purpose of this paragraph, the purchase price of a vessel on account of which a construction-differential subsidy was paid or agreed to be paid under section 504 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, will be the net cost of the vessel to the owner.

(e) Condition of adjustment. An adjustment will be made under this section only if the applicant enters into an agreement with the Commission binding upon the citizen-applicant and any affiliated interest to the effect that:

(1) Depreciation and amortization allowed or allowable with respect to the vessel up to March 8, 1946 for Federal tax purposes shall be treated as not having been allowable; amounts credited to the Commission under paragraph (d) (6) of this section shall be treated for Federal tax purposes as not having been received or accrued as income; amounts credited to the applicant under paragraph (d) (5) and (6) of this section shall be treated for Federal tax purposes as having been received and accrued as income in the taxable year in which falls March 8, 1946;

(2) The liability of the United States for use (exclusive of service, if any, required under the terms of the charter) of the vessel on or after March 8, 1946 under any charter party shall not exceed 15 percentum per annum of the statutory sales price of the vessel as of March 8, 1946; and the liability of the United States under any such charter party for loss of the vessel shall be determined on the basis of the statutory sales price as of March 8, 1946, depreciated to the date of loss at the rate of 5 percentum per annum; and

(3) In the event the United States, prior to the termination of the existing national emergency declared by the President on May 27, 1941, uses such vessel pursuant to a taking, or pursuant to a bareboat charter made, on or after March 8, 1946, the compensation to be paid to the purchaser, his receivers, and trustees, shall in no event be greater than 15 percentum per annum of the statutory sales price as of March 8, 1946.

(f) Method of adjustment. If the Commission finds that applicant is entitled to an adjustment, applicant will be notified of the adjusted purchase price determined by the Commission. Unless the applicant notifies the Commission to the contrary within 15 days following the date of receipt by the applicant of the Commission's determination of adjusted purchase price, this adjusted purchase price will be binding upon the applicant and it agrees to execute an addendum to its original contract to purchase, which addendum will be sent to him by the Commission.

SUBPART F—PREWAR DOMESTIC COSTS; STATUTORY SALES PRICES

2. Descriptions and prices of additional vessel types will be published in the near future as amendments to this subpart.

§ 299.56 Prewar domestic costs; statutory sales prices. The prewar domestic costs set forth in this section have been determined by the Commission pursuant to section 3 (c) of the act to be the amounts for which a standard vessel of the type specified could have been constructed (without its national defense features) in the United States under normal conditions relating to labor, materials, and other elements of cost, obtaining on or about January 1, 1941. In no case does the prewar domestic cost set forth in this section with respect to any type of vessel exceed 80% of the domestic war cost of a vessel of the same type. The unadjusted statutory sales prices set forth in this section have been determined by the Commission pursuant to section 3 (d) of the act.

[Docket No. G-714]

NEW YORK STATE NATURAL GAS CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

APRIL 19, 1946.

Notice is hereby given that on April 5, 1946, New York State Natural Gas Corporation ("Applicant"), a New York corporation having its principal office at 30 Rockefeller Plaza, Borough of Manhattan, City, County and State of New York, filed an application with the Federal Power Commission for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing Applicant (1) to acquire and operate the property and facilities of Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. and Cabot Gas Corporation, and (2) to operate its facilities to deliver gas to The Pavilion Natural Gas Company, Producers Gas Company, Southern Tier

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

Gas Corporation, Empire Gas and Fuel Company, Ltd., and Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation.

Applicant's description of project

Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. now sells and delivers natural gas at wholesale to Producers Gas Corporation in the towns of Genesee, Belmont, and Angelica in Allegany County, to Southern Tier Gas Corporation in the Town of Woodhull, Steuben County, New York, and to Cabot Gas Corporation at the Pennsylvania-New York State line, Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. also sells a small quantity of natural gas at wholesale to Empire Gas and Fuel Company, Ltd. in Allegany County, New York, to supply four domestic consumers in the Town of Wellsville, two domestic consumers in the Town of Alma and two domestic consumers in the Town of Willing. Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. does not distribute any gas at retail.

Cabot Gas Corporation now obtains its entire supply of gas from Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. Cabot Gas Corporation sells natural gas at wholesale to The Pavilion Natural Gas Company and distributes natural gas to some 315 domestic consumers located in the villages of Rossburg, Nume and Fillmore, Allegany County, and along the route of its fourteen inch pipe line in Allegany, Wyoming and Livingston Counties, New York.

Most of the gas sold and distributed as above described is purchased by Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. from Applicant under a wholesale contract dated December 9, 1943, New York State Natural Gas Corporation Rate Schedule FPC No. 19, which has been supplemented by several agreements having to do with exchange of gas and producing field operations.

Applicant has contracted with Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. and Cabot Gas Corporation (hereinafter referred to jointly as "Cabot") by an agreement dated February 21, 1946 (hereinafter called the "Cabot contract") to purchase for $800,000.00 in cash the real estate, land and land rights, mineral rights, leaseholds, rights of way, easements, buildings, structures, pipe lines, pumping, compressing and regulating equipment, gas well structures and equipment, meters, meter installations, furniture, fixtures, transportation, stores, shop, laboratory, communication, drilling, cleaning out and miscellaneous equipment and tools, physical properties, facilities, and contracts, rights and privileges, used in or relating to the natural gas business of Cabot in New York and Pennsylvania, excepting certain production properties known as the Wharton Properties which Cabot is retaining. The Cabot distribution properties in Livingston and Wyoming Counties, New York, consisting of pipe lines, service connections, meters, meter installations, regulators, appurtenant fittings and franchises are being sold by Cabot to The Pavilion Natural Gas Company. The Cabot companies and Applicant are negotiating for sale to a third part of the Cabot distribution properties and facilities in Allegany County, New York. Applicant does not propose to acquire or operate any distribution properties or business. The above stated price of $800,000 for the Cabot properties will be reduced by the amount for which the distribution properties are sold.

By Article I, section 4 of the Cabot contract, Applicant assumes the obligations of Cabot under certain described contracts, including the following contracts for the wholesale sale of natural gas:

Cabot Gas Corporation with The Pavilion Natural Gas Company, dated July 2, 1936, and Supplements dated January 7, 1937, September 23, 1937, January 2, 1942, April 14, 1942, May 22, 1942, June 16, 1942, and July 25, 1942, being Cabot Gas Corporation Rate Schedule FPC No. 1 and Supplements Nos. 1 to 7, inclusive;

Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. with Producers Gas Company, dated November 10, 1944, being Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. Rate Schedule FPC No. 19;

Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. with Southern Tier Gas Corporation, dated July 22, 1938, and Supplement dated May 31, 1941, being Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. Rate Schedule FPC No. 17 and Supplement No. 1 thereto;

An oral agreement dated October 22, 1937, between Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. and Empire Gas & Fuel Company, Ltd., reduced to writing and filed as Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. Rate Schedule FPC No. 2.

Applicant has made new contracts with The Pavilion Natural Gas Company, dated March 27, 1946, Southern Tier Gas Corporation, dated March 19, 1946, and with Empire Gas and Fuel Company, Ltd., dated April 4, 1946 for sale of gas to them. All three contracts will take effect with the consummation of the purchase of the Cabot properties and terminate November 1, 1964, or thereafter upon twelve months written notice.

Applicant has made a contract, dated February 21, 1946, with Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the "Rochester contract") to sell natural gas at wholesale to that company in such quantities, within the limitations of the contract, as buyer desires to use at Rochester, New York, for the purpose of replacing enriching oil now used in that corporation's production of water gas and for supplying certain consumers with natural gas in Scottsville and other points in the southern and western parts of Monroe County, New York, and counties adjacent thereto in which it may elect and be authorized to supply natural gas.

Applicant's statement with respect to proposed service, facilities and rates

Applicant proposes, upon acquisition of the Cabot properties, to operate the gas producing properties, to continue to purchase gas from local sources under the purchase contracts which Cabot has, to supplement that gas with gas obtained by Applicant from its present sources and to deliver gas at wholesale in the quantities and at the terms specified by contract to all wholesale customers now dependent upon Cabot for their gas supply or any part thereof.

Applicant also proposes to transport natural gas to the northern extremity of the pipe line system acquired from Cabot at the Monroe-Livingston County boundary line and there delive natural gas to Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation in accordance with the Rochester contract.

Except for gas to be delivered to Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation the proposal will not involve service to any other community than those now served with gas supplied by applicant. Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation is the only one of the above named distributing companies which is not rendering natural gas service now and there is no other gas company rendering any gas service in the franchise territory which it supplies.

Applicant does not propose to serve gas directly to any main line industrial customer.

Applicant's existing facilities, together with those being acquired from Cabot are adequate for the service proposed except that applicant must (1) install a connection at the Monroe-Livingston County line between the north end of the fourteen inch line acquired from Cabot and the south end of the fourteen inch line of Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation and a measuring station at that point, and (2) install a measuring station at Rossburg in the Town of Hume, Allegany County, for measuring gas to be delivered to the local distribution system. Applicant estimates that it can install said connection and both measuring stations for $7,000.00.

Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. now pays applicant 37½ cents per Mcf for the gas which it purchases. Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. sells gas to Producers Gas Corporation for 43 cents, to Southern Tier Gas Corporation for 50 cents, to Cabot Gas Corporation for 40 cents per Mcf and to Empire Gas and Fuel Company, Ltd., for its eight isolated domestic consumers for 20 cents per Mcf. Godfrey Cabot, Inc. also pays Cabot Gas Corporation a transportation charge of 2 cents per Mcf for gas delivered at Belmont and Angelica to Producers Gas Corporation. Cabot Gas Corporation sells gas to The Pavilion Natural Gas Company for 44 cents per Mcf.

The transaction for which approval is sought will terminate all of the above described purchases and sales of gas by Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. and Cabot Gas Corporation. Under the new contracts above referred to, Applicant will sell and make direct delivery of gas at wholesale for 43 cents per Mcf to The Pavilion Natural Gas Company, Southern Tier Gas Corporation, and Empire Gas and Fuel Company, Ltd. and will continue to sell gas to Producers Gas Company under the contract which it has with Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. The present distribution business of Cabot as Corporation in Wyoming, Livingston and Allegany Counties, New York, will be taken over by The Pavilion Natural Gas Company and otherwise, as stated above.

Applicant's statement with respect to necessity for proposed acquisition

Applicant can coordinate the operation of the Cabot properties, after they have been acquired, with the operation of its present pipeline and storage facilities in a manner not now possible. An adequate supply of natural gas can be obtained from Applicant's affiliate, Hope Natural Gas Company, and the Applicant believes and avers that the integrated operation of the combined facilities will enable it to render better and more economical service to the distributing companies and to the ultimate consumers than is now enjoyed by them. The same integrated operation will also enable Applicant to supply natural gas to Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation for the purpose of replacing enriching oil now used in that corporation's production of water gas and for supplying certain consumers in its territory with natural gas, and will insure a stable and economical supply of gas for said purposes.

Applicant's proposed plan of financing

Applicant proposes to finance the purchase of Cabot's properties with funds realized by issuing capital stock to Consolidated Natural Gas Company at par for cash.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of Part 67 of the provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act, and if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with the reasons for such request.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application of New York State Natural Gas Corporation should, on or before the 5th day of May, 1946, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

[Gen. Order 71]

Grocery Items in Hawaii

Authorization to Fix Community Ceiling Prices

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this order, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Order 9250 and Executive Order 9328, it is hereby ordered:

(a) Authority to fix community dollars-and-cents ceiling prices for food items—(1) Sales at retail. The Hawaii Territorial Office of the Office of Price Administration may, by order, fix community dollars-and-cents ceiling prices or other dollars-and-cents ceiling prices for sales at retail of any food items by all sellers in any area or locality within its jurisdiction. No person may sell or offer to sell any such food item at prices higher than the dollars-and-cents ceiling prices fixed by any order issued hereunder.

(2) Other sales. The Hawaii Territorial Office of the Office of Price Administration may, by order, fix dollars-and-cents ceiling prices for sales, other than at retail, in any area or locality within its jurisdiction of any food items.

(b) Posting—(1) Selling prices. Every person selling food items at retail must post his selling price for each food item for which a community dollars-and-cents ceiling price is fixed by any order issued hereunder. The selling price must be posted either on the item or at or near the place where the item is offered for sale.

(2) Ceiling prices. Every person selling food items at retail must also obtain from the Office of Price Administration and post, in a conspicuous place in the store or place of sale, a list of the community dollars-and-cents ceiling prices fixed hereunder for such food items, when that list is supplied by the Office of Price Administration. If the dollars-and-cents ceiling prices established hereunder do not replace the ceiling prices of a seller, he must continue to post his ceiling prices as required by any other applicable regulation.

(c) Taxes. Any tax upon or incident to the sale of any food item covered by any order issued hereunder, which the statute or ordinance imposing the tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting separately from the selling price, may be collected by the seller in addition to his selling price, if he states the tax separately.

(d) Indirect price increases. No person shall evade any of the provisions of any order issued hereunder by any stratagem, scheme or device. He must not, as a condition of selling any food, require a customer to buy anything else.

(e) Sales slips and receipts. Every person selling food items at retail must, if he has customarily given a sales slip, receipt or similar evidence of purchase, continue to do so. Furthermore, regardless of custom, every person must give any customer who asks for it a receipt showing the date of the sale, the name and address of the seller, the customer's name, the name of each food item sold (including the grade, weight, quantity, size and any other specification affecting the maximum price), and the price charged for the item.

(f) Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1, licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this order or any order issued hereunder. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

(g) Penalties. On and after the effective date of any order issued hereunder, any person who sells or offers to sell at a price higher than the ceiling price fixed by such order, or who otherwise violates any provisions of this order or any order issued hereunder, shall be subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. Also any person who in the course of trade or business buys at a price higher than the ceiling price fixed by any order issued hereunder is subject to the criminal penalties and civil enforcement actions provided for by that act.

(h) Force and effect of orders. Any order issued or action taken in accordance with this order shall have the same force and effect as if issued or taken by the Price Administrator.

(i) Geographical applicability. This order shall apply to the Territory of Hawaii.

(j) Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and in the applicable provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 373 (e. g. section 21 in the case of fresh fruits and vegetables), shall apply to the terms used herein.

This order shall become effective as of February 19, 1946.

Issued this 19th day of April 1946.

PAUL A. PORTER,
Administrator.

Barcalo Mfg. Co.

Adjustment of Ceiling Prices

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 15 and 16 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's ceiling prices. Barcalo Manufacturing Company, Buffalo, New York, may compute its adjusted ceiling prices for all articles of summer metal household furniture which it manufactures, as follows:

(1) For an article in its line during October 1941, the adjusted ceiling price is the highest price charged during that month to each class of purchaser increased by 18 per cent.

(2) For an article not in its line during October 1941, but which has a properly established ceiling price, in effect before the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the article's properly established ceiling price for the particular sale (exclusive of all permitted increases or adjustment charges) increased by the percentage determined in accordance with Note 3 in section 8 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119.

(3) For an article which is first offered for sale after the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the maximum price hereafter properly determined or established in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 188; and prices so fixed may not be increased under this order.

(4) The manufacturer's adjusted ceiling price fixed in accordance with this order is his new ceiling price if it is higher than his previously established ceiling price including all increases and adjustments otherwise authorized for him individually or for his industry.

(b) Reseller's ceiling prices. Resellers of an article which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

(1) A retailer who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 580, and a wholesaler who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 590, shall compute their ceiling prices in the manner provided by those regulations. However, if the supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, the reseller shall compute his ceiling prices under those regulations as they have been modified by Order No. 8 under § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(2) A reseller who determines his maximum resale prices under the General Maximum Price Regulation, and whose supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, shall compute his ceiling prices under that regulation as modified by Order No. 8 under § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

If his supplier's invoice does not state an "unadjusted maximum price", the reseller shall calculate his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage markup which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose, the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(i) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of article to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method, the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(3) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to the determination of ceiling prices for resales of articles covered by this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter, properly established under OPA regulations.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order, showing prices adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) All requests for adjustment of maximum prices not specifically granted by this order are hereby denied.

(f) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This order shall become effective on April 20, 1946.

Issued this 19th day of April 1946.

Administrator.

[Rev. SO 119, Order 169]

Rival Mfg. Co.

Adjustment of Ceiling Prices

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 15 and 16 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's ceiling prices. Rival Manufacturing Company, 2423 East 15th Street, Kansas City, Missouri, may compute its adjusted ceiling prices to apply to its sales of all juice extractors, which it manufactures, from February 28, 1946, as follows:

(1) For an article which has a properly established ceiling price in effect before the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the article's properly established ceiling price for the particular sale (exclusive of all permitted increases or adjustment charges) increased by 11 percent.

(2) For an article which is first offered for sale after the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the maximum price hereafter properly determined or established in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 188; and prices so fixed may not be increased under this order.

(3) The manufacturer's adjusted ceiling price fixed in accordance with this order is his new ceiling price if it is higher than his previously established ceiling price including all increases and adjustments otherwise authorized for him individually or for his industry.

(b) Resellers' ceiling prices. Resellers of an article which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

A reseller who determines his maximum resale price under the General Maximum Price Regulation shall calculate his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage markup which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(1) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(2) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(3) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of articles to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage mark-up is applied.

(4) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter properly established under OPA regulations.

(d) Change in resellers' margins. Resellers' maximum prices adjusted in accordance with this order are subject to further adjustments which may result from any change in resellers' margins which may be effected by the Office of Price Administration to obtain absorption by resellers of any industry-wide increase in manufacturers' maximum prices.

(e) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to sales covered by this order.

(f) Notification. At the time of or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order showing prices adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(g) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(h) This order shall become effective on the 20th day of April 1946.

Issued this 19th day of April 1946.

[MPR 188, Order 11]

METAL COMMERCIAL FURNITURE

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, it is ordered:

SECTION 1. Purpose of this order. Metal commercial furniture as set forth below, has been found to be a reconversion product in accordance with the standards set forth in § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

This order specifies a price increase factor to be used by manufacturers of this product; and it sets forth the specific pricing provisions which all sellers are to follow in calculating their maximum prices for resales of the product.

SEC. 2. Articles covered by this order. This order covers all articles of metal commercial furniture, fixtures, equipment and accessories covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, except those whose maximum prices were established under the "cost method" of Order No. 4332 or Revised Order No. 4332 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. "Metal commercial furniture" as used in this order means all furniture, fixtures, equipment and accessories set forth in Appendix C of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, except those listed below, when primarily designed and generally used for non-household purposes, and when made with metal which accounts for, at least, 50% of the total cost of materials used.

This order does not cover articles of scientific and professional equipment such as dentist's and physician's examination chairs and tables, and hospital operating-room equipment; cooking utensils; and business and store machines.

SEC. 3. Manufacturers' maximum prices.—(a) Determination of maximum prices. Manufacturers shall continue to determine their maximum prices for articles covered by this order under the same regulation and pricing provisions applicable before this order was issued.

(b) Increase factor. Manufacturers may increase, by 10.5 percent their maximum prices (exclusive of any permitted increases) properly established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 of the "comparability method" of Order No. 4332 of Revised Order No. 4332 under that regulation for sales to all persons except users. On sales by manufacturers direct to users, manufacturers may increase by 6.7 percent, their maximum prices (exclusive of any permitted increases) properly established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 or the "comparability method" of Order No. 4332 of Revised Order No. 4332 under that regulation.

(c) "Adjusted maximum price". A manufacturer's "adjusted maximum price" is the highest of the following amounts:

(1) His maximum price properly established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 of the "comparability method" of Order No. 4332 of Revised Order No. 4332 under that regulation increased by 10.5 percent in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) His maximum price properly established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, or Order No. 4332 or Revised Order No. 4332 under that regulation, plus any increases in that maximum price permitted by an OPA order [1] other than this order.

(3) His maximum price properly established under section 5 of Supplementary Order No. 118.

A manufacturer may make sales and deliveries at or below his adjusted maximum price computed under this section. Therefore, the term "selling price" as used in this order means the price at or below the adjusted maximum price at which the manufacturer makes a sale or delivery.

(d) "Unadjusted maximum price." In order to provide his purchasers for resale with the basis for determining their maximum prices under the applicable regulation, the manufacturer must state an "unadjusted maximum price" on his invoice. This section explains how he computes that "unadjusted maximum price."

A manufacturer finds his "unadjusted maximum price" for any article covered by this order which he sells at a maximum price adjusted under this order or any other adjustment provision or order, as follows:

(1) If his selling price for the article is not more than 10.5 percent above its properly established maximum price to a particular class of purchaser, exclusive of all permitted increases, his unadjusted maximum price to that class of purchaser is that properly established maximum price exclusive of all permitted increases.

Example of how a manufacturer finds his "unadjusted maximum price" when his selling price is not more than 10.5 percent above his previously established maximum price. A manufacturer has a properly established maximum price, exclusive of all permitted increases, of $30.00 for a metal filing cabinet. Although he may, under this order increase that price by 10.5 percent or up to $33.50, his actual selling price is only $32.50. Since his selling price is not more than 10.5 percent above $30.00 (his properly established maximum price exclusive of all permitted increases) the figure which he shows on his invoice as his "unadjusted maximum price" is $30.00.

(2) If his selling price for the article is more than 10.5 percent above its properly established maximum price to a particular class of purchaser, exclusive of any permitted increases, he finds his unadjusted maximum price to that class of purchaser as follows:

Step 1. He determines the percentage amount by which his actual selling price exceeds his properly established maximum price, exclusive of all permitted increases.

Step 2. He deducts 10.5 percentage points from the percentage found in Step 1.

Step 3. He adds to his maximum price, exclusive of all permitted increases, the percentage amount found in Step 2. The resulting amount is his "unadjusted maximum price".

Example of how a manufacturer finds his "unadjusted maximum price" when his selling price is more than 10.5 percent above his previously established maximum price. A manufacturer has a properly established maximum price, exclusive of all permitted increases, of $30.00 for a metal filing cabinet. He has received an order under Revised Supplementary Order No. 119 permitting him to increase his maximum prices by 16 percent or $4.80 resulting in a maximum price of $34.80. However, his actual selling price on a particular sale is only $33.75. The steps by which he finds his "unadjusted maximum price" are as follows:

Step 1. His actual selling price is $3.75 above his maximum price exclusive of all permitted increases. This he finds to be 12.5 percent above that maximum price.

Step 2. He deducts 10.5 percentage points from 12.5 percent, and the result is 2 percent.

Step 3. He adds 2 percent to his maximum price exclusive of all permitted increases of $30.00, or 60¢. The "unadjusted maximum price" which he shows on his invoice for that sale is therefore $30.60.

(3) If a manufacturer's new maximum price for a particular article was properly established under section 5 of Supplementary Order No. 118, he first finds a price exclusive of all permitted increases, by the following steps:

Step 1. He finds the increase factor permitted under section 4 of Supplementary Order No. 118 on his most comparable 1941 article (which he used in calculating his maximum price under section 5 of that order), by dividing the new maximum price of that comparable article by its maximum price in effect before Supplementary Order No. 118 was issued.

Step 2. He divides his new maximum price for the article priced under section 5 of Supplementary Order No. 118, by that increase factor.

The result is the figure he uses as the properly established maximum price (exclusive of all permitted increases) in calculating his "unadjusted maximum price" under subparagraphs (1) or (2) above, whichever is applicable.

SEC. 4. Adjusted maximum prices of resellers. A reseller finds his "adjusted" and "unadjusted maximum prices" as follows:

(a) If the reseller had a maximum price for the article established before April 19, 1946 his "adjusted maximum price" is the total of his previously established maximum price, exclusive of all permitted increases, plus the dollar-and-cent difference between his supplier's "unadjusted maximum price" and his actual invoice cost as they appear on his purchase invoice.

(b) A reseller who cannot find his adjusted maximum price under paragraph (a) above and who delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942 an article which meets the definition of "most comparable commodity" contained in § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that it need not be currently offered for sale, shall find his adjusted maximum price according to the method and procedure set forth in that section by the following steps:

Step 1. He determines the mark-up which he had on that comparable article.

Step 2. He finds the price which results from applying that mark-up to his supplier's unadjusted maximum price as it appears on his purchase invoice for the article being priced.

Step 3. His "adjusted maximum price" is the total of the amount found in Step 2 and the dollar-and-cent difference between his supplier's unadjusted maximum price and his actual invoice cost.

The determination of a maximum resale price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration. However, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for on OPA Form No. 620-759, with regard to how he determines his maximum resale price. These records shall be kept available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(c) If a reseller cannot determine his adjusted maximum price by either of the methods set forth above, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of his adjusted maximum price under § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, in accordance with the provisions of that section. The application shall, in addition to the information specifically required by that section, also give the following information:

(1) His supplier's unadjusted maximum price as it appears on his purchase invoice.

(2) His actual invoice cost.

An adjusted maximum price established in this way will be in line with reseller's adjusted maximum price established generally under this order.

(d) A reseller may make sales and deliveries at prices at or below his adjusted maximum prices computed in this way.

SEC. 5. Wholesalers' unadjusted maximum prices. In order to provide his purchasers for resale with the basis for determining their maximum resale prices the wholesaler must state an "unadjusted maximum price" on his invoice. This section explains how he computes that "unadjusted maximum price."

A wholesaler finds his "unadjusted maximum price" for any article covered by this order as follows:

(a) If the wholesaler had a maximum price for the article established before April 19, 1946, his "unadjusted maximum price" is that properly established maximum price, exclusive of all permitted increases.

(b) A wholesaler who cannot find his unadjusted maximum price under paragraph (a) above and who delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942 an article which meets the definition of "most comparable commodity" contained in § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that it need not be currently offered for sale, shall find his "unadjusted maximum price" according to the method and procedure set forth in that section by applying the same percentage markup which he had on that comparable article to his supplier's unadjusted maximum price as it appears on his purchase invoice.

(c) If the wholesaler cannot determine his unadjusted maximum price by either of the methods set forth above, he shall, at the time he applies for an adjusted maximum price to the Office of Price Administration under section 4 (c) of this order also apply for the establishment of an unadjusted maximum price. Unless such an unadjusted maximum price is established, he may not make sales of the article even though his adjusted maximum price is properly established.

SEC. 6. Invoice to purchasers for resale. (a) Any person making a sale of an article covered by this order to a purchaser for resale must furnish such purchasers for resale with an invoice containing the following:

(1) His name and address and the date of the invoice.

(2) The purchaser's name and address.

(3) The model designation of the article and such other description as may be necessary to identify the article on his pricing records.

(4) His "unadjusted maximum price." (As defined in section 3 or 5, whichever is applicable.)

(5) The actual selling price of the article.

(6) The nature and amount of any additional charges.

(7) Terms of sale.

(8) The following notice:

NOTICE OF CEILING PRICES

If you resell the articles for which unadjusted maximum prices are shown on this invoice you must find your resale ceiling prices under section 4 of Order No. 11 under § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation 188.

If a seller who must furnish the invoice described in this paragraph fails to state separately both the "unadjusted maximum price" and the selling price, or fails to identify the "unadjusted maximum price" his maximum price for that sale is his properly established maximum price exclusive of all adjustment charges or permitted increases.

(b) Every seller must keep available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration a copy of each such invoice for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(c) The provisions of this section supersede all provisions with respect to the furnishing of invoices contained in any order previously issued by the Office of Price Administration applicable only to the products of an individual manufacturer covered by this order.

SEC. 7. Manufacturers' reports. (a) On or after May 8, 1946, before delivering or offering for delivery an article covered by this order at a maximum price increased under this order or under any other adjustment provision or order, every manufacturer shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. That report shall set forth the following:

(1) The date of the report.

(2) The manufacturer's name and address.

(3) The following information, unless already filed:

A copy of the price list, if any, which the manufacturer issued to the trade and which was effective during March 1942, and a statement of the class or classes of purchasers to which the prices shown thereon were applicable. (If this information has already been filed, the report shall give the date of filing and the location of the Office of Price Administration office with which it was filed.)

(4) A list of all articles of metal commercial furniture as defined in section 2, produced by the manufacturer showing for each article:

(i) His properly established maximum price (exclusive of all permitted increases) to each class of purchaser to whom he customarily makes sales. If his new maximum prices were established under section 5 of Supplementary Order No. 118, he shall report the prices exclusive of all permited increases computed under section 3 (d) of this order.

(ii) His adjusted maximum price to each class of purchaser to whom he customarily makes sales, stating the adjustment provision under which the adjusted maximum price was determined. (For example, Order No. — under § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation 188, Supplementary Order No. 118, Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, Orders A–2 or A–3 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188).

(iii) The pricing provision under which his maximum price exclusive of all permitted increases was established, the date of approval if any, the section number of the regulation, and the order number, if any.

(b) If a manufacturer fails to file the information required by subparagraph (4) above with respect to any particular article, his maximum price for any sale of that article is his properly established maximum price for the article exclusive of all adjustment charges or permitted increases.

(c) Every manufacturer must keep available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration a copy of each report filed under paragraph (a) of this section for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

SEC. 8. Terms of sale. Every seller of an article covered by this order must maintain all of his terms, discounts, allowances, and other price differentials in effect during March 1942, or which have been subsequently properly established under Office of Price Administration regulations or orders.

SEC. 9. Relationship of this order to other orders or regulations—(a) Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. The provisions of this order supersede the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 only to the extent that they are inconsistent with the provisions of that regulation.

(b) Supplementary Order No. 118, Revised Supplementary Order No. 119 and 133, and Orders A–2 or A–3 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. If a manufacturer is eligible for an adjustment under Supplementary Orders No. 118 or 133, Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, or Second Revised Order A–3 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, he may nevertheless adjust his maximum prices under this order instead of under those provisions.

Manufacturers may continue to adjust their maximum prices in accordance with any increases permitted under Supplementary Orders Nos. 118, 119 or 133, Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, or Orders A–2 or A–3 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, instead of the increase factor specified in section 3.

In all cases, however, the manufacturer must furnish the invoice required by section 6 of this order. The provisions of that section supersede any contrary provisions contained in any individual order issued to the manufacturer.

SEC. 10. Revision of maximum prices. Any maximum price adjusted under this order may be revised by the Price Administrator whenever he determines that such adjusted maximum price is not in line with the level of October 1941 prices increased by 10.5 percent, giving due consideration to the manufacturer's customary price relation to other manufacturers in the industry.

SEC. 11. Revocation or amendment. This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

SEC. 12. Effective date. This order shall become effective on April 19, 1946.

NOTE: The reporting and record keeping provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942, as amended.

Issued this 19th day of April 1946.

Administrator.

(g) Reporting provisions; manufacturers. Any manufacturer who increases his maximum price as permitted under this section shall within 5 days after such a maximum price has been increased submit to the Prefabrication and Building Equipment Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. a report stating the following:

(1) Plate number or other identification for each commodity whose price has been increased.

(2) Its maximum price in effect on the "base date".

MULLINS MFG. CORP.

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 15 and 16 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's ceiling prices. Mullins Manufacturing Corporation, Salem, Ohio, may compute its adjusted ceiling prices for all articles of Metal Wall and Base Kitchen Cabinets, which it manufactures, as follows:

(1) For an article in its line during October 1941, the adjusted ceiling price is the highest price charged during that month to each class of purchaser increased by 13 per cent.

(2) For an article not in its line during October 1941, but which has a properly established ceiling price, in effect before the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the article's properly established ceiling price for the particular sale (exclusive of all permitted increases or adjustment charges) increased by the percentage determined in accordance with "Note 3" in section 8 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119.

(3) For an article which is first offered for sale after the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the maximum price hereafter properly determined or established in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 188; and prices so fixed may not be increased under this order.

(4) The manufacturer's adjusted ceiling price fixed in accordance with this order is his new ceiling price if it is higher than his previously established ceiling price including all increases and adjustments otherwise authorized for him individually or for his industry.

(b) Resellers' ceiling prices. Resellers of an article which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

(1) A retailer who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 580, and a wholesaler who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 590, shall compute their ceiling prices in the manner provided by those regulations. However, if the supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, the reseller shall compute his ceiling prices under those regulations as they have been modified by Order No. 8 under § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(2) A reseller who determines his maximum resale price under the General Maximum Price Regulation, and whose supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, shall compute his ceiling prices under that regulation as modified by Order No. 8 under § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

If his supplier's invoice does not state an "unadjusted maximum price", the reseller shall calculate his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage markup which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose, the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(i) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of article to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method, the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(3) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to the determination of ceiling prices for resales of articles covered by this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter, properly established under OPA regulations.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order, showing prices adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) All requests for adjustment of maximum prices not specifically granted by this order are hereby denied.

(f) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This order shall become effective on the 19th day of April 1946.

JAMES G. ROGERS, Jr.,
Acting Administrator.

[Region II Rev. Order G-41 Under RMPR 122]

SOLID FUELS IN HOWARD, CARROLL, HARFORD, CECIL, BALTIMORE AND ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTIES, MD.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, it is ordered:

(a) What this order does—(1) Dealers' maximum prices: area covered. If you are a dealer in solid fuels, this order fixes the maximum prices which you may charge, and if you are a purchaser in the course of trade or business, this order fixes the maximum prices which you may pay, for certain sizes and quantities of "Pennsylvania Anthracite" and "Virginia Anthracite", and for certain sizes, quantities and types of bituminous coal delivered to or at any point in the zones comprising State of Maryland—Coal Area II. That area consists of five zones, as follows:

Zone 1. Zone 1 includes Anne Arundel County, except election district 5.

Zone 2. Zone 2 includes Howard County.

Zone 3. Zone 3 includes Carroll County and election districts 4, 5, and 6 of Baltimore County.

Zone 4. Zone 4 includes Harford County and election districts 7, 8, 10 and 11 of Baltimore County.

Zone 5. Zone 5 includes Cecil County.

(2) Schedules of prices, charges and discounts. The applicable prices, authorized charges, and required discounts, from which you shall determine the maximum prices for designated kinds, sizes and quantities of coal delivered within Zones 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 are set forth in Schedules I, II, III, IV and V, respectively.

(3) To what sales this order applies. If you are a dealer in solid fuels, you are bound by the prices, charges and discounts, and by all other provisions of this order for all deliveries within Zones 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5.

You shall determine the maximum price for "Direct-Delivery" sales, as hereinafter defined, by reference to the appropriate Schedule of this order covering the zone to which delivery is made, whether or not you are located in one of the five zones.

You shall determine your maximum price for a "Yard" sale, as hereinafter defined, by reference to the appropriate Schedule of this order covering the zone in which the purchaser takes physical possession or custody of the solid fuel.

(b) What this order prohibits. Regardless of any contract or other obligations, you shall not:

(1) Sell or, in the course of trade or business, buy solid fuels of the kinds, sizes, and in the quantities set forth in the Schedules herein, at prices higher than the maximum prices computed as set forth in paragraph (c) of this order, although you may charge, pay or offer less than maximum prices.

(2) Obtain any price higher than the applicable maximum price by—

(i) Changing the discounts authorized herein, or (ii) Charging for any service which is not expressly requested by the buyer, or

(iii) Charging for any service for which a charge is not specifically authorized by this order, or

(iv) Charging a price for any service higher than the Schedule price for such service, or

(v) Using any tying agreement or requiring that the buyer purchase anything in addition to the fuel requested by him, except that a dealer may comply with requirements or standards with respect to deliveries which have been or may be issued by an agency of the United States Government.

(vi) Using any other device by which a higher price than the applicable maximum price is obtained, directly or indirectly.

(c) How to compute maximum prices. You must figure your maximum prices as follows:

(1) Use the schedule which covers your sale. (Schedule 1 applies to sales on a "Direct-Delivery" basis, "Yard Sales", and sales of Virginia Anthracite in 19 lb. paper bags, within Zone 1. In like manner, Schedules II, III, IV, and V apply to "Direct-Delivery" sales and "Yard Sales" in Zones 2, 3, 4, and 5, respectively. You will find Schedule 1 in paragraph (d), Schedule II in paragraph (e), Schedule III in paragraph (f), Schedule IV in paragraph (g), and Schedule V in paragraph (h)).

(2) Take the dollars-and-cents figure given in the applicable table of the applicable Schedule, for the kind, size and quantity of solid fuel you are selling.

(3) Deduct from that figure the amount of the discount which you are required to give, as specified therein. Where a discount is required, you must state it separately on your invoice.

(4) If, at your purchaser's request, you actually render him a service for which this order authorizes a charge, you may add to the figure obtained as above no more than the maximum authorized service charge. You must state that charge separately on your invoice. The only authorized service charges are those provided for in the Schedules.

(5) If you deliver a fraction of a net ton, but not less than one-half ton, and the applicable Schedule provides a discount on the basis of one ton or one-half ton, you shall allow a proportionate discount, making your calculation to the nearest full cent. For example, if you are required to deduct 50¢ per ton for cash payment, you shall deduct 38¢ for three-quarters of a ton.

(6) If you deliver a fraction of a net ton, but not less than one-half ton, and the applicable Schedule provides a service charge on the basis of one ton, you shall add no more than a proportionate service charge, making your calculation to the nearest full cent. For example, if the transaction permits a service charge of 75¢ per ton, you shall not add more than 56¢ for performance of that service in connection with the delivery of three-quarters of a ton.

(d) Schedule I. Schedule I establishes a specific maximum price for certain kinds, sizes and quantities of solid fuel, delivered to or at any point within Zone 1. There is a separate table of prices for "Direct-Delivery" sales, "Yard Sales", and sales of Virginia Anthracite in 19 lb. paper bags.

However, you may add to the prices set out in said Schedules I and II of Second Revised Order No. G-15, 50¢ per net ton for sales in quantities of more than ½ ton, and 25¢ for sales in quantities of ½ ton or less.

(h) Schedule V. Schedule V establishes a specific maximum price for certain kinds, sizes and quantities of solid arately state the amount of this treatment charge if you clearly indicate on the invoice that the coal is so treated. Provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to sales of solid fuels in less than ¼ ton lots, unless requested by the purchaser.

(k) Commingling. If one size or kind of coal is sold commingled with another size or kind of coal, the maximum price for the combination shall be the maximum price established in this order for the smallest of the sizes or for the least expensive kind of coal so commingled, whichever is lower, whether the sale be a "Delivered Sale" or "Yard Sale", except in the following situation: Where a purchaser requests that two or more sizes or kinds of fuels be commingled in one delivery, then, and in that event, if these sizes and kinds are separately weighed at the point of loading, the dealer may commingle those sizes and kinds in the truck or other vehicle, in which the delivery is made. The price for coal so commingled shall be calculated on the basis of the applicable per net ton price for each size and kind in the combination, and the invoice shall separately state the price, so determined, for the quantity of each size and kind in the combination.

(l) Ex Parte 148; freight rate increase. Since the Ex Parte 148 Freight Rate increase has been rescinded by the Interstate Commerce Commission, dealers' freight rates are the same as those of December 1941. Therefore, you may not increase any Schedule price on account of freight rates.

(m) Addition of increase in supplier's maximum prices prohibited. You may not increase the specific maximum prices established by this order to reflect in whole or in part, any subsequent increase to you in your supplier's maximum price for the same fuel. The specific maximum prices already reflect increases to you in your supplier's maximum prices occurring up to the effective date of this order. If increases in your supplier's maximum prices should occur after such date, as the result of any amendment to or revision of a maximum price regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration governing sales and deliveries made by such suppliers, the Regional Administrator will, if he then deems it to be warranted, take appropriate action to amend this order to reflect such increases.

(n) Taxes. If you are a dealer subject to this order you may collect, in addition to the specific maximum prices established herein, provided you state it separately, the amount of the Federal tax upon the transportation of property imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 actually paid or incurred by you, or any amount equal to the amount of such tax paid by any of your prior suppliers and separately stated and collected from you by the supplier from whom you purchased. On sales to the United States or any agency thereof, or to the State of Maryland or any political subdivision thereof, you need not state this tax separately.

(o) Adjustable pricing. You may not make a price adjustable to a maximum price which wil be in effect at some time after delivery of the solid fuel has been completed; but the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

(p) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this order may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that the petition shall be filed with the Regional Administrator and acted upon by him.

(q) Right of amendment or revocation. The Regional Administrator or the Price Administrator may amend, revoke or rescind this order, or any provision thereof, at any time.

(r) Applicability of other regulations. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you are governed by the licensing provisions of Licensing Order 1. Licensing Order 1 provides, in brief, that a license is required of all persons making sales for which maximum prices are established. A license is automatically granted. It is not necessary to apply for the license. The license may be suspended for violations in connection with the sale of any commodity for which maximum prices are established. If your license is suspended, you may not sell any such commodity during the period of suspension.

(s) Records. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall preserve, keep, and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, a record of every sale of solid fuel hereunder, showing the date, the name and address of the buyer, if known, the per net ton price charged, and the solid fuel sold. The solid fuel shall be identified in the manner in which it is described in the order. The record shall also state separately each service rendered and the charge made for it.

(t) Posting of maximum prices; sales slips and receipts. (1) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall post all your maximum prices (as set forth in the applicable schedule or schedules of this order) in your place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public.

(2) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall, except for a sale of less than ½ ton, give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt showing your name and address, the kind, size, and quantity of coal sold to him, the date of the sale or delivery and the price charged, separately stating the amount, if any, of the required discounts which must be deducted from, and the authorized service charges and the taxes, which may be added to, the specific maximum prices prescribed herein.

In the case of all other sales, you shall give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt containing the information described in the foregoing paragraph, if requested by such purchaser or if, during December 1941, you customarily gave purchasers such sales slips or receipts.

(u) Enforcement. (1) Persons violating any provision of this order are subject to civil and criminal penalties, including suits for treble damages, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this order are urged to communicate with the Maryland District Office of the Office of Price Administration, or with the Price Panel of the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board.

On January 22, 1946 this Commission issued a notice of filing and notice of and order for hearing in the above-captioned matters filed under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. That order (Holding Company Act Release No. 6379) directed that a hearing be held on February 4, 1946, regarding a filing of Cities Service Power & Light Company (Power & Light), a subsidiary of Cities Service Company, both registered holding companies, and its subsidiaries, the Ohio Public Service Company (Public Service), The Marion-Reserve Power Company (Marion-Reserve), and Ohio River Power, Inc. (Power Company), which proposed a comprehensive plan for refinancing Public Service and its two subsidiaries, Marion-Reserve and Power Company.

Notice is hereby given that Power & Light, Marion-Reserve, and Power Company have filed an amendment to their original filings. This amendment is primarily concerned with the elimination from the original proposals of the merger of Marion-Reserve and Power Company into Public Service and the exchange of the outstanding preferred stocks of Public Service and Marion-Reserve held by others than Power & Light for shares of 4% cumulative preferred stock to be issued by Public Service as the surviving company.

All interested persons are referred to the said amendment which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of transactions therein proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

Public Service proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding provisions of Rule U–50, $32,000,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds—% Series due 1976, the interest rate and the price to Public Service are to be determined by competitive bidding.

Public Service proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding provisions of Rule U–50, $5,500,000 principal amount of its Serial Notes due 1947 through 1956, the interest rate is to be determined by competitive bidding and the price to Public Service is to be the principal amount thereof.

Public Service proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding provisions of Rule U–50, 156,300 shares of its $100 par value—% cumulative preferred stock, the dividend rate and the price to Public Service are to be determined by competitive bidding.

The net proceeds from the sale of the aforementioned securities, together with other company funds, to the extent needed, exclusive of accrued interest and dividends, and after allowance for total expenses payable by Public Service are to be applied as follows:

(a) To the redemption of $28,900,000 principal amount of the First Mortgage Bonds, 4% Series due 1962, of Public Service (exclusive of interest) at 104½% of the principal amount: $30,128,250.00.

(b) To the redemption of $320,000 principal amount of Serial Notes (4% due serially to August, 1947) of Public Service (exclusive of interest) at 102% of principal amount: $326,400.00.

(c) To the redemption of $614,000 principal amount of promissory notes (2⅞% due serially to January 1948) of Public Service (exclusive of interest) at 101% of principal amount: $620,140.00.

(d) To the payment of $6,836,441.36 principal amount (as at December 31, 1945) of the 4% promissory note dated May 1942 of Power Company, due in installments to May 1957 (exclusive of interest): $6,944,901.22.

(e) To the redemption of $15,161,400 aggregate par value of First Preferred Stock of Public Service and $3,230,600 par value of preferred stock of Marion-Reserve at the redemption prices applicable thereto (exclusive of accrued dividends): $20,307,715.00.

Total: $58,327,406.22.

In addition, the net proceeds will be applied to the payment of the expenses incurred in connection with such redemption, including overlapping interest and dividends.

Public Service proposes to issue and sell to Power & Light $5,208,300 aggregate par value of common stock for $5,000,000 in cash and $208,300 par value of its outstanding preferred stock to be surrendered by Power & Light and retired. The cash proceeds therefrom not required to retire any of the outstanding securities as aforementioned, will be held in the treasury of Public Service for general corporate purposes.

Public Service proposes to authorize the new preferred stock and to change each share of its outstanding common stock and of its authorized common stock of $100 par value, into 20 shares of common stock of $5 par value by amending its articles of incorporation.

Marion-Reserve and Power Company proposes to join in the mortgage securing the bonds to be issued and sold as aforesaid in consideration of the payment by Public Service of the amount required to redeem the preferred stock of Marion-Reserve and the 4% promissory note of Power Company as set forth above. Thereafter, it is proposed that Marion-Reserve and Power Company be liquidated and all of their assets transferred to Public Service.

Power & Light propose to pledge the common stock of Public Service to be acquired as aforesaid with The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, as custodian, under the custodian agreement dated March 15, 1944, as security for the bank loan notes of Power & Light in accordance with the terms of the said notes and of the loan agreement dated January 5, 1944.

Public Service proposes, pending consummation of the transactions above described, to provide funds to enable Power Company to pay expenses and costs becoming due and payable for capital expenditures by purchasing, with treasury funds, shares of common stock of Power Company.

The filing has designated sections 6, 7, 9, 10, and 12 of the act and Rules U–42, U–43, U–44, and U–50 as being applicable to the proposed transactions. It is stated in the filing that the issuance and sale by Public Service of the bonds, notes, and preferred stock will be solely for the purpose of financing its business and will be expressly authorized by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the hearing be reconvened with respect to the matters set forth in said applications and declarations, as amended, and that the transactions therein proposed should not be granted or permitted to become effective except pursuant to further order of this Commission:

It is ordered, That a hearing on said applications and declarations, as amended, under the applicable provisions of said act and the rules of the Commission promulgated thereunder be held at 11:00 a. m., e. s. t., on the 24th day of April 1946, at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. On such date, the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. Any person desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in these proceedings shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before April 22, 1946, his request or application therefor as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That Robert Reeder, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by such filing, particular attention will be directed at such hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the proposed issue and sale of securities by Public Service is solely for the purpose of financing the business of said company and has been expressly authorized by the State Commission of the state in which it is organized and doing business.

2. Whether the terms and conditions of the securities proposed to be issued are detrimental to the public interest and the interest of investors or consumers.

3. Whether the proposed alteration of the priorities, preferences and other rights of the holders of securities of Public Service comply with the applicable provisions and requirements of section 7 of the act.

4. Whether the proposed acquisition of shares of common stock of Public Service by Power and Light meets the applicable statutory standards of sections 9 and 10 of the act.

5. Whether the fees, commissions or other remunerations to be paid in connection with the proposed transactions are reasonable.

6. Whether the accounting entries to be made in connection with the proposed transactions are proper and in accordance with sound accounting principles.

7. Whether it is necessary to impose any terms or conditions to ensure compliance with the standards of the act.

8. Generally, whether the proposed transactions comply with all of the applicable provisions of the act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

It is further ordered, That notice of said hearing is hereby given to the applicants-declarants and to all other persons; said notice to be given to Cities Service Power & Light Company, The Ohio Public Service Company, The Marion-Reserve Power Company, Ohio River Power, Inc., Federal Power Commission, and the Public Utilities Commission of the State of Ohio, by registered mail, and to all other persons by general release of this Commission, distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the act, and by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

KINGS COUNTY LIGHTING CO. ET AL

NOTICE OF FILING ORDER RECONVENING PROCEEDINGS AND ORDER FOR HEARING IN CONSOLIDATED PROCEEDINGS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 18th day of April 1946.

In the matter of Kings County Lighting Company, File No. 54–129; Kings County Lighting Company, Long Island Lighting Company, File No. 59–80.

Kings County Lighting Company ("Kings"), a subsidiary of Long Island Lighting Company ("Long Island"), a registered holding company, having heretofore filed, pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), a plan for the revision of its capitalization (designated as File No. 54–129); and

The Commission having heretofore instituted a proceeding (designated as File No. 59–80) under section 11 (b) (2) of the act directed to Long Island and Kings in order to determine whether voting power is unfairly and inequitably distributed among the security holders of Kings and whether an appropriate order should be entered pursuant to said section; and

It appearing that the proceedings with respect to the plan filed by Kings under section 11 (e) of the act and the proceedings instituted under section 11 (b) (2) of the act were consolidated, and that hearings in the consolidated proceedings were held from time to time, and that the hearings are now in recess subject to call:

Notice is hereby given that Kings has now filed, pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act, an amended plan for the revision of its capitalization (designated as File No. 54–129). The stated purposes of the amended plan are to (a) arrange the financial structure of Kings so that its dividend requirements will be brought into proper relation to its earning power, (b) effect a fair and equitable distribution of voting power among its security holders, and (c) reduce its capital so as to create a capital surplus to be used for adjustments of its accounts.

All interested persons are referred to said amended plan, which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a full statement of the transactions and terms proposed therein which may be summarized as follows:

Kings has outstanding $4,200,000 principal amount of 3⅛% First Mortgage Bonds due 1975; 17,871 shares of $100 par value series B 7% cumulative preferred stock; 1,129 shares of $100 par value series C 6% cumulative preferred stock; 25,000 shares of $100 par value series D 5% cumulative preferred stock; and 50,000 shares of no par value common stock having a value for capital purposes of $40 per share. Long Island owns 48,868 shares (97.736%) of the common stock and no other securities of Kings. As of February 28, 1946, cumulative dividend arrearages on the preferred stocks aggregated $672,145.78, equivalent to $18.316 on the series B 7% stock, $15.70 per share on the series C 6% stock, and $13.083 per share on the series D 5% stock.

The plan proposes that Kings continue to have outstanding the $4,200,000 principal amount of 3⅛% First Mortgage Bonds due 1975, but that its capital structure be revised so that there will be outstanding 44,000 shares of $50 par value 4% cumulative preferred stock, having an aggregate par value of $2,200,000; and 440,000 shares of no par value common stock (with a stated value of $5 per share), having an aggregate stated value of $2,200,000. In connection with such reduction in the capitalization, there will be created an unearned (capital) surplus of $1,808,516 which will be used solely for the purpose of making such adjustments in the accounts of Kings as may be specified by its Board of Directors and directed by the Public Service Commission of the State of New York with respect to depreciation and other reserves.

The plan provides that the holders of the presently outstanding shares of common and cumulative preferred stocks will, upon surrendering the certificates representing the shares held by them, receive the following in return for such surrendered certificates:

1. For each share of common stock outstanding at present, 88/100 of one share of the new common stock.

2. For each share of preferred stock outstanding at present, (a) one share of the new $50 par value 4% cumulative preferred stock, (b) nine shares of the new common stock and (c) as a return of capital, the following amounts of cash:

For each share of 7% cumulative preferred stock	$9 in cash
For each share of 6% cumulative preferred stock	$5 in cash
For each share of 5% cumulative preferred stock	$1 in cash

In accordance with the above, the present preferred shareholders would receive all of the 44,000 shares of the new $50 par value 4% cumulative preferred stock, 396,000 shares (or 90.00%) of the 440,000 shares of new common stock, and, as a return of capital, cash in the aggregate amount of $191,484. The present common stockholders would receive 44,000 shares (or 10.00%) of the new common stock. Long Island, as the present holder of 48,868 shares (or 97.736%) of common stock, would receive 43,003.84 shares (or 9.77%) of the new common stock.

No fractional shares of the new common stock will be issued, but in lieu thereof non-dividend paying non-voting scrip certificates will be used. Such scrip certificates when combined with addition scrip certificates together equalling one or more full shares of the new common stock will be exchangeable for full share certificates of such new stock, together with dividends, if any, theretofore payable on such full shares of new common stock.

Kings has requested that the order or orders of this Commission approving the plan, as filed or as modified, contain the recitals and other provisions necessary to meet the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

The amended plan will be submitted to the Public Service Commission of the State of New York for its consent and approval thereto and for authority to issue the securities to carry out the amended plan.

The amended plan states that it will be submitted to the stockholders for approval in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, but in the event the required percentage of stockholders of Kings entitled to vote do not approve the amended plan, Kings reserves the right to request this Commission to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an appropriate decree enforcing and carrying out the terms and provisions of the amended plan.

The amended plan further provides that it will become effective upon the date upon which the amended Certificate of Incorporation providing for the changes and issuance of stock called for under the amended plan is filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of New York, and thereupon all the rights, privileges, and preferences of the presently outstanding preferred and common stocks, including the right to dividend arrearages, will cease and come to an end, and the rights, privileges, and preferences of the new preferred and new common stock will become effective.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to the amended plan filed by Kings pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act and that such amended plan should not be approved except pursuant to further order of the Commission; and

It appearing appropriate to the Commission that the proceedings instituted pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the act be reconvened for the purpose of affording an opportunity to the parties and any interested persons to complete the presentation of evidence on such proceedings:

It is hereby ordered, That a hearing on such consolidated proceedings under the applicable provisions of the said act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder be held on the 20th day of May, 1946, at 11 a. m., e. d. s. t., at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. Any person desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate therein shall notify the Commission to that effect in the manner provided in Rule XVII of the Commission's rules or practice on or before May 17, 1946.

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at the hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act, and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by the consolidated proceedings, particular attention will be directed at the hearing on the amended plan to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the amended plan, as proposed, or as modified, is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act.

2. Whether the treatment proposed to be accorded to the various persons affected by the amended plan is in all respects fair and equitable.

3. Whether the issuance by Kings of the new preferred stock and new common stock conforms to the standards and requirements of the applicable provisions of the act.

4. Whether the proposed reduction in the stated and par values of the capital stocks of Kings, and the creation of unearned (capital) surplus in connection therewith satisfies the applicable standards of the act.

5. The propriety of the proposed accounting treatment on the books of Kings.

6. Whether the amended plan should be modified so as to include a provision for the payment by Kings of such expenses, fees, and reimbursements in connection with the amended plan or the proceedings relating thereto as the Commission may determine, award, or allow.

7. Whether the provision relating to the proposal that, in the event the required percentage of stockholders of Kings entitled to vote do not approve the amended plan, Kings reserves the right to request this Commission to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an appropriate decree enforcing and carrying out the terms and provisions of the amended plan, is in all respects appropriate.

8. Generally, whether the proposed transactions in connection with the amended plan are in all respects in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers and consistent with all applicable requirements of the Act and Rules thereunder, and, if not, what modifications should be required to be made therein and what terms and conditions should be imposed to satisfy the statutory standards.

It is further ordered, That notice of said hearing be given to Kings, to Long Island, to the Public Service Commission of the State of New York, to the Secretary of State of the State of New York, and to all other interested persons, said notice to be given to Kings, to Long Island, to the Public Service Commission of the State of New York, and to the Secretary of State of the State of New York by registered mail, and to all other persons by a general release of this Commission which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to all persons on the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and

It is further ordered, That Kings give notice of said hearing to each of its holders of record of its common and preferred stocks (insofar as the identity of such security holders is available or known to Kings), by mailing postage prepaid to each such security holder to his last known address, a copy of this notice and order, together with a copy of the amended plan, at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date of said hearing.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and is hereby, reserved to separate, either for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, any of the issues or questions which may arise in these proceedings, and to take such other action as may appear necessary to the orderly and economical disposition of the issues involved.

By the Commission.

CENTRAL PUBLIC UTILITY CORP. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING, ORDER FOR HEARING ON PLAN FILED, ORDER POSTPONING HEARING, AND ORDER CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 18th day of April, A. D. 1946.

In the matters of Central Public Utility Corporation, Applicant, File No. 54-144; Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, Applicant, File No. 54-40; Central Public Utility Corporation, Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, Respondent, File No. 59-40; Christopher H. Coughlin, W. T. Crawford, and Raleigh Warner, Voting Trustees Under Voting Trust Agreement Dated August 1, 1932, Relating to Common Stock of Central Public Utility Corporation, Applicants, File No. 54-53; Christopher H. Coughlin, W. T. Crawford, and Raleigh Warner, Voting Trustees Under Voting Trust Agreement Dated August 1, 1932, Relating to Common Stock of Central Public Utility Corporation, Respondents, File No. 59-49.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Central Public Utility Corporation ("Central Public"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary company of Christopher H. Coughlin, W. T. Crawford and Raleigh Warner, Voting Trustees under Voting Trust Agreement dated August 1, 1932, relating to Common Stock of Central Public ("Voting Trustees"), also a registered holding company.

All interested persons are referred to said document which is on file in the office of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

As at December 31, 1945, Consolidated Electric and Gas Company ("Consolidated"), a registered holding company and a direct subsidiary company of Central Public, had outstanding $14,500,000 principal amount of notes owed to banks, due November 29, 1948, and the following equity securities:

(a) 183,719 shares of $6 Cumulative Preferred Stock; without par value and with an aggregate stated value of $18,359,300;

(b) 1,480,000 shares of Class A Non-Cumulative Stock having a par value of $1 per share and a liquidation preference of $25 per share; and

(c) 1,000,000 shares of Common Stock having a par value of $1 per share.

Of the outstanding shares of $6 Cumulative Preferred Stock, 182,963 shares were issued in August 1932, 12 shares were issued in February 1933, and 744 shares were issued in December 1945. On December 31, 1945, accrued unpaid dividends on the 182,963 shares issued in 1932 amounted to $79.85 per share, or an aggregate of $14,609,595.55 (representing accrued dividends from July 1, 1932, less $1.15 per share paid in 1932), accrued unpaid dividends on the 12 shares issued in 1933 amounted to $78 per share, or an aggregate of $936, and accrued unpaid dividends on the 744 shares issued in 1945 amounted to $1.50 per share, or an aggregate of $1,116.

Central Public owned, on December 31, 1945, and presently owns, the following shares of Consolidated's capital stocks: 68,856 shares (37.5%) of the $6 Cumulative Preferred Stock (all issued in August 1932), 1,480,000 shares (all) of the Class A Non-Cumulative Stock and 1,000,000 shares (all) of the Common Stock. The Common Stock has at all times been pledged with, and now is held by, Baltimore National Bank, Baltimore, Maryland ("Baltimore National") as Successor Trustee under Central Public's Trust Indenture dated August 1, 1932, securing Central Public's 20-year 5½% Income Bonds ("Income Bonds"). The Income Bonds are outstanding in the principal amount of $42,101,202.44. Interest thereon is cumulative, and no payments of interest thereon have ever been made. At December 31, 1945, the unpaid interest applicable to said bonds approximated $29,885,000.

On December 31, 1945, Consolidated controlled 22 subsidiary companies. Of these subsidiary companies, six were public utility companies operating in the United States, their properties being located in Maine, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Michigan and Georgia; eight were engaged in transportation, coal and ice businesses located in the United States; seven were engaged principally in electric and gas operations located outside of the United States; and one was an intermediate holding company over four of the foreign subsidiaries.

Central Public represents that it intends to eliminate itself from the holding company system of which it and Consolidated are members, and that to effectuate such elimination Central Public proposes to file with this Commission, after a recapitalization of Consolidated has been approved, a plan for the dissolution and liquidation of Central Public. Central Public indicates that such plan will provide, among other things, that Central Public will distribute to the holders of its Income Bonds the shares of capital stock of Consolidated which it will receive in connection with the recapitalization of Consolidated, that Central Public will thereupon be liquidated, and that there will be nothing available for distribution to holders of its Preferred Stock, Class A Stock or Common Stock.

Pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act, Central Public now proposes a plan for Consolidated, stated to be predicated on Consolidated's holding company system as constituted on December 31, 1945, and on the current and prospective earnings of Consolidated and the subsidiaries which it owned on that date, as follows:

1. Consolidated's presently authorized capital stock is to be reclassified into 2,158,775 shares of common stock, having a par value to be determined at a later date by an appropriate amendment to the plan and subject to the approval of this Commission.

2. Consolidated, as soon as practicable after the proposed reclassification of its capital stocks, is to issue and distribute shares of such new common stock to the holders of its presently outstanding stocks as follows:

(a) To the holders, other than Central Public, of shares of the $6 Cumulative Preferred Stock issued in 1932 and 1933, 10 shares of new common stock for each share of the $6 Cumulative Preferred Stock now held, or an aggregate of 1,141,190 shares (52.9%) of its new common stock;

(b) To the holders of the shares of the $6 Cumulative Preferred issued in December 1945, 7 shares of the new common stock for each share of the $6 Cumulative Preferred Stock now held, or an aggregate of 5,208 shares (.2%) of the new common stock; and

(c) To Central Public, as the owner of 68,856 shares of the $6 Cumulative Preferred Stock and all of the outstanding shares of the Class A and Common Stocks of Consolidated, 1,012,377 shares (46.9%) of the new common stock of Consolidated.

3. Central Public, as soon as practicable after the issuance and distribution to it of the aforementioned 1,012,377 shares of Consolidated's new common stock, is to assign in blank the certificate or certificates representing all of said shares, and deposit such certificate or certificates with Baltimore National in substitution for the 1,000,000 shares of common stock of Consolidated now pledged with the Baltimore National. Baltimore National is to retain the substituted certificate or certificates pending an order of this Commission directing what further disposition shall be made of the shares represented thereby.

Central Public, as the owner of 68,856 shares of the Cumulative Preferred Stock of Consolidated and all of the oustanding shares of the Class A and Common Stocks of Consolidated, proposes to vote such shares in favor of the proposed reclassification of Consolidated, and anticipates that, if the Commission enters an order approving such reduction and reclassification, the change will be effected by amending Consolidated's Certificate of Incorporation pursuant to the provisions of the Delaware Corporation Law. If such method proves to be not feasible then Central Public states that it will request the Commission to apply to an appropriate Federal court pursuant to the provisions of section 11 (e) and 18 (f) of the act to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the instant plan.

Central Public requests that the final order or orders of this Commission, if approving said plan, be in conformity with the requirements of section 373 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and contain the recitals, itemizations and specifications prescribed in sections 371 (b), 371 (f) and 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

On December 18, 1945, the Commission entered an order postponing until April 18, 1946, a public hearing concerned with proceedings on applications pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act filed by Consolidated (File No. 54-40) and by the Voting Trustees (File No. 54–53), and proceedings instituted by this Commission pursuant to section 11 (b) of the act and directed to Consolidated and Central Public (File No. 59–40) and to the Voting Trustees (File No. 59–49), all of said proceedings having been consolidated. The plan of Consolidated as heretofore amended (File No. 54–40) provides, among other things, that the debt of Consolidated be discharged by use of the proceeds from sales of certain of Consolidated's assets, that the equity securities of Consolidated be reclassified into a single class of common stock, and that 94.5% of the new common stock be distributed to the present preferred stockholders and 5.5% to the Class A stockholder of Consolidated. It appears that under that plan Central Public would receive, in exchange for its holdings of Consolidated's securities, 40.9% of the new common stock of Consolidated, and that other holders of the preferred stock of Consolidated would receive 59.1% of the new common stock. The filing of the Voting Trustees (File No. 54–53) requests that the Voting Trustees be authorized to deliver the Common Stock of Central Public to the record holders of the outstanding voting trust certificates, and in the alternative submits a plan providing, among other things, that the Voting Trustees surrender to Central Public for cancellation all of Central Public's outstanding Common Stock, remove the agent and depository under said Voting Trust Agreement, and terminate the Voting Trust Agreement.

It appearing that these pending proceedings involve common questions of law and fact with the instant filing by Central Public, and that accordingly the proceeding on the plan filed by Central Public should be consolidated with the pending proceedings and heard together, and that the consolidated hearing in all these matters should be held at a date subsequent to April 18, 1946;

It is hereby ordered, That said proceedings be and they are hereby consolidated, that the hearing previously scheduled herein for April 18, 1946, (File Nos. 54–40, 59–40, 54–53 and 59–49) be and it is hereby postponed to May 27, 1946, and that on that date a hearing be held in the proceedings hereby consolidated (File Nos. 54–144, 54–40, 59–40, 54–53 and 59–49), such hearing to commence at 10:00 a. m., e. d. t., at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. On that day the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which the hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and it is hereby reserved to separate, either for hearing in whole or in part, or for determination in whole or in part, any issues or questions which may arise in these proceedings, or to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt and economical disposition of the matters involved.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for the purpose shall preside at the hearing above ordered. The officer so designated to preside at the hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above named applicants and respondents and to all interested persons, said notice to be given to said applicants and respondents and to the Public Service Commission of the State of Maine, Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Public Service Commission of Indiana, Public Service Commission of Michigan, Public Service Commission of Georgia and Baltimore National Bank, Baltimore, Maryland, as Successor Trustee, by registered mail, and to all other persons by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER and by general release of this Commission, copies of which are to be furnished to the press and mailed to all persons on the Commissions mailing list to receive copies of releases under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. Any person desiring to be heard in these proceedings should file with the Secretary of this Commission on or before May 23, 1946, an appropriate request or application to be heard as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That Central Public, Consolidated and Voting Trustees shall give additional notice of said hearing by publication, in appropriate form, of a notice at least twice, at intervals of not less than seven days, in a newspaper of general circulation in each of the Cities of New York, New York, Chicago, Illinois, and San Francisco, California, the last publication to occur not later than seven days prior to May 27, 1946, and that Consolidated notify its preferred stockholders, to the extent that their addresses are known or are available to Consolidated, by mailing a copy of this notice and order to said security holders not later than fifteen days prior to May 27, 1946.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented in the consolidated proceedings, particular attention shall be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the plan of Central Public (File No. 54–144) or the plan of Consolidated (File No. 54–40) as presently on file, or as either plan may hereafter be modified, is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act and fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby;

(2) Whether the allocation of the new common stock of Consolidated among Central Public, other holders of Consolidated's $6 Cumulative Preferred Stock issued during 1932 and 1933, and the holders of Consolidated $6 Cumulative Preferred Stock issued in December 1945, as proposed either in the plan of Central Public (File No. 54–144) or in the plan of Consolidated (File No. 54–40) is in all respects fair and equitable to said security holders, and, if not, what allocation thereof would be fair and equitable;

(3) Whether the proposed transfer of the common stock of Central Public by the Voting Trustees to the holders of Voting Trust Certificates is detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers or permits the circumvention of the provisions of said act and the rules, regulations, or orders of the Commission thereunder;

(4) Whether the plan of the Voting Trustees (File No. 54–53), as submitted or as it may hereafter be modified, is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act and fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby;

(5) Whether the plans or any of them, presently on file or as they may hereafter be modified, make appropriate provision for the payment of expenses, fees, and remunerations in connection with the effectuation thereof, in what amounts such fees and remunerations should be paid, and the fair and equitable allocation thereof;

(6) Generally, whether the proposed transactions are in all respects in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers and consistent with all applicable requirements of the act and of the rules thereunder and, if not, what modifications should be required to be made therein and what terms and conditions should be imposed to satisfy the statutory standards;

(7) Whether the allegations set forth in sections numbered II, III, IV and V of this Commission's order herein dated September 27, 1941 (Holding Company Act Release No. 3225) and in sections numbered III and IV of this Commission's order herein dated June 15, 1942 (Holding Company Act Release No. 3615) are true and accurate;

(8) Whether the corporate structure or continued existence of Voting Trustees, Central Public or Consolidated, or any of them, unduly or unnecessarily complicates the structure or unfairly or inequitably distributes voting power among security holders of the holding company system of which they are members, and if so what action should be required with respect thereto pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the act;

(9) What action, if any, is necessary and should be required to be taken by respondents herein, or any of them, pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the act, to ensure that Voting Trustees and Central Public shall each cease to be a holding company with respect to each of its subsidiary companies which itself has a subsidiary company which is a holding company;

(10) What action, if any, is necessary and should be required to be taken by respondents herein, or any of them, to confine the holding company system of Central Public, Consolidated and their subsidiary companies to a single integrated public-utility system, together with such additional public-utility systems and such other businesses as may appropriately be retained under the requirements of section 11 (b) (1) of the act.

By the Commission.

leans Office pursuant to § 295.9 (b) provides that a specified quantity (bales or pounds) of cotton shall be shipped or delivered during a specified period or shipped on a specified shipping date, the exporter shall have until 30 days prior to the beginning of such period or shipping date or 90 days after the New Orleans Office receives notice of the export sale, whichever is later, to submit Purchase Orders covering an equal quantity of cotton to the New Orleans Office. The Corporation will not accept a Purchase Order if it does not desire to sell at the price bid by the exporter, or if it does not have available or does not choose to sell cotton comparable in quality and growth to that desired by the exporter and otherwise suitable to meet the exporter's requirements.

§ 295.4 Approved countries. Until and unless the Secretary otherwise announces, an approved country shall be a country to which cotton may be exported without violating the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, or any other statute, or any order or regulation issued pursuant thereto. Nothing in this subpart shall be deemed to authorize the exportation of cotton in violation of any such statute, order or regulation.

§ 295.5 Purchase price. The purchase price per pound to be paid by an exporter for cotton covered by a Purchase Order which is accepted by the Corporation shall be the price bid in the Purchase Order, less the amount of the applicable export differential. The export differential applicable to any cotton purchased from the Corporation hereunder shall be the export differential announced by the Secretary and in effect at the time the New Orleans Office receives notice of the export sale against which such cotton is being purchased. If the Purchase Order is received by the New Orleans Office more than 90 days after the date it receives notice of the export sale against which such cotton is being purchased, pursuant to the proviso in § 295.3 (b), the purchase price shall be increased by 5 points for each month or fraction thereof between the end of such 90-day period and the date the Purchase Order is received by the New Orleans Office. Purchase Orders shall be submitted and construed in accordance with instructions issued by the New Orleans Office.

§ 295.6 Storage charges. The Corporation shall pay direct to the warehouseman all storage charges on cotton purchased from the Corporation's stocks through the date the sight draft, with warehouse receipts attached, is presented to the exporter for payment.

§ 295.7 Purchase Orders. All Purchase Orders shall be submitted to the New Orleans Office and shall be in the form prescribed by the Corporation. They may be sent by mail or telegraph, but if sent by telegraph, they shall be confirmed in writing on the same day in the prescribed form. Each Purchase Order submitted by an exporter shall designate the export sale or consignment declaration against which the purchase is made. Upon receipt of any Purchase Order, a check of the stocks available for purchase shall be made. If all or any part of the cotton specified is available for purchase, and the Purchase Order is accepted by the Corporation, the exporter will be promptly notified by telegram of the Corporation's acceptance. No cotton shall be regarded as purchased until the exporter receives such notification. If the Purchase Order is not accepted as to all or any part of the cotton specified thereon, the exporter will be promptly notified by telegram and may order other cotton in substitution.

§ 295.8 Eligibility for payments by the Secretary. If an exporter agrees to sell lint cotton grown in the continental United States to a foreign purchaser for export to an approved country, and if the sale is registered as provided in § 295.9, the exporter shall be eligible to receive a payment from the Secretary on that quantity of the cotton exported in fulfillment of such export sale which is in excess of the cotton purchased from the Corporation's stocks against such export sale (in lieu of purchasing an equal quantity of cotton from the Corporation's stocks), subject to the following additional terms and conditions:

(a) The Corporation must have certified to the Secretary that the exporter filed Purchase Orders with respect to such quantity of cotton with the New Orleans Office within the time limits specified in § 295.3 (b) for submission of Purchase Orders and that the Corporation did not have available, or did not choose to sell, an equal quantity of cotton from its own stocks which was comparable in quality and growth to that desired by the exporter and which was otherwise suitable to meet the exporter's requirements.

(b) The payment shall be based on the unpatched gross weight of such quantity of cotton and shall be at a rate per pound equal to the export differential announced by the Secretary and in effect at the time the New Orleans Office receives notice of the export sale.

(c) The exporter must have submitted to the New Orleans Office satisfactory evidence (as provided in paragraph 10 hereof) that such quantity of cotton was exported by the exporter in fulfillment of the sale prior to July 1, 1947.

(d) The exporter must have submitted to the New Orleans Office, within 90 days after the date of exportation of such cotton, an application for such payment on the voucher form specified by the New Orleans Office.

(e) The exporter to whom payment shall be made shall be the person or firm named as exporter in the notice of the export sale: Provided, That if the shipper or the consignor named in the bill of lading under which such quantity of cotton is exported is other than the exporter named in the notice of the export sale, waiver by the shipper or consignor named in the bill of lading of any interest in the claim in favor of the exporter named in the notice of the export sale will be required.

§ 295.9 Registration and contracts of sale—(a) Registration. A sale of raw cotton for exportation shall be registered hereunder when, and only in the event that, the following requirements have been met:

(1) The sale must be made subsequent to the date of this offer.

(2) The country to which the cotton is sold for export must be an approved country at the time the sale is made.

(3) In the case of sales for export to Canada and Mexico, such sales must be made directly to a cotton consuming establishment in such country. The determination of the Secretary as to whether the buyer is a cotton consuming establishment shall be final.

(4) The exporter must send a notice of the export sale to the New Orleans Office by telegram filed with the telegraph company not later than twenty-four (24) hours after the sale is made. A notice of sale filed after such 24-hour period may be accepted if it is shown that the delay is due to circumstances beyond the control of the exporter. The notice of the export sale must state the name and address of the foreign purchaser, the number of pounds (gross weight) and the quality of cotton sold, the sales price, and the date and exact time the sale is made.

(5) There must be received by the New Orleans Office, within five (5) days (excluding Saturdays and Sundays) after the date it receives the notice of the export sale, three copies of a Declaration of Export Sale (C. C. C. Cotton Form SFE–H). A declaration filed after such 5-day period may be accepted if it is shown that the delay is due to circumstances beyond the control of the exporter.

(b) Contracts of sale. The Corporation must also be furnished with a copy of an unconditional sales contract covering the cotton sold, signed by both parties, and certified by the exporter as being true and correct. Such contract must show the sales price, the date of sale, the number of pounds (gross weight) and quality of cotton sold, the sailing date or month or months of delivery, the destination of shipment, and the names and addresses of the parties to the contract, and must call for the exportation of the cotton not later than June 30, 1947. Such contract shall be filed with the New Orleans Office within twenty (20) days after the date the New Orleans Office receives notice of the export sale, in the case of sales for export to Canada and Mexico, and within sixty (60) days after such date, in the case of sales to other countries, unless an extension of time is granted by the Corporation. The Corporation may accept an amendment to the contract changing the sailing date or month or months of delivery if the amendment is accompanied by a copy, certified by the exporter as being true and correct, of a telegram or cable from the purchaser requesting that shipment or delivery be made on the later date.

§ 295.10 Satisfactory evidence of exportation. Evidence of exportation of cotton, to be satisfactory hereunder, must meet the following requirements:

(a) If the cotton is exported to Canada or Mexico, the exporter shall furnish an authenticated landing certificate, in duplicate, issued by an official of the government of the country to which the cotton is exported, showing the place and date of landing and gross landed weight of the cotton, and the name and address of both the person who exports the cotton from the United States and the person to whom it is shipped.

(b) If the cotton is exported to any other approved country, the exporter shall furnish two copies of either an on board ship bill of lading or a shipmaster's receipt, showing the number of bales, marks, and gross weight of cotton loaded on board ship, the date and place of loading, the name of the vessel, the destination of the cotton, and the name and address of both the person exporting the cotton and the person to whom it is shipped.

(c) In every case, the exporter shall also furnish two copies of his customs export declaration, certified by the customs office and showing that the cotton was produced in the continental United States, and a reweight sheet, in duplicate, of the warehouse from which the cotton is shipped for export, certified by the warehouse and showing the number of bales and marks of the cotton and its unpatched gross weight. Such weight sheet shall constitute satisfactory evidence of the cotton's unpatched gross weight.

(d) The documents specified above must be filed with the New Orleans Office not later than fifteen (15) days after the date of the landing certificate, on board ship bill of lading, or shipmaster's receipt, and also, in those cases in which cotton is sold by the Corporation from its stocks in reliance upon the exporter's bond, not later than thirty (30) days after the sailing date or month or months of delivery shown on the certified copy of the sales contract filed with the New Orleans Office.

(e) The exporter shall also furnish any additional evidence of exportation which may be requested by the New Orleans Office.

(f) If cotton is loaded on board a vessel for shipment to an approved country and is destroyed while on board such vessel, for the purposes of this subpart the cotton shall be regarded as having been exported.

§ 295.11 Bond. The bond which must be furnished by each exporter who desires to purchase cotton from the Corporation hereunder against export sales prior to the submission of satisfactory evidence of exportation of the cotton covered by such sales shall be in the form prescribed by the Corporation and shall be in an amount at least equivalent to 10 cents for each pound (gross weight) of cotton sold to the exporter against an export sale for which, at any one time, satisfactory evidence of the exportation of the cotton covered by the sale to the approved country named in the sales contract has not been submitted to the New Orleans Office. The surety on such bond must be a corporate surety approved by the Treasury Department of the United States.

§ 295.12 Liquidated damages. (a) In all cases in which (1) an exporter gives the New Orleans Office notice of an export sale pursuant to paragraph 9 hereof and satisfactory evidence of the exportation, prior to July 1, 1947, of cotton in fulfillment of such export sale is not filed with the New Orleans Office within the time specified in paragraph 10 hereof, or such extension of time as may be granted pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) of this section, or (2) cotton as to which satisfactory evidence of exportation has been submitted reenters the United States or its possessions (other than the Philippine Islands) in the form of raw cotton, the exporter shall pay to the Corporation, in care of the New Orleans Office, as liquidated damages, the sum of 10 cents for each pound of such cotton.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of § 295.10d and paragraph (a) of this section, if the Director of the New Orleans Office determines that the exporter was prevented from exporting cotton in fulfillment of an export sale of which the New Orleans Office receives notice hereunder by acts of government, acts of God, lack of shipping space (claims of lack of shipping space must be supported by a letter from the War Shipping Administration, or from all of the steamship companies operating to the country to which the cotton is to be exported, showing that shipping space was unavailable for shipment of such cotton within the prescribed time), or other similar causes beyond the exporter's control:

(1) The Director of the New Orleans Office may grant an extension of the time within which such cotton may be exported and satisfactory proof of exportation may be submitted, or

(2) If an extension of time is not granted, or if such cotton cannot be exported due to any such cause within any such extension of time:

(i) In lieu of paying to the Corporation the amount provided in paragraph (a) of this section with respect to such cotton, if the Corporation has sold the exporter cotton against the export sale of such cotton, the exporter shall pay to the Corporation with respect to each pound of such cotton an amount equal to the export differential used in computing the price at which such cotton was purchased from the Corporation; and

(ii) If the Corporation has not sold the exporter cotton against the export sale of such cotton, the exporter shall not be liable for the payment of liquidated damages under this section with respect to such cotton, and the exporter shall have no rights hereunder with respect to the export sale of such cotton.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, if an exporter is unable, because of the destruction of cotton shipped to Mexico or Canada by rail in fulfillment of an export sale, to furnish satisfactory proof of exportation of such cotton, and if title to the cotton was in the foreign purchaser at the time it was destroyed:

(1) In lieu of paying to the Corporation the amount provided in paragraph (a) of this section with respect to the cotton so destroyed, if the Corporation has sold the exporter cotton against the export sale of such cotton, the exporter shall pay to the Corporation with respect to each pound of such cotton an amount equal to the export differential used in computing the price at which such cotton was purchased from the Corporation; and

(2) If the Corporation has not sold the exporter cotton against the export sale of such cotton, the exporter shall not be liable for the payment of liquidated damages under this section with respect to such cotton, and the exporter shall have no rights hereunder with respect to the export sale of such cotton.

In any such case, the New Orleans Office must be notified of the destruction of the cotton and the number of the registered sale, and the exporter shall furnish such proof of destruction and passage of title as the New Orleans Office may require.

§ 295.13 Payment for and delivery of cotton. Within thirty (30) days after the date of receipt of any Purchase Order which is accepted by the Corporation, the Corporation will present to the exporter a sight draft drawn on the exporter for the purchase price of the cotton, accompanied by warehouse receipts representing the cotton and properly endorsed so as to vest title in the exporter. Such draft must be paid by the exporter upon presentation.

§ 295.14 Class. All sales by the Corporation of 1944, 1945, or later crop cotton will be based solely upon the grade and staple length shown in the catalog, with no right of adjustment if the grade or staple length is found to be other than that stated in the catalog or for any other reason. Sales of 1934, 1937, 1941, 1942, and 1943 crop cotton will be subject to adjustment for grade and staple length upon reclassification by a Board of Cotton Examiners of the Cotton Branch, Production and Marketing Administratiton, United States Department of Agriculture of all of the cotton listed on the sales invoice which was stored in the same warehouse or compress. In the event the reclassification of any cotton of the 1934, 1937, 1941, 1942, or 1943 crops should vary from the classification shown in the catalog, settlement will be made with the exporter on all of the cotton listed on the sales invoice which was stored in the same warehouse or compress upon the basis of such reclassification. No rejections will be allowed.

§ 295.15 Weight. Cotton sold from the Corporation's stocks hereunder will be invoiced on the basis of the gross weight shown on the warehouse receipts. Claims for weight differences may be filed by the exporter only in the event that the claim covers all of the cotton listed on the sales invoice which was stored in the same warehouse or compress and that he has had all such cotton reweighed before compression at his own expense, as evidenced by a reweight sheet, in duplicate, signed by the superintendent or manager of such warehouse or compress and bearing the following certificate: "This cotton not resampled or reconditioned before reweighing."

§ 295.16 Filing claims. Claims for differences in grade or staple length of 1934, 1937, 1941, 1942, or 1943 crop cotton or for differences in weight of any cotton must be filed, in duplicate, not later than 90 days after the date the cotton is invoiced by the Corporation, but all such claims with respect to any lot of cotton should be filed at the same time. Claims must be filed in accordance with the instructions issued by the New Orleans Office.

§ 295.17 Cotton not in good condition. The warehouse receipts held by the Corporation contain the obligation of the warehousemen to deliver the bales of cotton represented thereby in good condition. The Corporation shall not be liable to an exporter for the failure of a warehouseman to deliver to the exporter in good condition the bales of cotton represented by any warehouse receipts.

§ 295.18 Freight bills. The exporter shall, within six months after receipt of warehouse receipts representing cotton purchased from the Corporation's stocks:

(a) Purchase the freight bills held by the Corporation covering the bales of such cotton which were shipped by rail to the warehouses issuing the warehouse receipts at their refund value based on reshipment of such bales to Greenville, South Carolina, as representative of Group B points, or, if such cotton is stored at Group A or Group B points and is reshipped, based on the destination to which such cotton is actually reshipped; or

(b) If such cotton is not stored at a port when sold to the exporter, furnish the Corporation with outbound bills of lading, acquired in the shipping of such cotton via the railroad line designated by the Corporation; or otherwise, the exporter shall purchase the freight bills by honoring a three-day sight draft, with the freight bills held by the Corporation attached, for the amount specified in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) If such cotton is stored at a port when sold to the exporter, furnish the Corporation with a copy of the ocean bill of lading (or if the cotton is exported from another port, a copy of the railroad bill of lading, a copy of the tag list, and a copy of the ocean bill of lading) evidencing exportation of the identical cotton;

§ 295.19 Consignments. If an exporter intends to export lint cotton to an approved country prior to the sale of such cotton and files with the New Orleans Office a Declaration of Intent to Consign listing the number of pounds (gross unpatched weight) and the grade and staple length of the cotton which he intends to export, and if the Declaration is approved by the Corporation, the exporter may purchase from the Corporation an equal quantity of cotton, subject to the following terms and conditions:

(a) Declarations. The declaration must be in the form prescribed by the Corporation and must be filed, in triplicate, before the cotton listed on the declaration is exported. Submission of a declaration and approval by the Corporation is in lieu of registration. The Corporation will approve only declarations listing cotton of a grade and staple length which the Corporation announces may be exported under this paragraph 19. Upon approval of a declaration, one copy, dated and marked approved, will be returned to the exporter.

(b) Bond. Before the declaration will be approved, the New Orleans Office must have received from the exporter a surety bond in the form prescribed by the Corporation, conditioned upon the submission of satisfactory evidence of exportation of the cotton listed on the declaration by the exporter prior to July 1, 1947, and not later than 90 days after the date the declaration is approved, and in an amount at least equivalent to 10 cents for each pound of cotton listed on all of the declarations filed by the exporter for which, at any one time, satisfactory evidence of exportation has not been furnished. The surety on such bond must be a corporate surety approved by the Treasury Department of the United States.

(c) Satisfactory evidence of exportation. Evidence of exportation of cotton, to be satisfactory under this section, must meet the requirements of § 295.10 and must also include a certification by the exporter that the cotton shipped was of the grade and staple length stated in the declaration.

(d) Purchase Orders. The New Orleans Office must have received from the exporter, not later than 90 days after the date the Corporation approves the declaration, Purchase Orders covering the cotton which the exporter is eligible to purchase, and the Corporation must have accepted such Purchase Orders,

(e) Price. The price of cotton purchased under this section shall be computed in accordance with § 295.5, except that in applying § 295.5 the date the Corporation approves the declaration shall be used in place of the time the New Orleans Office receives notice of the export sale against which such cotton is being purchased.

(f) Liquidated damages. (1) In all cases in which (i) the exporter fails to furnish within the time specified in § 295.10 or such extension of time as may be granted by the Corporation under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, satisfactory evidence that the cotton listed on the declaration was exported prior to July 1, 1947, and not later than 90 days after the date the declaration is approved, or (ii) cotton as to which satisfactory evidence of exportation has been submitted reenters the United States or its possessions (other than the Philippine Islands) in the form of raw cotton, the exporter shall pay to the Corporation, as liquidated damages, the sum of 10 cents for each pound of such cotton.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, if the Director of the New Orleans Office determines that the exporter was prevented from exporting the cotton listed on the declaration by a cause listed in § 295.12 (b), the provisions of § 295.12 (b) (1) and (2) shall be applicable to this paragraph, except that in applying § 295.12 (b) (1) and (2) the phrase "the Declaration of Intent to Consign" shall be substituted for the phrase "the export sale of" and the phrase "subparagraph (1) of this paragraph" shall be substituted for the phrase "paragraph (a) of this section."

(g) Payments by Secretary. If the Corporation so elects, it may refuse to sell to the exporter a quantity of cotton equal to that listed on the approved declaration, and, in such case, the exporter shall be eligible to receive a payment from the Secretary on that quantity of the cotton exported in fulfillment of the declaration which is in excess of the cotton purchased from the Corporation's stocks against the declaration (in lieu of purchasing an equal quantity of cotton from the Corporation's stocks), subject to the following terms and conditions:

(1) The Corporation must have certified to the Secretary that the exporter filed Purchase Orders with respect to such quantity of cotton with the New Orleans Office not later than 90 days after the date the Corporation approved the declaration and that the Corporation elected not to sell such quantity of cotton to the exporter.

(2) The payment shall be based on the unpatched gross weight of such quantity of cotton and shall be at a rate per pound equal to the export differential announced by the Secretary and in effect at the time the Corporation approves the declaration.

(3) The exporter must have submitted to the New Orleans Office satisfactory evidence that such quantity of cotton was exported by the exporter prior to July 1, 1947, and not later than 90 days after the date the declaration was approved.

(4) The exporter must have submitted to the New Orleans Office, within 90 days after the date of exportation of such quantity of cotton, an application for such payment on the voucher form specified by the New Orleans Office.

(5) The exporter to whom payment shall be made shall be the person or firm named as exporter in the declaration: Provided, That if the shipper or the consignor named in the bill of lading under which such quantity of cotton is exported is other than the exporter named in the declaration, waiver by the shipper or consignor named in the bill of lading of any interest in the claim in favor of the exporter named in the declaration will be required.

(h) Amendments and terminations. Any amendment or termination of this subpart and any withdrawal of any qualities of the Corporation's cotton shall not be applicable to Purchase Orders, or vouchers submitted with respect to declarations approved by the Corporation prior to the effective date of such amendment, termination, or withdrawal.

(i) Applicability of other provisions. All of the provisions of this subpart except §§ 295.3 and 295.8 shall be applicable to this section, except where they are inconsistent with this section. The exportation of cotton in fulfillment of a declaration approved under this paragraph shall not entitle the exporter to any benefits under §§ 295.3 and 295.8.

§ 295.20 Books, records and accounts. The exporter shall make available to the Corporation or the Secretary, from time to time, as they may request, such of exporter's, and such of his affiliates' and subsidiaries', books, records, accounts, and other documents and papers as the Corporation or the Secretary, respectively, may deem pertinent to any transaction hereunder. Each such exporter shall also furnish to the Corporation or the Secretary such information and reports as they may from time to time request, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942. The specific reporting requirements hereof have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 295.21 Setoffs. The Secretary may set off against any amount owed to any exporter any amount owed by the exporter to the Corporation, the United States Department of Agriculture, or any other agency of the United States.

§ 295.22 Assignments. No exporter shall, without the written consent of the Corporation or the Secretary, assign any right of the exporter against the Corporation or the Secretary, respectively, hereunder.

§ 295.23 Good faith. If the Corporation or the Secretary determines that any exporter has not acted in good faith in connection with any transaction hereunder, or has failed to discharge fully an obligation assumed by him hereunder, such exporter may be denied the right to register export sales or to file declarations hereunder or the right to purchase cotton or apply for payment hereunder in connection with any previously registered sale or approved declaration.

§ 295.24 Effect of changes on outstanding offers. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 295.25, if an exporter makes a firm telegraphic or cabled offer to sell cotton to a foreign purchaser for export to an approved country, and if subsequently approval of the country is withdrawn, the program is terminated, the export differential, or the method of computing prices hereunder is changed, or this subpart is amended, prior to the time the New Orleans Office receives notice of the export sale of such cotton resulting from the foreign purchaser's acceptance of the exporter's offer, such termination, change, or amendment shall not be applicable to Purchase Orders, or vouchers submitted with respect to such export sale, provided the exporter submits proof (a) that the telegraphic or cabled offer was filed with the telegraph or cable company by the exporter prior to the announcement of the termination, change, or amendment, and (b) that the telegram or cablegram of acceptance was filed by the foreign purchaser not later than 12 o'clock midnight, eastern standard time, of the day such announcement is made, if the foreign purchaser is on the North American continent, or not later than 12 o'clock midnight, eastern standard time, of the second day following such announcement, if the foreign purchaser is not on the North American continent.

§ 295.25 Amendments and termination. This subpart may be amended at any time without previous notice by making public announcement thereof. A copy of every amendment will be mailed promptly to each exporter to whom a catalog has been mailed. This subpart may be terminated at any time without previous notice by making public announcement thereof. A copy of such announcement will be telegraphed to each exporter to whom a catalog has been mailed. Any such amendment or termination shall not be applicable to Purchase Orders, or vouchers submitted with respect to export sales of which the New Orleans Office receives notice prior to the effective date of such amendment or termination.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Subtitle A—Office of the Secretary

PART 8—COMPENSATORY WAGE ADJUSTMENT SUBSIDY FOR SLAUGHTERERS

Pursuant to Directive 104 entitled "Compensatory Wage Adjustment Subsidy for Slaughterers", issued by the Office of Economic Stabilization on April 8, 1946, the following regulations are issued governing applications for the compensatory wage adjustment subsidy payable to slaughterers by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation upon certification by the Secretary of Agriculture, or his duly authorized representative, pursuant to that Directive.

Sec.
8.1 What this part provides for.
8.2 Who may apply for payment.
8.3 Amount of payment.
8.4 Subsidies.
8.5 Applications.
8.6 Certification of subsidy.
8.7 Other conditions.

§ 8.1 What this part provides for. The National Wage Stabilization Board by its orders dated February 15 and 21, 1946 directed certain slaughterers to increase their basic wage scales. Such orders required the increases to be made retroactive as to certain employees to January 26, 1946, and as to others to January 28, 1946. The National Wage Stabilization Board by its General Pattern Approval No. 1, Meat Packing Industry, issued on February 25, 1946, and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue by his approval order issued on February 28, 1946, authorized certain other slaughterers to increase their basic wage scales upon substantially the same conditions. On March 11, 1946 and March 14, 1946, the Office of Price Administration granted general increases in the prices of meat and meat products to compensate for such increased wage costs. It was not possible to make these price adjustments retroactive, and therefore a special subsidy is necessary to recompensate slaughterers who make such increased wage payments, for their increased wage costs caused by such payments for the period from January 26, 1946 through March 10, 1946. In computing the amount of the subsidy, it is necessary to make proper adjustment for the increased value of the slaughterer's inventory since the slaughterer will receive the benefit of price increases.

§ 8.2 Who may apply for payment. Payments will be made only to slaughterers:

(a) Who were eligible for and received the Reconstruction Finance Corporation basic meat subsidy for the February and March 1946 accounting periods; and

(b) Who carried on slaughtering operations during the period from January 26, 1946 through March 10, 1946; and

(c) Who, relying upon the anticipated payment of this special subsidy have maintained normal production to the extent permitted by the available supply of livestock during the period from February 26, 1946 to the date of filing of an application for this special subsidy; and

(d) Who, prior to April 25, 1946, have made increased wage payments to their employees for the period January 26, 1946, through March 10, 1946, pursuant to the orders of the National Wage Stabilization Board dated February 15, and February 21, 1946, or pursuant to General Pattern Approval No. 1, Meat Packing Industry, issued by the National Wage Stabilization Board on February 25, 1946, or pursuant to the order of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, dated February 28, 1946 entitled "Salary Stabilization, Meat Packing Industry", or who, on or after January 1, 1946, and prior to February 25, 1946, in anticipation of the general wage scale increase approved by the General Pattern Approval referred to above, made increased wage payments to their employees under a basic wage scale increase consistent with the provisions of that approval.

§ 8.3 Amount of payment. The payment to be made to each slaughterer shall be an amount equal to the increased wage costs of such slaughterer for the period from January 26, 1946 through March 10, 1946, both dates inclusive, caused by increased wage payments made to the employees hereinafter specified pursuant to or in anticipation of the above-mentioned orders of the National Wage Stabilization Board dated February 15 and 21, 1946, General Pattern Approval No. 1 of the National Wage Stabilization Board, or the above-mentioned order of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue issued on February 28, 1946, less an amount equal to the increased value of the slaughterer's inventory resulting from price increases authorized by the Office of Price Administration, effective March 11 and March 14, 1946. In computing the increased labor costs, the slaughterer shall take into account only payments made by the slaughterer to employees engaged in the purchase of livestock; the production and processing of meat and meat products; the supervision in whole or in part of the purchase of livestock or the production, processing, or distribution of meat and meat products; the performance of office and clerical work connected in whole or in part with the purchase of livestock, or the production, processing, or distribution of meat and meat products; and the performance of maintenance work for plants and facilities related in whole or in part to the purchase of livestock or the production, processing, or distribution of meat and meat products. In the event a slaughterer is unable to make certain increased wage payments because of the death, incompetence, or disappearance of any employee, the slaughterer shall not include such amount in his claim for this subsidy but shall submit proof that he has set aside such amount in a special fund for the benefit of such employee.

Each slaughterer shall include in the inventory for the purpose of this part, all meat and meat products owned by the slaughterer on March 10, 1946, including products in storage, transit or consignment, or in the process of production. Each slaughterer shall also include in the inventory products with respect to which the slaughterer has re-acquired title on or after March 11, 1946, and which may be resold at the higher price. The inventory should include the weight of all items in the course of production, calculated as follows: (a) where such items are in the form of products for which a maximum price has been established, the actual weight of such items should be given; (b) where such items are not in the form of products for which a maximum price has been established, the weight should be calculated upon the basis of conversion to the product next in line in the stage of processing for which a maximum price has been established. All products included in the schedule of price increases granted by the Office of Price Administration effective March 11 and March 14, 1946, should be itemized separately, and the weight of each such product should be given. With respect to those products not included in such schedule of price increases, the slaughterer should give the aggregate weight of all such products in inventory and list each product included, but need not give the weight of each such product separately. One inventory must be submitted for the meat and meat products sold or set aside for sale to U. S. Government agencies, and another for meat and meat products sold or held for sale to parties other than U. S. Government agencies. The increase in inventory value shall be computed by multiplying the quantity of each item by the allowable increase in maximum price permitted by amendments to Office of Price Administration regulations which became effective on March 11 and March 14, 1946. The allowable increase in maximum price is the difference between the maximum price for such item in effect on March 9, 1946 and the maximum price for such item in effect on March 15, 1946. The increase in value of items sold or set aside for sale to U. S. Government agencies shall be computed by applying the maximum prices applicable to sale to U. S. Government agencies.

§ 8.4 Subsidiaries. Each slaughterer shall include in its application for this subsidy payment the increased wage costs for the period from January 26, 1946, through March 10, 1946, both inclusive, of its subsidiary corporations engaged in the production, processing, or distribution of meat and meat products, resulting from the increased wage payments made pursuant to or in anticipation of the above-mentioned orders and approvals of the National Wage Stabilization Board and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and the increased value of the inventories of such subsidiary corporations. The application should not include increased wage costs or inventory values for any subsidiary which was eligible for and received the Reconstruction Finance Corporation basic meat subsidy on its own account for the February and March 1946 accounting periods. The term "subsidiary" as used herein means any corporation the majority of the voting stock of which is owned or controlled by the slaughterers.

§ 8.5 Applications. Applications for this subsidy payment shall be executed in duplicate and filed not later than May 25, 1946, with the Livestock Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. Applications shall be on form number LS–99 which may be obtained from said Livestock Branch or from the Regional Offices of the Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture located at 5 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago 3, Illinois, and 821 Market Street, San Francisco, California, respectively. Separate applications need not be submitted for individual plants, branch houses or offices, but separate statements containing the information required by the application must be filed for each subsidiary other than those who are eligible for and who received the Reconstruction Finance Corporation basic meat subsidy on their own accounts for the February and March 1946 accounting periods. There must be attached to each statement covering each subsidiary a complete description of the relationship between such subsidiary and the slaughterer.

Where increased wage payments were made in anticipation of the general wage scale increase approved by the General Pattern Approval referred to in § 8.2 (d), the applicant should certify the date when such increased payments were first made, the period covered by such payments, and the nature of the increase, that is, whether a basic wage scale increase, intra-plant adjustment, or an adjustment to correct inequities, etc.

§ 8.6 Certification of subsidy. The Secretary of Agriculture or his duly authorized representative shall examine all applications and, upon being satisfied of the truth of the statements contained therein, shall compute the amount due thereon. The application will then be certified by the Secretary of Agriculture or his duly authorized representative and will be transmitted to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, which will, pursuant to its regulations, disburse the amount so certified.

§ 8.7 Other conditions. (a) Every slaughterer who files an application under this part shall, for at least two years thereafter, maintain accurate and complete records showing wage payments made by it and its subsidiaries for the period from January 26 through March 10, 1946. Such records shall show the name of each employee, the nature of the employee's work, and the amount paid to him pursuant to the above-mentioned orders and approvals of the National Wage Stabilization Board and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Each such slaughterer shall also keep for a period of two years accurate and complete records of its inventory of meat and meat products as of March 10, 1946. Such inventory shall include all items referred to in § 8.3 and shall disclose the locations of such items. The Secretary of Agriculture or any employee of the United States of America acting for him may, at any reasonable time, make audits and inspections of the books, records, and other writing and premises of any slaughterer applying under this part.

(b) The Secretary of Agriculture or his authorized representative may request the submission of other and additional information from any slaughterer prior to certification of its application for payment.

(c) By submitting an application, pursuant to this part, a slaughterer agrees to comply with all the terms and conditions of this part.

These regulations shall be effective April 23, 1946.

Secretary of Agriculture.

PART 3270—CONTAINERS

[Conservation Order M–81 as Amended Apr. 23, 1946]

CANS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of materials entering into the manufacture of cans for defense, for private account and for export, and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3270.31 Conservation Order M–81—(a) What this order does. This order establishes the sequence of manufacture and delivery, and limits the use of cans made of tinplate, terneplate or blackplate. The order lists in Schedule I the only products which may be packed in tinplate, terneplate, or blackplate cans. Certain exceptions are stated in paragraphs (h), (i), (j), and (k).

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Can" means any unused container made in whole or in part of tinplate, terneplate, or blackplate, which is suitable for packing any product. The term includes any container which has a closure or fitting, made in whole or in part of tinplate, terneplate or blackplate, but does not include a glass container having such a closure or fitting. The term does not include fluid milk shipping containers.

(2) "Tinplate" means steel sheets coated with tin (including primes and seconds) and includes (i) electrolytic tinplate in which the tin coating is applied by electrolytic deposition, and (ii) hot dipped tinplate in which the tin coatings are applied by immersion in molten tin. The term includes hot dipped tinplate waste-waste, but not electrolytic tinplate waste-waste or tinplate waste.

(3) "Terneplate" means steel sheets coated with terne metal (including primes and seconds). The term does not include terneplate waste-waste or terneplate waste. "Terne metal" means the lead-tin alloy used as the coating for terneplate but does not include lead recovered from secondary sources which contains not more than 2½ percent residual tin.

(4) "SCMT" means special coated manufacturers' terneplate.

(5) "Waste" means scrap tinplate and terneplate (including strips and circles) produced in the ordinary course of manufacturing cans and tinplate and terneplate strips produced in the ordinary course of manufacturing tinplate and terneplate. The term also includes tinplate and terneplate parts recovered from used cans.

(6) "Waste-waste" means hot dipped or electrolytic tin-coated steel sheets or steel sheets coated with terne metal which have been rejected during processing by the producer because of imperfections which disqualify such sheets from sale as primes or seconds.

(7) "Blackplate" means steel sheets (other than tinplate or terneplate) 29 gauge or lighter. The term includes "blackplate rejects", chemically treated blackplate (CTB), electrolytic tinplate waste-waste, terneplate waste-waste, tinplate waste, and terneplate waste. The term does not include hot dipped tinplate waste-waste.

RESTRICTIONS ON CAN MANUFACTURERS

(c) General restrictions on sale, manufacture and delivery. No person shall sell, manufacture or deliver any cans which he knows, or has reason to believe, will be accepted or used in violation of any provision of this order.

(d) Manufacturing and delivery preferences for certain types of cans. (1) Can manufacturers must disregard preference ratings (except AAA) in accepting and filling orders for cans.

(2) Every can manufacturer must regard each of his requirements contracts as an order calling for delivery of cans in the quantities and at the times he reasonably anticipates will be requested under the contract, based on past experience under the same or similar contracts. (A "requirements contract" is a contract under which a purchaser of cans agrees to buy his entire requirements of cans from a certain can manufacturer for a stated period without specifying the delivery dates on which the cans will be required or the quantities which will be required.) So far as practicable every can manufacturer shall schedule his operations (including his ordering of tinplate, terneplate and blackplate) so as to permit delivery of cans in the quantities and at the times he reasonably anticipates will be requested. Where he is unable to schedule all orders for cans for delivery at the time he anticipates will be requested, he should schedule his operations and select the orders to be placed in his production schedule according to the following preference:

(i) Anticipated requirements for cans to pack products designated with the letter A in Column 2 of Schedule I, or cans for home canning made under paragraph (j).

(ii) Anticipated requirements for cans to pack products designated with the letter B in Column 2 of Schedule I.

(iii) Anticipated requirements for cans to pack products designated with the letter C in Column 2 of Schedule I.

(3) A can manufacturer must not wait until he receives actual delivery orders under his requirements contracts before giving those contracts the preferential treatment described in paragraph (d) (2). Also he must not fill any orders for cans with lower preference designations if by doing so he will make himself unable to meet deliveries which he reasonably anticipates will be requested for cans with a higher preference.

(e) Completion and sale of outdated cans. Whenever can material specifications for a product are changed by an amendment to this order, a can manufacturer must continue to sell, make and deliver cans for that product (subject to the preferences of paragraph (d)) in accordance with the former specifications and must not make any cans conforming to the new specifications as long as there is available to him tinplate, terneplate, or blackplate which was intended for use under the former specifications, and which was in process at the tin mill or in its inventory for his account, or in his own inventory on the date of the change.

(f) Certificate for deliveries of cans. No can manufacturer shall sell, make or deliver any cans unless he has received from the purchaser after March 1, 1946, a certificate signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation 7. This certificate shall be in substantially the following form and once filed by a purchaser with a supplier, covers all future deliveries from the supplier to that purchaser:

> The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to criminal penalties for misrepresentation, that he is familiar with Order M–81 of the Civilian Production Administration, and that all purchases from you of items regulated by that order, and the use of the cans by the undersigned, will be in compliance with that order.

The standard certificate described in Priorities Regulation 7 may not be used in place of this certificate. Any person who has given a certificate under this order before March 1, 1946, need not file a new certificate until March 14, 1946.

RESTRICTIONS ON CAN USERS

(g) General restrictions on use of cans. No person may use a tinplate, terneplate, or blackplate can for any purpose other than for packing the products listed in Schedule I in accordance with the packing quota, size and material limitations set forth in that schedule. The only exceptions to this rule are set forth in paragraphs (h) through (k).

(h) Exception for small users. Any person whose total use of cans for packing in any calendar year requires less than 250 base boxes of tinplate and terneplate may use cans with the soldered parts made from 0.25 electrolytic tinplate for packing any product, except animal food (see paragraph (i)). Such small users are exempt from packing quotas for tinplate or terneplate cans.

(i) Exception for persons without quotas. Where a packing quota is established in Schedule I for a particular product, any person who did not pack that product during the base period stated may continue to pack it until March 14, 1946 without regard to the packing quota. If he wants to pack that product after that date, he must apply for a quota by filing a letter in duplicate with the Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–81. This letter should state what product or products he wants to pack and what facilities he has for this purpose. Civilian Production Administration will assign a quota to him on an equitable basis in view of the quotas of other packers in the industry.

(j) Exception for products which are not to be sold. Cans may be used to pack any product which is not to be sold in the same or different form, but this does not permit the use of cans contrary to the other provisions of the order for the purpose of advertising or promoting the sale of a product.

As explained in paragraph (d) a can manufacturer shall schedule requirements of cans produced for home canning under this paragraph in accordance with preference "A". Any other cans produced under this paragraph shall be scheduled in accordance with preference "C".

(k) Exception for cans permitted before an amendment. Whenever can material specifications for a product are changed by an amendment to this order, any person may pack that product in any can which was permitted before the amendment if the can, or the tinplate, terneplate, or blackplate incorporated in it, was in his inventory, in the inventory of the can manufacturer, or in process or in inventory at a tin mill for the account of the can manufacturer on the date of the amendment. A packer must accept and use (within quota) any outdated cans for any product produced under paragraph (e) which the can manufacturer offers to him before using any cans for that product produced under the new specifications.

(l) Prohibition against use of tinplate for cans for animal food. No person shall use cans with any part made of tinplate, tinplate waste-waste, or tinplate waste, for packing any food which is not intended and suitable for human consumption. The use of such cans for animal and pet food is not permitted.

MISCELLANEOUS

(m) Appeals. Appeals from this order shall be filed by addressing a letter in triplicate to the Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–81. The letter of appeal need not follow any particular form. It should state informally, but completely, the provisions appealed from, the precise relief desired, the reasons why denial of the appeal would result in undue and excessive hardship, and such other statistical and narrative information as may be pertinent.

(n) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–81.

(o) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further delivery of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 23d day of April 1946.

CIVILIAN PRODUCTION ADMINISTRATION,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE I

Column 1. Listed products. Listed in this column are the only products, which may be packed in cans. Certain exceptions are stated in paragraphs (h), (i), (j), and (k).

Column 2. Sequence of manufacture and delivery. This column indicates the sequence which a can manufacturer must follow in the manufacture and delivery of cans permitted by this order. (see paragraph (d)).

Column 3. Packing quotas. (a) This column indicates the permitted packing quotas for the respective listed products. The quotas for the respective products are not interchangeable unless so noted. Where the word "unlimited" appears in the column opposite a particular product this means that a packer may use the specified cans in an unlimited quantity to pack that particular product. Where the permitted packing quota is specified with a percentage only, as for example, "100%", this means that the packer's packing quota for the calendar year 1946 is 100% of the quantity, by area of measurement of tinplate, terneplate and blackplate used by him for packing the particular product during 1941 or 1945, whichever was greater. Where the percentage is followed by a year, as, for example, "100% of 1944" this means that the packer's packing quota for 1946 is 100% of the quantity, by area of measurement of tinplate, terneplate and blackplate used by him for packing the particular product during the base year specified. Cans used for packing any product for U. S. Army or Navy use are exempt from the quota restrictions, and, in determining the packing quota for any product, all cans packed for these agencies during the base period specified shall be excluded.

(b) In addition to the general quota restrictions described above, from March 1 to September 30, 1946, no packer may use or accept delivery in any calendar month, or order for delivery in any calendar month, more cans for a product with a packing quota than 10% of his 1946 quota for that product. This monthly limit does not apply to any product marked with an asterisk (*) in column 3 of Schedule I, or to any person whose total use of cans in 1946 does not exceed one carload. Also it does not require any person to order or accept delivery of cans in less than carload lots.

(c) For products designated with the letter "B" in Column 2 the quota restrictions apply to all cans for that product (including any cans made wholly of blackplate); except that any packer may order, accept delivery of, and use cans made wholly of blackplate in addition to his quota if the cans were completely fabricated on March 1, 1946, or if the packer notifies the can manufacturer in writing that the additional blackplate cans are to be scheduled in accordance with preference "C".

(d) For products designated with the letter "C" in Column 2, the quota restrictions do not apply to cans made wholly of blackplate.

Column 4, Can sizes. This column indicates the permitted sizes of cans, except that any person may use for packing any listed product a can which is larger than the largest listed size for packing that product. Wherever the can size is specified by weight, the weight referred to shall be net weight of the contents of the can. Other can sizes are described in the terminology common to the industry such as "cylinder", "picnic", "oval", "drawn", "tall", "2", "10", "8Z", etc.

Columns 5 and 6. Can materials. These columns specify the materials permitted for the soldered and nonsoldered parts of the cans for each of the listed products. Any person may also use for packing a listed product blackplate cans or cans with a tin coating lighter than that specified for that product. Hot dipped tinplate waste-waste may be used wherever 0.50 or heavier tinplate is specified. Wherever "CTB" (chemically treated blackplate) is specified for food products 0.50 electrolytic tinplate may be substituted where such cans are to be delivered to the Army or the Navy for overseas use; however, where in such cases the cans are to pack listed meat products, 1.25 tinplate may be substituted. Wherever SCMT is specified, 0.25 electrolytic tinplate may be used. When only a figure is given in Column 5 or Column 6, this means that tinplate may be used for the part, and the figure given indicates the maximum weight of tin coating per single base box. Menders arising in the production of 0.50 electrolytic tinplate, which have been hot dipped with a maximum tin coating of 1.25 pounds per base box, may be used wherever 0.50 or heavier tinplate is specified in these columns. Menders arising in the production of 0.25 electrolytic tinplate which have been converted into SCMT may be used wherever 0.25 or heavier tinplate is specified in this order for nonfood cans. When a scored can is used to pack any of the meat products listed in this schedule, 1.25 tinplate may be used for the body of the can.

PART 903—DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

[CPA Reg. 3]

INTERPRETATIONS OF REGULATIONS AND ORDERS OF THE CIVILIAN PRODUCTION ADMINISTRATION

§ 903.02 Civilian Production Administration Regulation No. 3—(a) Purpose. The purpose of this regulation is to establish rules governing the issuance of interpretations of regulations and orders of the Civilian Production Administration. No interpretations shall be deemed to be official or binding upon the Civilian Production Administration unless issued in accordance with this regulation.

(b) Two classes of official interpretations. By "published interpretation" is meant an official interpretation which has been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. In the usual case, interpretations will be so published only when the interpretation is of wide general interest. By "unpublished interpretation" is meant any other interpretation issued pursuant to this regulation. Unpublished interpretations are issued to one or more individuals and interpret a regulation or order with respect to individual transactions or operations not believed to be of general interest.

(c) Authority to issue interpretations. (1) Published interpretations are issued only in the name of the Civilian Production Administrator or in the name of the Civilian Production Administration, countersigned or attested by the Recording Secretary of the Civilian Production Administration.

(2) Unpublished interpretations are issued only (i) in the same form as published interpretations, or (ii) over the name of the General Counsel, the Solicitor, an Assistant General Counsel, Regional Attorney or Deputy Regional Attorney of the Civilian Production Administration.

(d) Effect of interpretations. (1) A published interpretation shall have the same force and effect as the regulation or order interpreted, regardless of whether a particular individual has actual knowledge of the published interpretation.

(2) An unpublished interpretation shall be binding only upon persons having actual knowledge thereof.

(3) In the event of conflict between a published and an unpublished interpretation the published interpretation shall prevail.

(e) WPB Regulation 3 superseded; existing interpretations remain in effect. This regulation supersedes War Production Board Regulation 3. All existing interpretations issued in accordance with WPB Regulation 3, or in the manner specified in paragraph (c) above, are hereby ratified and remain in full force and effect until they are revoked or amended.

Issued this 23d day of April 1946.

J. D. SMALL,
Administrator.

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

[Supplementary Order M-317C]

COTTON SALE YARN PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION

§ 3290.371 Supplementary Order M-317C—(a) What this order does. This order states the special rules for production and distribution of cotton sale yarn. The production requirements relate to both the kinds and quantities of cotton sale yarn to be produced, and also controls dyeing and blending operations. The distribution requirements relate to set-asides for specified purposes, the certificates of use which must be filed with purchase orders in order to obtain set-aside cotton sale yarn, and the effect and use of preference ratings. The set-aside percentage figures are shown at the end of this order. Cotton sale yarn was formerly subject to Supplementary Order M-317B, revoked August 20, 1945.

(b) Definitions. (1) "Cotton yarn" means yarn containing 50% or more by weight of cotton or cotton waste or any combination of the two, spun on roving, ring, tube twister or converted twister spindles, or produced on the woolen system. The term includes gray, bleached, mercerized, colored, glazed or polished yarn, whether single, ply, twisted or braided, and including thread, sash cord, rope, twine and cordage (for example, tying, sail or seine twine, and cotton tire cords, including cotton tire cord held together loosely or by one or more picks).

(2) "Cotton sale yarn" means cotton yarn offered by the producer for sale to, or produced for the account of, any person not under common ownership or control with the producer.

(3) "Producer" means any person who operates spindles in the production of cotton sale yarn in the forty-eight States or the District of Columbia, for his own account or for the account of another.

Production Directions

(c) Kinds of cotton sale yarn to be produced. (1) Each spindle which on December 31, 1945 (or the last prior date when the spindle was in operation) produced cotton sale yarn in any of the following groups, may be operated only to produce cotton sale yarn in that same group, beginning May 1, 1946.

Group No.	Form CPA 638–F 4/5/46 item numbers	Did	produce—may produce only
1	1 through 12	Carded yarns, single and ply other than machine knitting, all counts.
2	13 through 16	Carded machine knitting yarns, single and ply, all counts.
3	17	Carded mop yarns.
4	18	Speeder spun or roving yarns other than mop yarns.
5	19	Carded insulating yarns, waste, part waste and tinged.
6	20	Hose cord (tube twist only).
7	21	Carded cordage, rope and twine yarns.
8	22	Carded thread yarns
9	23	Other carded yarns.
10	24 through 32	Combed yarns, single and ply, other than machine knitting, all counts.
11	33 through 44	Combed machine knitting yarns, single and ply, all counts.
12	45	Combed thread yarns.
13	46	Other combed yarns.
14	54, 55	Cords and rope (braided, solid and hollow); and twisted rope.
15	56	Seine twine, hawser cord and other cabled cord.
16	57 through 60	Tying and wrapping twines, unpolished, polished; sewing twines; all other twines.

(2) The above provision applies to all kinds of spindles used in the production of cotton sale yarn, and applies regardless of any change of ownership or control of any spindle after December 31, 1945 (or the last prior date when the spindle was in operation).

(d) Minimum quantity of cotton sale yarn to be produced and delivered. (1) Each person in the business of producing cotton yarn after May 1, 1946, shall produce and deliver the following quantities of cotton sale yarn:

(i) During the period May 1 through June 30, 1946, not less than the smaller of the following: 80% (i. e., ⅔ of 120%) of the poundage of cotton sale yarn which he delivered in the fourth calendar quarter of 1945; or two-thirds of the poundage of cotton sale yarn which he delivered in the calendar quarter between January 1, 1944 and December 31, 1945, inclusive, in which he delivered the most cotton sale yarn.

(ii) During any calendar quarter after June 30, 1946, not less than the smaller of the following: 120% of the poundage of cotton sale yarn which he delivered in the fourth calendar quarter of 1945; or 100% of the poundage of cotton sale yarn which he delivered in the calendar quarter between January 1, 1944 and December 31, 1945, inclusive, in which he delivered the most cotton sale yarn.

(2) A producer who operates spindles acquired by him on or after January 1, 1944, for the production of any cotton yarn must include deliveries by the former operator of cotton sale yarn produced on these spindles between January 1, 1944 and December 31, 1945, inclusive (except deliveries by the former operator to the new producer), for the purpose of computing poundages to be delivered after May 1, 1946.

(e) Special provisions regarding production directions—(1) Production at a loss. In cases of appeal for suspension of the requirements of paragraph (c) or (d) on the ground that compliance will result in production at a loss, an application for price relief on that ground must first be filed with the Secretary of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and a copy filed with the CPA appeal. If the CPA appeal is granted, the requirement of these paragraphs for changes in production or for increases above current production will be suspended until the decision by the Office of Price Administration upon the application for price relief. This paragraph does not indicate or limit the extent or kind of price relief, if any, which may be granted by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) Interchange of spindle production. A mill which has some spindles which are subject to paragraph (c), and other spindles which are not, may interchange the production of equal numbers of similar spindles between the two groups in order to facilitate plant operations, Provided, That the interchange does not have the effect of reducing production of the required kinds and quantities of cotton sale yarn.

(f) Maximum ratio of dyed yarns to total yarns—(1) Permanent dyes. During the period May 1 through June 30, 1946, and during each calendar quarter after that, no producer shall sell or deliver more dyed cotton sale yarn (not including fugitive dyes or tints) than he sold and delivered during the year 1941.

(2) Fugitive dyes. During the period May 1 through June 30, 1946, and during each calendar quarter after that, no person shall sell or deliver more cotton sale yarn dyed with a "fugitive dye" or "fugitive tint" which can be completely removed by normal commercial washing and scouring, than he sold and delivered during the year 1941.

(3) Persons who did not sell or deliver dyed yarn in 1941. A person who is prohibited by paragraph (f) (1) or (2) above from selling or delivering dyed yarn because he did not sell or deliver any dyed yarn in 1941 may appeal for a quota under paragraph (q) below.

(g) Blended yarn spindle limitation. On and after May 1, 1946, no person shall operate at any one time a greater number of spindles in the production of blended cotton sale yarn than the maximum number of spindles which he operated in such production at any one time during the fourth calendar quarter of 1945. A "blended" yarn is one which is composed partly (at least 50%) of cotton fibers and partly of other fibers.

Set-Asides

(h) Set-aside for M-328B knit goods and any knit hosiery and underwear. Each producer shall set aside from his production of each cotton sale yarn during the period May 1 through June 30, 1946, inclusive, and during each calendar quarter after that, an amount not less than the percentage specified in column 4 of the appendix, for delivery only on orders certified for ultimate use in knit goods under M-328B programs or for ultimate use in knit hosiery or underwear (whether or not under M-328B programs).

(i) Set-aside for woolen and worsted fabrics. Each producer shall set aside from his production of each cotton sale yarn during the period May 1 through June 30, 1946, inclusive, and during each calendar quarter after that, an amount not less than the percentage specified in column 5 of the appendix, for delivery only on orders certified for ultimate use in woolen and worsted fabrics.

(j) Set-aside for agricultural and industrial uses and for making certain products. Each producer shall set aside from his production of each cotton sale yarn during the period May 1 through June 30, 1946, inclusive, and during each calendar quarter after that, an amount not less than the percentage specified in column 6 of the appendix, for delivery only on orders certified for any of the following purposes:

(1) To make fabrics listed in Order L-99 "May Produce Only" column of Schedule A and B; or

(2) To make wind resistant, or corduroy, or upholstery (including upholstery for transportation equipment) broad woven fabrics (12" or more in width); or

(3) To make narrow woven or braided products (less than 12" in width), except decorative ribbons, decorative tapes or decorative braids; or

(4) For "agricultural or industrial purposes", meaning any of the following purposes for which cotton sale yarn may be used, whether directly or as a component in the manufacture of items required for that purpose (but not including yarn used to make woven fabrics):

(i) Maintenance, repair, and operating supplies or capital equipment for any manufacturing, extractive (including mining and commercial fishing), agricultural, public utility or public transportation operation.

(ii) Production materials to be used in the manufacture of vehicles (including aircraft); building materials; construction machinery; tires; elastic yarn; rubber hose and belts; footwear; thread; furniture; dual (purpose) sleeping equipment; and electrical, industrial, agricultural, food processing or transportation equipment.

(k) Additional set-aside for paragraph (h), (i) and (j) purposes. (1) Each producer shall set aside from his production of each cotton sale yarn during the period May 1 through June 30, 1946, inclusive, and during each quarter after that, an amount not less than the percentage specified in column 7 of the appendix, for delivery only on orders certified for any of the following purposes:

Woolen or worsted fabrics; or
Knit goods under M-328B programs; or
Knit hosiery or underwear (whether or not under M-328B programs); or Fabrics listed in Order L-99 "May Produce Only" column of Schedule A or B; or Wind resistant, or corduroy, or upholstery (including upholstery for transportation equipment); broad-woven fabrics (12" or more in width); or Narrow woven or braided products (less than 12" in width), except decorative ribbons, decorative tapes or decorative braids; or
"Agricultural or industrial purposes" as defined in paragraph (j) (4) above.

(2) This set-aside is in addition to the specific set-asides for the same purposes in paragraph (h), (i) and (j) above, and may be distributed among purchase orders certified for those purposes in any proportion, Provided, That these orders are accepted and filled in accordance with their preference ratings, if any.

(l) Set-aside for export. Each producer shall set aside from his production of each cotton sale yarn during the period May 1 through June 30, 1946, inclusive, and during each calendar quarter after that an amount not less than the percentage specified in column 8 of the appendix, for delivery only on orders certified for export as yarn (including export to Canada). Yarn set aside under this paragraph shall not be delivered on orders for eventual export by the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, American Red Cross, or any U. S. military exchange or service department as defined in Priorities Regulation 17.

(m) General provisions for set-asides.—(1) Explanation of terms. The term "each cotton sale yarn" in the above set-aside provisions refers to each group of cotton sale yarns having the same Reference Number in column 1 of the appendix. The "periods" referred to in the following subparagraphs (2) and (3) are the initial set-aside period May 1 through June 30, 1946, and each calendar quarterly set-aside period after that.

(2) Quantities to be set aside and carry-overs from previous periods. The undelivered balance of the total quantity required to be set aside for any purpose during any period shall be added to the percentage of production during the next period which must be set aside for that purpose. The sum of the carry-over plus the required percentage of current production constitutes the total quantity of each set-aside during each period. For the purpose of determining set-aside quantities during any period, production during that period must be estimated as being at least equal to two-thirds of production in the first quarter of 1946, for the purpose of the May 1 through June 30, 1946, set asides, or as being at least equal to the previous quarter's production, in the case of quarterly set-asides after June 30, 1946.

(3) How deliveries on certified orders should be charged against set-asides. Deliveries in excess of the quantity required to be set aside for any purpose may not be credited against the set aside for any other purpose, nor against the next period's set-aside for the same purpose. Also, deliveries on orders certified for any set-aside purpose in paragraph (h), (i) or (j) may be credited against the set-aside under the applicable one of those paragraphs, or may be credited against the set-aside under paragraph (k), but may not be credited against both. The set-aside for each purpose is a minimum required quantity, and does not prevent additional quantities being delivered from production which has not been set aside for other purposes.

(4) Production for another's account. A producer of cotton sale yarn for the account of another person must treat that yarn as part of his (the producer's) own production for the purpose of the above set-aside provisions, and may not deliver the yarn to anyone, including the person for whose account it was produced, except upon receipt of certificates of ultimate use which meet the terms of the required set-asides.

Certificates

(n) When purchase order certificate required, and restrictions on use or resale of yarn received on certification. No producer may deliver cotton sale yarn which he is required to set aside under this order for any ultimate use or uses, except on purchase orders with certificates stating that the yarn ordered will be used or resold for the required use or uses. A person who has obtained cotton sale yarns on certification may use them only as certified, and may resell them only on orders similarly certified (or, in case of yarn going into M-328B programs, on orders certified in the manner required by Order M-328B, and its directions and schedules). However, he may resell at retail without certification from the buyer unless he knows or has reason to believe that the buyer will not use the yarn for the certified purpose.

Delivery shall not be made on any order which the seller knows or has reason to believe is falsely certified, or on any uncertified order which is required to be certified, even though the order is rated MM or CC.

(o) Content and form of certificate. (1) The purchase order certificate must state the ultimate use of the cotton yarn ordered, and must be certified and signed, substantially as follows:

For use or resale for use in knit goods for M-328B programs or in any knit hosiery or underwear, or

For use or resale for use in making woolen or worsted fabrics, or

For use or resale for use in making the following (specify which ones): Corduroy broad woven fabrics, Wind resistant broad woven fabrics, Upholstery broad woven fabrics, Transportation upholstery broad woven fabrics, CPA Order L-99 "May Produce Only" fabrics, Narrow woven or braided products other than decorative ribbons, tapes, braids, or

For use or resale for "industrial or agricultural purposes" under CPA Order M-317C, or

For export as yarn (or state that, "These cotton yarns will be exported, or will replace in inventory similar cotton yarns which have been exported within 90 days"; moreover, except in cases of export of cotton sale yarn of kinds which may be exported on General License, the following information must also be furnished: state the governing export license number and date of validation, or the United States Treasury Procurement Division contract number and date; or if the export is to Canada, so state and add the Canadian Cotton Administrator's Serial Number and date).

The above statements of use must be followed by the following standard form of certification, signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation 7:

The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to the penalties of section 35 (a) of the United States Criminal Code, to the seller and to the Civilian Production Administration that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the undersigned is authorized under applicable Civilian Production Administration regulations and orders to place this delivery order, to receive the item(s) ordered for the purpose and to use any preference rating which the undersigned has placed on this order.

(2) In addition to the above statement of ultimate use, the applicable rating (if any) and the statement of the source of the rating (required by paragraph (c) of Order M-317) may be inserted in the above certificate instead of being certified separately.

Preference Ratings

(p) Effect of preference ratings. (1) Purchase orders which are duly certified for any set-aside purpose and also bear preference ratings and the statement of source of rating required by Order M-317, must be accepted and filled from the applicable set-aside in accordance with the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1. On the other hand, delivery may not be made of any set-aside cotton sale yarn on any order which is not certified as required by paragraphs (n) and (o) above, regardless of ratings.

(2) No producer need accept rated orders which would cause him to deliver, from the balance of his production not subject to set-asides, more of any cotton sale yarns having the same Reference Number (in column 1 of the Appendix) than the percentage of his total production of that group specified in Column 10 of the appendix. Deliveries on rated orders which have been credited against any set-aside may not be credited against the rating ceiling of this paragraph. On the other hand, deliveries on rated orders which are certified for set-aside purposes may be credited against the rating ceiling of this paragraph if the applicable set-asides were exhausted and the deliveries are not credited against any set-aside.

(3) Paragraphs (p) (1) and (2) above refer to MM and CC rated orders. Orders rated AAA must be accepted and filled regardless of conflict with any provisions of this order.

(4) No producer of cotton yarn shall use any preference rating to obtain cotton yarn from another producer, except to the extent authorized by the Civilian Production Administration, upon his showing on Form CPA-2842, that his own production is insufficient or unsuitable. This does not apply to orders accepted before April 23, 1946.

(5) Preference ratings assigned for the export of cotton sale yarn expire if they are not applied or extended to an order accepted by a producer within six months of the date the rating was assigned.

(6) No person is required to accept any rated order for cotton sale yarn calling for delivery more than 90 days after the receipt of the order, except from the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration.

Miscellaneous

(q) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provisions appealed from, and stating fully the ground of the appeal.

(r) Reports. Each producer of cotton yarn shall file a report with the Civilian Production Administration on Forms CPA 658-E at the time and in the manner prescribed in that form. This reporting requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget under the Federal Reports Acts of 1942.

(s) Communications. All reports, appeals and other communications concerning this order shall be addressed to: Civilian Production Administration, Textile Division, Washington 25, D. C. Ref.: M-317C.

Issued this 23d day of April 1946.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[Limitation Order L–354, as Amended Apr. 23, 1946]

LEAD CHEMICALS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of lead and lead chemicals, both imported and domestic, for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate to the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3293.657 Limitation Order L–354—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(d) Method of computing lead content of lead chemicals. This order limits the amount of lead which a person may put into process in any calendar quarter for the production of certain products to a percentage of the lead which he put into process during the first six months of 1944. In order to determine this percentage of lead in lead chemicals, during the base period, the following table should be used:

Lead chemicals:	Pounds of lead per 100 pounds of lead chemicals
Lead acetate (basic)	60
Lead acetate (normal)	55
Lead antimonate	63

Lead arsenate	60
Lead arsenite	50
Lead chloride	75
Lead dioxide	87
Lead nitrate	63
Lead silicate (mono)	80
Lead silicate (di)	61

(e) Inventory restrictions. Lead chemicals appear in Table 1 of Priorities Regulation 32. Inventories of these chemicals are subject to all provisions of that regulation.

(f) Applications for quotas for lead chemicals. (1) Any person who does not have a quota for putting lead into process for the production of lead chemicals and who wishes to use more than 5,000 pounds of lead a quarter for lead chemicals other than chrome pigments or 1,000 pounds of lead a quarter for chrome pigments, may apply for a quota by filing a letter with the Civilian Production Administration, Chemicals Division, Washington 25, D. C. Ref: L–354. The letter should state in addition to any other pertinent information what lead chemicals the applicant wishes to make, what facilities he has for this purpose and the amount of lead he will need for this purpose per quarter. A quota will be assigned to him on an equitable basis.

(2) Applications for quotas for insecticides. Any person who does not have a quota for putting lead into process for the production of insecticides and who wishes to use more than 1,000 pounds of lead a quarter may apply for a quota by filing a letter with the Civilian Production Administration. The letter should state the information indicated in paragraph (f) (1) above.

(g) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the Civilian Production Administration, as amended from time to time.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–934]

SAMUELS BROTHERS

Samuel Samuels and Victor Samuels, doing business as Samuels Brothers, at 1010 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, are engaged principally in the manufacture of boys' clothing and caps. During the fourth quarter of 1945, the partners placed orders bearing CC ratings for 15,020 yards of wool fabrics, although they were authorized on Form WPB–3732 to place orders bearing such ratings for only 6,500 yards of wool fabrics. The placing of these rated orders for 8,520 yards of wool fabrics in excess of the amount authorized constituted a violation of Priorities Regulation No. 3. However, it appears that through error on the part of the partners, authorization was granted by the Civilian Production Administration for 6,500 yards, when, in fact, if the error had not been made, authorization would have amounted to 9,745 yards. This violation has interfered with the controls established by the Civilian Production Administration for the distribution of critical materials. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered that:

§ 1010.934 Suspension Order No. S–934. (a) Samuel Samuels and Victor Samuels shall reduce the amount of wool fabrics for which they may be authorized to extend ratings during the second quarter of 1946 under Schedule K of Order M–328–B, by the amount of 5,275 yards.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Samuel Samuels and Victor Samuels from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Civilian Production Administration, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) Samuel Samuels and Victor Samuels shall refer to this order in any application or appeal that they may file with the Civilian Production Administration during the second quarter of 1946 dealing with their use of textiles.

(d) The restrictions and provisions contained herein shall apply to Samuel Samuels and Victor Samuels, doing business as Samuels Brothers or under any other name, their successors and assigns, or persons acting in their behalf. Prohibitions against the taking of any action include the taking indirectly as well as directly of any such action.

Issued this 22d day of April 1946.

PART 1305—ADMINISTRATION

[SO 156]

INDIVIDUAL ADJUSTMENTS FOR MANUFACTURERS OF PULP, PAPER AND PAPER PRODUCTS AND CERTAIN RELATED SERVICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this supplementary order, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

SECTION 1. Applicability. This supplementary order is applicable to manufacturers with respect to pulp, paper and paper products and directly related services covered by the following regulations:

General Maximum Price Regulation
Revised Maximum Price Regulations: 114, 129, 130, 140, 187, 266, 369, 451
Maximum Price Regulations: 32, 182, 307, 359, 365, 449, 450, 459, 463, 480, 567

SEC. 2. When adjustments may be granted: The Office of Price Administration may adjust the maximum price of a commodity for any seller affected by the regulations mentioned above, when either condition (a) or (b) is satisfied and condition (c) is also satisfied:

(a) Continuance of the seller's production of that grade is required to meet an essential need, or

(b) Loss of that seller's production of that grade will force his customers to resort to higher priced sources of supply, and no adequate substitute for that grade is available to his customers at a price equal to or lower than the adjusted maximum price he requests, and

(c) The commodity or commodities involved constitute a substantial portion of the seller's total sales or of the total national output of the commodity. In general, the commodity or commodities will be a substantial portion of sales if they constitute:

1. More than 10% of total dollar sales of the company, or
2. More than 20% of the output of a single mill, or
3. More than 5% of total U. S. Production.

Provided, however, That where relief is granted under this supplementary order, price adjustments shall not be made to offset temporary decline in sales or production volume.

SEC. 3. Amount of adjustment. The relief that may be granted under this order is specified below and may be modified where necessary to do so for sound accounting reasons or where proper to accomplish the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive orders and orders of the Economic Stabilization Administrator. The adjustment granted will depend on the overall financial condition of the applicant, i. e.

(a) Where the company's current overall earnings rate, as defined in section 6, is less than its base period earnings rate, as defined in section 6, relief will be granted to bring the current overall earnings rate up to the base period earnings rate where the application involves the company's entire output. A proportionate adjustment will be granted where the application involves less than the company's entire output.

(b) Where the company's current overall earnings rate is between 100% and 115% of its base period earnings rate, relief on a given product will be limited to an amount sufficient to cover the lesser of total costs (including selling, general and administrative expenses), or manufacturing costs plus an amount sufficient to bring the company's current overall earnings rate to 115% of the base period earnings rate.

(c) Where the company's current overall earnings rate is more than 115% of its base period earnings rate, relief on a given product will be limited to an amount sufficient to cover manufacturing costs, i. e., costs exclusive of selling, general and administrative expenses: Provided, however, That, where a plant of a company is not covering total costs on its overall operation, the amount of the adjustment will be sufficient to cover total local costs as defined in section 6.

(d) In evaluating costs in (a), (b) and (c) above, whenever current output is substantially below the normal volume, overhead items may be adjusted to levels consistent with a normal rate of production.

(e) In determining current earnings rate under (a) (b) or (c) above, adjustments of current earnings may be made by the applicant or the Office of Price Administration to take account of the following factors; when applicable:

(1) Wage increases authorized in accordance with Executive Orders, orders and approvals of the National Wage Stabilization Board and/or orders of the Economic Stabilization Administrator;

(2) Increases in ceiling prices for raw materials;

(3) Seasonal, non-recurring or temporary factors affecting operations;

(4) Reductions below normal economic production capacity;

(5) Payment of excessive prices for materials or of excessive salaries or bonuses;

(6) Wage increases above levels recognized as a basis for price action by Executive Orders, orders of the National Wage Stabilization Board and/or orders of the Economic Stabilization Administrator;

(7) Abnormal increases of factory overhead, or of selling, general and administrative expenses;

(8) Transactions with affiliated firms differing from customary industry practices which result in abnormal prices;

(9) Unusual or unwarranted provisions for war or reconversion reserves or other contingencies;

(10) Abnormally high depreciation rates or accelerated depreciation of assets acquired by certificates of necessity for war purposes.

(11) Prospective increases in net sales due to increased ceiling prices, on a portion of output, that are not fully reflected in past statements.

SEC. 4. Data required in application. Applications for adjustment shall be filed in accordance with Article III of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. The applicant shall set forth the following data:

(a) Statement of the applicant's maximum price, the regulation and the section thereunder pursuant to which the price is determined, the proposed adjusted maximum price, the complete specifications of the commodity and the period of time the applicant has been producing the commodity.

(b) Grade costs for the last two quarterly accounting periods to be submitted on appropriate OPA Cost forms.

(c) Statement of the applicant's overall financial condition, including the information required by OPA Form A (Annual Financial Report) for the fiscal year next preceding the filing of the application, and the information required by OPA Form B (Interim Financial Report) for each quarterly period subsequent to the period covered by the A Report:

Provided, That no one need resubmit financial statements already filed with the Office of Price Administration and that the requirement that quarterly financial reports be filed may be waived in whole or in part by the Office of Price Administration.

(d) An itemized statement of the applicable adjustment factors under (3) (e) above.

(e) Balance sheets and profit and loss statements for the period 1936–1939 inclusive unless this information is available from other government sources.

(f) A complete statement of the reasons why the applicant believes he will be unable to maintain his production of the commodity at his established maximum price.

SEC. 5. Resellers. (a) Letter orders granting adjustments under this supplementary order may, notwithstanding other orders or regulations, establish dollar and cent increase factors, or a method of determining increase factors, which may be added by resellers to their maximum price.

(b) Each manufacturer and each reseller, excepting retailers, shall in every first shipment or delivery to a customer include a notice of the change in maximum price, the amount of the increase factor per unit to be added to the established price and the number of the order authorizing such change. Notice shall also be given that the increase factor permitted shall be added after determination of the maximum price in accordance with provisions of the applicable regulation.

SEC. 6. Definitions. As used in this order the terms:

(a) Current over-all earnings rate means the company's net earnings before income and excess profits taxes for the last full fiscal year or calendar year expressed as a percent of current net worth. Projected profits for interim periods will be used if: (1) over-all profits for the most recent accounting period indicate a change from profits earned during the last full year and (2) there are reasons for believing the changed level of profits will continue and (3) that it is not due to a decline in sales or production volume.

(b) Base period earnings rate means the average annual net earnings before taxes expressed as a percent of average net worth for the period 1936–1939 inclusive (or other period of normal operations as determined by OPA). Where the base period earnings rate was less than 3% of net worth, 3% of net worth will be used. Where the base period earnings rate was more than 17.5% of net worth, 17.5% of net worth will be used. Where a company was not in existence prior to the war, the average industry earnings rate will be used.

(c) Total local cost means the manufacturing cost of the product plus the lower of:

(1) General, selling and administrative cost which is directly allocable to the operation of the plant making the product (exclusive of general, selling and administrative expense incurred at the central office of the company) or

(2) An amount sufficient to permit the plant to break even on its over-all operations (exclusive of general, selling, and administrative expense incurred at the central office of the company).

SEC. 7. Relationship of this supplementary order to other regulations and orders. (a) With respect to pulp, paper and paper products and directly related services the preceding sections are substituted for the appropriate sections or paragraphs of the regulations listed below; provided that all individual adjustments hitherto granted and reseller's maximum prices resulting therefrom established under those regulations shall not be affected:

PART 1360—MOTOR VEHICLES AND MOTOR VEHICLE EQUIPMENT

MAXIMUM PRICES FOR USED COMMERCIAL MOTOR VEHICLES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Revised Maximum Price Regulation 341 is amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (d) (1) of section 6 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Sales within the 48 states in the United States and the District of Columbia. Upon any sale within the 48 states in the United States and the District of Columbia, the allowance that may be added is the amount based on the rate per hundredweight listed in Appendix D for shipment from the principal place of manufacture of the chassis to the area in which the seller's place of business is located. In the case of vehicles priced under paragraph (c) and Appendix G, when being sold by an agency of the United States Government, the place at which physical delivery is made to the purchaser, shall be considered as the seller's place of business. If applicable rates are not listed in Appendix D the allowance shall be an amount not to exceed the actual rail freight at carload rates as of March 31, 1942, or at current carload rates, whichever are lower, or $20.00. The carload rates shall be those for a vehicle of the same wheelbase, shipping weight (actual or as listed in Appendix C) and over-all size of the vehicle being priced, shipped by the most direct route from the principal place of manufacture of the chassis to the freight station nearest the seller's place of business.

This amendment shall become effective April 29, 1946.

PART 1373—PERSONAL HOUSEHOLD ACCESSORIES

[MPR 476, Amdt. 5]

LUGGAGE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation No. 476 is amended in the following respect:

Section 4 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 4. Manufacturers must calculate retail ceiling prices. If you are a manufacturer, you must calculate the retail ceiling price for each item of luggage in the following manner:

Step 1. Find your ceiling price (f. o. b. factory, exclusive of Federal excise tax) to the class of retailers which contained the largest number of your customers during August, 1943. (If you had no retailers as customers during August 1943, then find your highest ceiling price which you properly established either before or after that month for sales to any class of retailers.)

Step 2. Multiply that price by 1.82.

Step 3. To the figure so established you may add the manufacturer's Federal excise tax for all items in your factory on and after April 1, 1944, for which you have paid the manufacturer's Federal excise tax or for which you are obligated to pay the manufacturer's Federal excise tax. The resulting figure may be adjusted to the nearest $0.05. The resulting price is the ceiling price exclusive of the retail Federal excise tax for all sales of the item at retail.

For example, if the ceiling price found under Step 1 for a certain men's wardrobe is $10.00, exclusive of Federal excise tax, you multiply that price by 1.82, obtaining $18.20. If you have not paid a manufacturer's excise tax, this price is the ceiling price exclusive of retail Federal excise tax for all sales at retail. If you have paid or are obligated to pay the manufacturer's excise tax, you add $1.00 (the amount of the manufacturer's excise tax) to $18.20. The resulting figure ($19.20) is then the ceiling price exclusive of the retail Federal excise tax for all sales at retail.

This amendment shall become effective on the 29th day of April 1946.

PAUL A. PORTER,
Administrator.

C., with respect to such pattern a report in the detail required by Form No. 666:299.

(c) Reports by resellers. No reseller using a percentage factor of more than 125% in determining his maximum price in accordance with § 1400.165 (b) shall deliver a woven decorative fabric after June 4, 1946, until (1) he has submitted to the Textile Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., a statement indicating (i) which type of reseller he is under the definitions in § 1400.161 (a) (11), (ii) for which factors set forth in the applicable subparagraph of § 1400.165 (b) he qualifies, (iii) the facts on the basis of which he falls within the definition and (iv) the facts on the basis of which he qualifies under § 1400.165 (b) for any factors higher than the minimum provided for the type of reseller he is; and (2) he has received an acknowledgment in writing of the receipt of such statement by the Office of Price Administration. A reseller who satisfactorily demonstrates that it would be impossible or exceptionally burdensome for him to supply the specific information herein required may in his statement submit and request acceptance of substitute evidence with respect to his classification as a specified type of reseller and to the percentage factor he may employ and the Administrator may, by order, accept such evidence if in his judgment it is adequate.

(d) Invoices. (1) In connection with each sale of a woven decorative fabric every person shall deliver an invoice to the purchaser setting forth (i) the name and address of the purchaser; (ii) the date of the purchase; (iii) the style number or quality of the fabric sold; (iv) the quantity of the fabric sold; (v) the seller's maximum price to the purchaser; (vi) the selling price and terms of sale to the purchaser of the fabric; and (vii) such further information as is required by subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph.

(2) Each invoice delivered by a manufacturer to a reseller or a furniture manufacturer other than a custom furniture manufacturer shall contain, in addition to the information listed in subparagraph (1), his maximum price to the purchaser determined under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 39 exclusive of the permissive increase allowed by Supplementary Order No. 131.

(3) Each invoice delivered by a reseller to a furniture manufacturer other than a custom furniture manufacturer or to another reseller[8] shall contain, in addition to the information listed in subparagraph (1), a "prior"[9] ceiling price ascertained as follows:

(i) In the case of the sale by a reseller of a fabric purchased from a manufacturer: (a) the reseller's maximum price for the fabric prior to November 30, 1945[8] if he offered for sale or sold the fabric during the period from July 13, 1942 to November 29, 1945, inclusive, or, if he did not, (b) the price for the fabric which results from applying such reseller's currently allowable markup to his supplier's maximum price for the fabric under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 39, without the increases permitted his supplier by Supplementary Order No. 131.[8]

(3) "Converter" means a person who purchases textile fabrics and resells them as woven decorative fabrics after finishing them or after causing them to be finished for his account and includes any person who sells grey goods to another person and repurchases woven decorative fabrics which the latter has finished or caused to be finished.

[8] In general, a reseller is permitted no markup on a sale to another reseller unless it is a sale by a converter-jobber who was in business prior to January 1, 1945.

6. Section 1400.164, Appendix B, is amended to read as follows:

[10] This term is defined only for the purpose of this regulation. It is not to be confused with the term "converter-jobber" as defined in Maximum Price Regulation No. 127.

§ 1400.164 Appendix B: Maximum prices for sales of woven decorative fabrics by the converter thereof. (a) The provisions of paragraph (a) of § 1400.163 shall apply to the maximum prices established herein: Provided, That in any sale the maximum price for which is determined in accordance with paragraph (b) (4) of this section the terms of sale shall be not less favorable to the purchaser than 2/10/60 extra.

(b) The maximum price for a pattern of any specific construction of a woven decorative fabric sold by the converter thereof shall be:

(1) 105% of the price quoted for the same pattern of the same construction in the converter's price list in effect on November 10, 1941, to a purchaser of the same general class, or,

(2) If the maximum price cannot be determined under paragraph (b) (1) of this section, 105% of the highest price at which such pattern of the same construction was sold or offered for sale by the converter thereof during the period from September 11 to November 10, 1941, inclusive, to a purchaser of the same general class, or,

(3) If the maximum price cannot be determined under paragraph (b) (1) or (2) of this section, the price determined by applying the following formula: The converter shall (i) select from the same general classification and price range as the pattern being priced under this paragraph (b) (3), the pattern of his most nearly comparable construction for which a maximum price is established under paragraph (b) (1) or (2) of this section (if a differential exists between maximum prices for different patterns of the same construction, the pattern selected shall be that of which the converter sold or delivered the largest number of units during the period from September 11 to November 10, 1941, inclusive); (ii) divide the maximum price for that pattern by the sum of the maximum price for the grey fabric [11] and the maximum price of the finishing operation [12] used in producing that pattern; and (iii) multiply the percentage so obtained by the sum of the maximum price for the grey fabric and the maximum price for the finishing operation used in producing the pattern being priced under this subparagraph, or,

(4) If the maximum price cannot be determined under paragraph (b) (1), (2), or (3) of this section, a price not in excess of 125% of the sum of the maximum prices of the grey goods and the finishing operation, including shrinkage, but not including put-up and freight. If the maximum price for the finishing operation exceeds 25 cents per linear yard, the percentage factor of 125% shall be applied to the sum of the maximum price for the grey goods plus 25 cents. To the result so obtained the converter may add the amount by which the maximum price for the finishing exceeds 25 cents per linear yard.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, a converter of any woven decorative fabric may charge a price determined by applying the formula contained in paragraph (b) (4) of this section.

7. Section 1400.165, Appendix C, is added to read as follows:

§ 1400.165 Appendix C: Maximum prices for resales. (a) The provisions of paragraph (a) (1) of § 1400.163 shall apply to the maximum prices established herein. For sales of woven decorative fabrics by decorative service wholesalers, terms and discounts shall be not less favorable than those granted to purchasers of the same general class during the period from September 11 to November 10, 1941, inclusive. Terms for sales of such fabrics by all other resellers shall be not less favorable to the purchaser than 2/10 net 70.

(b) Subject to the limitations and restrictions set forth in paragraph (c) of this § 1400.165, the maximum price for the resale and delivery of a pattern of any specific construction of a woven decorative fabric by a reseller in the performance of a recognized distributive function shall be the sum of his supplier's net invoice price multiplied by the applicable percentage factor set forth below, plus incoming freight. The applicable percentage factor, reduced by 2½ percentage points in the case of drop shipments from the mill, shall be:

(1) For converter-jobbers, 125%: Provided, That the factor shall be 135% for a converter-jobber whose purchases of imported woven decorative fabrics during the calendar year 1939 constituted more than 15% of his total dollar volume of purchases of woven decorative fabrics and whose average selling price for all woven decorative fabrics during the period from September 11 to November 10, 1941, inclusive, was more than $1.50 per linear yard. In accordance with § 1400.157 (c) the seller using the 135% factor must submit a statement to the Textile Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., showing his total dollar volume of purchases of domestic woven decorative fabrics and his total dollar volume of purchases of imported woven decorative fabrics during 1939 and his average selling price for all woven decorative fabrics during the period from September 11 to November 10, 1941, inclusive.

(2) For wholesale dry goods stores and piece quantity jobbers, 125%.

(3) For cut-order jobbers:

(i) 130% if the sale is made to a furniture manufacturer other than a custom furniture manufacturer or if the sale is of a full piece or more for stock to the piece goods department of a department store.

(ii) On all other sales, 145%, except that on such sales the percentage factor may be 160% if the seller during 1941 supplied seasonal sample books free of charge and also maintained a department to lend sample lengths to customers. In accordance with § 1400.157 (c) a seller using the 160% factor must submit a statement to the Textile Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., certifying that during 1941 he supplied seasonal sample books free of charge, maintained a department to lend sample cut lengths not smaller than 24 x 24 inches and incurred a total cost for such sampling services of not less than 4% of his total sales in 1941 of woven decorative fabrics.

(4) For standard cut length jobbers, 138%.

(5) For decorative service wholesalers:

(i) For any pattern of a construction in the wholesaler's price list in effect on November 10, 1941, his percentage factor shall be the quotient of the price quoted for the pattern in his price list to the particular class of purchaser divided by his cost for that pattern on the invoice last received prior to November 11, 1941.

(ii) For any pattern of a construction not listed in the wholesaler's price list in effect on November 10, 1941, his percentage factor shall be the percentage factor for the pattern of the most nearly comparable construction in the same general classification and price range in his price list in effect on November 10, 1941.

(iii) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (5) (i) and (ii) above, the percentage factor determined by applying either formula shall be reduced by (a) 20% or to 140%, whichever is higher, if the sale is to a furniture manufacturer other than a custom furniture manufacturer and (b) 10% if the sale is of a full piece or more for stock to the piece goods department of a department store.

(6) For a converter on resales of fabrics not finished by or for him:

(i) 125%, except for those sales covered by subparagraphs (ii) and (iii) below;

(ii) 135%, if during October 1941 the converter's total sales in dollar volume of woven decorative fabrics finished by or for him constituted more than 40% of his total sales in dollar volume of woven decorative fabrics and his principal business with respect to woven decorative fabrics during the period from January 1, 1941, to March 31, 1942, inclusive, was in fabrics selling for more than 35 cents per yard. In accordance with § 1400.157 (c) a converter using the 135% factor must submit a statement to the Textile Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., showing (a) for October 1941 his total sales in dollar volume of woven decorative fabrics and his sales in dollar volume of such fabrics finished by or for him, and (b) for the period from January 1, 1941, to March 31, 1942, inclusive, his total sales in dollar volume of woven decorative fabrics and his total sales in dollar volume of such fabrics which he sold for more than 35 cents per yard; or

(iii) 145%, applicable only to sales of all-cotton slipcover fabrics which the converter contracted for and purchased from the manufacturer in complete warps with all their patterns styled by him and confined to him exclusively, if he meets the qualifications set forth in subparagraph (6) (ii) and further if during October 1941 his total sales in dollar volume of woven decorative fabrics not finished by or for him constituted more than 35% of his total sales of woven decorative fabrics.[13] In accordance with § 1400.157 (c) a converter using the 145% factor must submit a statement to the Textile Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., showing the facts required by subparagraph (ii) above.

(7) For a reseller who does not qualify as one of the specific types of resellers defined in § 1400.161 (a) (11), 125%, except that the factor shall be 120% on sales to a reseller by a seller who with respect to the fabric performed the function of a converter-jobber and who did not sell and deliver woven decorative fabrics as a converter-jobber during 1941.

(c) Limitations and restrictions. Regardless of the provisions of paragraph (b) of this § 1400.165, in the instances set forth below the maximum price shall be limited to:

(1) The seller's cost of acquisition without freight in any case where (i) the sale is made by a person whose principal business is that of a furniture manufacturer and who does not maintain a completely separate establishment for the exclusive purpose of purchasing, stocking or distributing fabrics for resale; or (ii) the sale is made to a jobber by a seller who with respect to the fabric performed the function of a converter-jobber and who, prior to January 1, 1945, was not an independent reseller of woven decorative fabrics; or (iii) the sale does not perform a recognized distributive function. (The resale of a fabric purchased in the retail department of a seller whose customary business is that of a retailer is not a sale in the performance of a recognized distributive function, nor, presumptively, is a sale by one reseller to another except where the fabric is one which the first reseller contracted for and purchased from the manufacturer in complete warps with all their patterns styled by him and confined to him exclusively).

(2) The supplier's maximum price, in any case where the fabric being sold was purchased by the seller from a person controlling, controlled by or under common control with the seller.

This amendment shall become effective April 23, 1946.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Subparagraph (3) of § 1499.75 (a) of Supplementary Regulation No. 15 is amended to read as follows:

(3) Contract carrier services. The Price Administrator, any Regional Administrator, or any District or Territorial Director who has been authorized to act by the Regional Administrator having jurisdiction over his district or territory, may adjust the maximum prices (rates) established under the General Maximum Price Regulation for any person supplying service as a contract carrier if he finds (i) that such maximum price subjects such person to substantial hardship and (ii) that the adjustment requested is necessary to permit the continuance of the supply of an essential service for which there is no adequate substitute available at a price lower than the maximum price requested.

A contract carrier who has applied, or is about to apply, for an adjustment under this subparagraph may agree to supply services from the date on which the aplication is filed with the Office of Price Administration at a price no higher than the maximum price for which he has applied. However, no payment above the existing maximum price may be made or received until a higher price has been authorized by an order of the Office of Price Administration containing no restriction against such payment. A contract carrier wishing to make any such agreement must advise the shipper that he has applied, or is about to apply, to the Office of Price Administration for a specified increase in his existing maximum price and that he may not receive any payment above his existing maximum price until a higher price has been authorized by the Office of Price Administration.

Applications for adjustment under this subparagraph submitted by contract carriers shall be filed on and contain the information required by O. P. A. Forms 644-602 and 603. Where the service or services involved in the application are performed in more than one O. P. A. region or in more than one State, the application shall be filed with the Office of Price Adminstration, Washington 25, D. C.; all other applications shall be filed with the regional office of the Office of Price Adminstration in the region in which the involved service or services are performed.

This amendment shall become effective April 29, 1946.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 25—MEDICAL

HOSPITALIZATION AND DOMICILIARY CARE; REIMBURSEMENT FOR LOSS BY FIRE OF PERSONAL EFFECTS OF HOSPITALIZED PATIENTS; OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY

§ 25.6048 Definitions applicable in determining eligibility for hospital treatment or domiciliary care.

No change in (a) (1) and (2).

(3) "No adequate means of support." When an applicant is receiving an income of $60 or more per month from any source, this fact will be considered prima facie evidence that he has adequate means of support, except when he is in fact contributing in whole or part from such income to the support of a wife, child, mother or father. If the applicant alleges he is contributing to the support of dependents other than these, the alleged circumstances will be submitted to the manager for decision as to eligibility for admission.

No change in (b).

(c) Persons applying for hospital treatment under paragraph (c) or (d) of § 25.6047 and who are potentially entitled to other hospital treatment or to reimbursement for the costs of hospital treatment because of membership in a union, fraternal organization, or group hospitalization plan under commercial insurance companies policies covering illness or injury; or as beneficiaries of a State Industrial Commission or Employees Compensation Commission, etc., will not be furnished hospital treatment without charge therefor to the extent of such reimbursement. Action will be taken to effect collection from the persons, companies, organizations, or agencies (other than Federal) in the amounts determined payable under the terms of the applicable insurance policy, plan, agreement or other undertaking.

§ 25.6050 Utilization of facilities other than those under direct and exclusive jurisdiction of the Veterans Administration. For the purposes of § 35.10 (s) of this chapter, defining "Veterans Administration facilities" and section 1500, Public No. 346, 78th Congress granting authority to the Administrator of Veterans Affairs "To enter into contracts or agreements with private or public agencies or persons for necessary service, including personal services, as he may deem practicable", the following provisions will govern in authorizing admissions to facilities other than those under the direct and exclusive jurisdiction of the Veterans Administration:

(a) Hospitalization will not be authorized in Government facilities other than those over which the Veterans Administration has direct and exclusive jurisdiction until agreement covering such service has been approved. Such agreements, will not be entered into until careful consideration has been given to the best interests of both the Government and beneficiaries.

(b) (1) Private facilities will not be used for hospitalization of beneficiaries except when facilities under direct and exclusive jurisdiction of the Veterans Administration or other Government facilities under agreement are not feasibly available, or when the physical or mental condition of beneficiaries will not allow of their transfer thereto from a private, State or municipal hospital. Male beneficiaries in need of treatment of an emergent condition (i) arising from a service-connected disorder; (ii) which in medical judgment requires treatment to prevent interruption of training authorized under Public No. 16, 78th Congress, or (iii) pending adjudication of a claim for compensation or pension upon determination properly made by the chief medical officer or his designate, that prima facie service connection is established by the evidence of record, including the veteran's statement, may be authorized hospitalization in any private, State or municipal hospital, preferably one under contract. In such medically emergent cases authorization of admission to a private, State or municipal hospital may be given, subject to the conditions stipulated in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph; and, when so given, will be authority for payment of vouchers covering the cost of such hospitalization. Hospitalization of male beneficiaries in a private, State or municipal hospital under contract may also be authorized for treatment of (i) a non-emergent service-connected condition; (ii) that condition determined as incurred or aggravated in line of duty in active Federal service and for which the applicant was discharged under conditions other than dishonorable, provided service connection for such disability has not been denied by the Veterans Administration and (iii) a non-emergent nonservice-connected condition which in medical judgment requires treatment to prevent interruption of training authorized under Public No. 16, 78th Congress, provided facilities under direct and exclusive jurisdiction of the Veterans Administration or other Government facilities under agreement are not feasibly available.

(2) The chief medical officer or his designate, of the regional office or center having jurisdiction of the territory in which the concerned private, State, or municipal hospital, contract or non-contract, is located, when informed of the emergent condition of the entitled beneficiary in time to authorize the hospital admission or when requested to issue authorization to cover a hospital admission already effected, will at once notify the superintendent of such hospital as follows:

(i) That payment cannot be made by the Veterans' Administration for any hospital service or supplies furnished prior to the date that authorization for admission had been issued, and that such authorization cannot be retroactively dated when issued: (except that authorization may be made retroactive to include a period not exceeding seventy-two hours beginning with the hour of admission to the hospital, provided admission had been officially reported to the regional office or center within such period).

(ii) That if the hospital concerned is under contract with the Veterans' Administration, all services and supplies furnished the beneficiary must be charged for and paid only at rates in accordance with the terms of the contract.

(iii) That if the hospital concerned is not under contract, all services and supplies can be paid for only at rates in accordance with the schedule of fees, Veterans' Administration.

(iv) That, when possible, prior authority will be requested by the hospital for the furnishing of services or supplies other than those included in a contract, or other than those comprehending ordinary items.

(v) But when the procurement of such prior authority is not possible, or when the emergent condition of the beneficiary is too urgent for delay, the hospital may furnish such necessary services or supplies, with the understanding that charges therefor will be subject to determination as to their reasonable necessity by the chief medical officer or his designate. (See also §§ 25.6140 to 25.6148, inclusive.)

(c) In the territories and insular possessions of the United States, preference will be given to Federal hospitals, and contracts will be made with private or insular hospitals only when Federal hospitals are not available. Authorization of hospitalization by managers of insular offices is restricted to hospitals under agreements or contracts and admissions to private facilities not under contract will not be authorized in territories or insular possessions without prior approval of the chief medical director or his designate: Provided, That when immediate hospitalization is necessary for treatment of an emergent service-connected condition in a war veteran, the manager may authorize admission to a non-contract hospital if no Federal or contract private hospital be feasibly available, and that the stipulations specified in paragraph (b) (2) of this section are communicated to the superintendent of such non-contract private hospital. While admissions to private facilities in the territories and insular possessions will in general be restricted to applicants who had service in a war, such facilities may also be used for applicants who had peace-time service only, if needed for treatment of an emergent service-connected condition. The use of such private facilities is prohibited for applicants who had peace-time service only, if required for treatment of a disease or injury not attributable to military or naval service, or for a service-connected condition that is not medically emergent.

(d) The general principles to be observed in utilization of facilities other than those over which the Veterans Administration has direct and exclusive jurisdiction will be as follows: Other Government facilities under agreements or private facilities under contracts will be used for the hospitalization of beneficiaries requiring hospital treatment in accordance with the foregoing instructions, only when facilities under direct and exclusive jurisdiction of the Veterans Administration are not feasibly available, or when the urgency of the applicant's medical condition, the relative distance of the travel involved, or the nature of the treatment required in the individual case, make it necessary or economically advisable to utilize such other institutions instead of a facility under direct and exclusive jurisdiction of the Veterans Administration.

Except where prior approval of the chief medical director or his designate is required under the provisions of this paragraph, admissions to other Government, private, State, or municipal hospitals may be authorized by chief medical officers or their designates in regional offices and centers and by managers of insular offices.

(e) Women war veterans, needing treatment, in a medical emergency, for a condition either service connected or not service connected, may be authorized admission to a private hospital not under contract, if a Government or private contract facility is not feasibly available. In these medically emergent cases the authority for admission to a private hospital not under contract will also be authority for payment of vouchers covering necessary services or supplies furnished in accordance with the stipulations specified in paragraph (b) (2) of this section.

(f) Managers of regional offices and centers through chief medical officers or their designates, are empowered to authorize admission to private hospitals, under contract, of women war veterans suffering from nonservice-connected diseases or injuries, as well as service-connected conditions, in a medical emergency or otherwise; Provided, That a Government facility is not feasibly available; the condition of such beneficiary, if already so hospitalized, will not safely allow of her transfer to a Government facility; or the relative travel involved in admission to a Government facility, the medical condition existing, or the nature of the treatment required, make it advisable or economical to utilize the contract facility.

(g) Pregnancy and childbirth will not entitle to hospitalization, either in facilities under direct and exclusive jurisdiction of the Veterans' Administration, or in other Government, private, municipal or State hospitals.

(h) The prior approval of the chief medical director or his designate must be secured for the use of private, State or municipal facilities covered by contracts, and located either within the continental limits of the United States or in the insular possessions or territories, for the hospitalization in such facilities of beneficiaries in excess of the number of beds contracted for, except where immediate hospitalization is indicated for treatment of a medically emergent service-connected disease or injury. The number of beds set apart by agreements with other Government facilities, for treatment of Veterans' Administration beneficiaries may be exceeded during any month as necessitated: Provided, That the utilization thereof be correspondingly reduced in other months, so that the average monthly use of such beds, at the end of the fiscal year, will not have exceeded the total allocation.

(i) An applicant whose eligibility for hospitalization (whether for observation or treatment, or whether for a service-connected or nonservice-connected condition) had been determined, whose admission to a Government facility had been authorized and who had been supplied transportation therefor, but who, while en route to the designated facility (or en route from it after completion of service and regular discharge, to the point from which he had proceeded to the hospital), develops an unavoidable and unforseen medical emergency that forbids continuance of such travel and requires admission to a private hospital or treatment by a private physician, will be entitled to such necessary services at the expense of the Government, including any extra transportation costs (ambulance or otherwise) that were actually necessitated in the circumstances.

(1) If the chief medical officer or his designate of the territory concerned is informed of such emergency hospital admission or such physician's treatment before or shortly after the beginning of the services, authorization for the services, followed by payment of bills therefor, may be made in accordance with the terms of paragraph (b) (2) of this section.

(2) If the chief medical officer or his designate had not authorized such hospitalization or such physician's services, he may nevertheless certify for payment bills from the hospital superintendent or the attending physician, provided determination is made of the actual necessity for the items of service rendered, and payment is at fees provided in the schedule of fees, Veterans Administration.

(3) Subject to the same controlling conditions as in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the chief medical officer or his designate may authorize reimbursement of the beneficiary or his representative if either had paid bills submitted by the superintendent of the hospital or by the physician who had attended the beneficiary, and had submitted those receipted bills. (58 Stat. 284; 38 U.S.C. 693.)

REIMBURSEMENT FOR LOSS BY FIRE OF PERSONAL EFFECTS OF HOSPITALIZED PATIENTS

§ 25.6075 Conditions of custody. When the personal effects of a patient who has been or is hospitalized in a Veterans Administration hospital, home or center were or are duly delivered to a designated location for custody, and loss of such personal effects has occurred or occurs by fire, either during such storage or during laundering, reimbursement will be made as provided in the following §§ 25.6076 and 25.6077.

§ 25.6076 Submittal of claim for reimbursement. The claim for reimbursement for personal effects damaged or destroyed will be submitted by the patient to the supply officer. The patient will separately list and evaluate each article, with a notation as to its condition at the time of the fire, i. e., whether new, worn, etc. The date of the fire will be stated. It will be certified by a responsible official that each article listed was stored in a designated location at the time of loss by fire, or was in process of laundering. He will further state whether the loss of each article was complete or partial, permitting of some further use of the article. The supply officer will certify that the amount of reimbursement claimed on each article of personal effects is not in excess of the fair value thereof at time of loss. The certification will be prepared in triplicate, signed by the responsible officer who made it and countersigned by the manager of the hospital, home or center. After the above papers have been secured, voucher will be prepared, signed, and certified, and forwarded to the finance officer for his approval, payment to be made in accordance with finance procedure. The original list of property and certificate are to be attached to voucher.

§ 25.6077 Claims in cases of incompetent patients. Where the patient is insane and incompetent he will not be required to make claim for reimbursement for personal effects lost by fire as required under the provisions of the foregoing section. The responsible official will make claim for him, adding the certification in all details as provided for in the foregoing section. After countersignature of this certification by the manager payment will be made as provided for in the foregoing section and the amount thereby disbursed will be turned over to the manager for custody.

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY

§ 25.6081 Account of supplies and equipment; determination of values by appraisers. An account of all expendable and non-expendable supplies and equipment provided for occupational therapy activities, showing the values fixed by the board of appraisers, will be kept by the employee in charge of occupational therapy. The value of expendable supplies will be the cost price. If the cost is unknown, the prevailing market price will be taken. Materials donated to the Government for the use of patients will be delivered to the storekeeper who will report their weight and character to the supply officer; the latter will prepare an unposted debit voucher, Form 138, covering the donated materials and will deliver them to the occupational therapy unit, securing receipt therefor. An arbitrary nominal evaluation will be placed on such donated materials including items transferred to the Veterans' Administration by other Government agencies without charge as surplus property. Materials contributed by volunteer organizations for use by individual patients in occupational therapy will be distributed to such patients without an assigned evaluation. All items of materials and supplies from Government stocks, except precious metals, stones, and other items of considerable value, will be considered expendable.

§ 25.6082 Account of supplies issued to patients. Supplies will be furnished (not sold) to the patients as the needs of occupational therapy demand, and an account will be kept of the kind, approximate quantity and value of supplies so furnished. The distribution of materials contributed by volunteer organizations as provided in the preceding section will be determined by the aide in charge of occupational therapy, due consideration being given to representations made by representatives of the organizations furnishing the materials. In handling non-expendable supplies, occupational therapy personnel will be governed by property regulations.

§ 25.6083 Disposition of fabricated articles. (a) All articles made in whole or part from expendable Government materials, or made wholly or in part from materials furnished by volunteer organizations whose representatives are authorized to render service in the hospital and from expendable Government materials, will be given without charge to the patient fabricating them provided such patient so desires and agrees not to sell the articles. (For disposition of fabricated articles made in whole or in part from non-expendable Government materials, see § 25.6088 (1).)

(b) All fabricated articles which are not given to the patient under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section will be disposed of as follows:

(1) By sale, without favoritism, at a price fixed by a board.

(2) By salvaging, when the articles are defectively fabricated, damaged, or obsolescent. Salvaged articles will be given zero value. Material which can be reutilized will be accounted for and stored. Unserviceable material will be dropped from the records, as expended.

(3) By invoicing to the supply officer, for Government use or as surplus by-products.

(4) By sale to the maker, for cost of Government non-expendable materials, with the stipulation that the article so purchased will be for the maker's own use or use by his family.

§ 25.6084 Disposal through extra-administration agencies. If for any reason certain fabricated by-products cannot be disposed of by the occupational therapy personnel at the station, and it is considered advisable by the manager to sell these surplus articles through ex-servicemen's organizations, bazaars, fairs, or any organizations outside the station, a reasonable amount for the necessary expenses may be deducted from the proceeds of the sale.

§ 25.6085 Tagging of finished articles. Each finished article will bear a tag stating the name and number of the station and name of the article, to which will be added, after determination, the serial number and price fixed by the board of appraisers or aide in charge of occupational therapy. A list of articles to be appraised will be submitted by the officer in charge of occupational therapy to the board of appraisers.

§ 25.6086 Entry of disposition of articles. When articles are disposed of, the date of such disposition will be entered on the copy of the appraiser's list which is kept in the station files of the occupational therapy unit and the branch medical director will be advised by Form 1216 at the end of each audit period, when articles are sold; and by a separate itemized list when articles are salvaged or turned over to the supply officer during that period.

§ 25.6087 Boards of appraisers. The board of appraisers will consist of a physician designated to supervise occupational therapy activities, the supply officer or his designate, and the ranking aide. The board will meet on or about the fifteenth and last days of each month, or at more frequent intervals if, in the opinion of the manager, circumstances may so require: (1) To confirm or amend the decisions made by the aide in charge of occupational therapy since the most recent meeting of the board; and (2) to fix prices for articles.

§ 25.6088 Considerations in fixing prices; record of repairs to government property. (a) The evaluation of articles and repairs to articles will be made by the aide in charge of occupational therapy activities, without reference to the board of appraisers, in accordance with the following:

(1) An article fabricated wholly from Government non-expendable materials or made partly from donated materials and partly from Government non-expendable materials and proposed for purchase and use by the maker or use by his family will be priced at the value of the Government non-expendable materials used.

(2) Shoe repairs for patients having funds to their credit will be based upon the cost of the materials and supplies used.

(3) Articles turned over for Government use will be evaluated at the cost to the Government of the materials and supplies used.

(4) In estimating cost of materials, consideration should be given not only to the value of the materials used, but also the reduced value of the material remaining.

(5) A record of the item involved will be made on the official Appraiser's List, Form 2589, in duplicate, using a separate serial number for each item except in cases of a number of similar articles for Government use only, which can be considered as a project and given one serial number. The proceeds from the sale of such articles will be handled promptly by the aide in charge, without action by the board of appraisers. However, the actions of the aide in charge will be reviewed and confirmed by the board of appraisers when next convened.

(b) Articles other than comprehended by paragraph (a) of this section will be evaluated by the board of appraisers. The board will consider the type of the article, the relative skill evidenced in its design and finish, and the probable price that would be put upon it in the open market.

(c) The aide in charge of occupational therapy will maintain a complete record of all repairs to Government property—including shoe repairs for beneficiaries eligible for clothing and repairs because of financial inability to defray such expenses—with entries of approximate evaluations of such repairs. There will also be recorded evaluations of services rendered by patients in agricultural activities, in the laundry, dining room and utility projects. The advice of the board of appraisers may be asked in setting these evaluations, if desired. Community prices for the same services can also be duly considered in these evaluations. The record of evaluations herein defined will not be made on the Appraiser's List, Form 2589.

§ 25.6089 Reappraisal. If, through damage, obsolescence or change in market prices, or on account of the necessity for a change in disposition, a reappraisal of certain articles is advisable, that action may be taken after authority has been obtained from the manager or his designate. The serial numbers and names of articles will be indicated at the time the request for reappraisal is made. When articles are to be reappraised because of change of status (that is, from "sale" to "Government use"), the prior authority of the manager or his designate will not be necessitated, but all reappraisal lists will be forwarded at the end of each audit period. The loss, theft or destruction of any by-products of occupational therapy will be reported without delay to the manager, for appropriate action under the provisions of the supply procedure of the Veterans' Administration. The final action of the board of survey will be noted on the Appraiser's List, Form 2589.

§ 25.6095 Surplus occupational therapy by-products. All fabricated by-products which have not been disposed of in accordance with the foregoing instructions will be turned over to the supply officer of the station on January 1, of each year, as Government surplus occupational therapy by-products, to be disposed of in accordance with instructions governing property only after authority for such transfer and disposal has been first obtained from the manager. Articles will not be considered surplus under this paragraph until all sales and disposals reasonably possible have been made by the occupational therapy personnel at the station as hereinbefore provided. Surplus fabricated by-products will not be turned over by the occupational therapy personnel to the supply officer unless they are in usable or salable condition.

YUMA IRRIGATION PROJECT, ARIZONA-CALIFORNIA

PUBLIC NOTICE OF ANNUAL WATER CHARGES[1]

APRIL 17, 1946.

1. Operation and maintenance charges for lands under public notice, Reservation Division. The minimum annual operation and maintenance charge for the irrigation season of 1946 and thereafter until further notice against all lands of the Reservation Division under public notice shall be $3.00 per irrigable acre, whether water is used or not, payment of which will permit the delivery of not to exceed 5 acre-feet of water per irrigable acre on certain sandy areas shown on the lists attached to public notices No. 31 dated April 14, 1931, No. 40 dated March 1, 1935, No. 43 dated February 17, 1936, No. 47 dated March 5, 1937, and No. 49 dated March 28, 1938, and of not to exceed 4 acre-feet of water per irrigable acre on all other lands of the division. Additional water, if available, will be furnished at the rate of $1.00 per acre-foot. Where, in the opinion of the Project Superintendent, it may be done without interference with other project requirements, upon written request filed in advance by the water users, water will be furnished free of charge for reclaiming lands by the removal of alkali either by growing rice or similar crops or by the usual leaching methods, and water in excess of the minimum amount herein provided, which is to be used for the growing of fertilizer crops of no commercial value or which is to be used for the purpose of depositing silt upon the land, will be furnished free of charge. All lands for which free water was served during the preceding year will not again be served free water until evidence satisfactory to the Project Superintendent has been furnished that water so granted free of charge during the preceding year was applied to the land in sufficient quantities over a period of not less than 3 months, in which event water may again be served free of charge provided the results accomplished during the preceding irrigation season were not satisfactory. All operation and maintenance charges shall be due and payable on March 1 of each year for the preceding irrigation season.

2. Water rental charges for other lands, Reservation Division. Lands not under public notice that can be irrigated from the present distribution system without further construction expense by the Bureau may secure irrigation water under water rental contracts at a rate of $3.00 per irrigable acre per annum, payment of which will permit the delivery of not to exceed 4 acre-feet of water per irrigable acre. Additional water, if available, will be delivered at the rate of $1.00 per acre-foot. All charges due under water rental contracts are payable in advance of the delivery of water. The minimum charge as specified shall be paid before any water is delivered during the current or subsequent seasons and all additional water over the minimum of 4 acre-feet shall be paid for when ordered and prior to delivery. Refund will be made for excess water paid for but not used.

All payments under water rental contracts are due and payable in advance of the delivery of water.

STATION KXO,[1] EL CENTRO, CALIF.

PUBLIC NOTICE CONCERNING PROPOSED TRANSFER OF CONTROL

The Commission hereby gives notice that on April 4, 1946, there was filed with it an application (B5-TC-484) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act (47 U.S.C.A. 310) to the proposed transfer of control of Valradio, Inc., licensee of Radio Station KXO, El Centro, California, from Airfan Radio Corporation, Ltd., San Diego, California (transferor) to Paul A. Jenkins, Edith J. Jenkins, Kenneth H. Thornton, Harry Hovey, Belle S. Hovey and Imperial Valley Publishing Company (transferees), all of El Centro. The arrangements for transfer of control of Station KXO are based upon a contract entered into February 8, 1946, between transferor and transferee, wherein it was agreed that transferor would arrange to convey (subject to Commission approval) all of the capital stock of Valradio, Inc. to transferees for a consideration of $65,000 plus such additional monies as transferor shall expend for construction work on Station KXO.

Under the terms of the contract and the escrow arrangement transferees agreed to forthwith deposit $15,000 in escrow and transferor agreed to deposit all outstanding stock of licensee before the close of escrow. It is further agreed that within ten days of Commission approval of the instant application transferees will deposit the balance of $50,000 with said escrow agent. Transferor and transferees reserve the right to cancel contract in the event the Commission has not approved the application by November 1, 1946.

Further details as to the arrangements between the parties or pertaining to the application may be determined from an examination of the application and associated papers on file at the offices of the Commission.

In the Commission's decision of September 6, 1945, granting the application for transfer of control of the Crosley Corporation (Docket No. 6767), it was announced that public hearings would be held to consider new rules and regulations for the handling of assignment and transfer applications including provision for public notice by the applicant and by the Commission of the filing of such applications and pertinent details in cases where a controlling interest is involved. Thereafter, on October 3, 1945, the Commission also gave notice (10 F.R. 12926) that pending the issuance of such proposed new rules, hearing thereon, and final adoption, consideration of such application would be deferred unless applicants desired to follow the procedure proposed in the Crosley decision and supplement their applications so as to come within the framework of the announced procedure, including the provision for public notice. Pursuant thereto, the Commission was advised on April 3, 1946, that starting April 4, 1946, notice of the proposed transfer of control would be published in an El Centro, California, daily newspaper of general circulation in conformance with said proposed rules.

In accordance with the procedure proposed in the Crosley decision and that announced in the Commission's release, no action will be had upon the KXO application for a period of 60 days from April 4, 1946, within which time other persons desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the above-described contract.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, It is ordered:

(a) That Order No. 12 under section 11 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 599 is amended in the following respect:

1. Paragraph (b) of Order No. 12 is amended to read as follows:

(b) The ceiling prices for sales by the Ford Motor Company and its dealers, of the radios listed below, are the prices set forth opposite each radio for sale to each class of purchaser under the terms and conditions of sale specified.

RUNDLE MFG. CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 166 under Revised Supplementary Order No. 119. Docket No. 6123—SO 119-67.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to section 13 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119; it is ordered:

(a) Maximum prices for Rundle Manufacturing Company of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. (1) The above manufacturer may determine his maximum prices for his line of Enameled Cast Iron Bathtubs by increasing by 22½ percent his prices on those items in effect on October 1, 1941 to each class of purchaser and may determine his maximum prices for his line of Enameled Cast Iron Kitchen Sinks by increasing by 13½ percent his prices on these items in effect on October 1, 1941 to each class of purchasers.

(2) Since the provisions of this order are not intended to reduce properly established maximum prices, the manufacturer may continue to use as his maximum prices to each class of purchaser his properly established prices in effect under Maximum Price Regulation No. 591 in the event that such prices exceed the prices in effect to each class of purchaser on October 1, 1941 plus the increase provided for in (1) above.

(3) The maximum prices set forth above shall be subject to discounts and allowances including transportation allowances and price differentials which are at least as favorable as those the manufacturer extended or rendered or would have extended or rendered to each class of purchaser on commodities in the same general category.

(b) Resellers' maximum prices. All resellers of the commodities covered by this order (but not manufacturers who purchase such items for use in the manufacture of other products) may add to their presently established maximum prices the actual dollars-and-cents increase in cost resulting from the adjustment granted the manufacturer by this order.

(c) Notification to all purchasers. The manufacturer shall send the following notice to every purchaser of the commodities covered by this order at or before the time of the first invoice after the adjustment granted by this order is put into effect:

Order No. 166 under Revised Supplementary Order No. 119 authorizes a 22½ percent increase in October 1, 1941, net prices for sales of Enameled Cast Iron Bathtubs and a 13½ percent increase for sales of Enameled Cast Iron Kitchen sinks manufactured by this company.

Resellers (but not manufacturers who purchase such items for use in the manufacture of other products) may add to their existing maximum prices the actual dollars-and-cents increase in cost resulting from the adjustment granted by Order No. 166.

(d) All prayers for relief not granted herein are denied.

(e) This order may be amended or revoked by the Price Administrator at any time.

GRAND RAPIDS STORE EQUIPMENT CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 15 and 16 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's ceiling prices. Grand Rapids Store Equipment Company, Grand Rapids, Michigan may compute its adjusted ceiling prices for all articles of store fixtures and equipment which it manufactures as follows:

(1) For an article in its line during October 1941, the adjusted ceiling price is the highest price charged during that month to each class of purchaser increased by 12 percent.

(2) For an article not in its line during October 1941, but which has a properly established ceiling price, in effect before the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the article's properly established ceiling price for the particular sale (exclusive of all permitted increases or adjustment charges) increased by the percentage determined in accordance with "Note 3" in section 3 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119.

(3) For an article which is first offered for sale after the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the maximum price hereafter properly determined or established in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 188; and prices so fixed may not be increased under this order.

(4) The manufacturer's adjusted ceiling price fixed in accordance with this order is his new ceiling price if it is higher than his previously established ceiling price including all increases and adjustments otherwise authorized for him individually or for his industry.

The adjustment charge determined in accordance with this order must be separately stated by the manufacturer on each invoice to a purchaser for resale.

(b) Resellers' ceiling prices. Resellers of an article which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

A reseller who had a properly established maximum price in effect before this order was issued for an article covered by this order may add to that maximum price an adjustment charge in the same dollar-and-cents amount as the adjustment charge authorized by this order for, and which he paid to his supplier.

If the reseller did not have a properly established maximum price for the article in effect before this order was issued he shall first determine a maximum price (exclusive of adjustment charges), and to that price he may add an adjustment charge in the same dollar-and-cents amount as the adjustment authorized by this order for, and which he has paid to, his supplier. To find his maximum price (exclusive of adjustment charges) for this purpose the reseller shall add to his invoice cost, less an adjustment charge stated on that invoice, the same percentage mark-up which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has properly established ceiling price. For this purpose the "most comparable article" is one which meets all of the following tests:

(1) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(2) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(3) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of articles to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage mark-up is applied.

(4) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that Section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to resale prices of articles covered by this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Maximum prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, allowances and other price differentials in effect during March 1942, or which have been properly established under the applicable OPA regulation.

(d) Notification. At the time of or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale, showing a price adjusted in accordance with the terms of this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the methods established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resales of the articles covered by this order. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) Revocation or amendment. This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) Effective date. This order shall become effective on the 19th day of April 1946.

JAMES G. ROGERS, Jr.,
Acting Administrator.

[SO 108,[1] Special Order 13]

MAXIMUM AVERAGE PRICES AVAILABLE TO NEW SELLERS

An opinion accompanying this special order, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

SECTION 1. Purpose of this order. Special Order 4 provided a simplified procedure by which certain manufacturers could establish maximum average prices for the fourth quarter of 1945. This order adopts that procedure for the 2d quarter of 1946. It applies only to the manufacturers of the categories listed in section 6 and to them only if they are or were required to file application for maximum average prices under section 9 of Supplementary Order 108.

SEC. 2. (a) What maximum average prices must be established under this section. You must establish your maximum average prices under this section for any category in which you did not deliver any items during 1943 or 1944 if both of the following conditions are true in your case:

(1) You have received from OPA an order of authorization to establish ceiling prices under section 12 of RMPR 287 or section 8 of MPR 570; and

(2) None of the highest price line limitations for the categories covered by the order described in (1) exceeds the prices listed for those categories in Appendix G of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 287 in effect on September 7, 1945 and group G of Appendix D of Maximum Price Regulation 570.

(b) Maximum average prices under this section. If you are required to establish your maximum average price for any category under this section, your maximum average price for the second quarter of 1946 is the price listed for that category in section 6.

SEC. 3. Election to use specified maximum average prices—(a) Manufacturers who have filed application under section 9 of Supplementary Order 108. If you are not covered by section 2 of this order and you have filed an application for a maximum average price for any category listed in section 6, you may if you wish, elect to use for the second quarter of 1946 the maximum average price specified for that category in section 6 by filing the notice described in paragraph (d) below.

(b) Manufacturers who have not filed applications under section 9 of Supplementary Order 108. If you are not covered by section 2 of this order and you are required to file an application for a maximum average price for any category listed in section 6 but have not yet filed your application, you may, instead of filing such application, elect to use for the second quarter of 1946 the maximum average price specified for that category in section 6 by filing the notice described in paragraph (d) below.

(c) Manufacturers whose maximum average price has been established by an order of authorization issued pursuant to section 9 of Supplementary Order 108. If your maximum average price for any category listed in section 6 below has been established by an order of authorization issued pursuant to section 9 of Supplementary Order 108, you may, if you wish, elect to substitute for the second quarter of 1946 the maximum average price specified for that category in section 6 by filing the notice described in paragraph (d) below. All other provisions of Supplementary Order 108 applicable to you shall be the same as if such elected maximum average price had been established by order of authorization. (For example, if you have incurred a surcharge which you have not made up by the end of the first quarter of 1946 and you choose or have chosen the method provided in section 7 (b) of Supplementary Order 108 for making up that surcharge then your reduced maximum average price for any category with respect to which you exercise the option afforded by this subsection shall be the price established in section 6 reduced in the manner set forth in section 7 (b) of Supplementary Order 108.)

(d) Notice of election. Notices of election must be filed with the seller's OPA District Office, and must contain (1) the seller's business name, (2) address of main office from which billings will be made, and (3) category number and title of each category for which this election is made.

SEC. 4. Acknowledgment in lieu of order of authorization. Any manufacturer who has received an acknowledgment of receipt of his notice of election from his OPA District Office may sell and deliver items in the category in which he has elected to use the maximum average price specified in this order during the second quarter of 1946. This acknowledgment shall take the place of the order of authorization provided for in section 9 of Supplementary Order 108 during the second quarter of 1946.

SEC. 5. Relation to other regulations. Nothing in this order shall be construed to eliminate the requirement of applying for a ceiling price or a highest price line limitation from those regulations which require such applications.

SEC. 6. Specified maximum average prices. The maximum average prices specified in this order may be elected only for the second quarter of 1946.

HOUSEHOLD MOVERS

RATES IN NEW YORK COMMERCIAL ZONE

For the reasons set forth in the opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, § 1499.46 (c) of Revised Supplementary Regulation 11, §§ 1499.18 (c) and (e) and 1499.19 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation and sections 8 and 20 of Maximum Price Regulation 586, it is ordered:

(a) Maximum rates for movers of household goods in New York Commercial Zone. The maximum rates for any persons performing the service of transporting or moving used household goods [1] within the New York Commercial Zones [2]

[1] As defined by the Interstate Commerce Commission in 17 M. C. C. 467, as follows: The term "household goods" means personal effects and property used or to be used in a dwelling when a part of the equipment or supply of such dwelling; furniture, fixtures, equipment and the property of stores, offices, museums, institutions, hospitals, or other establishments when a part of the stock, equipment or supply of such stores, offices, museums, institutions, hospitals, or other establishments; and articles, including objects of art, displays and exhibits, which because of their unusual nature or value require specialized handling and equipment usually employed in moving household goods.

[2] As defined (1) by the Interstate Commerce Commission in 1 M. C. C. 665, and which consists of the following: New York, Yonkers, Mount Vernon, North Pelham, Pelham, Pelham Manor, Great Neck Estates, Floral Park and Valley Stream, N. Y.; Englewood, N. J.; Alpine, Tenefly, Englewood Cliffs, Leonia, Fort Lee, Edgewater, Cliffside Park; Fairview, Palisades Park, and Ridgeland Boroughs, Bergen County, N. J.; and that part of Hudson County, N. J., east of the Hackensack River and Newark Bay; and (2) by the New York Public Service Commission in Case No. ME–5, adopted July 27, 1938, as follows: The City of New York; the towns of Hempstead and North Hempstead, including the City of Long Beach in Nassau County; and the cities of Yonkers, Mount Vernon and New Rochelle; and the town of Pelham and the town of East Chester in Westchester County.

shall be the rate lawfully in effect on March 24, 1944, or as subsequently increased pursuant to a proper thirty-day notice filed under Procedural Regulation No. 11 which became effective prior to March 26, 1946, the date of issuance of Order No. 2, or to an order of the OPA adjusting such rates.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other order or regulation, no increases in the maximum rates prescribed by paragraph (a) may be made by the giving of a thirty-day notice pursuant to Procedural Regulation 11 during the period this order is in effect. However, any person or group of persons performing services subject to this order may petition the Regional Administrator of OPA Region II for an increase in the maximum rates applicable to all or any such services. Such petition shall be in writing and shall furnish the same information as is required of contract carriers by § 1499.75 (a) (3 of Supplementary Regulation 15, together with any other facts upon which petitioners may rely to justify the increase. After investigation, the Regional Administrator shall by order either deny the petition or authorize the proposed increase or such lesser increase as he may find to be consistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act, as amended, and of the national stabilization policy, including Executive Orders 9599 and 9697.

(c) The maximum rates for handling or other services performed as an incident to the storage of used household goods shall remain subject to Maximum Price Regulation 586 and maximum rates for transportation services rendered other than as a common carrier shall remain subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation. Petitions filed under paragraph (b) above may, however, include proposals to increase rates for any such incidental or transportation services. Any orders issued under paragraph (b) of this order may include modifications of the maximum rates established for the services described herein under the General Maximum Price Regulation or Maximum Price Regulation 586.

(d) If necessary to promote distribution or production, and if not inimical to the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act, as amended, an adjustable pricing order may be issued by the Regional Administrator pursuant to this order, granting authority to deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with maximum prices established by OPA after the delivery.

(e) This order shall not apply to services subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or the Public Service Commission of the State of New York and for which maximum rates have been established or are otherwise directly regulated by those Commissions.

This order shall become effective as of March 26, 1946.

NOTE: All reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 23d day of April 1946.

Administrator.

[SO 133, Order 31]

SHEBOYGAN DESK CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to Supplementary Order No. 133, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's maximum prices. The Sheboygan Desk Company, Sheboygan, Wisconsin, may increase by 6.5 percent, its maximum prices in effect immediately prior to the issuance of this order, for sales of wood offices and kneehole desks which it manufactures. This adjustment charge must be separately stated by each manufacturer on each invoice to a purchaser for resale.

(b) Maximum prices of purchasers for resale. Resellers of any article which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

A reseller who had a properly established maximum price in effect before this order was issued for an article covered by this order may add to that maximum price an adjustment charge in the same dollar-and-cents amount as the adjustment charge authorized by this order for, and which he has paid to, his supplier.

If the reseller did not have a properly established maximum price for the article in effect before this order was issued he shall first determine a maximum price (exclusive of adjustment charges), and to that price he may add an adjustment charge in the same dollar-and-cents amount as the adjustment authorized by this order for, and which he has paid, to his supplier. To find his maximum price (exclusive of adjustment charges) for this purpose the reseller shall add to his invoice cost, less an adjustment charge stated on that invoice, the same percentage mark-up which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(i) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of articles to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage mark-up is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration: however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling prices, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Maximum prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, allowances, and other price differentials, in effect during March, 1942, or which have been properly established under the applicable OPA regulation.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to a purchaser for resale showing a maximum price adjusted in accordance with the terms of this order, the seller shall notify such purchaser in writing of the methods established in paragraph (b) for determining adjusted maximum prices for sales of the articles covered by this order. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) Reports. The manufacturer shall file the report described in section 5 of Supplementary Order No. 133 with the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C.

(f) Revocation or amendment. This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to resale prices of articles covered by this order.

(h) Effective date. This order shall become effective on the 22d day of April 1946.

Administrator.

[Region II Order G–11 Under Rev. SO 119]

COMPANY OF MASTER CRAFTSMEN, INC.

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to sections 15 and 16, and authority delegated to the Regional Administrator under section 19 of Revised Supplementary Order #119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's maximum prices. The Company of Master Craftsmen, Inc. of Oneida, New York, may compute its adjusted maximum prices for wood and upholstered wood furniture products or product lines, which it manufactures, as follows:

(1) For an article which has a properly established maximum price in effect before the effective date of this order, the adjusted maximum price is the article's properly established maximum price for the particular sale (exclusive of all permitted increases or adjustment charges) increased by 33.6%.

(2) For an article which is first offered for sale after the effective date of this order, the adjusted maximum price is the maximum price hereafter properly determined or established in accordance with MPR 188; and prices so fixed may not be increased under this order.

(3) The Manufacturer's adjusted maximum price fixed in accordance with this order is its new maximum price if it is higher than its previously established maximum price, including all increases and adjustments otherwise authorized for it individually or for its industry.

(b) Products to which this order is applicable. This order is applicable to only such products or product lines, and any article included therein, which were listed in the manufacturer's application as filed with this office. The terms "product" or "product lines" shall receive the same meaning and definition as in Revised Supplementary Order 119.

(c) Reseller's ceiling prices. Resellers of an article which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

(1) A retailer who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 580, and a wholesaler who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 590 shall compute their ceiling prices in the manner provided by those regulations. However, if the supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, the reseller shall compute his ceiling prices under those regulations as they have been modified by Order No. 4800 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(2) A reseller who determines his maximum resale price under the General Maximum Price Regulation, and whose supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, shall compute his ceiling prices under that regulation as modified by Order No. 4800 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

If his supplier's invoice does not state an unadjusted maximum price, the seller shall calculate his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage markup which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(i) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of articles to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620–759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect. If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above, the seller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(3) The provisions of Supplementary Order 153 shall not apply to the determination of ceiling prices for resale of articles covered by this order.

(d) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter properly established under OPA regulations.

(e) Invoices to purchasers for resale. Any person making a sale of an article covered by this order to a purchaser for resale at a mixmum price adjusted under this order must furnish such purchaser with an invoice containing the information required by section 14 of Order No. 4800 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. This shall also notify such purchasers that the provisions of Supplementary Order 153 shall not apply to the determination of ceiling prices for resales of articles covered by this order.

(f) Relationship of this order to Order 4800 under MPR 188. Except as they are modified by paragraph (a) of this order, all provisions of Order 4800 under Maximum Price Regulation 188 apply to all sales of articles covered by this order. This includes, among others, provisions dealing with invoicing, reporting, notification, and determining "unadjusted maximum prices".

NORRIS & HIRSHBERG, INC.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DENYING AMENDED PETITION FOR REHEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 17th day of April A. D., 1946.

On January 22, 1946, we issued our findings, opinion and order, pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, revoking the registration of Norris & Hirshberg, Inc., as a broker and dealer. (Securities Exchange Act Release No. 3776) Respondent has filed a petition for rehearing. The Commission has stayed effectiveness of its order of revocation pending action on the petition for rehearing. (Securities Exchange Act Release No. 3786)

Almost all of the matters set forth in the amended petition were briefed and argued in the course of the proceedings. None warrants a rehearing. We comment on only a few of the matters raised.

In our opinion we said:

> Respondent invariably confirmed its transactions as principal. (Mimeo. p. 20)

Taken alone, this statement is wrong. Respondent in addition to its predominant business in unlisted securities did deal in listed securities through exchange members until 1939, when it ceased trading in listed securities. In its transactions in listed securities respondent usually acted as agent and confirmed as agent and we so find. However, our findings are almost entirely concerned with trading in unlisted securities. Respecting such trading the statement is fully supported by the record. The record shows that the volume of exchange transactions was small,[1] and the circumstance that customers sometimes received agency confirmations in the purchase of listed securities is no proof that they authorized, read, understood or ratified the numerous dealer confirmations sent in connection with transactions in unlisted securities.

Respondent claims that certain charts set forth in Appendix II to the Commission's opinion were used without introducing them into evidence. However, these charts are not evidence; they represent our findings in graphic form taken from evidence which was introduced into the record without objection.

Respondent's counsel and counsel for the Trading and Exchange Division stipulated that the transcript of hearing be corrected in certain particulars. Respondent now states that "there is evidence that the Commission used the unrevised and uncorrected transcript . . ." Respondent is wrong. However, on page 16 of the opinion the word "Atlanta" was inadvertently used in a quotation from the testimony though the stipulation provided that it should be eliminated and the word "sustained" substituted. The quoted material should read:

> A. It would if there were any sustained offering. It was just an infrequent offering of a small amount of stock. It did not affect our prices. We simply took it in and added it in our inventory and protected our market. If at any time it was sustained, then, of course, our market changed along with the sustained offering. (Italics supplied)

This correction has no effect on our findings.

Respondent has offered to submit evidence on changes in the nature of its business occurring largely since the close of the record; claiming that such evidence should have a bearing on the issue of public interest. The record as developed amply supports the Commission's findings and conclusions. The proffered evidence will not be considered by us in relation to the order of revocation, but will be considered should respondent reapply for registration.

Accordingly, It is ordered, That the petition for rehearing be, and it is hereby, denied; and

It is further ordered, That the effectiveness of the revocation order heretofore entered by the Commission be, and it is hereby, stayed for a period of ten days from the date of this order, and in the event that a petition for review of said revocation order shall be filed pursuant to section 25 of the act, and in connection therewith application made to the court for a stay pending review, said revocation order is further stayed pending action by the court upon such application for stay.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[1] From 1933 through 1941 total commissions earned by respondent were $41,456 as compared with total profits on securities bought and sold of $1,469,828.

UNITED LIGHT AND POWER CO., ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 22d day of April A. D. 1946.

In the matter of The United Light and Power Company, The United Light and Railways Company, American Light & Traction Company, Continental Gas & Electric Corporation, United American Company, and Iowa-Nebraska Light and Power Company, respondents, File No. 59–17; The United Light and Power Company and its subsidiary companies, respondents, File No. 59–11; The United Light and Power Company, applicant, File No. 54–25.

Notice is hereby given that The United Light and Railways Company ("Railways"), a registered holding company and its subsidiary, Continental Gas & Electric Corporation ("Continental"), also a registered holding company, have filed a joint application and declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

All interested persons are referred to said joint application and declaration which is filed in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

Continental proposes to sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 promulgated under the act, 744,455 shares (approximately 99.17% of a total of 750,680 shares outstanding) of common stock of Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Company ("Columbus"), a public utility subsidiary of Continental, engaged principally in the generation of electric energy and in the transmission, distribution and sale thereof within the state of Ohio in and about the city of Columbus and in the territory located in the southern part of the state, including numerous smaller municipalities and also engaged in operating a transportation system, including electric trolley coaches, street cars and motor busses in the city of Columbus and suburbs. The shares of stock proposed to be sold represent Continental's entire interest in Columbus. The proposed sale is intended to effect compliance with the Commission's order of August 5, 1941, requiring, among other things, the disposition by Continental of its interest in Columbus and the elimination by Railways from its holding company system of its interest, direct or indirect, in Columbus and in the properties and assets owned or operated by Columbus.

The net proceeds of the proposed sale of the shares of common stock of Columbus (which shares are pledged as security for the repayment of Continental's bank loans) are to be deposited with The National City Bank of New York, as agent for the lending banks, pursuant to the loan agreement, and applied first to the payment of Continental's outstanding $20,000,000 principal amount of One Year, 1¾% Notes, due December 7, 1946 (renewable for an additional year) and then to the pro rata prepayment of the last maturing installments of the $30,000,000 principal amount of Continental's Ten Year, 2½% Notes, due serially from July 1, 1946 to December 7, 1955.

Continental requests that the order to be entered by the Commission conform to the requirements of sections 371 (f), 373 (a) and 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, and recite that the proposed sale and transfer of the said common stock of Columbus and the proposed application of the net proceeds of such sale are necessary and appropriate to the integration and simplification of the holding company system of which Continental is a member and necessary and appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said application and declaration and that said application shall not be granted or said declaration be permitted to become effective except pursuant to further order of the Commission;

It is ordered, That a hearing on said matters under the applicable provisions of the act and the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on May 1, 1946, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. All persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in the proceedings shall notify the Commission in the manner provided by its Rules of Practice, Rule XVII, on or before April 29, 1946.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at said hearing. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by such application, particular attention will be directed at such hearing to the following questions:

(1) Whether the proposed sale of common stock of Columbus by Continental meets the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act, particularly section 12 (d) thereof.

(2) Whether and to what extent it is necessary or appropriate to impose terms or conditions with respect to the proposed transaction, in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers or to prevent the circumvention of the applicable requirements of the act and the rules, regulations and orders issued thereunder.

(3) Whether the proposed sale of said common stock is fair and equitable to the persons interested, is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act and constitutes a step in compliance with the order of the Commission dated August 5, 1941.

(4) Generally, whether the proposed transactions comply in all respects with the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder.

It is further ordered, That notice of the aforesaid hearing be given to Railways, Continental, Columbus, The National City Bank of New York, the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio and the Mayor of the City of Columbus, Ohio by registered mail and to all other persons by general release of this Commission, which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the act, and by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

[T. D. 5510]

PART 23—CONSOLIDATED INCOME TAX RETURNS

RETURNS OF AFFILIATED CORPORATIONS

Regulations 104, relating to consolidated income tax returns of affiliated corporations, and Regulations 110, relating to consolidated excess profits tax returns of affiliated corporations, amended to conform to the Revenue Act of 1945.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–935]

RAND AND RAND

Seymour Rand, doing business as Rand and Rand at 821 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is engaged principally in the manufacture of children's dresses. During the fourth quarter of 1945, Seymour Rand placed orders bearing CC ratings for 70,586 yards and accepted delivery of 60,148 yards of cotton fabrics, although he was authorized on Form WPB–3732 to place orders bearing such ratings and receive only 53,451 yards of cotton fabrics. The placing of these rated orders for 17,135 yards of cotton fabrics in excess of the amount authorized and accepting delivery of 6,697 yards in excess of the authorization constituted a violation of Priorities Regulation No. 3. This violation has interfered wth the controls established by the Civilian Production Administration for the distribution of critical materials. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered that:

§ 1010.935 Suspension Order No. S–935. (a) Seymour Rand shall reduce the amount of cotton fabrics for which he may be authorized to extend ratings during the second quarter of 1946 under Schedule C of Order M–328–B, by the amount of 23,832 yards.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Seymour Rand from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Civilian Production Administration, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) Seymour Rand shall refer to this order in any application or appeal that he may file with the Civilian Production Administration during the second quarter of 1946 dealing with his use of textiles.

(d) The restrictions and provisions contained herein shall apply to Seymour Rand, doing business as Rand and Rand or under any other name, his successors and assigns, or persons acting in his behalf. Prohibitions against the taking of any action include the taking indirectly as well as directly of any such action.

Issued this 23d day of April 1946.

CIVILIAN PRODUCTION ADMINISTRATION,

Recording Secretary.

HERMAN ROMBERG

Herman Romberg of 131 North Orizaga Street, Clearwater, California, is engaged in the manufacture of dairy feeds in which molasses is customarily used as an ingredient. During the first three calendar quarters of 1945, in the capacity of a "second-class purchaser" of molasses, Herman Romberg used a total of 152 tons of molasses in excess of the amount he was permitted to use during these periods under Conservation Order M-54, and in violation thereof. It appears that Herman Romberg has voluntarily reduced his use of molasses for the fourth quarter of 1945 by 23 tons and accordingly his excess consumption now amounts to 129 tons as of the date of this order. These violations have diverted critical material to uses not authorized by the Civilian Production Administration. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered that:

§ 1010.933 Suspension Order No. S-933. (a) During the second quarter of 1946, Herman Romberg shall reduce his consumption of molasses by 70 tons below the amount he would otherwise be entitled to consume under the provisions of Conservation Order M-54.

(b) During the third quarter of 1946, Herman Romberg shall reduce his consumption of molasses by 30 tons below the amount he would otherwise be entitled to consume under the provisions of Conservation Order M-54.

(c) During the fourth quarter of 1946, Herman Romberg shall reduce his consumption of molasses by 29 tons below the amount he would otherwise be entitled to consume under the provisions of Conservation Order M-54.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Herman Romberg from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Civilian Production Administration, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) The restrictions and prohibitions contained herein shall apply to Herman Romberg, his successors and assigns, or persons acting on his behalf. Prohibitions against the taking of any action include the taking indirectly as well as directly of any such action.

Issued this 23d day of April 1946.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service

PART 23—SOUTHWESTERN REGION NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

SALT PLAINS NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE FISHING REGULATIONS

Under authority of § 12.3 of the general regulations for the administration of national wildlife refuges (5 F.R. 5284), as amended, the following is ordered:

Supersedes § 23.798 approved August 29, 1944 (9 F.R. 10779).

§ 23.798 Salt Plains National Wildlife Refuge, Oklahoma; fishing. Non-commercial fishing in accordance with the State laws of Oklahoma is permitted in the waters of the Salt Plains Reservoir within the Salt Plains National Wildlife Refuge, located south of a line common to the north section lines of Secs. 7, 8, 9, and 10; T. 26 N., R. 9 W.

Entry on and use of the refuge for any purpose is governed by the regulations of the Secretary dated December 19, 1940 (5 F.R. 5284), and strict compliance therewith is required. Persons entering the refuge for the purpose of fishing must follow such routes of travel within the refuge as are designated by posting. All fishermen must comply with all State fishing laws and regulations and must have on their person and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer whatever license is required by such laws and regulations. No Federal permit will be required to exercise the fishing privileges permitted under this order.

The use of boats on the waters of the refuge opened to fishing is permitted except that, during the open waterfowl hunting season, (a) use of motor boats, either inboard or outboard, shall be restricted to the waters of secs. 10 and 15; T. 26 N., R. 9 W., (b) boats of any type shall not approach or enter rafts of waterfowl resting on the waters of refuge.

All islands located within the open fishing area will be closed to all public use during the months of April, May, and June of each year.

Fishing from the shore will be permitted from the shoreline in Secs. 9, 10, and the E½ Sec. 15, T. 26 N., R. 9 W., at all times of the year when permitted by the laws of the State of Oklahoma and from the balance of the shoreline adjacent to waters open to fishing at all times permitted by the laws of the State of Oklahoma except during the open waterfowl hunting season. In order to protect important food and cover vegetation plantings the officer in charge may close to shore fishing such parts of the shoreline as are considered critical. Such restrictions are to be clearly designated by posting.

During periods of waterfowl concentrations fishing may be restricted or closed on such areas of the refuge as, in the judgment of the officer in charge, such restrictions are necessary in order to provide adequate protection for wildlife. Such restrictions are to be published by posting or otherwise.

Acting Director.

[Docket No. G-715]

NEW YORK STATE NATURAL GAS CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

APRIL 23, 1946.

Notice is hereby given that on April 8, 1946, New York State Natural Gas Corporation ("Applicant"), a New York Corporation having its principal office at 30 Rockefeller Plaza, Borough of Manhattan, City, County and State of New York, filed with the Federal Power Commission an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the sale of natural gas to United Natural Gas Company, and the construction and operation of the facilities required to effect the delivery of the gas.

The application states that on March 6, 1946, Applicant entered into a contract with United Natural Gas Company to sell natural gas to that company. The contract provides for delivery of 15,000 Mcf of gas daily from December 1 to April 30 and 13,500 Mcf daily from May 1 to November 30 of each year, a total of 5,154,000 Mcf annually, but Applicant is not obligated to deliver more than 10,000 Mcf daily in 1946.

Applicant states that there is now in place and in operable condition a connection and measuring station at the proposed point of delivery in Limestone Township, Clarion County, Pennsylvania. To permit delivery, however, of the maximum contract quantities of natural gas certain pipes and fittings of four-inch diameter must be replaced by larger facilities. The total cost of the facilities required will not exceed $5,000, it is stated in the application.

Applicant has been advised by United Natural Gas Company, the application states, that the gas which it has contracted to buy from Applicant is for the purpose of replacing United Natural Gas Company's own waning gas supplies and the rapidly declining quantities of gas available from other purchases.

Applicant proposes to utilize its presently available reserves and any gas or reserves which it may hereafter discover, develop or purchase to supply United Natural Gas Company. Applicant states that by a supplemental agreement dated March 13, 1946, Applicant and Hope Natural Gas Company have amended an original agreement of November 1, 1943, Hope Natural Gas Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 9, to increase the quantity of gas which Applicant may purchase thereunder from an annual maximum of 14,000,000 Mcf and a minimum of 6,000,000 Mcf to a maximum of 22,000,000 Mcf and a minimum of 15,000,000 Mcf to commence as soon as Applicant commences delivery to United Natural Gas Company.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of Part 67 of the provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act, and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with the reasons for such request.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application of New York State Natural Gas Corporation should, on or before the 11th day of May, 1946, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 172 under Revised Supplementary Order No. 119. Adjustment of maximum prices for clay wall and floor tile manufactured by the Cambridge Tile Manufacturing Company, Cincinnati, Ohio. Docket No. 6122-SO 119-53.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to section 13 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Maximum prices for Cambridge Tile Manufacturing Company, Cincinnati, Ohio. (1) The above manufacturer may determine his maximum prices for his line of ceramic clay wall and floor tile by increasing by 12.6 percent his prices on these items in effect on October 1, 1941 to each class of purchaser.

(2) Since the provisions of this order are not intended to reduce properly established maximum prices, the manufacturer may continue to use as his maximum prices to each class of purchaser his properly established prices in effect under Maximum Price Regulation No. 592, in the event that such prices exceed the prices in effect to each class of purchaser on October 1, 1941 plus the increase provided for in (1) above.

(3) The maximum prices set forth above shall be subject to discounts and allowances including transportation allowances, services and other terms and conditions of sale at least as favorable as the seller extended or rendered on comparable sales to purchasers of the same class during March 1942.

(b) Resellers' maximum prices. All resellers of the commodities covered by this order (but not manufacturers who purchase such items for use in the manufacture of other products) may add to their presently established maximum prices the actual dollars-and-cents increase in cost resulting from the adjustment granted the manufacturer by this order.

(c) Notification to all purchasers. The manufacturer shall send the following notice to every purchaser of the commodities covered by this order at or before the time of the first invoice after the adjustment granted by this order is put into effect:

Order No. 172 under Revised Supplementary Order No. 119 authorizes a 12.6 percent increase in October 1, 1941 net prices for sales of ceramic clay wall and floor tile manufactured by this company.

Resellers (but not manufacturers who purchase such items for use in the manufacture of other products) may add to their existing maximum prices for the actual dollars-and-cents increase in cost resulting from the adjustment granted by Order No. 172.

[SO 133, Order 30]

UTICA DROP FORGE TOOL CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to Supplementary Order No. 133, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's maximum prices. Utica Drop Forge Tool Company of 2415 Whiteboro Street, Utica 4, New York, may increase by 10.6 percent its maximum prices in effect immediately prior to the issuance of this order, for sales of hand service tools which it manufactures.

(b) Maximum prices of purchasers for resale. A reseller shall calculate his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage markup which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose, the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(i) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of articles to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called by the OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method, the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Maximum prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, allowances and other price differentials in effect during March 1942, or which have been properly established under the applicable OPA regulation.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to a purchaser for resale, showing a price adjusted in accordance with the terms of this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the methods established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resales of the articles covered by this order. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) Reports. The manufacturer shall file the report described in section 5 of Supplementary Order No. 133 with the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C.

The provision of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to resale prices of articles covered by this order.

(f) Revocation or amendment. This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) Effective date. This order shall become effective on the 24th day of April 1946.

Issued this 23d day of April 1946.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to Section 5 of Supplementary Order No. 148, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturers ceiling prices. North Lebanon Foundry Company, 200 Canal Street, Lebanon, Pennsylvania, may sell and deliver to distributors the following articles which it manufactures, and which are fully described in its application for price adjustment dated March 29, 1945, at prices not in excess of those listed below:

Article	Model No.	Maximum prices
		Each
Skillet	3	$0.27
Pot and lid	8	1.50

The above maximum prices are subject to North Lebanon Foundry Company's customary terms, discounts, allowances, and other price differentials in effect during March 1942 on sales to each class of purchaser.

(b) Maximum prices of purchasers for resale. (1) A purchaser for resale, who had established a maximum price prior to the effective date of this order for any of the articles whose maximum prices are subject to this order, may increase that maximum price by the applicable percentage listed below:

Article	Model No.	Percentage by which heretofore existing maximum prices may be increased
		Percent
Skillet	3	23.7
Pot and lid	8	27.8

(2) A purchaser for resale, who had no established maximum price prior to the effective date of this order for any article whose maximum price is subject to this order, shall determine his maximum resale price by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage markup which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(i) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of articles to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter, properly established under Office of Price Administration regulations.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order, showing prices adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) All requests contained in North Lebanon Foundry Company's application for price adjustment, assigned OPA

Docket No. 6069–SO 148–8, not specifically granted by this order are hereby denied.

(f) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective on the 23d day of April 1946.

Issued this 23d day of April 1946.

Administrator.

PART 935—MILK IN THE OMAHA-COUNCIL BLUFFS MARKETING AREA

ORDER AMENDING ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK

§ 935.1 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "Act"), and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Cum. Supp. 900.1 et seq., 10 F.R. 11791), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Omaha-Council Bluffs marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is hereby found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said tentatively approved marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held; and

(3) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the said order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest.

The foregoing findings are supplementary and in addition to the findings made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and the findings made in connection with the issuance of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein.

(b) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping milk covered by this amended order) of at least 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, which is marketed within the Omaha-Council Bluffs marketing area, refused or failed to sign the tentatively approved marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Omaha-Council Bluffs marketing area; and it is further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said tentatively approved marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order further amending the order, as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the Omaha-Council Bluffs marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order further amending the said order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who, during the determined representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the Omaha-Council Bluffs marketing area.

§ 935.2 Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered that, from and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Omaha-Council Bluffs marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

Delete § 935.6 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 935.6 Minimum prices. Each handler shall pay at the time and in the manner set forth in § 935.10 not less than the following prices for milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content:

(a) Class I milk. The price per hundredweight for Class I milk during each delivery period shall be the basic price computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section, plus 75 cents.

(b) Class II milk. The price per hundredweight for Class II milk during each delivery period shall be the basic price computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section, plus 40 cents.

(c) Class III milk. The price per hundredweight for Class III milk during each delivery period shall be computed by the market administrator as follows: multiply by 3.8 the average price of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk is received, plus or minus 0.95 cent per hundredweight for each 1 cent that such average price of 92-score butter is above or below 20 cents, add 21 cents, and add a figure determined as follows: add 3 cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption is above 7 cents per pound. For purposes of determining this adjustment, the price per pound of nonfat dry milk solids to be used shall be the arithmetical average of the carlot prices for nonfat dry milk solids, both spray and roller process, for human consumption delivered at Chicago, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture during the delivery period, including in such average the quotations for any part of the preceding delivery period which were not published and available for the price determination of such nonfat dry milk solids for the previous delivery period. In the event the United States Department of Agriculture does not publish carlot prices for nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption delivered at Chicago, the average of the carlot prices for nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption f. o. b. manufacturing plants, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the Chicago area shall be used. In the latter event such price shall be subject to the following adjustment: add or subtract 3 cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plant, is above or below 6 cents per pound.

(d) Basic price. The basic price to be used in determining the Class I and Class II prices shall be either the Class III price computed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section or that computed in the following manner, whichever is higher: determine the average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight ascertained to have been paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received during the next preceding delivery period at the following plants:

PART 948—MILK IN SIOUX CITY, IOWA, MARKETING AREA

ORDER AMENDING THE ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING HANDLING OF MILK

§ 948.1 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "Act"), and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Cum. Supp. 900.1 et seq., 10 F.R. 11791), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Sioux City, Iowa, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is hereby found that:

(1) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said tentatively approved marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held; and

(3) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the said order, as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest.

The foregoing findings are supplementary and in addition to the findings made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and the findings made in connection with the issuance of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein.

(b) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping milk covered by this amended order) of at least 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, which is marketed within the Sioux City, Iowa, marketing area, refused or failed to sign the tentatively approved marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Sioux City, Iowa, marketing area; and it is further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said tentatively approved marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order further amending the order, as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the Sioux City, Iowa, marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order further amending the said order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who, during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said Sioux City, Iowa, marketing area.

§ 948.2 Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered that, from and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Sioux City, Iowa, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

Delete § 948.6 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 948.6 Minimum prices. Each handler shall pay at the time and in the manner set forth in § 948.10 not less than the following prices for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content:

(a) Class I milk. The price per hundredweight for Class I milk during each delivery period shall be the price for Class III milk computed pursuant to (c) of this section, plus 80 cents.

(b) Class II milk. The price per hundredweight for Class II milk during each delivery period shall be the price for Class III milk computed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section plus 50 cents.

(c) Class III milk. The price per hundredweight for Class III milk shall be the price resulting from the following computation by the market administrator: determine the average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight ascertained to have been paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received during the next preceding delivery period at the following plants:

Concern and Location of Plant

Amboy Milk Products Co., Amboy, Ill.
Borden Co., Dixon, Ill.
Borden Co., Sterling, Ill.
Carnation Milk Co., Northfield, Minn.
Carnation Milk Co., Oregon, Ill.
Carnation Milk Co., Waverly, Iowa.
Dean Milk Co., Belvidere, Ill.
Dean Milk Co., Pearl City, Ill.
Dean Milk Co., Pecatonica, Ill.
Fort Dodge Creamery Co., Fort Dodge, Iowa.
Libby, McNeil & Libby Co., Morrison, Ill.
Pet Milk Co., Shullsburg, Wis.
United Milk Products Co., Argo Fay, Ill.

Provided, That in no event shall the price for Class III milk be less than that resulting from the following computation: multiply by 3.5 the average price of 92-score butter at wholesale on the Chicago market as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk is received, plus or minus 0.875 cent per hundredweight for each 1 cent that such average price of 92-score butter is above or below 20 cents, add 21 cents and add a figure determined as follows: add 3 cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption is above 7 cents per pound. For purposes of determining this adjustment, the price per pound to be used shall be the arithmetical average of the carlot prices for nonfat dry milk solids, both spray and roller process, for human consumption delivered at Chicago, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture during the delivery period, including in such average the quotation for any part of the preceding delivery period which were not published and available for the price determination of such nonfat dry milk solids for the previous delivery period. In the event the United States Department of Agriculture does not publish carlot prices for nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption delivered at Chicago, the average of the carlot prices for nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption f. o. b. manufacturing plant as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the Chicago area, shall be used. In the latter event such price shall be subject to the following adjustment: add or subtract 3 cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plant, is above or below 6 cents per pound.

(d) Emergency provision. Whenever the Secretary finds and announces that the Class I and Class II prices computed for any delivery period pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section are not in the public interest, the Class I and Class II prices for such delivery period shall be the same as the Class I and Class II prices for the previous delivery period.

PART 1340—FUEL

MISCELLANEOUS SOLID FUELS DELIVERED FROM PRODUCING FACILITIES

A statement of considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Section 1340.249 (d) (1) is amended to read as follows and § 1340.249 (d) (2) is deleted.

(d) (1) A producer of briquettes or packaged fuel may be authorized to increase his maximum prices to reflect any increase actually incurred in the cost (f. o. b. producer's or supplier's facility) of solid fuel used in the manufacture of such briquettes or packaged fuel in the manner and subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth; provided, that an increased maximum price, authorized under this provision, must be decreased in the same manner to reflect decreases subsequently incurred in the cost of solid fuel manufactured into such briquettes or packaged fuel and such price decreases reported to the Solid Fuels Price Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with subdivision (iii) below.

(i) A maximum price established under any of the provisions of this regulation for a briquette or packaged fuel may be increased by the difference between the cost of solid fuel (f. o. b. producer's or supplier's facility) on which that price is based, and subsequent costs (f. o. b. producer's or supplier's facility) actually incurred for such solid fuel manufactured into briquettes or packaged fuel; provided, that the new price is reported to the Solid Fuels Price Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., and is approved in accordance with subdivision (iii) below.

(a) If a mixture of solid fuels is used in the manufacture of briquettes or packaged fuel, the total per ton costs of solid fuel shall be determined according to the percentage of each fuel used in the mixture. The increase in total per ton cost of solid fuel so determined and the proposed increase in price must be reported to the Solid Fuels Price Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., and approved in accordance with subdivision (iii) below.

(b) The maximum price of a producer who at the request of the Solid Fuels Administrator for War has substituted a percentage of Pennsylvania anthracite for a portion of the bituminous coal formerly manufactured into briquettes or packaged fuel need not be decreased to reflect any decrease in total costs of solid fuel arising from such use of anthracite. Such producers in calculating subsequent increases in solid fuel costs shall determine the total increase by multiplying the increases in cost (f. o. b. producer's or supplier's facility) actually incurred on each of the ingredient fuels by the percentage of that solid fuel used in the mixture. Should the producer discontinue using the substitute portion of Pennsylvania anthracite, he shall determine any future increase in solid fuel costs by reference to the solid fuel costs and maximum prices in effect prior to the substitution of the anthracite.

(ii) A producer of briquettes or packaged fuel whose solid fuel costs (f. o. b. producer's or supplier's facility) fluctuate, may elect to redetermine his maximum prices on the basis of the weighted average cost (f. o. b. producer's or supplier's facility) of solid fuel used in the manufacture of the briquettes or packaged fuel during December 1941, as compared with such cost during the three most recent calendar months, adjusted every three months to reflect the cost of solid fuel during the previous three months.

(a) To redetermine a maximum price under this provision a producer shall:

(1) Determine his weighted average solid fuel cost during the most recent three calendar months. (The weighted average is determined by dividing the total cost (f. o. b. producer's or supplier's facility) of solid fuel processed into briquettes or packaged fuel during the three months by the total tonnage of briquettes or packaged fuel produced in the same period.)

(2) Subtract from the above average cost the December 1941, weighted average cost of solid fuel.

(3) Add the difference to his maximum price as originally determined under § 1340.249 (a), (b), (c) (1), or (c) (2) of this regulation.

(4) Recalculate every three months thereafter, his weighted average solid fuel cost for the previous three months, and add or subtract the difference between that figure and the previously computed solid fuels cost from the maximum price previously redetermined.

(5) Report the new proposed price to the Office of Price Administration in accordance with subdivision (iii) below.

(6) A producer pricing under this provision whose solid fuel costs are subsequently stabilized by virtue of purchase contract arrangements or other reasons must revert to pricing under subdivision (i) above as soon as he begin to use the solid fuel received at the stabilized price.

(b) In using this subdivision (ii), a producer of briquettes or packaged fuel whose maximum prices have been established by order pursuant to § 1340.249 (c) (3) or adjusted under § 1340.247a (c) of this regulation, shall substitute for the "December 1941 weighted average solid fuel costs" and "the maximum price originally determined," the solid fuel cost on which the order was based and the prices established by the order, respectively.

(iii) Use of OPA Form 653–432 is discontinued. Instead, each time a producer redetermines his maximum prices under this § 1340.249 (d) (1) he must file a report of such proposed price changes in duplicate, by registered mail, with the Solid Fuels Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. A redetermined price reported under this subdivision (iii) may not be put into effect until that price has been approved by the Office of Price Administration, but the reported price shall be deemed to be approved ten days after mailing the report unless, within that time, the Office of Price Administration notifies the seller by order that his proposed price has been disapproved. The report shall indicate under which of the above paragraphs the price is redetermined and shall set forth the following information:

(a) A description of the solid fuels used, giving kind and size, district of origin, and mine index number.

(b) Previous and present purchase price, f. o. b. source of supply, and freight to plant.

(c) Proportions of each fuel used in the mixture, if a mixture is used.

(d) Amount of increase or decrease calculated in solid fuel costs and the actual computations made in arriving at that figure.

(e) The last previous schedule of prices to which the increase or decrease is applied, and the schedule of redetermined maximum prices, by class of purchasers (as determined by type of sale and quantity purchased).

(f) Discounts or allowance made during December 15–31, 1941, and still in effect.

NOTE: All record-keeping and reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This amendment shall become effective April 30, 1946.

PART 1360—MOTOR VEHICLES AND MOTOR VEHICLE EQUIPMENT

[MPR 452, Amdt. 13]

MANUFACTURERS' MAXIMUM PRICES FOR AUTOMOTIVE PARTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

A new section 14c is added to Article III of Maximum Price Regulation 452, to read as follows:

SEC. 14c. Maximum prices and suggested resale prices for mufflers, tail pipes and exhaust pipes of certain manufacturers. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 6 or 7 of this regulation, maximum prices and applicable suggested resale prices shall be established in accordance with this section for mufflers, tail pipes and exhaust pipes of manufacturers, except passenger automobile and commercial motor vehicle manufacturers, who had maximum prices for them under section 6 or 7 prior to the effective date of this section.

(a) Manufacturers' maximum prices. Each manufacturer under this section may charge prices for his mufflers, tail pipes and exhaust pipes which shall return to him on each sale an amount no greater than the next maximum price he could have charged under section 6 or 7, if such a section were applicable to these parts, increased by 12%. However, instead of such maximum prices a manufacturer who has received an adjustment in maximum prices under section 16 may charge the adjusted net maximum prices he was authorized to charge by such adjustment.

(b) Suggested resale prices. Suggested retail list prices for the parts covered by this section shall be no higher than the dollar and cents amounts of suggested retail list prices which the manufacturer had in effect prior to the effective date of this section except as provided in the following sentence. In the case of a manufacturer who has received an increase in maximum prices under section 16, other than an even-steven adjustment, his suggested retail prices shall be no higher than the suggested retail prices he had in effect prior to the increase adjusted to reflect percentagewise the amount of his increase which was in excess of 12%.

Suggested resale prices for sales at wholesale to retail sellers shall be no higher than the dollar and cents amounts of the suggested resale prices which the manufacturer had in effect for such sales prior to the effective date of this section increased by 2.4%, except as provided in the following sentence. In the case of a manufacturer who has received an increase in maximum prices under section 16, other than an even-steven adjustment, his suggested resale prices for sales at wholesale shall be no higher than the suggested resale prices he had in effect prior to that increase adjusted to reflect an increase in such prices not to exceed the sum of the following:

(1) 2.4% of the resale prices in effect prior to the adjustment under section 16; and

(2) The amount obtained by multiplying the resale prices in effect prior to the adjustment under section 16 by the number of percentage points by which the amount of the increase under section 16 the manufacturer is using exceeds 12%.

If a manufacturer sells to a type of wholesaler called distributor at the same price he sells to a type of wholesaler called jobber less a discount and the distributor resells to the jobber at the same price as the manufacturer charges the jobber, then the manufacturer shall establish a suggested resale price for the distributor which shall not exceed the maximum net price that the distributor charged prior to the effective date of this section increased by 12% except as provided in the following sentence. If the manufacturer received an adjustment under section 16 higher than the 12% increase permitted under this section and is using the higher figure the suggested resale price for the distributor shall be an amount not greater than the maximum net price of the distributor prior to the adjustment under section 16 adjusted to reflect the sum of the following:

(3) 12% of the distributor's maximum price prior to the adjustment under section 16; and

(4) The amount obtained by multiplying the distributor's maximum price in effect prior to the adjustment under section 16 by the number of percentage points by which the amount of the increase under section 16 which the manufacturer is using exceeds 12%.

(c) New prices for manufacturers and resellers.—(1) For manufacturers. The provisions in section 6 or 7 which require or permit a manufacturer to recompute a maximum price established in accordance with that section or to establish a maximum price for the first time shall apply to maximum prices under this section. The determination of a recomputed maximum price or a new maximum price shall be made by using the provisions of section 9 or 12, whichever is applicable, and by increasing the determined price under the applicable section by 12%.

(2) Suggested resale list prices for resellers. Manufacturers shall determine either the discount from list or the mark-up over manufacturers' prices for parts previously priced which are in effect for sales by resellers as a result of pricing under this section, except that manufacturers who use the adjustments received under section 16 shall use in determining this discount or markup for resellers other than the distributor specifically covered in paragraph (b) (2) only a 12% increase in their March 31, 1942 prices, a 2.4% increase in March 31, 1942 wholesalers' suggested resale prices, and the March 31, 1942 suggested retail list prices. Manufacturers shall use this discount or markup structure in establishing resale prices based on adjusted list prices permitted by (1) above.

(3) Individual adjustments. Individual adjustments in manufacturers' maximum prices established under this section may be applied for, and obtained, in accordance with Supplementary Order 142. When a manufacturer receives an individual adjustment in his maximum prices in accordance with Supplementary Order 142, he shall adjust his applicable suggested resale prices in accordance with section 2 (d) (1) of that supplementary order.

(d) Reports and filings. Manufacturers may charge maximum prices in accordance with this section without receiving prior approval from the OPA. However, each manufacturer shall notify by letter the Automotive Branch, OPA National Office, Washington, D. C., within fifteen days from the effective date of this section, of the amount of the increase of 12% permitted by this section which it shall reflect in its maximum net prices. Manufacturers who received adjustments under section 16 who elect to use the adjustments instead of the increase of 12% shall notify the Automotive Branch within the fifteen day period of this election.

Each manufacturer shall prepare revised price lists, catalogs, or supplements to existing price lists or catalogs to reflect the resale prices it determines under this section, and shall furnish copies of such price lists, catalogs or supplements to its list price purchasers and to the OPA. Pending the issuance of the revised price lists, catalogs or supplements to existing price lists or catalogs, the manufacturer may notify such purchasers of applicable resale prices by including such prices on invoices to such purchasers.

In addition, each manufacturer shall furnish to his list price purchasers the notice required by paragraph (b) of section 10, and shall give such notice in accordance with paragraph (c) of that section.

This amendment shall become effective April 25, 1946.

PAUL A. PORTER,
Administrator.

Minor changes may be made in wire gauge, number and gauge of coils, and other construction details provided that within 30 days of first shipment a detailed report of such changes be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and provided that the changes will not:

1. Reduce the cost more than 5%,
2. Lower the minimum steel weights,
3. Impair the serviceability.

6. Section 11a is added, to read as follows:

SEC. 11a. Adjustment of certain maximum prices. If, before April 25, 1946, a manufacturer's maximum prices were established under the in-line provisions of this regulation or of Order 1849 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 for sales of any article covered by this regulation which is not listed in section 4, the manufacturer shall compute new maximum prices for his sales of that article as follows:

(i) He shall determine the weight of the wire in the article.

(ii) He shall determine the weight of the angles, flats and strips in the article.

(iii) He shall add to his maximum price established under such in-line provision, the increase in his steel cost figured at $19.00 per ton in the case of #12 gauge high carbon wire or heavier; $21.00 per ton in the case of #13 gauge high carbon wire or lighter; and $7.00 per ton in the case of angles, flats and strips.

The new maximum price, so computed, the weight of the wire and the total weight of the angles, flats and strips, shall be reported by the manufacturer to the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., before he first offers the article for sale at a price higher than the maximum price previously established for the article under the in-line provision. If the reported maximum price is incorrectly calculated, the Office of Price Administration will issue an order establishing the correct maximum price for the manufacturer's sales of the article, which maximum price shall apply to all sales and deliveries of the article after April 24, 1946.

7. The first sentence of Section 13 (a) (3) is amended to read as follows: "You multiply the average delivered cost by 133 percent."

This amendment shall become effective on April 25, 1946.

NOTE: The reporting provisions of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942, as amended.

Issued this 25th day of April 1946.

2. Table C in section 2 (c) (1) is revised to read as follows:

TABLE C—PACKERS' MAXIMUM PRICES FOR MAPLE SYRUP SOLD IN BULK

B	.245	.235
C	.235	.225

3. Section 2 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Producers' and packers' maximum prices for "flavoring maple syrup." (1) The producers' or packers' maximum prices, f. o. b. packing plant for each item, that is, for each type and container size, of "flavoring maple syrup" for each class of purchaser shall be his "base price" plus 99 cents per gallon.

(i) The "base price" shall be calculated by dividing the total dollars charged each class of purchaser for such item during the period comprising the months of April, May and June, 1941, hereinafter called the "base period," by the number of such items sold such class of purchasers during the "base period."

Example. X packer seeks the maximum price of a five-gallon tin of type Q "flavoring" maple syrup. In determining his "base price," he ascertains that he sold during the "base period" a total of 1,000 5-gallon tins for which he received $5,000. The maximum price would be computed as follows:

$5,000÷1,000 5-gallon tins=$5.00—base price
	$9.95

Producers or packers seeking to price "flavoring" maple syrup which is to be sold without the container or on a returnable container basis, shall use the same method provided for in subparagraph (1) immediately above, except that their "base price" shall be computed by using only sales that were made on a returnable container basis during the "base period."

4. The table set forth in section 3 (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

Quantity of sale	Prices per pound type block sugar
	Fancy	Blended
For 250,000 lbs. and over	$0.37	$0.35
For less than 250,000 lbs. but not less than 40,000 lbs.	.38	.36
For less than 40,000 but not less than 2,000 lbs	.39	.37
For less than 2,000 lbs	.40	.38

5. Section 3 (b) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) The maximum price for Canadian bag sugar, f. o. b. port of entry, duty included, shall be $0.31 per pound.

6. Section 7 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 7. Records and reports. (a) Every person who makes sales covered by this regulation shall preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, his records in existence on the effective date of this amendment, and both producers and packers, after the effective date of this amendment, regardless of previous practices, must make and preserve records or invoices which include: (1) name and address of the seller and the buyer, and the effective date of the transaction; (2) a description of the commodity; (3) quantity; (4) grade; (5) size of container; and (6) price charged and received. If sale is made on a delivery basis, the amount of the delivery charges shall be separately shown.

(b) Every producer or packer who sells an item of "flavoring maple syrup" shall within ten days after calculating his maximum price for each such item submit to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a statement showing his "base prices" and his maximum prices as computed under section 2, paragraph (d) and shall include in such statement, the figures which were the basis of the required computations.

This amendment shall become effective April 25, 1946.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 25th day of April 1946.

PART 1358—TOBACCO

[RPS 62,[1] Amdt. 4]

CIGARETTES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Revised Price Schedule No. 62 is amended in the following respects:

1. The title of the regulation is amended to read: "Cigarettes at the Manufacturing Level".

2. Section 1358.1 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 1358.1 Manufacturers' maximum prices—(a) For all cigarettes other than economy brands. On and after April 25, 1946 the maximum price per thousand cigarettes of any manufacturer of cigarettes other than economy cigarettes, shall be determined by adding the following three items:

(1) The net price charged on December 26, 1941 by a manufacturer per thousand cigarettes of a brand manufactured by him for a similar quantity to a similar purchaser. If no sale of the brand of cigarettes was made on said date the net price shall be the price he would have charged on December 26, 1941 for a similar quantity to a similar purchaser; plus,

(2) The increase in the Federal Internal Revenue tax on cigarettes placed in effect on November 1, 1942; plus,

(3) 25 cents per thousand cigarettes.

A manufacturer may adjust his list price of December 26, 1941 to a level which, less the customary discounts and allowances which he actually allows, will reflect no more than the increases allowed in (a) (2) and (3), above, in his maximum net selling price. The maximum prices which are fixed in this section or in (b) below, are in the case of a "private brand of cigarette" manufactured for the owner of such private brand, subject to adjustment under paragraph (d).

3. Section 1358.1 (b) is deleted and a new § 1358.1 (b) is added to read as follows:

§ 1358.1 (b) For economy cigarettes. On and after April 25, 1946 the maximum price for economy cigarettes (whether regular size or king size) of any manufacturer shall be $6.10 per thousand less 10 percent and 2 percent.

4. A new § 1358.1 (d) (4), is added to read as follows:

(4) On and after April 25, 1946, 25 cents per thousand cigarettes may be added to the manufacturer's net selling price established by any order issued under this paragraph prior to April 25, 1946.

5. Section 1358.2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1358.2 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

6. Sections 1358.3 to 1358.9 (a), inclusive, are redesignated §§ 1358.4 to 1358.10 (a), respectively, and a new § 1358.3 is added to read as follows:

§ 1358.3 Notification to purchasers. On or before his first delivery of cigarettes, on which the manufacturer has taken all or part of the increase allowed in sections 1 (a) (3) or 1 (b) above, the manufacturer shall give each purchaser the following written notice attached to, or stated on the invoice, covering such first delivery. This notice may be varied to the extent necessary to adapt it for giving notice of increases on a multiple number of brands in one notice.

(Insert date)

The Office of Price Administration has authorized an increase in our maximum net selling price for our (describe cigarettes by brand name, and whether regular or king size, if both sizes are manufactured), of ----- cents per thousand cigarettes. Wholesalers and jobbers are authorized to add to their maximum net selling prices 25 cents per thousand cigarettes. However, the maximum price of a retailer, except a vending machine seller, for a single package of popular cigarettes has not been increased. On sales of two or more packages of popular cigarettes retailers may add one-half cent per package to their maximum price legally in effect before receipt of this notice from their supplier.[1] The new maximum price of a vending machine seller for a brand of popular cigarettes at a particular location is his maximum price legally in effect on April 24, 1946 plus one cent per package.[1] A retailer's new maximum prices for economy cigarettes are 13 cents per package for sales of one or more packages.[1]

The Office of Price Administration requires you to keep this notice for examination.

7. The following definition is added to redesignated § 1358.9:

"Popular cigarettes" means so-called popular brands such as Camels, Chelseas, Chesterfields, Fleetwoods, Lucky Strikes, Old Golds, Pall Malls, Philip Morris and Raleighs and other brands selling for the same price on December 26, 1941. For the purposes of the notice to purchasers in paragraph 3 "popular cigarettes" shall mean all cigarettes other than economy cigarettes.

This amendment shall become effective April 25, 1946.

Issued this 25th day of April 1946.

[MPR 572,[1] Amdt. 3]

MANUFACTURERS' PRICES FOR CERTAIN FALL AND WINTER OUTERWEAR

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Section 4 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 572 is amended to read as follows:

(c) Report of individual division factors. If you elect to use individual division factors, you must file Form II (set forth in Appendix B) with your OPA district office. Two signed copies of this report must be sent by registered mail at the same time that you send Form I (a Form II may not, except as indicated below, be filed subsequent to the receipt of acknowledgment from OPA of the filing of your Form I). You must keep an additional copy of this form as a record. On and after March 15, 1945, you must not sell or deliver any winter garment at a price based on a division factor lower than your general division factor unless you have filed Form II with your district office and received acknowledgment of its filing. OPA may at any time disapprove or revise the division factors reported in Form II.

(A Form II may be filed (for class division factors only), subsequent to the receipt of acknowledgment from OPA of the filing of your Form I, if, during 1943, you sold and delivered winter garments at different markups to different classes of customers. In such case, however, you must not sell or deliver any winter garment at a price based on a division factor lower than your general division factor until you have received acknowledgment from OPA of the filing of your Form II.)

The procedure you must follow in case you find that the Form II which you have filed is incorrect is set forth in Appendix C.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[SR 14D,[1] Amdt. 10]

MODIFICATION OF MAXIMUM PRICES ESTABLISHED BY THE GENERAL MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION FOR CERTAIN TOBACCO PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Supplementary Regulation 14D is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 3 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Maximum prices for sales of economy cigarettes at wholesale. Prior to receipt of notice pursuant to section 1358.3 of Revised Price Schedule No. 62 as amended by Amendment 4 to that regulation, a seller's maximum price for a sale of a particular quantity of economy cigarettes at wholesale to any class of purchaser, shall be an amount determined by multiplying his net cost before April 25, 1946 for that quantity of the brand and size by the percentage markup applicable on September 3, 1943, to his sales of the same cigarettes to the same class of purchaser. After receipt of notice from his supplier pursuant to section 1358.3 of Revised Price Schedule No. 62 as amended, a wholesaler's maximum net selling price per thousand cigarettes determined under the immediately preceding sentence is increased by 25 cents per thousand cigarettes. For purposes of this paragraph:

(1) A seller's "net cost" shall be the supplier's list price before April 25, 1946, for the particular brand and size of cigarette, less (i) all trade and cash discounts, and (ii) all state and local taxes.

(2) A seller's "percentage markup applicable on September 3, 1943," shall be the percentage determined by dividing his maximum price per thousand of such brand and size of cigarette to the particular class of purchasers on that date (exclusive of all state or local taxes and after deducting all trade and cash discounts), by his net cost therefor on the same date.

2. Section 3 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Maximum prices for sales of economy cigarettes at retail. After receipt of notice from his supplier pursuant to paragraph 3 (d), below, or § 1358.3 of Revised Price Schedule No. 62, a seller's maximum price for a sale of economy cigarettes at retail shall be as follows:

For a sale of one or more packages of 20 cigarettes, 13 cents per package.

3. Paragraphs 3 (c) to paragraph 3 (g) are redesignated paragraphs 3 (h) to 3 (l), respectively, and new paragraphs 3 (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g) are added to read as follows:

(c) Maximum prices for sales of cigarettes other than economy cigarettes at wholesale. After receipt of notice from his supplier, pursuant to § 1358.3 of Revised Price Schedule No. 62, a wholesaler's maximum net selling price per thousand for cigarettes other than economy brands, determined under the General Maximum Price Regulation, is increased by 25 cents per thousand cigarettes. Such adjustment shall be applicable to floor stocks.

(d) Notice to purchasers. On or before his first delivery of cigarettes for which the wholesaler's maximum net selling price has been increased as allowed by paragraph 3 (a) or 3 (c), above, the wholesaler shall give the purchaser the following written notice. This notice may be varied to the extent necessary to adapt it for giving notification of increases on two or more brands in a single notice.

(Insert date)

The Office of Price Administration has authorized a price of increase of ------ cents in the manufacturer's net selling price per thousand cigarettes of (identifying cigarettes by brand name and size, regular or king, or other size). Wholesalers and jobbers are authorized to add 25 cents per thousand cigarettes to their maximum net selling prices. However, the maximum price of a retailer, except a vending machine seller, for a single package of popular cigarettes has not been increased.[1] For sales of two or more packages of popular cigarettes, retailers are authorized to add one-half cent per package to their maximum prices legally in effect before receipt of this notice.[1] The new maximum price of a vending machine seller for a brand of popular cigarettes at a particular location is his maximum price legally in effect on April 24, 1946 plus one cent per package.[1] Retailers' new maximum prices for economy cigarettes are 13 cents per package for sales of one or more packages.[1] Retailers must maintain their customary differentials allowed by them during March 1942. The Office of Price Administration requires that you keep this notice for examination.

(e) Retailer's maximum prices for cigarettes other than economy brands. Upon receipt of notification from his supplier, pursuant to paragraph (d), above, or § 1358.3 of Revised Price Schedule No. 62, of an adjustment of his supplier's net selling price for a brand of cigarettes other than economy brands, a retailer's maximum price for a single package of popular cigarettes is the particular retailer's maximum price for a single package of such cigarettes, as established under the General Maximum Price Regulation, and is therefore no higher after receipt of the above notice than it was before. For sales of two or more packages of cigarettes, a retailer may add one-half cent per package to his maximum price legally in effect before receipt of notice from his supplier of an increase in the supplier's net selling price. Adjustments allowed by this section shall be applicable to floor stocks. Retailers must maintain their customary price differentials allowed by them during March 1942. This paragraph shall not apply to vending machine sellers.

(g) Geographical applicability. Provisions of this section shall be applicable to the forty-eight States of the United States, and to the District of Columbia.

4. Redesignated paragraph 3 (h) is amended to read as follows:

(h) State and local taxes. Maximum prices for cigarettes established by this section are exclusive of any increases in State and local taxes upon cigarettes which have been added since the General Maximum Price Regulation went into effect, or which may be added, or are caused by the increases in maximum prices allowed by this section. Sellers may add to these prices the amount of such tax applicable to the cigarettes being priced, and paid or payable by them to the taxing authorities or to a prior vendor.

5. The following definitions are added to redesignated paragraph 3 (l):

"Net selling price" means the manufacturer's or other seller's net price after deduction of discounts and allowances.

"Popular cigarettes" means so-called popular brands such as Camels, Chelseas, Chesterfields, Fleetwoods, Lucky Strikes, Old Golds, Pall Malls, Philip Morris, and Raleighs and other brands selling for the same price on December 26, 1941. In paragraphs 3 (d), 3 (e) and 3 (f) "Popular cigarettes" shall mean all cigarettes other than economy cigarettes.

"General Maximum Price Regulation" as referred to in this section 3 does not include Supplementary Regulation 14D.

"Package" means a package of twenty cigarettes.

"Vending machine seller" is one who sells cigarettes by means of a machine normally regarded as a vending machine by the trade.

"Retailer" as used in paragraph 3 (e) does not include a vending machine seller.

This amendment shall become effective April 25, 1946.

Issued this 25th day of April 1946.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

[Order 1956, Amdt. 4]

PART 298—PRODUCTION OF FISHERY COMMODITIES OR PRODUCTS

ALLOCATION OF HALIBUT

Pursuant to the authority conferred by Executive Order 9280, dated December 5, 1942 (7 F.R. 10179), War Food Order No. 52, dated February 8, 1943 (8 F.R. 1777), as amended March 16, 1943 (8 F.R. 3280) (formerly known as Food Directive No. 2), Title III of the Second War Powers Act, as amended (50 App. U.S.C. sec. 633), the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended (50 U.S.C. sec. 901 et seq.), and Directive No. 105 of the Economic Stabilization Director, dated April 5, 1946, Order No. 1956 of the Secretary of the Interior (9 F.R. 6780), as amended, being § 298.4 of this Part 298, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 298.4 Allocation of halibut—(a) Jurisdiction. Control over the delivery and allocation of halibut landings for the purposes of this section is hereby vested in the Secretary of the Interior, and subject to his supervision and direction shall be administered by the Fish and Wildlife Service.

(b) Statement of policy. The purposes of this section are to prevent violation of maximum price regulations in transactions between fishermen and dealers; to allocate halibut landings between primary dealers so as to aid in the most efficient distribution of the processed product to meet military and essential civilian needs and so that the several civilian markets will be supplied with substantially normal proportions of the product, to satisfy, as near as may be, the demand which was developed largely during prewar years. This section is to be administered so as to cause a minimum of interference with normal economic processes in the industry. Orderly production and marketing of the products of the fishery depend upon the equitable allocation of the catch among primary dealers, but all persons affected by this section are expected to cooperate in supplying the requirements of the armed services and by furthering the distribution of halibut available for civilian use to the principal distributing and consuming centers in substantially the normal percentages of supply.

(c) Definitions. Except where the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following definitions shall be applicable in the interpretation of this section and of all directions, regulations, permits, and other administrative statements and instruments issued under this section.

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other business entity.

(2) "Dealer" means any person who, within 50 miles of the coastal or inland waters of Alaska, Washington, Oregon or California, buys or takes delivery of, or arranges to buy or take delivery of, halibut from a fisherman or his agent or from a fishing vessel for resale. For the purpose of this definition it is immaterial whether the purchase, delivery or arrangements are for his own account or are for the account of another person.

(3) "Halibut" means Pacific halibut, and all other fish caught with gear of the type commonly used in the Pacific Coast halibut fishery, including cod, rockfishes, and sablefish.

(4) "Pacific halibut" means the species commonly known on the Pacific Coast as halibut, Hippoglossus hippoglossus, excluding the other species referred to in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

(5) "Allocation" means the dividing of halibut landings between the dealers according to quantities determined by the Secretary of the Interior, or his representative, usually after recommendations by an industry committee.

(6) "Representative of the Secretary of the Interior" means any person or persons duly designated to represent him in performing any of the delegable functions authorized by this section.

(7) Except when the context clearly indicates otherwise each term and phrase has the same meaning as is given to it in War Food Order No. 52 (8 F.R. 1777, 3280, formerly known as Food Directive No. 2).

(d) Limitations on sales and deliveries of halibut. (1) No fisherman acting for himself or through an agent shall sell or deliver or arrange to sell or deliver halibut except to a dealer who is the holder of a valid, unexpired, and unrevoked permit issued pursuant to this section by the Secretary of the Interior or his representative.

(2) No fisherman subject to the terms of this section acting for himself or through an agent shall sell or deliver or arrange to sell or deliver halibut to any person in British Columbia except as authorized by the Secretary of the Interior or his representative. Such representative may authorize such fishermen by public notice from time to time to sell or deliver halibut to such persons in British Columbia as are participants in and conform to a voluntary program for the allocation of halibut which is in accord with the purposes and policy of this section as determined by the Secretary of the Interior or his representative.

(e) Permits required for dealers. No person shall operate as a dealer except in accordance with the terms and conditions of a valid, unexpired, and unrevoked permit issued to him pursuant to this section by the Secretary of the Interior or his representative. Dealers shall exhibit their permits to all fishermen and all agents of fishermen from whom they buy or accept delivery of halibut.

(f) Permits; terms and conditions. (1) Each permit shall authorize operation at one port only, and shall be limited in time as deemed advisable by the Area Coordinator. Each permit shall, except as expressly provided otherwise therein, allow the purchase of all the species referred to as halibut in paragraph (c) (3) of this section; but it shall limit purchases in accordance with any allocation schedules set up under paragraph (i) of this section. Permits shall be subject to such other terms and conditions both before and after issuance as are deemed by the Secretary of the Interior appropriate to furthering the purposes of this section. The Secretary of Agriculture may, where distribution is involved, recommend terms and conditions of permits issued.

(2) A person who is in the business of purchasing fish from trollers, and who holds no other permit to operate as a dealer under this section, may be issued a permit to purchase troll-caught halibut only; such permit shall not apply to the purchase of halibut from regular halibut vessels, but shall apply only to the purchase of halibut taken incidentally while fishing for salmon or other species.

(g) Issuance of permit. (1) Any dealer, upon informal request, shall be issued a permit to deal in halibut for any port in which he operated as a halibut dealer in 1941, 1942, or 1943 prior to July 13, 1943, or for which he had a permit to operate in 1944 or 1945, unless the Area Coordinator acting under the general supervision of the Secretary of the Interior or his representative has reasonable cause to believe that such issuance would be contrary to any of the provisions of this section or would interfere with the purposes of this section. The denial of any request shall be subject to appeal as provided in paragraph (n) of this section.

In making such request for a permit any person who operated as a halibut dealer purchasing halibut for the account of others in the years above mentioned shall furnish the Area Coordinator with a statement showing:

(i) The amounts of halibut purchased in each port for each account (identified by name and address) during each of the years 1939 through 1944, inclusive, during which the applicant purchased halibut, and

(ii) The amounts of halibut, if any purchased for the applicant's own account during the same years.

(2) Any person not qualified under the terms of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, shall upon filing a proper application as set out in paragraph (h) of this section, be issued a permit if in the opinion of the Area Coordinator the applicant has or can obtain adequate facilities, and if his operation will not unduly disrupt the marketing, processing, or distribution of fish, nor interfere with the program of the Office of Price Administration or of the Department of Agriculture, and if his operation would be otherwise consistent with paragraphs (b) and (i) of this section. The denial of any application shall be subject to appeal as provided in paragraph (n) of this section.

(3) No person shall hold more than one permit for the same port; but the same person may hold one permit for each of several ports.

(4) A permit issued pursuant to application as set out in paragraph (h) of this section shall become invalid upon any change of more than 25 percent interest in the ownership of the enterprise as described in the application therefor. Such invalid permit shall be at once surrendered to the Area Coordinator. A new application for another permit may be filed immediately.

(h) Applications. (1) Any person who did not have a permit to operate as a dealer in 1944 or 1945 may, on or before July 31 of the fishing season, apply for a permit, filing a separate application for each port. No particular form is prescribed by any relevant data and reasons in support of the application may be included; it must include the following information:

(i) The name of the applicant.

(ii) The form of applicant's business organization, whether a sole proprietor enterprise, partnership, or corporation, and if the latter, the state of incorporation.

(iii) The name and extent of participation of every co-owner, stockholder, or other participant owning directly or indirectly a 25 per cent interest therein or more.

(iv) The port for which a permit is desired.

(v) The species of fish for purchase of which a permit is desired.

(vi) The dates of the applicant's prior operations as a dealer in fish, the ports in which he operated, and the amount of halibut purchased in each port in each of the last three years during which he purchased halibut in such port.

(vii) The equipment available to him for handling halibut in the port for which a permit is requested.

(viii) The name of a natural person, not a corporation or other fictitious entity, who will have possession of the permit in the port concerned and who will be in charge of operations under the permit there. The person so named should be the permittee himself if he is a natural person and is to be at the port and in charge of the business; otherwise, the permittee's chief representative at the port should be named. The person so named must not be another permittee at the port.

(ix) The names and locations of the secondary dealers through whom he expects to market the halibut purchased, and a statement setting out what arrangements if any he has made to secure outlets.

(2) The application shall be certified as follows:

I certify that the above information is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

(3) The application shall be filed in triplicate with the Area Coordinator, 421 Bell Street Terminal, Seattle, Washington. The Area Coordinator may refer the application to the Office of Price Administration, the Department of Agriculture, and any other Government Agency for report as to the effect the granting of the application would have on their respective emergency programs, and for recommendation as to the action appropriate thereon, with such supporting data and reasons as the agencies deem necessary.

(i) Allocation schedules. (1) When the Secretary of the Interior, or his representative, deems it advisable in order to further the purposes of this section, he may set up a plan for supervised allocation of halibut among dealers, and thereafter all halibut landed shall be distributed as directed by him or in the shares directed by him in accordance with an allocation schedule. Such allocation schedule shall be worked out and applied, as far as possible, in cooperation with the dealers concerned.

(2) Any such schedule of allocation among dealers shall be aimed at furthering the purposes of this order as set out in paragraph (b) of this section, and especially at securing substantially normal distribution of the catch. It shall be based upon some equitable historical basis, taking account of the normal distribution of landings among all dealers in the Pacific Coast ports.

(3) An allocation schedule shall be adjusted as deemed reasonably necessary in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior, or his representative, to secure an adequate supply of halibut for the armed services or to adapt the schedule, in the light of changes in delivery practices of the halibut fleet and other abnormal circumstances, so as to further the purposes of this section and the aims of allocation referred to in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(4) An allocation schedule may set aside as much as 15 percent of the landings of halibut at any port for qualified dealers at that port who did not operate prior to July 13, 1943, and as much as 3 percent of all Pacific Coast landings by U. S. vessels for any dealers, not otherwise permittees, at establishments west of Cape Saint Elias which were not customarily considered as halibut landing establishments prior to May 1, 1946, and at which bona fide facilities for handling halibut have been provided before July 1, 1946.

(j) Records and reports. (1) All dealers shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate records concerning purchases of halibut from fishermen and others, and sales of halibut to secondary dealers and others, showing for each transaction the date, the name and address of the other party, and the amount of halibut involved, by species.

(2) The Secretary of the Interior, or his representative, shall be entitled to make such audit and inspection of the books, records, and other writing, premises and stocks of halibut of any person, and to make such investigations, as may be necessary or appropriate in his discretion to the enforcement or administration of this section.

(3) The Secretary of the Interior, or his representative, may require from persons affected by this section periodic reports showing the amount of halibut received or sold in each separate transaction, with the date, name of seller and vessel or name of buyer, as the case may be. The Secretary of the Interior, or his representative, may also require from persons affected by this section such other material information as he may deem necessary to give effect to the purposes of this section. These record-keeping requirements have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget and specific recording and reporting requirements subsequently prescribed will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, all pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942, 5 U.S.C. sec. 139.

(k) Industry committees. An industry committee may be set up by the Secretary of the Interior, or his representative, in each port where an allocation program is established. Each such committee shall be representative of the various interests concerned, as by the inclusion of one large dealer, one small dealer, and one representative of the halibut fishermen, and shall advise with the local representative of the Secretary of the Interior and make recommendations as to the allocation schedule to be set up, and any other details connected with the administration of this section.

(l) Orders and directions. The Secretary of the Interior, or his representative, may issue such orders and directions as he may deem advisable to accomplish the purposes of this section, and violations of any such order or direction shall be a violation of this section.

(m) Violations, revocation. Any person who violates this section, any order or direction issued under it by the Secretary of the Interior, or his representative, or any term or condition of any permit issued by him, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept, or information to be furnished pursuant to this section, or who after the issuance of this section violates any price regulations issued by the Price Administrator, may, by a decision of the Area Coordinator, upon findings of fact made after reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard, be prohibited from purchasing more than a specified quantity of halibut; or he may be prohibited from dealing in halibut, by suspension or revocation of any permit issued, or prohibited from receiving halibut or from clearing port to fish for halibut or from fishing for halibut, for a specified period of time. In exceptional circumstances, where the Area Coordinator has reasonable grounds to believe such violation has occurred, and if the circumstances are such that he shall deem such action reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, he may immediately suspend the permit or prohibit fishing for halibut pending such hearing. Permits which have been suspended or revoked shall be surrendered at once to the Area Coordinator, 421 Bell Street, Terminal, Seattle 1, Washington. Such further action may be taken against the violator as the Secretary of the Interior, or his representative, deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecutions under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. sec. 80), under Title III of the Second War Powers Act (50 App. U.S.C. sec. 633), and under any and all other applicable laws.

(n) Appeals and petitions for relief. Any person who finds that compliance with this section imposes an unreasonable burden upon him, or who is aggrieved by any action of the Director of Fish and Wildlife Service hereunder, may petition the Secretary of the Interior for appropriate relief. Any person aggrieved by any action taken by the Area Coordinator or one of his staff hereunder, or by any direction issued hereunder, or who finds that compliance therewith imposes an unreasonable burden upon him may petition the Area Coordinator for appropriate relief; and after the hearing or other presentation of the matter before the Area Coordinator and after his decision, any person affected may appeal from the decision by filing a petition with the Secretary of the Interior. Except in unusual circumstances decisions on petitions will be rendered by the Area Coordinator not later than 7 days after receipt thereof in his office at 421 Bell St. Terminal, Seattle, Washington, and on appeals therefrom by the Secretary of the Interior not later than 7 days after receipt thereof in his office at the Department of the Interior in Washington, D. C. Any petition filed under this paragraph must include a full showing of the pertinent facts, and must be filed in triplicate; and when any petition is filed with the Secretary of the Interior a copy thereof shall be filed at or before that time with the Area Coordinator. Unless there has been a hearing on the matter earlier in the proceedings, the petitioner may have a hearing before final action by request is included in his petition.

(o) Delegation of authority; designated representative. For the purpose of this section, the functions, duties and powers of the Secretary of the Interior may in his absence, or upon proper delegation, be exercised by the Director of Fish and Wildlife Service. All applications, petitions, and communications referred to herein shall, unless otherwise specified, be addressed to and filed with the Area Coordinator, United States Department of the Interior, 421 Bell Street Terminal, Seattle, Washington; he is the Area Coordinator referred to in this section and is hereby designated as the representative of the Secretary of the Interior for immediate supervision of the administration of this section. In the performance of these functions, the Area Coordinator may designate any members of his staff to carry out any specific functions that may be assigned; and, in addition, he may delegate specific functions to any member of the staff of the Fish and Wildlife Service, with the consent of the superior of such staff member.

(p) Effective date. This section shall become effective at once, and shall continue in effect through December 31, 1946, except as otherwise provided. Where any supervised allocation program is set up pursuant to paragraph (i) of this section, deliveries of halibut received by a permittee during the 1946 season, but before the effective date of this section, shall be considered as received under the share allocated to him under such program.

Issued this 23d day of April 1946.

J. A. KRUG,
Secretary of the Interior.

[Rev. SO 119, Order 177]

THE WEIMAN CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 15 and 16 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119; it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's ceiling prices. The Weiman Company, Rockford, Illinois may compute its adjusted ceiling prices for all articles of wood furniture which it manufactures, as follows:

(1) For an article in its line during October 1941, the adjusted ceiling price is the highest price charged during that month to each class of purchaser increased by 14.7 percent.

(2) For an article not in its line during October 1941, but which has a properly established ceiling price, in effect before the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the article's properly established ceiling price for the particular sale (exclusive of all permitted increases or adjustment charges) increased by the percentage determined in accordance with "Note 3" in section 8 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119.

(3) For an article which is first offered for sale after the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the maximum price hereafter properly determined or established in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 188; and prices so fixed may not be increased under this order.

(4) The manufacturer's adjusted ceiling price fixed in accordance with this order is his new ceiling price if it is higher than his previously established ceiling price including all increases and adjustments otherwise authorized for him individually or for his industry.

(b) Resellers' ceiling prices. Resellers of an article which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

(1) A retailer who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 580, and a wholesaler who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 590, shall compute their ceiling prices in the manner provided by those regulations. However, if the supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, the reseller shall compute his ceiling prices under those regulations as they have been modified by Order No. 4800 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(2) A reseller who determines his maximum resale price under the General Maximum Price Regulation, and whose supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, shall compute his ceiling prices under that regulation as modified by Order No. 4800 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

If his supplier's invoice does not state an "unadjusted maximum price", the reseller shall calculate his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage markup which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose, the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(i) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of article to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620–759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method, the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(3) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to the determination of ceiling prices for resales of articles covered by this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter, properly established under OPA regulations.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order, showing prices adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) All requests for adjustment of maximum prices not specifically granted by this order are hereby denied.

(f) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This order shall become effective on the 24th day of April, 1946.

Issued this 24th day of April 1946.

Administrator.

[SO 133, Order 32]

AYDEN FURNITURE WORKS

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to Supplementary Order No. 133; It is ordered:

(a) This order establishes maximum prices for sales and deliveries of wood household furniture manufactured by Ayden Furniture Works, Scotland Neck, North Carolina.

(1) For all sales and deliveries to retailers of articles of wood household furniture which it manufactures, the manufacturer may increase its maximum prices to retailers properly established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 (exclusive of any adjustment charges) by 24.7% of each such maximum price.

(2) For sales and deliveries of these articles of wood household furniture to classes of purchasers other than retailers, the maximum prices are the maximum prices to retailers established under subparagraph (1) above, adjusted to reflect the manufacturer's customary differentials for sales to those other classes of purchasers.

(b) Resellers of articles which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

(1) A retailer who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 580 and a wholesaler who must determine his ceiling prices under Maximum Price Regulation No. 590, shall compute their ceiling prices in the manner provided by those regulations. However, if the supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, the reseller shall compute his ceiling prices under those regulations as they have been modified by Order No. 4800 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(2) A reseller who determines his maximum resale price under the General Maximum Price Regulation, and whose supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, shall compute his ceiling prices under that regulation as modified by Order No. 4800 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

If his supplier's invoice does not state an "unadjusted maximum price", the reseller shall calculate his ceiling prices by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage markup which he had on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose, the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(i) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of article to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620–759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method, the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(3) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to the determination of ceiling prices for resales of articles covered by this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter, properly established under OPA regulations.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order, showing prices adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) The manufacturer shall file the report described in Section 5 of Supplementary Order No. 133 with the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., and shall comply with the invoicing and reporting provisions of Order No. 4800 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(f) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This order shall become effective on the 24th day of April 1946.

Issued this 24th day of April 1946.

SMALL ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, it is ordered:

SECTION 1. What this order does. This order provides that regardless of any contrary provision contained in Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, the maximum prices established under §§ 1499.158 and 1499.159c of that regulation for sales of small electrical appliances by new small-volume manufacturers shall be maximum prices, which when increased by the industry-wide adjustment authorized by Order No. 6 under § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, are in line with the level of properly established small manufacturers' maximum prices plus the average of the increases authorized for small manufacturers of those products under Supplementary Order No. 118.

For the purpose of this order a new small-volume manufacturer of a small electrical appliance is a person who would meet the tests of a new small-volume manufacturer set forth in section 3 of Revised Order No. 4332 in the case of a manufacturer of any article covered by that order.

SEC. 2. Applications for ceiling prices in line with the level of ceiling prices authorized by this order. A new small-volume manufacturer of small electrical appliances shall apply on OPA Form 663–1049 (6–45) under the Fourth Pricing Method, § 1499.158, of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for maximum prices in line with the level of maximum prices authorized by this order.

In order that it may be determined if a manufacturer qualifies as a new small-volume manufacturer who is entitled to receive maximum prices which reflect the level of maximum prices authorized by this order, each manufacturer's application shall supply the information called for on Part I of OPA Form 601–2628 (2–46) in addition to that called for on OPA Form 663–1049 (6–45).

SEC. 3. Expiration of maximum prices in line with the level of maximum prices authorized by this order. If a manufacturer of small electrical appliances, who has received maximum prices in line with the level of maximum prices authorized by this order, shall during a single calendar month deliver articles which he manufactures or distributes having a total net sales price of more than $25,000 or more than $60,000 during any three consecutive months, then such maximum prices for small electrical appliances of his manufacture shall expire on the thirtieth day after the end of the calendar month in which his net sales totaled more than the amounts stated above if he does not within such thirty-day period reapply under the Fourth Pricing Method (§ 1499.158) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, for maximum prices for his sales of the article. Such application shall be filed with the Consumer Goods Division of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and should specifically state that the prices for which he is reapplying under § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 are to supersede maximum prices previously fixed under the authority of this order.

If the manufacturer does reapply for maximum prices under the Fourth Pricing Method of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, within the thirty-day period, then he may continue to sell at the maximum prices previously determined under the authority of this order until a new order of the Office of Price Administration under § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 has been issued fixing new maximum prices for his sales in line with the level of ceiling prices otherwise fixed by the regulation which shall apply to all of the manufacturer's sales and deliveries on and after the effective date of that order.

This order shall become effective April 30, 1946.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping provisions of this order have been approved in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 25th day of April 1946.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File Nos. 54–54, 70–559, 59–50]

NORTHERN STATES POWER CO. (DEL.), ET AL.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR REOPENING RECORD AND FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23d day of April 1946.

In the matter of Northern States Power Company (Delaware), File No. 54–54; Northern States Power Company (Minnesota), File No. 70–559; Northern States Power Company (Delaware) and each of its subsidiaries, File No. 59–50.

The Commission, by its findings and opinion of April 26, 1945,[1] memorandum opinion of October 12, 1945,[2] and order dated October 31, 1945,[3] approved a plan in these proceedings for the liquidation and dissolution of Northern States Power Company (Delaware) (hereinafter referred to as "Delaware") pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. Under such plan (hereinafter referred to as the "Present Plan") the common stock of Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) (hereinafter referred to as "Minnesota"), which is the principal asset of Delaware, is proposed to be distributed in kind, approximately 90.4% thereof to the holders of Delaware preferred stock and 9.6% thereof to the holders of Delaware's common stock. Pursuant to Delaware's request the Commission on January 22, 1946, applied to the District Court of the United States for the District of Minnesota to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the Present Plan, and a hearing was ordered by the Court to be held on February 26, 1946.[4]

Subsequent to the Commission's application to the Court, and prior to the date fixed by the Court for hearing, numerous objections to enforcement of the present Plan[5] and suggestions for amendments of the Present Plan as heretofore approved or for alternative plans were received by the Commission from common stockholders of Delaware. Such suggested amendments and alternative plans were stated to be designed to effectuate the liquidation and dissolution of Delaware in a manner which would preserve a larger participation for the common stockholders of Delaware than under the Present Plan while fully satisfying the claims of the preferred stockholders. In order that the Commission might have adequate opportunity for consideration of the suggestions for amendments and for alternative plans, the Commission by its counsel filed a motion with the Court for an order to adjourn the hearing scheduled for February 26, 1946. At that time the Court ordered an adjournment of the hearing until April 23, 1946. On a report to the Court of the present status of the matter before the Commission, the Court has directed a further adjournment of said hearings until June 25, 1946, so as to afford the Commission further opportunity to take such action, with respect to any proposed amendments to the Present Plan and for alternative plans, as the Commission may deem appropriate.

The Commission has informally considered various suggestions for amendments to the Present Plan and for alternative plans submitted to it by persons interested in the reorganization. Lehman Brothers, and other Class A common stockholders have submitted a "Proposed Plan for Liquidation and Dissolution of Northern States Power Company" (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Proposed Plan")[6]. The Proposed Plan may be summarized as follows:

1. The Delaware Company would distribute to its 7% and 6% cumulative preferred stockholders (a) shares of Minnesota common stock having a value (in terms of public offering price determined by negotiation as described below) equal to $120.06 and $116.13, the respective call prices at January 1, 1946, plus a bonus (also determined by negotiation as described below) for the purpose of encouraging such preferred stockholders to retain such common stock and (b) an amount in cash equal to unpaid dividends on such stock accrued from January 1, 1946, to the date of distribution. Each preferred stockholder after receipt of the Minnesota common stock will have a 10-day period within which he may, if he desires, sell his stock for cash to underwriters (under an agreement between the underwriters and representatives of Delaware's Class A and B common stock) at an amount equal to the call price.

2. Representatives of Delaware's Class A and B common stock (to be named by amendment) would negotiate with underwriters to determine (a) the public offering price of the reclassified Minnesota common stock (a minimum of not less than $14.50 per share); (b) the bonus to be paid to preferred stockholders (a maximum of 10% of the call price); (c) the concession to underwriters upon the purchase of Minnesota common shares from Delaware preferred stockholders (a maximum of 9.09% of the public offering price); (d) the standby fee to be paid to underwriters (a maximum of 25¢ for each share distributed to Delaware's preferred stockholders and not sold by them to underwriters); and (e) the recapture provision for the benefit of the Delaware common stockholders of a portion of the underwriter's profit on stock purchased from preferred stockholders and sold at public sale by the underwriters at a profit in excess of the negotiated public offering price (a minimum of 75% of underwriter's profits on such sales).

3. After the distribution to preferred stockholders and the consummation of acts required by the underwriters, the balance of the Minnesota common stock would be distributed to the Delaware Class A and Class B common stockholders on the basis of 86.7% to the Class A holders and 13.3% to the Class B holders.

4. In the event that the underwriting is not consummated in accordance with the limitations prescribed, the Proposed Plan is no longer operative and distribution provided under the Present Plan becomes applicable.

5. Whether or not the underwriting is consummated as set forth in the Proposed Plan, the remaining provisions of the Present Plan would be carried out under the Proposed Plan. Under both the Proposed Plan and the Present Plan the Delaware Company would be dissolved, after distribution of the Minnesota common stock to the holders entitled thereto.

We do not express any opinion at this time as to whether the provisions of the Proposed Plan are fair and equitable or as to whether they are feasible. However, we believe that in view of the objections which have been made to the Present Plan we are warranted in instituting formal proceedings to determine whether that plan should be amended (and whether, accordingly, our order approving that plan should be amended or vacated) either in accordance with the Proposed Plan proposed by Lehman Brothers, or otherwise. We are, therefore, of the opinion that we should reopen the hearings for the purpose of considering the Proposed Plan, as well as any other proposals or plans or suggestions which may be presented by other security holders.[7]

Accordingly, we are at this time reopening the proceedings and setting the case down for hearing, as hereinafter ordered, for the purpose of considering the above-described Proposed Plan and any other suggested amendments or plans which may be proposed. It is our intention that the scope of the evidence at the hearings be limited to such matters as were not presented at the earlier and extensive hearings held on the Present Plan. The Commission's staff will be instructed to proceed expeditiously with such hearings, so that necessary evidence may be taken promptly and the views of the parties may be expeditiously obtained, consistently with fair and adequate presentation. At the conclusion of such hearings, we shall make such determination as appears appropriate, so that the matter may be promptly resubmitted to the United States District Court.

The Commission, therefore, deeming it appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers that the record herein be reopened and the hearings reconvened, for the purposes and subject to the provisions more fully hereinafter set forth.

It is ordered, That: 1. The record in these proceedings is hereby reopened, and a hearing shall be held for the purposes herinafter provided on the 27th day of May, 1946, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. t., at the offices of this Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing shall be held.

2. Any persons desiring to do so may file on or before May 20, 1946, further proposals for amendments to or alternatives for the Present Plan of liquidation and dissolution of Northern States Power Company (Delaware). Any persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate, whether or not they file such proposals, shall notify the Commission to that effect in the manner provided in Rule XVII in the Commission's rules of practice on or before May 24, 1946.

3. At said hearing there will be considered the Proposed Plan filed by Lehman Brothers, and any other suggested amendments or alternative plans which may be filed by interested persons, with respect to whether the aforesaid Present Plan, as modified by said Proposed Plan or by any other suggested amendments, or other alternative plans, are fair and equitable, and feasible, and whether the Commission's previous order approving the aforesaid Present Plan should be amended or rescinded in whole or in part, or such other action taken as may be appropriate to satisfy the statutory standards.

4. The evidence to be adduced at said reconvened hearing will be limited to any material matters or facts which may have arisen since April 26, 1944, the close of the previous hearings herein, unless good cause is shown for the introduction of other evidence.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend or any other officer or officers of this Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That Northern States Power Company (Delaware) shall mail copies of this memorandum opinion and notice of and order for reopening the record and for hearing, on or before May 7, 1946, to all stockholders of said company and the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the aforesaid hearing by mailing copies of this order

3. Whether, within the meaning of section 10 (b) (3) of the act, the acquisition by American Gas of the common stock of Columbus will be detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers or the proper functioning of the holding company system controlled by American Gas.

7. Whether, if the proposed acquisition by American Gas is authorized and American Gas is the successful bidder, the financing of such acquisition through issuance of notes with maturities of less than 10 years by American Gas to commercial banks satisfies the standards of sections 7 (c) and (d) of the act.

8. Whether the fees, commissions or other remunerations to be paid in connection with the proposed transactions are reasonable.

9. Whether it is necessary or appropriate to impose terms or conditions with respect to the proposed transactions in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers, and, if so, what terms and conditions should be imposed.

10. Generally, whether the propdsed transactions comply with the applicable provisions of the act, and the rules, regulations and orders promulgated thereunder.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be reserved to separate, either for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, any of the issues, questions or matters herein set forth, or which may arise in these proceedings, or to consolidate with these proceedings other filings or matters pertaining to the subject matter of these proceedings, and to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt and economic disposition of the matters involved.

Such application shall show the total amount (live weight) of each species of livestock slaughtered for the applicant during each accounting period covering the time when he was engaged in such business, and the name and address of the plant or plants in which such livestock was custom slaughtered for him.

(d) Slaughtering restrictions immediately applicable. The amount of cattle, calves and swine which may be slaughtered from the effective date of this order to the beginning of the next succeeding accounting period shall be calculated by applying the above percentages against the amount of cattle, calves and swine slaughtered during the time covered by the corresponding dates in 1944.

(e) Slaughter in excess of permitted amount. The slaughter of livestock by any person during any period in excess of the amount permitted to be slaughtered during such period under the provisions of this order shall be charged against the amount permitted to be slaughtered during any subsequent accounting period, and in addition thereto shall subject such slaughterer to such other actions, penalties, or proceedings as may be prescribed by law or imposed pursuant to this order.

(f) Exemptions. The slaughtering restrictions of this order shall not apply to the slaughter of livestock by a farmer or for his account, for the purpose of the production of meat for such farmer's own use.

AUTHORITY: §§ 295.1 to 295.29, inclusive, issued under sec. 32, 49 Stat. 774, as amended, 7 U.S.C. and Sup., 612c; sec. 21 (c), 58 Stat. 776, 50 U.S.C., App. Sup., 1630 (c).

§ 295.1 General statement. Subject to the terms and conditions stated in this subpart and in order to encourage the exportation of lint cotton grown in the United States, Commodity Credit Corporation, pursuant to the provisions of section 21 (c) of the Surplus Property Act of 1944, offers to dispose of cotton for export, and, in cases where cotton is not purchased from the Corporation, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the authority conferred by section 32 of Public Law 320, 74th Congress, as amended, offers to make payments to exporters.

§ 295.2 Catalog. The cotton available for purchase under this subpart will be listed by the Corporation in a catalog showing by warehouse locations the grades and staple lengths of such cotton. Irrigated growths will be designated. This catalog will be furnished at $10.00 per copy by the New Orleans Office of the Cotton Branch of the Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture. The cotton listed in the catalog will be from the 1934, 1937, 1941, 1942, 1943, 1944, and 1945 crops. Any qualities of cotton which are determined by the Corporation to be in short supply may be withdrawn from sale at any time by public announcement by the Corporation.

§ 295.3 Eligibility to make purchases from the Corporation's stocks against registered sales. If an exporter agrees to sell a quantity of lint cotton grown in the continental United States to a foreign purchaser for export to an approved country and the sale is registered as provided in § 295.9, the exporter may purchase from the Corporation, at a price computed in accordance with § 295.5, a quantity of cotton equal to the number of pounds of cotton (gross unpatched weight) exported, or (in case the Corporation sells cotton in reliance on the exporter's bond) to be exported, in fulfillment of such sale, subject to the following additional conditions:

(a) The exporter must have submitted to the New Orleans Office either (1) satisfactory evidence (as provided in § 295.10) of the exportation of cotton by the exporter in fulfillment of the export sale prior to July 1, 1947, or (2) a bond meeting the requirements of § 295.11, conditioned upon the submission of satisfactory evidence of exportation of cotton by the exporter in fulfillment of the export sale prior to July 1, 1947; and

(b) The New Orleans Office must have received from the exporter, not later than 90 days after the New Orleans Office receives notice of the export sale, Purchase Orders covering the cotton which the exporter is eligible to purchase, and the Corporation must have accepted such Purchase Orders: Provided, That if the sales contract submitted to the New Orleans Office pursuant to § 295.9 (b) provides that a specified quantity (bales or pounds) of cotton shall be shipped or delivered during a specified period or shipped on a specified shipping date, the exporter shall have until 30 days prior to the beginning of such period or shipping date or 90 days after the New Orleans Office receives notice of the export sale, whichever is later, to submit Purchase Orders covering an equal quantity of cotton to the New Orleans Office. The Corporation will not accept a Purchase Order if it does not desire to sell at the price bid by the exporter, or if it does not have available or does not choose to sell cotton comparable in quality and growth to that desired by the exporter and otherwise suitable to meet the exporter's requirements.

§ 295.4 Approved countries. Until and unless the Secretary otherwise announces, an approved country shall be a country to which cotton may be exported without violating the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, or any other statute, or any order or regulation issued pursuant thereto. Nothing in this subpart shall be deemed to authorize the exportation of cotton in violation of any such statute, order or regulation.

§ 295.5 Purchase price. The purchase price per pound to be paid by an exporter for cotton covered by a Purchase Order which is accepted by the Corporation shall be the price bid in the Purchase Order, less the amount of the applicable export differential.[1] The export differential applicable to any cotton purchased from the Corporation hereunder shall be the export differential announced by the Secretary and in effect at the time the New Orleans Office receives notice of the export sale against which such cotton is being purchased. If the Purchase Order is received by the New Orleans Office more than 90 days after the date it receives notice of the export sale against which such cotton is being purchased, pursuant to the proviso in § 295.3 (b), the purchase price shall be increased by 5 points for each month or fraction thereof between the end of such 90-day period and the date the Purchase Order is received by the New Orleans Office. Purchase Orders shall be submitted and construed in accordance with instructions issued by the New Orleans Office.

§ 295.6 Storage charges. The Corporation shall pay direct to the warehouseman all storage charges on cotton purchased from the Corporation's stocks through the date the sight draft, with warehouse receipts attached, is presented to the exporter for payment.

§ 295.7 Purchase Orders. All Purchase Orders shall be submitted to the New Orleans Office and shall be in the form prescribed by the Corporation. They may be sent by mail or telegraph, but if sent by telegraph, they shall be confirmed in writing on the same day in the prescribed form. Each Purchase Order submitted by an exporter shall designate the export sale or consignment declaration against which the purchase is made. Upon receipt of any Purchase Order, a check of the stocks available for purchase shall be made. If all or any part of the cotton specified is available for purchase, and the Purchase Order is accepted by the Corporation, the exporter will be promptly notified by telegram of the Corporation's acceptance. No cotton shall be regarded as purchased until the exporter receives such notification. If the Purchase Order is not accepted as to all or any part of the cotton specified thereon, the exporter will be promptly notified by telegram and may order other cotton in substitution.

§ 295.8 Eligibility for payments by the Secretary. If an exporter agrees to sell lint cotton grown in the continental United States to a foreign purchaser for export to an approved country, and if the sale is registered as provided in § 295.9, the exporter shall be eligible to receive a payment from the Secretary on that quantity of the cotton exported in fulfillment of such export sale which is in excess of the cotton purchased from the Corporation's stocks against such export sale (in lieu of purchasing an equal quantity of cotton from the Corporation's stocks), subject to the following additional terms and conditions:

(a) The Corporation must have certified to the Secretary that the exporter filed Purchase Orders with respect to such quantity of cotton with the New Orleans Office within the time limits specified in § 295.3 (b) for submission of Purchase Orders and that the Corporation did not have available, or did not choose to sell, an equal quantity of cotton from its own stocks which was comparable in quality and growth to that desired by the exporter and which was otherwise suitable to meet the exporter's requirements.

(b) The payment shall be based on the unpatched gross weight of such quantity of cotton and shall be at a rate per pound equal to the export differential announced by the Secretary and in effect at the time the New Orleans Office receives notice of the export sale.

(c) The exporter must have submitted to the New Orleans Office satisfactory evidence (as provided in § 295.10) that such quantity of cotton was exported by the exporter in fulfillment of the sale prior to July 1, 1947.

(d) The exporter must have submitted to the New Orleans Office, within 90 days after the date of exportation of such cotton, an application for such payment on the voucher form specified by the New Orleans Office.

(e) The exporter to whom payment shall be made shall be the person or firm named as exporter in the notice of the export sale: Provided, That if the shipper or the consignor named in the bill of lading under which such quantity of cotton is exported is other than the exporter named in the notice of the export sale, waiver by the shipper or consignor named in the bill of lading of any interest in the claim in favor of the exporter named in the notice of the export sale will be required.

§ 295.9 Registration and contracts of sale—(a) Registration. A sale of raw cotton for exportation shall be registered hereunder when, and only in the event that, the following requirements have been met:

(1) The sale must be made subsequent to the date of this subpart.

(2) The country to which the cotton is sold for export must be an approved country at the time the sale is made.

(3) In the case of sales for export to Canada and Mexico, such sales must be made directly to a cotton consuming establishment in such country. The determination of the Secretary as to whether the buyer is a cotton consuming establishment shall be final.

(4) The exporter must send a notice of the export sale to the New Orleans Office by telegram filed with the telegraph company not later than twenty-four (24) hours after the sale is made. A notice of sale filed after such 24-hour period may be accepted if it is shown that the delay is due to circumstances beyond the control of the exporter. The notice of the export sale must state the name and address of the foreign purchaser, the number of pounds (gross weight) and the quality of cotton sold, the sales price, and the date and exact time the sale is made.

(5) There must be received by the New Orleans Office, within five (5) days (excluding Saturdays and Sundays) after the date it receives the notice of the export sale, three copies of a Declaration of Export Sale (C. C. C. Cotton Form SFE–H). A declaration filed after such 5-day period may be accepted if it is shown that the delay is due to circumstances beyond the control of the exporter.

(b) Contracts of sale. The Corporation must also be furnished with a copy of an unconditional sales contract covering the cotton sold, signed by both parties, and certified by the exporter as being true and correct. Such contract must show the sales price, the date of sale, the number of pounds (gross weight) and quality of cotton sold, the sailing date or month or months of delivery, the destination of shipment, and the names and addresses of the parties to the contract, and must call for the exportation of the cotton not later than June 30, 1947. Such contract shall be filed with the New Orleans Office within twenty (20) days after the date the New Orleans Office receives notice of the export sale, in the case of sales for export to Canada and Mexico, and within sixty (60) days after such date, in the case of sales to other countries, unless an extension of time is granted by the Corporation. The Corporation may accept an amendment to the contract changing the sailing date or month or months of delivery if the amendment is accompanied by a copy, certified by the exporter as being true and correct, of a telegram or cable from the purchaser requesting that shipment or delivery be made on the later date.

§ 295.10 Satisfactory evidence of exportation. Evidence of exportation of cotton, to be satisfactory under this subpart, must meet the following requirements:

(a) If the cotton is exported to Canada or Mexico, the exporter shall furnish an authenticated landing certificate, in duplicate, issued by an official of the government of the country to which the cotton is exported, showing the place and date of landing and gross landed weight of the cotton, and the name and address of both the person who exports the cotton from the United States and the person to whom it is shipped.

(b) If the cotton is exported to any other approved country, the exporter shall furnish two copies of either an on board ship bill of lading or a shipmaster's receipt, showing the number of bales, marks, and gross weight of cotton loaded on board ship, the date and place of loading, the name of the vessel, the destination of the cotton, and the name and address of both the person exporting the cotton and the person to whom it is shipped.

(c) In every case, the exporter shall also furnish two copies of his customs export declaration, certified by the customs office and showing that the cotton was produced in the continental United States, and a reweight sheet, in duplicate, of the warehouse from which the cotton is shipped for export, certified by the warehouse and showing the number of bales and marks of the cotton and its unpatched gross weight. Such weight sheet shall constitute satisfactory evidence of the cotton's unpatched gross weight.

(d) The documents specified above must be filed with the New Orleans Office not later than fifteen (15) days after the date of the landing certificate, on board ship bill of lading, or shipmaster's receipt, and also, in those cases in which cotton is sold by the Corporation from its stocks in reliance upon the exporter's bond, not later than thirty (30) days after the sailing date or month or months of delivery shown on the certified copy of the sales contract filed with the New Orleans Office.

(e) The exporter shall also furnish any additional evidence of exportation which may be requested by the New Orleans Office.

(f) If cotton is loaded on board a vessel for shipment to an approved country and is destroyed while on board such vessel, for the purposes of this subpart the cotton shall be regarded as having been exported.

§ 295.11 Bond. The bond which must be furnished by each exporter who desires to purchase cotton from the Corporation under this subpart against export sales prior to the submission of satisfactory evidence of exportation of the cotton covered by such sales shall be in the form prescribed by the Corporation and shall be in an amount at least equivalent to 10 cents for each pound (gross weight) of cotton sold to the exporter against an export sale for which, at any one time, satisfactory evidence of the exportation of the cotton covered by the sale to the approved country named in the sales contract has not been submitted to the New Orleans Office. The surety on such bond must be a corporate surety approved by the Treasury Department of the United States.

§ 295.12 Liquidated damages. (a) In all cases in which (1) an exporter gives the New Orleans Office notice of an export sale pursuant to § 295.9 and satisfactory evidence of the exportation, prior to July 1, 1947, of cotton in fulfillment of such export sale is not filed with the New Orleans Office within the time specified in § 295.10, or such extension of time as may be granted pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) of this section, or (2) cotton as to which satisfactory evidence of exportation has been submitted reenters the United States or its possessions (other than the Philippine Islands) in the form of raw cotton, the exporter shall pay to the Corporation, in care of the New Orleans Office, as liquidated damages, the sum of 10 cents for each pound of such cotton.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of § 295.10 (d) and paragraph (a) of this section, if the Director of the New Orleans Office determines that the exporter was prevented from exporting cotton in fulfillment of an export sale of which the New Orleans Office receives notice hereunder by acts of government, acts of God, lack of shipping space (claims of lack of shipping space must be supported by a letter from the War Shipping Administration, or from all of the steamship companies operating to the country to which the cotton is to be exported, showing that shipping space was unavailable for shipment of such cotton within the prescribed time), or other similar causes beyond the exporter's control:

(1) The Director of the New Orleans Office may grant an extension of the time within which such cotton may be exported and satisfactory proof of exportation may be submitted, or

(2) If an extension of time is not granted, or if such cotton cannot be exported due to any such cause within any such extension of time:

(i) In lieu of paying to the Corporation the amount provided in paragraph (a) of this section with respect to such cotton, if the Corporation has sold the exporter cotton against the export sale of such cotton, the exporter shall pay to the Corporation with respect to each pound of such cotton an amount equal to the export differential used in computing the price at which such cotton was purchased from the Corporation; and

(ii) If the Corporation has not sold the exporter cotton against the export sale of such cotton, the exporter shall not be liable for the payment of liquidated damages under this section with respect to such cotton, and the exporter shall have no rights hereunder with respect to the export sale of such cotton.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, if an exporter is unable, because of the destruction of cotton shipped to Mexico or Canada by rail in fulfillment of an export sale, to furnish satisfactory proof of exportation of such cotton, and if title to the cotton was in the foreign purchaser at the time it was destroyed:

(1) In lieu of paying to the Corporation the amount provided in paragraph (a) of this section with respect to the cotton so destroyed, if the Corporation has sold the exporter cotton against the export sale of such cotton, the exporter shall pay to the Corporation with respect to each pound of such cotton an amount equal to the export differential used in computing the price at which such cotton was purchased from the Corporation; and

(2) If the Corporation has not sold the exporter cotton against the export sale of such cotton, the exporter shall not be liable for the payment of liquidated damages under this section with respect to such cotton, and the exporter shall have no rights hereunder with respect to the export sale of such cotton.

In any such case, the New Orleans Office must be notified of the destruction of the cotton and the number of the registered sale, and the exporter shall furnish such proof of destruction and passage of title as the New Orleans Office may require.

§ 295.13 Payment for and delivery of cotton. Within thirty (30) days after the date of receipt of any Purchase Order which is accepted by the Corporation, the Corporation will present to the exporter a sight draft drawn on the exporter for the purchase price of the cotton, accompanied by warehouse receipts representing the cotton and properly endorsed so as to vest title in the exporter. Such draft must be paid by the exporter upon presentation.

§ 295.14 Class. All sales by the Corporation of 1944, 1945, or later crop cotton will be based solely upon the grade and staple length shown in the catalog, with no right of adjustment if the grade or staple length is found to be other than that stated in the catalog or for any other reason. Sales of 1934, 1937, 1941, 1942, and 1943 crop cotton will be subject to adjustment for grade and staple length upon reclassification by a Board of Cotton Examiners of the Cotton Branch, Production and Marketing Administratiton, United States Department of Agriculture of all of the cotton listed on the sales invoice which was stored in the same warehouse or compress. In the event the reclassification of any cotton of the 1934, 1937, 1941, 1942, or 1943 crops should vary from the classification shown in the catalog, settlement will be made with the exporter on all of the cotton listed on the sales invoice which was stored in the same warehouse or compress upon the basis of such reclassification. No rejections will be allowed.

§ 295.15 Weight. Cotton sold from the Corporation's stocks under this subpart will be invoiced on the basis of the gross weight shown on the warehouse receipts. Claims for weight differences may be filed by the exporter only in the event that the claim covers all of the cotton listed on the sales invoice which was stored in the same warehouse or compress and that he has had all such cotton reweighed before compression at his own expense, as evidenced by a reweight sheet, in duplicate, signed by the superintendent or manager of such warehouse or compress and bearing the following certificate: "This cotton not resampled or reconditioned before reweighing."

§ 295.16 Filing claims. Claims for differences in grade or staple length of 1934, 1937, 1941, 1942, or 1943 crop cotton or for differences in weight of any cotton must be filed, in duplicate, not later than 90 days after the date the cotton is invoiced by the Corporation, but all such claims with respect to any lot of cotton should be filed at the same time. Claims must be filed in accordance with the instructions issued by the New Orleans Office.

§ 295.17 Cotton not in good condition. The warehouse receipts held by the Corporation contain the obligation of the warehousemen to deliver the bales of cotton represented thereby in good condition. The Corporation shall not be liable to an exporter for the failure of a warehouseman to deliver to the exporter in good condition the bales of cotton represented by any warehouse receipts.

§ 295.18 Freight bills. The exporter shall, within six months after receipt of warehouse receipts representing cotton purchased from the Corporation's stocks:

(a) Purchase the freight bills held by the Corporation covering the bales of such cotton which were shipped by rail to the warehouses issuing the warehouse receipts at their refund value based on reshipment of such bales to Greenville, South Carolina, as representative of Group B points, or, if such cotton is stored at Group A or Group B points and is reshipped, based on the destination to which such cotton is actually reshipped; or

(b) If such cotton is not stored at a port when sold to the exporter, furnish the Corporation with outbound bills of lading, acquired in the shipping of such cotton via the railroad line designated by the Corporation; or otherwise, the exporter shall purchase the freight bills by honoring a three-day sight draft, with the freight bills held by the Corporation attached, for the amount specified in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) If such cotton is stored at a port when sold to the exporter, furnish the Corporation with a copy of the ocean bill of lading (or if the cotton is exported from another port, a copy of the railroad bill of lading, a copy of the tag list, and a copy of the ocean bill of lading) evidencing exportation of the identical cotton;

§ 295.19 Consignments. If an exporter intends to export lint cotton to an approved country prior to the sale of such cotton and files with the New Orleans Office a Declaration of Intent to Consign listing the number of pounds (gross unpatched weight) and the grade and staple length of the cotton which he intends to export, and if the Declaration is approved by the Corporation, the exporter may purchase from the Corporation an equal quantity of cotton, subject to the following terms and conditions:

(a) Declarations. The declaration must be in the form prescribed by the Corporation and must be filed, in triplicate, before the cotton listed on the declaration is exported. Submission of a declaration and approval by the Corporation is in lieu of registration. The Corporation will approve only declarations listing cotton of a grade and staple length which the Corporation announces may be exported under this section. Upon approval of a declaration, one copy, dated and marked approved, will be returned to the exporter.

(b) Bond. Before the declaration will be approved, the New Orleans Office must have received from the exporter a surety bond in the form prescribed by the Corporation, conditioned upon the submission of satisfactory evidence of exportation of the cotton listed on the declaration by the exporter prior to July 1, 1947, and not later than 90 days after the date the declaration is approved, and in an amount at least equivalent to 10 cents for each pound of cotton listed on all of the declarations filed by the exporter for which, at any one time, satisfactory evidence of exportation has not been furnished. The surety on such bond must be a corporate surety approved by the Treasury Department of the United States.

(c) Satisfactory evidence of exportation. Evidence of exportation of cotton, to be satisfactory under this section, must meet the requirements of § 295.10 and must also include a certification by the exporter that the cotton shipped was of the grade and staple length stated in the declaration.

(d) Purchase Orders. The New Orleans Office must have received from the exporter, not later than 90 days after the date the Corporation approves the declaration, Purchase Orders covering the cotton which the exporter is eligible to purchase, and the Corporation must have accepted such Purchase Orders,

(e) Price. The price of cotton purchased under this section shall be computed in accordance with § 295.5, except that in applying § 295.5 the date the Corporation approves the declaration shall be used in place of the time the New Orleans Office receives notice of the export sale against which such cotton is being purchased.

(f) Liquidated damages. (1) In all cases in which (i) the exporter fails to furnish within the time specified in § 295.10 or such extension of time as may be granted by the Corporation under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, satisfactory evidence that the cotton listed on the declaration was exported prior to July 1, 1947, and not later than 90 days after the date the declaration is approved, or (ii) cotton as to which satisfactory evidence of exportation has been submitted reenters the United States or its possessions (other than the Philippine Islands) in the form of raw cotton, the exporter shall pay to the Corporation, as liquidated damages, the sum of 10 cents for each pound of such cotton.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, if the Director of the New Orleans Office determines that the exporter was prevented from exporting the cotton listed on the declaration by a cause listed in § 295.12 (b), the provisions of § 295.12 (b) (1) and (2) shall be applicable to this paragraph, except that in applying § 295.12 (b) (1) and (2) the phrase "the Declaration of Intent to Consign" shall be substituted for the phrase "the export sale of" and the phrase "subparagraph (1) of this paragraph" shall be substituted for the phrase "paragraph (a) of this section."

(g) Payments by Secretary. If the Corporation so elects, it may refuse to sell to the exporter a quantity of cotton equal to that listed on the approved declaration, and, in such case, the exporter shall be eligible to receive a payment from the Secretary on that quantity of the cotton exported in fulfillment of the declaration which is in excess of the cotton purchased from the Corporation's stocks against the declaration (in lieu of purchasing an equal quantity of cotton from the Corporation's stocks), subject to the following terms and conditions:

(1) The Corporation must have certified to the Secretary that the exporter filed Purchase Orders with respect to such quantity of cotton with the New Orleans Office not later than 90 days after the date the Corporation approved the declaration and that the Corporation elected not to sell such quantity of cotton to the exporter.

(2) The payment shall be based on the unpatched gross weight of such quantity of cotton and shall be at a rate per pound equal to the export differential announced by the Secretary and in effect at the time the Corporation approves the declaration.

(3) The exporter must have submitted to the New Orleans Office satisfactory evidence that such quantity of cotton was exported by the exporter prior to July 1, 1947, and not later than 90 days after the date the declaration was approved.

(4) The exporter must have submitted to the New Orleans Office, within 90 days after the date of exportation of such quantity of cotton, an application for such payment on the voucher form specified by the New Orleans Office.

(5) The exporter to whom payment shall be made shall be the person or firm named as exporter in the declaration: Provided, That if the shipper or the consignor named in the bill of lading under which such quantity of cotton is exported is other than the exporter named in the declaration, waiver by the shipper or consignor named in the bill of lading of any interest in the claim in favor of the exporter named in the declaration will be required.

(h) Amendments and terminations. Any amendment or termination of this subpart and any withdrawal of any qualities of the Corporation's cotton shall not be applicable to Purchase Orders, or vouchers submitted with respect to declarations approved by the Corporation prior to the effective date of such amendment, termination, or withdrawal.

(i) Applicability of other provisions. All of the provisions of this subpart except §§ 295.3 and 295.8 shall be applicable to this section, except where they are inconsistent with this section. The exportation of cotton in fulfillment of a declaration approved under this section shall not entitle the exporter to any benefits under §§ 295.3 and 295.8.

§ 295.20 Books, records and accounts. The exporter shall make available to the Corporation or the Secretary, from time to time, as they may request, such of exporter's, and such of his affiliates' and subsidiaries', books, records, accounts, and other documents and papers as the Corporation or the Secretary, respectively, may deem pertinent to any transaction under this subpart. Each such exporter shall also furnish to the Corporation or the Secretary such information and reports as they may from time to time request, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942. The specific reporting requirements hereof have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 295.21 Setoffs. The Secretary may set off against any amount owed to any exporter any amount owed by the exporter to the Corporation, the United States Department of Agriculture, or any other agency of the United States.

§ 295.22 Assignments. No exporter shall, without the written consent of the Corporation or the Secretary, assign any right of the exporter against the Corporation or the Secretary, respectively, under this subpart.

Fabrics set aside under this paragraph shall not be delivered on orders for eventual export by the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, American Red Cross, or any U. S. military exchange or service department as defined in Priorities Regulation 17.

(2) Sub-set-aside for export to Canada. During each calendar quarter after March 31, 1946 each producer shall set aside from his production of each cotton fabric, for delivery only on orders certified for export to the Dominion of Canada, an amount not less than the percentage specified for that purpose by the attached tables (column 9). Deliveries on certified Canadian export orders within this minimum percentage are chargeable, and in excess of it are not chargeable, against the general export set-aside of paragraph (g) (1) above. In the absence of a specific percentage in column 9 of the attached tables for any fabric, any deliveries of that fabric on certified Canadian export orders may be charged against the general export set-aside of paragraph (g) (1) above.

(3) Scope of export set-aside. The export set-asides are for cotton fabrics to be exported in the gray, in the finished state, as piece goods, or in any of the following forms: bedsheets, pillow cases, blankets, towels, diapers, face cloths, table "linen", or clothing.

(4) Special export rules for wide combed cotton fabrics (Table I). In calculating export-set-asides of cotton fabrics in the attached Table I the producer may exclude his production of cotton fabrics wider than 42½". However, deliveries on certified export orders of cotton fabrics wider than 42½" may be credited against the producer's export set-aside of cotton fabrics less than 42½" wide within the same reference number in column 1 of the attached Table I (or, in the case of drills, twills and sateens, deliveries on certified export orders of any of these fabrics wider than 42½" may be credited against the producer's export set-aside of any drill, twill or sateen less than 42½" wide).

(5) Certifying orders for replacement of exported cotton fabrics. Purchase orders may be certified "for export" under this order when the cotton fabrics (or other items listed in paragraph (g) (3) above) being ordered either will be exported as certified, or else will replace in inventory other cotton fabrics (or items) of like description which have been exported as certified within the previous 90 days.

(h) General provisions for set-asides—(1) Quantities to be set-aside and carry-overs from previous quarters. The undelivered balance of the total quantity required to be set aside for any purpose during any quarter (including the first quarter of 1946 with respect to exports and bags controlled by Order M-221), shall be added to the percentage of production during the next quarter which must be set aside for that purpose. The sum of the carry-over plus the required percentage of current production constitute the total quantity of each set-aside during each quarter. For the purpose of determining set-aside quantities during any quarter, production during that quarter must be estimated as being at least equal to the previous quarter's production. However, carry-overs must be computed on the basis of actual production and deliveries.

(2) Deliveries in excess of required set-asides. Deliveries in excess of the quantity required to be set aside for any purpose may not be credited against the set-aside for any other purpose, nor against the next quarter's set-aside for the same purpose. The set-aside for each purpose is a minimum required quantity, and does not prevent additional quantities being delivered from production which has not been set aside for other purposes.

(3) Shorts, seconds, remnants and mill ends. Shorts, seconds, remnants and mill ends must be included in total production for the purpose of determining set-asides only to the extent that these items exceed 10 percent of the total production (including these items). Deliveries of shorts, seconds, remnants and mill ends may not be credited as deliveries against the set-asides.

(4) Cotton fabric products. A producer may charge against the applicable set-aside the cotton fabric which he uses to make cotton fabric products (such as sheets, towels, diapers, etc.), if he delivers the products on orders which meet the terms of the set-aside. However, in the case of export set-asides the permitted products are limited by paragraph (g) (3).

(5) Production for another's account. A producer of cotton fabric for the account of another person must treat that fabric as part of his (the producer's) own production for the purpose of the above set-aside provisions, and may not deliver the fabric to anyone, including the person for whose account it was produced, except upon receipt of certificates of ultimate use which meet the terms of the required set-asides.

Certificates

(i) Purchase order certificates for cotton fabrics—(1) When certificate required, and restrictions on use or resale of fabric received on certification. No producer may deliver cotton fabrics which he is required to set aside under this order except on purchase orders with certificates stating that the fabrics ordered will be used or resold for purposes meeting the set-aside provisions. A person who has obtained cotton fabrics on certification may use them only as certified, and may resell them only on orders similarly certified. However, he may resell at retail without certification from the buyer unless he knows or has reason to believe that the buyer will not use the fabric for the certified purpose.

Delivery shall not be made on any order which the seller knows or has reason to believe is falsely certified, or on any uncertified order which is required to be certified, even though the order is rated MM or CC.

The certification requirements of this order do not apply to distribution of cotton fabrics set aside for apparel and piece-goods under M-328B programs. These fabrics must be delivered in accordance with the certification requirements of Order M-328B and its schedules and directions.

(2) Content and form of certificate. The purchase order certificate must state the ultimate use of the cotton fabric ordered and must be certified and signed, as follows:

For use or resale for industrial or agricultural purposes under CPA Order M-317A (if applicable, add "for use in the gray without any finishing", or "for varnished cambric for electrical insulation")—or

For use or resale for making bags controlled by CPA Order M-221 (if applicable, add "for use in the gray without any finishing")—or

For export (or state that "these cotton fabrics will be exported or will replace in inventory similar cotton fabrics which have been exported within 90 days"; moreover, state also the governing export license number and date of validation, or the United States Treasury Procurement Division contract number and date; or if the export is to Canada, so state and add the Canadian Cotton Administrator's Serial Number and date).

The above statements of use must be followed by the following standard form of certification, signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation 7:

The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to the penalties of sec. on 35 (a) of the United States Criminal Code, to the seller and to the Civilian Production Administration, that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the undersigned is authorized under applicable Civilian Production Administration regulations and orders to place this delivery order, to receive the item(s) ordered for the purpose for which ordered, and to use any preference rating which the undersigned has placed on this order.

---------- ----------
(Authorized Signature) (Date)

(3) Addition of rating. In addition to the above statement of ultimate use, the applicable rating (if any) and the statement of the source of the rating (required by paragraph (c) of Order M-317) may be inserted in the above certificate instead of being certified separately.

Preference Ratings

(j) Effect of preference ratings. (1) Orders which are duly certified for any set-aside purpose and also bear preference ratings and the statement of source of rating required by Order M-317, must be accepted and filled from the applicable set-aside in accordance with the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1. On the other hand, delivery may not be made of any set-aside cotton fabrics on any rated order which is not certified as required by paragraph (i) above.

(2) During each quarter after March 31, 1946 no producer need accept rated orders which would cause him to deliver, more of any cotton fabric from the balance of his production not subject to set-asides, than the percentage of his production of that fabric specified in the attached tables (column 11). Deliveries on rated certified orders which have been credited against any set-aside may not also be credited against the rating ceiling of this paragraph. On the other hand, deliveries on rated orders which are certified for set-aside purposes may be credited against the rating ceiling of this paragraph if the applicable set-asides were exhausted and the deliveries are not credited against any set-aside.

(3) Paragraph (j) (1) and (2) above refer to MM and CC rated orders. Orders rated AAA must be accepted and filled regardless of the set-aside or rating ceiling provisions of this order.

(4) No producer of cotton fabric shall use any preference rating to obtain cotton fabric from another producer, except to the extent authorized by the Civilian Production Administration, upon his showing on Form CPA-2842, that his own production is insufficient or unsuitable. This does not apply to orders accepted before April 1, 1946.

(5) Preference ratings assigned for the export of cotton fabric expire if they are not applied or extended to an order accepted by a producer within six months of the date the rating was assigned.

(6) No person is required to accept any rated order for cotton fabrics calling for delivery more than 90 days after the receipt of the order, except from the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration.

Miscellaneous

(k) Integrated mills. Requisitions for intra-company deliveries of cotton fabrics from the producing mill shall be treated as if they were purchase orders, for the purpose of the set-aside and certification requirements and the other provisions of this order.

(l) Reports. Each producer of cotton fabrics shall file a report with the Civilian Production Administration on Forms CPA-658B and C at the time and in the manner prescribed in these forms. These reporting requirements have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget under the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(m) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from, and stating fully the ground of the appeal.

NOTE: Paragraph (n) formerly paragraph (m), redesignated Apr. 26, 1946.

(n) Communications. All reports, appeals and other communications concerning this order shall be addressed to: Civilian Production Administration, Textile Division, Washington 25, D. C. Ref: M-317A.

Issued this 26th day of April 1946.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Control Order 2]

LIVESTOCK SLAUGHTER

PREAMBLE: The need for this order. This Control Order 2, with some modifications, reimposes controls formerly imposed by Control Order 1, issued by the Administrator on April 25, 1945. Control Order 1 was suspended on September 8, 1945, and revoked on December 29, 1945.

The basic purpose of Control Order 1 was to secure a more equitable distribution of the civilian meat supply and protect the requirements of the Armed Forces through increasing the amount of livestock available in federally inspected plants, by placing limits on the amount of livestock which could be slaughtered in non-federally inspected plants. Increasing the supply of meat produced in federally inspected plants carried out the basic purposes of Control Order 1 since Government requirements were satisfied from such plants and such plants ship products across state lines, thus making for more equitable distribution of civilian meat supplies throughout the country.

With the ending of the war and the lessened requirements of the Armed Forces resulting therefrom, it was expected that the controls instituted by Control Order 1 were no longer necessary to secure an equitable distribution of the country's meat supply and satisfy Government needs.

Since the suspension of Control Order 1 and its ultimate revocation, this expectation has not been realized. Moreover, other disturbing conditions have come into being which now necessitate placing controls both on federally inspected slaughterers as well as the non-federally inspected slaughterers. The civilian demand for meat has not at all diminished. Although the requirements of the Armed Forces are not as great as during the war, former members of the Armed Forces are now part of the civilian population and consequently add to the civilian demand for meat. Government procurement requirements are still substantial because of the needs of devastated countries abroad. With the overall demand for meat very much greater than the supply, the absence of slaughter controls now threatens the entire stabilization program because of the present meat and livestock problem.

Since the suspension of Control Order 1 there has been a growing deterioration in the normal distribution pattern of livestock slaughter and meat distribution. Some of the deteriorating conditions have been pointed out in the statement of considerations accompanying the issuance of Amendment 69 to Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169. As pointed out there, in the last several months there has been a widespread expansion in custom slaughtering operations which has resulted in a serious threat to effective price control of cattle and beef. Inexperienced livestock buyers have entered the cattle market, started buying cattle and having them custom slaughtered. Although such persons are bound by the maximum-permissible-costs provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 574, which places ceilings on cattle and calves, they either have lacked the experience or intent to make the judgments necessary to stay in compliance with Maximum Price Regulation 574 in the purchase of cattle. One result has been that the market prices for cattle have steadily advanced to a point where experienced and established slaughterers find it increasingly difficult to purchase cattle and stay in compliance with the cattle ceiling regulation. Established slaughterers have had to curtail their purchases of cattle to a point inconsistent with the normal volume requirements needed to remain in business.

Furthermore, the competition for all classes of livestock has resulted in maldistribution of livestock slaughter among the established members of the meat packing industry. Some established slaughterers, because of advantageous location, favorable buying connections or other factors, have been able to expand their livestock slaughter while others are operating only a small proportion of their slaughter capacity.

Those operators unable to secure a reasonable amount of livestock are experiencing serious operative hardships and the dealers and consumers normally dependent on these slaughterers for their meat supplies are not obtaining their rightful share of this important food.

The result has been an abnormal distribution of livestock slaughter even among federally inspected slaughterers. Some federally inspected slaughterers have expanded their slaughter far beyond their normal volume, while the slaughter of others is below their normal volume.

The continued unprecedented demand for meat and an apparent industry slaughter capacity far exceeding available livestock receipts are placing undue pressure on livestock ceilings, causing disruptions and dislocations in the normal channels of livestock slaughter.

In order to help correct the situation, the Administrator imposed certain restrictions on custom slaughtering operations by Amendment 69 to Maximum Price Regulation 169, effective April 1, 1946. This merely identified persons who might have livestock custom slaughtered, but did not in any way limit the volume of their slaughter. The Government agencies possessing responsibilities in livestock and meat problems have now determined that such control on custom slaughtering operations is insufficient to correct the problem. The Secretary of Agriculture and the Administrator of the Office of Price Administration have determined that control over the volume of livestock slaughter must be placed upon all slaughterers, federally inspected slaughterers as well as the non-federally inspected slaughterers.

Narrowing the gap between overall livestock receipts and industry capacity should quiet the existing scramble for livestock by more equitably dividing supplies among established operators. The Secretary of Agriculture is issuing War Food Order 75.7 limiting the volume of slaughter which may take place in any one federally inspected plant, including the volume of custom slaughtering in such plant. This Control Order 2, issued by the Administrator of the Office of Price Administration, controls the volume of slaughter in non-federally inspected plants. The two orders are expected to have the effect of creating a more equitable distribution of livestock among slaughterers, thus taking the intense pressure off the cattle price ceilings, aiding in the effective enforcement of meat and livestock ceiling prices, improving the distribution of meat in this country and facilitating government procurement of meat.

The two orders will not at all limit the amount of total slaughter of livestock in the country. The limitation existing on the slaughter volume of individual slaughterers at any one time will merely have the effect of cutting the expanded slaughter operations of some operators so that other slaughterers may more nearly reach normal slaughter volume.

How Control Order 2 works. Slaughterers have been divided into three classes, Class 1 slaughterers, Class 2 slaughterers and Class 3 slaughterers. A Class 3 slaughterer is a resident operator of a farm who slaughtered livestock or had livestock slaughtered for him and from which he sells or transfers during any consecutive 12-month period beginning on or after April 1, 1945, not more than 6,000 pounds of meat derived from the slaughter of his livestock by him or custom slaughtered for him.

Class 2 slaughterers include all other slaughterers except Class 1 slaughterers which are defined as federally inspected slaughterers or non-federally inspected slaughterers receiving certification from the Secretary of Agriculture under War Food Order No. 139, as amended. Class 1 slaughterers are not governed by this order.

As pointed out above, the maximum slaughter limits on federally inspected plants are covered by the order issued by the Secretary of Agriculture. In view of section 3A of the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, this Control Order 2 places no limitations upon the volume of slaughter taking place in a non-federally inspected plant which receives a valid certification by the Secretary of Agriculture pursuant to the provisions of War Food Order No. 139, as amended.

This Control Order 2 does not limit the amount of livestock which a farm operator may slaughter or have custom slaughtered for him primarily for home consumption.

The Class 2 slaughterers who had licenses and quota bases under Control Order 1 are not required to apply for licenses and quota bases under this Order. Class 2 slaughterers not required to apply under this Order include those Class 2 slaughterers who (1) registered and received a license and quota bases under Control Order 1, and (2) who did not sell or transfer the slaughtering establishment covered by such license, and (3) whose license was not cancelled or revoked pursuant to the provisions of Control Order 1. Under Control Order 2 such a Class 2 slaughterer's license and quota bases under Control Order 1 are treated for all purposes as a license and quota bases under Control Order 2. However, if such a Class 2 slaughterer no longer has the license issued to him under Control Order 1, he must apply in writing to his District Office for issuance of a duplicate license.

A Class 2 slaughterer who slaughtered during the appropriate period and who was entitled to a license and the assignment of quota bases under Control Order 1 but did not receive quota bases and a license may apply to the District Office under Control Order 2 and receive quota bases and a license.

In the event a Class 2 slaughterer acquired between September 1, 1945, and the issuance date of this order a slaughtering establishment covered by a valid license and quota bases under Control Order 1, he must apply to his District Office for issuance of a license and assignment of quota bases as a transferee of an establishment for which a valid license and quota bases were outstanding under Control Order 1.

Each Class 2 slaughterer who has quota bases shall be given a quota for the slaughter of each of the following species of livestock: cattle, calves and swine. The quotas are determined by applying fixed percentages to the slaughterer's quota bases. These percentages are to be sent out in supplements to the order and will be changed from time to time as the supply of the different species of livestock changes. Production percentages will be fixed as high as possible consistent with the aim of providing a fair ratio of slaughter among all slaughterers.

A Class 3 slaughterer is limited to selling or transferring, during any six consecutive months, 3,000 pounds of meat derived from his slaughter and custom slaughter for him. If, however, such a slaughterer sells or transfers during any consecutive 12-month period, beginning on or after April 1, 1945, more than 6,000 pounds of meat derived from livestock slaughtered by him, or custom slaughtered for him, he automatically becomes a Class 2 slaughterer and subject to all of the provisions provided in the order for a Class 2 slaughterer.

Provision is made that if a Class 2 slaughterer does not slaughter his entire quota for any species during any quota period, he may use the unused part of that quota up to a maximum of 5 percent of that quota during the next quota period. The order also provides that no Class 2 slaughterer may slaughter during the first half of any quota period more than 60 percent of his quota for each species.

Quota periods for the slaughterer for purposes of the order are the same as the accounting periods used in computing maximum permissible cattle costs under Maximum Price Regulation 574 or filing subsidy claims with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

The order also provides for a situation when a Class 2 slaughterer during a quota period slaughters livestock of any species in excess of his quota for that species for that period. In the event of such excess slaughter, his quota for that species for the next period is reduced by the amount of the excess. If the amount of the excess is greater than his quota for that species for the succeeding period, he may not use any part of his quota for that species for the succeeding periods until the total of the subsequent quotas for that species exceeds the amount of the excess. These restrictions do not in any way take the place of the liabilities of the slaughterer to penalties or proceedings which are authorized by law for the slaughterer exceeding his quota.

The order contains provisions for the cancellation, revocation and reduction of quotas where a Class 2 slaughterer is under an administrative suspension order.

A Class 2 slaughterer whose quota bases were established on the live weight of livestock custom slaughtered for him, must continue to have the same custom slaughterer slaughter such livestock for him during the quota periods in order to use that part of his quota based upon livestock custom slaughtered for him.

Throughout the order the person that owns the livestock at the time of slaughter is defined as the slaughterer. In the case of custom slaughtering operations, however, the person who slaughters livestock which he does not own, as a service for the owner of such livestock, is defined as a custom slaughterer. If a custom slaughterer or his transferee refuses or is unable to continue to slaughter for a Class 2 slaughterer whose quota is based upon slaughter by such custom slaughterer, the Class 2 slaughterer may apply to the District Office for permission to have his livestock slaughtered by himself or by another custom slaughterer.

If a Class 2 slaughterer sells or transfers his slaughtering establishment to a transferee, the transferee does not automatically obtain the transferor's quota bases and license. Application in writing must be made to the District Office by the transferor and transferee for assignment of the quota bases of the transferor to the transferee for that establishment.

Provision is inserted in the order for registration of new Class 2 slaughterers who desire to operate slaughtering establishments. Application must be filed with the District Office. The order provides that generally such application will not be granted unless it is found that (1) the operation of the establishment is essential to meet the needs in the area it will serve, and (2) the products it will produce cannot be obtained from any other source in the area to be supplied. In addition, a Class 2 slaughterer may apply for a license and quota bases if he made a substantial investment in a slaughtering establishment which he began operating between September 1, 1945 and the effective date of the order or which he began constructing during this period.

A veteran who does not have quota bases and a license to slaughter may become a Class 2 slaughterer and receive a license and quota bases by satisfying the requirements of Supplementary Order No. 143 issued by the Administrator. A veteran may also apply for a license and quota bases if, between September 1, 1945 and the issuance date of the order, he became the principal owner and active head of a wholesale or retail meat establishment and secured meat for such establishment by having livestock custom slaughtered for him.

The order contains a section providing for adjustment of quota bases or granting other relief to Class 2 slaughterers. Class 2 slaughterers who seek adjustments in their quota bases or other relief must file an application with the District Office. These provisions will provide relief in meritorious cases.

The Order contains a section providing for the custom slaughter of "Club" livestock under certain conditions by persons other than Class 2 or Class 3 slaughterers.

Class 2, Class 3, and custom slaughterers are required to make and keep certain records. In addition each Class 2 slaughterer and custom slaughterer must file a report with his District Office within 10 days after the end of each quota period.

The Order also provides that each Class 2 slaughterer must mark on each accessible wholesale cut of wheat, detached or undetached from the carcass, the number of the Office of Price Administration license issued to him or the establishment number assigned by a state, county or city meat inspecting authority. If the Office of Price Administration license number is not used, notification must be given the District Office of the use of the number assigned by a state, county or city meat inspecting authority. Not only is it a violation of the order for a transfer to be made of meat which is not appropriately marked, but it is likewise a violation of the order for any person to acquire meat which does not bear the marking as required by the order.

SECTION 1. Definition of terms. (a) As used in this order:

"Class 2 slaughtering establishment" means any place, other than a Class 1 slaughtering establishment or a Class 3 slaughtering establishment, at which a person slaughters cattle, calves or swine (other than cattle, calves or swine which he custom slaughters there).

"Class 3 slaughtering establishment" means any place, other than a Class 1 or Class 2 slaughtering establishment from which a person sells or transfers, during any consecutive 12 month period beginning on or after April 1, 1945, not more than 6,000 pounds of meat derived from slaughter by him of livestock at that place, or from custom slaughterer of livestock for him, if such place is a farm and such person is the resident operator of the farm. (Meat derived from custom slaughter of his livestock and sold or transferred by such person at or from the establishment of the custom slaughterer shall, for the purpose of this paragraph, be considered as having been sold or transferred by him from said farm.)

"Class 1 slaughterer", as used in this order, means a person who slaughters livestock or has his livestock custom slaughtered for him, in a Federally inspected slaughtering establishment as defined by War Food Order 75–7, or who slaughters livestock in an establishment for which there has been issued a valid certificate under War Food Order 139, as amended, or who has livestock custom slaughtered for him in such an establishment to the extent to which such custom slaughter for him is covered by a valid certificate issued under War Food Order 139, as amended. A Class 1 slaughterer is not subject to this order.

"Class 2 slaughterer" means any person who has a Class 2 slaughtering establishment. Any person, other than a Class 1 or Class 3 slaughterer, who has cattle, calves or swine which he owns slaughtered for him by a custom slaughterer, is also a Class 2 slaughterer with respect to any such livestock.

"Class 3 slaughterer" means any person who has a Class 3 slaughtering establishment. Any person who slaughters his livestock, or has it custom slaughtered for him, primarily to produce meat for consumption in his household or on a farm he operates, under the conditions specified in section 5 of this order, is also a Class 3 slaughterer if, during any consecutive 12 month period beginning on or after April 1, 1945, he sells or transfers not more than 6,000 pounds of the meat derived from the slaughter of his livestock by him or custom slaughter of his livestock for him.

"Custom slaughterer" means any person (except a Class 1 slaughterer as herein defined) including a Class 2 or Class 3 slaughterer, who slaughters cattle, calves or swine not owned by him for the owner of such livestock. However, a person who slaughters livestock owned by a Class 3 slaughterer at the livestock owner's Class 3 slaughtering establishment is not a custom slaughterer with respect to such slaughter.

"Accounting period" means the customary accounting period of a calendar month or a period of at least 4 weeks and not more than 5 weeks in length used by the slaughterer in keeping his books and records and shall be the same period used by him in making reports required by Regulation No. 3 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation or Maximum Price Regulation 574 of the Office of Price Administration.

"District Office" means a District Office established by the Office of Price Administration.

"Establishment" means each separate plant within the continental United States where livestock is slaughtered.

"Livestock", as used in this order, means cattle, calves and swine.

"Live weight" means the purchase weight of livestock slaughtered, except that if the livestock have been fed for more than 30 days after purchase by the slaughterer, live weight means the transfer weight from feed lots.

"Meat" means the carcass or any edible part of the carcass of cattle, calves or swine, including edible offal, bones and skins.

"Person" means not only an individual but also a partnership, corporation, association, or business trust. It includes a government, government agency, and any other organized group of enterprise.

"Quota" means the total live weight of livestock, by species, which is determined by multiplying the quota base for that species by the quota percentage set out for that species in a supplement to this order.

"Quota base" means the live weight of livestock which appears on a Class 2 slaughterer's license for the base period corresponding with the quota period.

"Quota period" and "interim quota period." Quota period means a calendar month or a period of at least 4 weeks, and not more than 5 weeks. Quota periods must correspond to the base periods shown on the Class 2 slaughterer's license and shall be the same periods used by him in making reports required by Regulation No. 3 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation or Maximum Price Regulation 574 of the Office of Price Administration. Interim quota period means the period between April 27, 1946, and the date of the first complete quota period beginning on or after April 28, 1946.

"Regional Office" means any Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration.

"Transfer" means to sell, give, exchange, lend, deliver, or consign. It includes any transfer or possession of title, however accomplished, and any movement of goods from one establishment to another. The use by any person of meat, which he produced or holds for sale or transfer, is considered a transfer of meat to himself. Where meat ordered by a transferee is delivered by the transferor to a common or contract carrier for shipment and delivery by the carrier or a connecting common carrier to the transferee (whether or not actually consigned to the transferee), and no transfer of the meat to the transferee has previously occurred, the meat is considered to be transferred at the time when it is delivered to the carrier. However, delivery to a common or contract carrier for shipment is not regarded as a transfer to the carrier; and delivery by the carrier to the consignee is not regarded as a transfer by the carrier.

"Washington Office" means the national office of the Office of Price Administration.

"Wholesale cut" means a wholesale cut as defined in Revised Maximum Price Regulation 148 and Revised Maximum Price Regulation 169 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 2. General restrictions on slaughter of livestock and transfers of meat. (a) Beginning April 28, 1946, notwithstanding the provisions of any contract or other agreement:

(1) No person subject to this order may slaughter cattle, calves, or swine except in accordance with the provisions of this order.

(2) No Class 2 slaughterer may slaughter cattle, calves or swine, other than as a custom slaughterer, unless he has a quota under the provisions of this order.

(3) No person, other than a Class 3 slaughterer, may slaughter cattle, calves or swine, or sell or transfer meat resulting from his slaughter of such livestock, or from slaughter for him by a custom slaughterer of such livestock, unless he has a Class 2 slaughterer's license and quota.

(4) No custom slaughterer may slaughter livestock for the owner of such livestock unless such owner is permitted to have such livestock custom slaughtered for him under the provisions of this order.

SEC. 3. Class 2 slaughterers who held licenses and quota bases under Control Order 1 need not register under this order. (a) Any Class 2 slaughterer who registered and received a license and quota bases under Control Order 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration on April 25, 1945, and who did not sell or transfer the slaughtering establishment covered by such license, and whose license was not cancelled or revoked pursuant to the provisions of Control Order 1, need not apply for a license or quota bases under this Control Order 2. His license and quota bases under Control Order 1 are treated, for all purposes of this order, as a license and quota bases under Control Order 2. If he no longer has the license issued to him under Control Order 1, he may not slaughter livestock or have livestock custom slaughtered for him, until he has obtained a duplicate license. However, if he makes application therefor, in writing to his District Office, on or before May 15, 1946, he may continue to operate pending the action of the District Office.

(b) A Class 2 slaughterer who acquired, between September 1, 1945 and April 25, 1946, a slaughtering establishment covered by a valid license and quota bases under Control Order 1, need not apply for a license or quota bases for such establishment under this order in the way provided in section 15. In such a case, the transferee of the establishment must apply to his District Office, in writing, for issuance of a license and assignment of quota bases as a transferee of an establishment for which a valid license and quota bases were outstanding under Control Order 1 and must give the following information:

(1) The name and address of the applicant.

(2) The name and address of the Class 2 slaughtering establishment.

(3) The name and address of the person who held a license under Control Order 1 covering such establishment.

(4) The date on which the establishment was transferred to the applicant.

(5) The license of the transferor shall accompany the application, unless proof be furnished that it has been lost or destroyed.

(6) Documents or other proof of the transfer.

If the District Office finds the conditions of this paragraph are met, it shall issue a new license to the applicant, and assign to him the quota bases established under Control Order 1 for the establishment and cancel the transferor's license and quota bases. If the transferee applies by May 15, 1946, he may continue to operate the establishment until the new license is received. The license and quota bases of the transferor of the establishment shall be treated as the transferee's license and quota bases for all purposes of this order. If such application is not made on or before May 15, 1946, the transferee may not slaughter any livestock after that date until he has made such application and received the license and quota bases applied for.

SEC. 4. Class 2 slaughterers who had livestock custom slaughtered for them. (a) Any Class 2 slaughterer whose quota bases were established on the live weight of cattle, calves or swine slaughtered for him by a custom slaughterer, may use the quota based upon such slaughter only to the extent to which he has the same custom slaughterer slaughter such livestock for him during the quota period.

(b) If the business of a custom slaughterer is transferred to another person for continued operation, any Class 2 slaughterer who is permitted under (a) to have livestock custom slaughtered for him may have the transferee custom slaughter livestock for him just as if the transferee were the original custom slaughterer.

(c) If a custom slaughterer, or his transferee, refuses or is unable to continue to slaughter for such a Class 2 slaughterer, the Class 2 slaughterer may apply to his District Office for permission to have his livestock slaughtered by himself or by another custom slaughterer. The application must be made in writing and must show:

(1) The name and address of the slaughterer who formerly custom slaughtered for him;

(2) The reasons why such custom slaughterer will no longer slaughter for him; and

(3) Where, and by whom, such slaughter will be done for him.

If the District Office finds that the custom slaughterer refuses or is unable to continue to slaughter for the applicant, it shall permit the applicant to slaughter his livestock himself, or to have it slaughtered by the custom slaughterer named in his application. However, the Class 2 slaughterer must continue to serve the same general class of customers in the same areas that he had served previously. If he is permitted to have another custom slaughterer slaughter for him, he shall be subject, with respect to that custom slaughterer, to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section just as if that custom slaughterer had formerly slaughtered livestock for him.

SEC. 5. Livestock producers may slaughter their own livestock or have it custom slaughtered for them primarily for home consumption, without limitation. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this order, a person may slaughter livestock or have it custom slaughtered for him primarily for consumption in his own household, or on a farm he operates, without restriction as to quantity if:

(1) He either operates a farm at which he resides more than six months a year; or

(2) He actually supervised the raising of the livestock and was on the premises on which the livestock was raised at least one third of the days during the applicable period specified in subparagraph (3); and

(3) The livestock was raised on premises operated by him:

(i) From birth to the moment of slaughter; or

(ii) For at least 60 days immediately preceding slaughter; or

(iii) For a period immediately preceding slaughter during which its weight was increased by at least 35% of its weight when acquired.

SEC. 6. Class 3 slaughterers have maximum quotas. (a) Any Class 3 slaughterer may sell or transfer, during any consecutive 6 month period beginning on or after April 28, 1946, up to and including not more than 3,000 pounds of meat resulting from his own slaughter of livestock (excluding transfers of meat resulting from custom slaughter of livestock by the Class 3 slaughterer for the owner of such livestock), or from custom slaughter of livestock for him.

SEC. 7. Establishment of quotas for Class 2 slaughterers. (a) Each Class 2 slaughterer who has a quota base shall have, for each quota period beginning on or after April 28, 1946, a quota for slaughter of livestock. The quota of any such slaughterer for any quota period is determined by multiplying his quota base for that period by the applicable percentage, set out in a supplement to this order.

(b) Each Class 2 slaughterer whose quota period does not begin on April 28, 1946, shall have a quota for the interim quota period. The quota for the interim quota period is computed as follows:

(1) Determine the quota for each species of livestock for the quota period in which the date April 28, 1946 occurs, by multiplying the quota base for that quota period for each species of livestock by the applicable percentage set out in a supplement to this order for the quota period beginning on or after April 28, 1946.

(2) Divide the quota for each species obtained in (1) above by the number of days in the quota period in which the date April 28, 1946 occurs.

(3) Obtain the quota for each species for the interim quota period by multiplying the result in (2) above for each species by the number of days between April 27, 1946, and the date of the first quota period beginning on or after April 28, 1946.

(c) No Class 2 slaughterer may slaughter, during the first half of any quota period beginning on or after April 28, 1946, more than 60% of his quota for that period.

SEC. 8. Custom slaughter of "Club" livestock permitted under certain conditions. (a) Any person not permitted to slaughter livestock under this Order or War Food Order 75–7, but who acquires livestock from members of 4–H Clubs, Future Farmers of America, or other recognized youth organizations, at sales made at the place and time of a fair, show, or exhibition, may, if such sales were previously approved by the District Office of the Office of Price Administration upon application of a county agent, county club agent, vocational agricultural instructor, or the chief administrator of the state department of agriculture, apply for permission to have such livestock custom slaughtered for sale or transfer even though he does not have a quota under this order. He must apply, in writing, to the District Office which approved the sale, and must state:

(1) The name and location of the fair, show, or exhibition where the sale took place;

(2) The date of such sale;

(3) The kind and number of head of livestock purchased by him and the live weight of each;

(4) That he is not permitted to slaughter livestock under Control Order 2; and

(5) The name and location of the establishment at which he intends to have such livestock custom slaughtered.

He must also attach to his application the certification issued to him at the time the livestock was acquired that the livestock covered by the application was acquired by him at the fair, show or exhibition where the sale took place.

(b) If the District Office finds that the applicant satisfies the conditions of this Section, it shall authorize him, in writing, to have such livestock custom slaughtered for him by the custom slaughterer designated in the application. A copy of such authorization shall be sent to the custom slaughterer designated in the application.

(c) When the applicant receives such authorization he may have the livestock described in his application custom slaughtered for him by the custom slaughterer named in the authorization. The applicant must also give the custom slaughterer the original authorization.

(d) The custom slaughterer must attach the original authorization to his report for the period in which the livestock was slaughtered.

SEC. 9. Class 2 slaughterers may not slaughter livestock or transfer meat in excess of quota. (a) No Class 2 slaughterer may slaughter, except as a custom slaughterer, during the interim quota period or any quota period, more live weight of livestock of any species than his quota for that species for that period. However, if any such slaughterer does not slaughter his entire quota for any species during the interim quota period or any quota period, he may use the unused part of that quota, up to a maximum of 5% of that quota, during the next quota period.

(b) If any Class 2 slaughterer, during the interim quota period or any quota period, slaughters livestock of any species in excess of his quota for that period (including any carryover from the preceding period in accordance with (a) above), of his quota for that species for that period, nor for any succeeding period until the excess. If the amount of the excess is greater that his quota for that species for that period, he may not use any part of his quota for that species for that period, nor for any succeeding period until the total of his subsequent quotas for that species exceeds the amount of the excess. The restrictions in this paragraph are in addition to any actions, penalties or proceedings which may be authorized by law for his failure to comply with paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) (1) A class 2 slaughterer against whom there is in operation an Administrative Suspension Order issued pursuant to Revised Procedural Regulation 4 which suspends him from slaughtering livestock (or having livestock custom slaughtered for him) or from selling or transferring meat derived from slaughter of livestock by himself, or from custom slaughter of livestock for him, shall have his quotas for each quota period during which the suspension order is in effect cancelled or revoked.

(2) However, for any quota period in which the suspension order is in operation for only part of that period, his quota shall be reduced as follows:

(i) Divide his quota for each species of livestock by the number of calendar days in that quota period;

(ii) Multiply the result in (i) by the number of calendar days in that quota period during which the suspension order was not in effect;

(iii) The result in (ii) is the Class 2 slaughterer's quota for each species of livestock which may be slaughtered by him or custom slaughtered for him during that quota period.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of (2) above, in any case in which the suspension order becomes effective after the commencement of the quota period and remains in effect for the balance of that period, the Class 2 slaughterer's quota for the slaughter of each species of livestock by him or for the custom slaughter of such livestock for him for that quota period shall be deemed cancelled and revoked to the extent of the portion thereof which has not been used at the time the suspension order became effective.

(4) The restrictions in this paragraph (c) as to the cancellation, revocation or reduction of quotas may be superseded in a particular case by express provisions of the suspension order, and additional restrictions may be imposed in that order. Nothing in this paragraph (c) shall be construed to affect or modify in any way the conditions, restrictions or prohibitions of the suspension order.

SEC. 10. Slaughterers who have more than one slaughtering establishment must operate them separately. If a slaughterer has more than one slaughtering establishment, each such establishment is treated separately and must be operated separately for all the purposes of this order, just as if each were owned by a different person. However, where a slaughterer does not operate at a fixed place, his slaughtering operations as a whole are regarded as a single establishment.

SEC. 11. Class 2 slaughterers must mark meats. (a) Beginning April 28, 1946, every Class 2 slaughterer, before selling or transferring any meat resulting from slaughter of livestock by him, or custom slaughter of livestock for him, (except meat resulting from custom slaughter of livestock by him for the owner of such livestock) must mark on each accessible "wholesale cut" of such meat, whether in the entire carcass or detached therefrom, the number of the Office of Price Administration license (OPA Form MC–5) issued to him, under which the livestock was slaughtered. In the case of a calf carcass, with the skin on, he must mark such license number only on the hind shanks and brisket. The marking must be clear and conspicuous and the numerals and letters must be at least ¼ inch in height and width. The required markings must be made with a Kosher marking pencil or with a stamp or stencil, using marking fluid conforming with the following violet branding fluid formula:

	Ounces
Water	3.5
Grain alcohol	2.5
Cane sugar	1.0
Methyl violet	0.1

(The methyl violet is dissolved in alcohol and a portion of the water; the sugar is dissolved in the remaining portion of the water and added to the methyl violet solution. Thorough stirring facilitates solution of methyl violet.)

(b) Any Class 2 slaughterer who has an establishment number assigned by a State, county or city meat inspecting authority may use that number for the purpose of marking meats under this Section instead of his OPA license number specified in (a). However, if he wishes to do so, he must, before using that number for that purpose notify his District Office in writing that he intends to use the establishment number assigned him by a State, county or city meat inspecting authority instead of his OPA license number. The notice must state:

(1) The number he intends to use;

(2) The name of agency which issued such number to him; and

(3) The OPA license number in place of which he intends to use that number.

In addition, he must enter that number on his applicable OPA Form MC–5 immediately below the OPA license number shown thereon.

(c) The marking requirement of this section shall not apply to meat transferred by a Class 2 slaughterer to a unit or department of such slaughterer for use in the preparation, manufacture or production of any product other than meat, if the meat so transferred resulted from slaughter of livestock by him or custom slaughter of livestock for him.

(d) Beginning April 28, 1946, a person who acquires a calf carcass with the skin on, may not sell, transfer or break such carcass after removal of the skin unless he marks on each accessible wholesale cut of such meat the establishment number or the Office of Price Administration license number marked on the hind shanks and brisket. The marking shall be made in the manner specified in (a) of this section.

(e) Subject to (a) and (d) of this section:

(1) A person may sell or transfer, and a person may acquire, any livestock carcass other than a calf carcass with the skin on, only if each accessible wholesale cut undetached from the carcass bears the marketing required by this section.

(2) A person may sell or transfer, and a person may acquire, a calf carcass with the skin on, only if the hind shanks and brisket bear the marking required by this section.

(3) A person may sell or transfer, and a person may acquire, a wholesale cut of meat detached from the carcass, only if the wholesale cut bears the marking required by this section.

SEC. 12. Sale or transfer of Class 2 slaughtering establishment. (a) When any Class 2 slaughterer sells or transfers to any other person for continued operation his slaughtering establishment or his place of business for which he holds a quota, he and the transferee must notify the District Office. The notice must be given in writing within five days after the sale or transfer and must show:

(1) The name and address of the establishment and of the persons transferring and acquiring it;

(2) The quota bases of the slaughterer;

(3) Whether the transferee will continue to serve, from that establishment, the same general class of customers in the same area served by it before the transfer.

(b) If the District Office finds that the establishment will continue to be operated in the same manner as before the transfer, and that the transferee will continue to serve from that establishment the same general class of customers in the same area served by it before the transfer, it shall assign the quota bases of the transferor to the transferee for that establishment, and shall cancel the license of the transferor.

(c) The transferee of a Class 2 slaughterer may slaughter cattle, calves or swine during the balance of the quota period in which the transfer takes place only to the extent of the unused portion of the quota of his transferor for that period.

(d) No such transfer and assignment of license and quota bases may be made during the existence of a suspension order resulting from a violation of this order.

(e) If a Class 2 slaughterer wishes to move all or part of the business of the establishment to another place, the moving is to be treated as a transfer to a different person under (a), (b) and (c) of this section. For this purpose, the place from which the establishment is to be moved is considered the transferor and the place to which it is to be moved is considered the transferee.

SEC. 13. Changes in operation from one type of slaughtering establishment to another. (a) (1) Any Class 2 slaughterer who has obtained for his establishment Federal Inspection, or certification from the Secretary of Agriculture, or his designee, pursuant to War Food Order 139, as amended, must within five (5) days after such inspection or certification is obtained, surrender his Office of Price Administration license to his District Office together with a statement that he has obtained for the establishment covered by the license Federal Inspection or certification pursuant to War Food Order 139, as amended, as the case may be. If he has obtained certification pursuant to War Food Order 139, as amended, his statement must include each species of livestock covered by the certification.

(2) If the District Office finds that he has obtained for his establishment Federal Inspection, or certification from the Secretary of Agriculture, or his designee, pursuant to War Food Order 139, as amended, it shall cancel his license as a Class 2 slaughterer. However, if the certification obtained by a Class 2 slaughterer covers one or more, but not all, the species of livestock for which he has been issued quota bases, the District Office shall cancel his quota for the species of livestock covered by the certification and issue to him a new license, on OPA Form MC–5, containing his quota bases for the species of livestock not covered by the certification, as to which he shall remain a Class 2 slaughterer.

SEC. 14. Registration of new Class 2 slaughterers. (a) Any person who wishes to open a Class 2 slaughtering establishment, may apply for registration as a Class 2 slaughterer and for assignment to him of quota bases. Generally, no such application will be granted unless it is found that:

(1) The operation of the establishment is essential to meet civilian needs in the area it will serve; and

(2) The products it will produce cannot be obtained from any other source in the area to be supplied.

(b) The application must be made on OPA Form MC–10 and must be filed with the District Office for the place where the applicant's establishment is or will be located, and must give all the information required by the form and any additional information requested by the District Office.

(c) The District Office must forward the entire file to the Regional Office, with its recommendation for decision, and take such other action as the Regional Office may authorize or direct.

(d) A Class 2 slaughterer who already has a quota, may not open another slaughtering establishment and use his quota there, unless he applies under this section and is given permission to do so.

SEC. 15. Registration and computation of quota bases for persons who began operating or constructing a Class 2 slaughtering establishment between September 1, 1945 and April 25, 1946. (a) Any person who, during the period between September 1, 1945 and April 25, 1946, began operating or constructing a Class 2 slaughtering establishment in which he made a substantial financial investment, may apply to his District Office for issuance of a license and quota bases. The application must be made on OPA Form MC–11 on or before May 15, 1946 and must contain the following information:

(1) The name and address of the applicant;

(2) The name and address of the Class 2 slaughtering establishment;

(3) The date the applicant started operating the establishment;

(4) The total live weight of each species of livestock he slaughtered from the date he started operation to April 28, 1946;

(5) The slaughtering capacity of the establishment, by species, including a description of the physical equipment used for slaughtering and cooling;

(6) The financial investment made by the applicant with the total amount paid for all tools, machinery, equipment and real estate for the slaughtering establishment.

(b) The District Office must forward the entire file to the Regional Office with its recommendation for decision and take such other action as the Regional Office may authorize or direct. If the Regional Office finds that the applicant is eligible to apply as a Class 2 slaughterer, it will authorize the District Office to issue a license to the applicant and assign quota bases for the establishment.

(c) If the Class 2 slaughterer described in paragraph (a) slaughtered livestock between September 1, 1945 and April 25, 1946, he may continue to slaughter livestock until he is granted or denied a license by the District Office. The amount he is permitted to slaughter each week is based on the following computation:

(1) List the total live weight of livestock by species slaughtered during the period September 1, 1945 to April 25, 1946.

(2) Compute the number of weeks the establishment was operated (a fraction of a week is considered a full week).

(3) Divide the total weight of each species of livestock slaughtered by the number of weeks he operated.

(4) The result is the weekly quota base for each species of livestock.

(5) The weekly quota base for each species is multiplied by the appropriate quota percentage for the applicable quota period.

Before the Class 2 slaughterer may slaughter any livestock under this section, a copy of this computation must be forwarded to the District Office together with application for a license. Within fifteen (15) days after he obtains his license he shall report the amount of his slaughter for each week.

(d) If the Class 2 slaughterer described in paragraph (a) did not slaughter livestock between September 1, 1945 and April 25, 1946, he may not slaughter any livestock until he has received a license and quota bases for the establishment from his District Office.

SEC. 16. Registration of veterans as Class 2 slaughterers. (a) Any "veteran", as defined in Supplementary Order No. 143, may apply for a class 2 slaughterer's license and quota bases by complying with all the requirements of the above supplementary order. Application must be made on Form MC–9.

(b) In addition, any "veteran," as defined in Supplementary Order No. 143, may apply for a Class 2 slaughterer's license and quota bases if, between September 1, 1945 and April 25, 1946, he had the controlling interest in and was the active head of a retailer wholesale meat establishment or Class 2 slaughtering establishment and had livestock custom slaughtered for him during such period for the sole purpose of supplying his meat establishment with meat or slaughtered livestock at his Class 2 slaughtering establishment, and if he otherwise complies with the requirements of Supplementary Order No. 143, application must be made on Form MC–9.

SEC. 17. Application may be made for adjustments or other relief. Any person other than a Class 1 or Class 3 slaughterer who needs an adjustment, or other relief, may apply in writing to his District Office. He must state in his application all facts which he claims show his need for the adjustment, or relief and the nature and amount of the adjustment or relief he requests. He must also give any other information that the District Office requests. The District Office must forward the entire file to the Regional Office with its recommendation for decision, and take such action as the Regional Office may authorize or direct.

SEC. 18. Suspension orders. (a) Any person who violates any provision of this order may be prohibited by administrative suspension order from slaughtering livestock or having livestock custom slaughtered for him or selling or transferring any meat derived from such slaughter. Such suspension order shall be issued pursuant to Revised Procedural Regulation 4 for such period as, in the judgment of the Administrator or such person as he may designate for that purpose, is necessary and appropriate in the public interest or to promote the national security.

SEC. 19. Appeals and review. (a) Any person directly affected by the action of a District Director or Regional Administrator, on any application or other matter, may appeal from that action in the way permitted by Procedural Regulation 4 of the Office of Price Administration.

(b) The Administrator reserves the right to review any action taken by the District Director or Regional Administrator pursuant to this Order and may change or modify same as he may deem appropriate.

SEC. 20. Subsidies. Any person who violates any provisions of this order shall, in accordance with Directive No. 41, as amended, of the Office of Economic Stabilization, be subject to the withholding by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation of meat subsidy payments claimed by such person.

SEC. 21. Records, reports and inspections. (a) Within ten (10) days after the end of each quota period, every Class 2 slaughterer and custom slaughterer must file a report on OPA Form MC–6, in duplicate, with his District Office. He must give all information called for by the Form. If more than one of his establishments are registered with the same District Office, his reports must include all these establishments. If he has establishments registered with different District Offices, he must file with each District Office a separate report which shall include all the establishments registered with that Office. A report for the interim quota period must be made on OPA Form MC–6 at the same time that the Class 2 slaughterer makes his report for the first quota period beginning on or after April 28, 1946.

(b) Each Class 2 slaughterer must keep, at each of his establishments, a record showing, for that establishment:

(1) The live weight of all cattle, calves or swine, stated separately for each such species, which he slaughtered during the interim quota period as well as each quota period;

(2) The name and address of each person who custom slaughtered cattle, calves and swine for him, and the live weight of each such species of livestock custom slaughtered for him during the interim quota period as well as each quota period by that person; and

(3) He must keep a copy of his registration and license under this order, and the records upon which that registration was based;

(4) With respect to his slaughter of livestock for others, he must also keep the records specified in (d) below.

(c) Each Class 3 slaughterer must keep, at each of his establishments, a record showing, for that establishment:

(1) The quantity of meat, in pounds, resulting from his slaughter of cattle, calves and swine, which he sold or transferred including the dates of such slaughter.

(2) The quantity of meat, in pounds, resulting from the custom slaughter of livestock for him by a custom slaughterer, the dates of such slaughter of each such custom slaughterer and the amount of meat sold or transferred by him resulting from slaughter by that custom slaughterer;

(3) With respect to his slaughter of livestock for others, he must also keep the records specified in (d) below.

(d) Each custom slaughterer must keep at each of his establishments, a record showing, for that establishment: the name, address, and license number of each person for whom he custom slaughtered cattle, calves or swine, and the live weight of each of such species of livestock which he custom slaughtered during the interim quota period and during each quota period for each such person, including the dates of such slaughter.

(e) Every person subject to this order must keep all records required under this order for as long as this order shall remain in effect.

(f) All records kept under this order may be inspected by the Office of Price Administration, through any authorized representative. The inspection may be made at a person's place of business during regular business hours. Every person required to keep records under this order must keep them available for such inspection.

(g) The Office of Price Administration, through any authorized representative may, at any reasonable time, inspect any place where livestock is slaughtered, and any place at which a Class 2 or Class 3 slaughtering establishment is located.

(h) Information and documents obtained from any person under this order will not be disclosed, whether in response to a subpoena or in any other way, except to that person, unless the Administrator (or a representative of the Office of Price Administration designated by him) finds that the requested disclosure is not contrary to law and consents to it.

SEC. 22. Additional prohibitions. (a) This order prohibits, among other matters:

(1) Making, false or misleading statements on any records or reports to the Office of Price Administration;

(2) Altering, defacing, mutilating, or destroying a document specified herein;

(3) Forging or counterfeiting any document specified herein;

(4) Acquiring, using, transferring or possessing a forged, counterfeited, altered, defaced, or mutilated document specified herein;

(5) Wrongfully withholding a document specified herein;

(6) Bribing, hindering, or interfering with authorized Office of Price Administration officials; and

(7) Attempting to do any act in violation of this order, directly or indirectly, or to aid or encourage another to do so.

This order shall become effective April 28, 1946, except that it shall become effective May 1, 1946 for persons whose quota periods begin on May 1, 1946.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 25th day of April 1946.

WOOD FLOOR COVERINGS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment issued simultaneously herewith has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Supplementary Regulation 14J is amended in the following respect:

A new section is added to read as follows:

SEC. 5.3 Modified maximum prices for certain sales of wool floor coverings. (a) Each seller of a unit of wool floor covering (as defined in Revised Price Schedule 57) for which the seller's maximum price is established under the General Maximum Price Regulation[2] may, subject to the provisions of paragraph (b), adjust his maximum price for the sale of that unit to an institutional, industrial or commercial user or to an interior decorator by adding 7.7% of his supplier's total lawful selling price to him for that unit. In no event, however, shall any adjustment taken under this section result in an increased price to the seller which returns to him a markup of more than 34% over the "net landed cost" of the unit being priced. "Net landed cost" means the sum of the net invoice cost (less all available discounts other than cash discounts) and incoming freight charges.

(b) (1) A maximum price established by order after April 26, 1946, under the provisions of § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation may not be adjusted under this section.

(2) No seller may adjust his maximum price under the provisions of this section unless he shall have

(i) Filed with the Distribution Price Branch, Consumer Goods Price Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., a written report (signed by an officer or duly authorized agent) setting forth his name and address and a statement that he intends to price under the provisions of section 5.3 of Supplementary Regulation 14J

(ii) Received from the Office of Price Administration a written acknowledgment of the report specified in (i).

Tankers having Great Lakes load lines are also subject to these requirements except as specifically modified in §§ 45.65 to 45.78, inclusive.

CONDITIONS OF ASSIGNMENT OF LOAD LINES

Section 45.27 is amended by changing the first undesignated paragraph to read as follows:

§ 45.27 Scuppers and sanitary discharge pipes. Discharges from scuppers and sanitary pipes led through the vessel's sides from spaces below the freeboard deck are to be fitted with efficient and accessible means for preventing water from passing inboard. Each separate discharge may have an automatic nonreturn valve with a positive means of closing it from a readily accessible position above the freeboard deck, or two automatic nonreturn valves without positive means of closing, provided the upper valve is situated so that it is always accessible for examination under service conditions. The positive-action valve is to be accessible and is to be provided with means for showing whether the valve is opened or closed.

The footnote referring to the heading "Load Lines for Tankers [1]" immediately preceding § 45.65 is amended to read as follows:

[1] The provisions of §§ 45.01 to 45.019, inclusive, and §§ 45.1 to 45.64, inclusive, shall apply to Great Lakes tankers except as they are modified by §§ 45.65 to 45.78, inclusive.

PART 46—SUBDIVISION LOAD LINES FOR PASSENGER VESSELS

Section 46.02 Responsibility for administration is amended by changing the phrase "Secretary of Navy" to "Secretary of the Treasury."

Section 46.022 Control is amended by changing in the first and second undesignated paragraphs the phrase "District Coast Guard Officer" to "Coast Guard District Commander."

RULES FOR DETERMINING SUBDIVISION LOAD LINES FOR PASSENGER VESSELS ENGAGED ON FOREIGN AND COASTWISE VOYAGES

§ 46.30 Inlets and discharges. All main and auxiliary inlets and discharges shall be so arranged as to prevent accidental admission of water into the vessel. Cocks or valves are to be fitted to each such inlet or discharge at or near the shell, so arranged that they can be readily opened or closed. Sea chests are to be made with the necks as short as practicable, and where they would require to have long necks if fastened directly to the shell of the vessel, they may, instead, be attached to structural boxes built onto the shell.

Pipes terminating at the shell are not to be fitted in a direct line between the outboard openings and the first rigid connection inboard, but are to be arranged with bends or elbows. Such bends or elbows are to be sufficient in number to provide for expansion of the pipe, any movement due to the working of the vessel, and to offer reasonable safeguard against damage to the piping due to rubbing or bumping of the vessel in the vicinity of the outboard ends.

Valves fitted on the vessel's sides are to be substantial of construction and are to be effectively protected against damage. Where operating gear is provided the lead of shafting should be as direct as possible and all parts of the gear are to be protected against damage.

Subchapter F—Marine Engineering

PART 55—PIPING SYSTEMS

Section 55.19–5 is amended by the addition of a new paragraph (k), reading as follows:

§ 55.19–5 Installation. • • • (k) (1) On new installations or replacements for vessels of 150 gross tons and over, cast iron for any connection to the vessel's shell below the freeboard deck shall not be permitted, nor shall cast iron valves be secured to sea chests.

(2) On ocean and coastwise vessels constructed prior to June 15, 1941, in which cast iron sea chests were installed, reinforcing with concrete or other suitable material in conjunction with structural bracing shall be fitted.

When life preservers are found to be in accordance with the requirements, the inspector shall stamp them with the word "Passed", his initials, port, and date. Life preservers found not to be in a serviceable condition shall be removed from the vessel's equipment and, if beyond repair, shall be destroyed in the presence of the inspector.

PART II

CLAUSE 1. Condition of vessels on delivery. The Vessel on her delivery shall be in class A-1 American Bureau of Shipping or equivalent, with all required certificates, including but not limited to steamboat inspection certificates, and so far as due diligence can make her so, tight, staunch, strong and well and sufficiently tackled, appareled, furnished and equipped, and in every respect seaworthy and in good running condition and repair, with clean swept holds and in all respects fit for service.

CLAUSE 2. Surveys. (a) The Vessels shall be jointly surveyed before delivery and redelivery under this Agreement to determine and state the condition of the Vessels. Such surveys shall include drydocking to determine and state the condition of the underwater parts, unless, at owner's option, the drydocking in connection with delivery is postponed, in which event the cost and time of any damage to underwater parts found either upon redelivery or during the period of the Vessel's use under this Agreement shall be for Owner's account unless such damage is established, from the basis of all evidence, to have occurred during the period of the Vessel's use under this Agreement. The cost and time of such delivery survey shall be for the account of the Owner, and similarly the cost and time of such redelivery survey shall be for the account of the Charterer.

(b) Subject to the foregoing provisions, as to underwater parts in the event drydocking is postponed, and except to the extent otherwise noted on the delivery survey report, the delivery of the Vessel by the Owner and the acceptance thereof by the Charterer shall constitute full performance by the Owner of all the Owner's obligations under Clause 1, and thereafter the Charterer shall not be entitled to make or assert any claim against the Owner on account of any agreements, representations or warranties, expressed or implied, with respect to the condition of the Vessel: Provided, however, That the Owner shall nevertheless be responsible for the cost and time of repairs or renewals occasioned by latent defects in the Vessel, its machinery or appurtenances or defects due to locked in stresses in the Vessel existing at the time of delivery, not recoverable under the terms and conditions of the American Hull form of policy (American Institute of Marine Underwriters 7/1/41) containing no deductible average clause.

CLAUSE 3. Determination of class. For the purpose of this Agreement a Vessel shall be deemed to be in class, whether or not any requirements or recommendations of the Classification Society are outstanding at the time of delivery or redelivery, as the case may be, unless the time limit for the accomplishment of any such requirements or recommendations, including any extension or period of grace allowed, shall have expired.

CLAUSE 4. Inventory. A complete inventory of the Vessel's entire outfit, equipment, furniture, furnishings, appliances, spare and replacement parts and of all unbroached consumable stores and fuel on board shall be jointly taken at the time of delivery, and mutually agreed upon as to items, by representatives of the Charterer and the Owner, and a similar inventory shall be taken and mutually agreed upon at the time of redelivery. The parties may agree, however, to accept any suitable prior inventory which may have been taken before the delivery of the Vessel under this Agreement, either on the occasion of the redelivery of the Vessel from a general agency agreement with the Owner, or otherwise.

CLAUSE 5. Consumable stores and fuel. The Charterer shall accept and pay for all unbroached consumable stores and fuel on board at the time of delivery and the Owner shall accept and pay for all unbroached consumable stores (with the exception of perishable stores, broached or unbroached, and slop chests, in the event the Vessel is redelivered at a port regularly serviced by the Charterer or at the port of redelivery provided for in Clause G of Part I hereof) and fuel on board at the time of redelivery, at the market prices current at the ports and times of delivery and of redelivery, respectively. "Consumable stores" within the meaning of this agreement shall mean all consumable and subsistence stores, and returnable containers (but not expendable equipment, scrap and junk) listed in the United States Maritime Commission Voyage Stores Reports, Forms 7915A, 7916A, 7918A, and 7919A (Revised Forms 1939), and slop chests.

CLAUSE 6. Use of equipment. The Charterer shall have the use of all outfit, equipment, furniture, furnishings, appliances, spare and replacement parts on board the Vessel at the time of delivery without extra cost and the same shall be returned to the Owner on redelivery in the same good order and condition as when received, ordinary wear and tear excepted. Any such items lost, destroyed, damaged or so worn in service as to be unfit for use (unless through ordinary wear and tear) shall be replaced or made good by the Charterer in kind at or before redelivery, or at Owner's option, the Charterer shall pay for said items at the current market prices at the port and time of redelivery. Any overages accepted by the Owner shall be paid for at the current market prices at the port and time of redelivery.

CLAUSE 7. Maintenance. The Charterer, except as otherwise provided in Clause 2 (a) and 2 (b), shall maintain the Vessels, their machinery, boilers, appurtenances, and spare parts during the period of the Vessel's use under this Agreement in good state of repair and in efficient operating condition and in accordance with good commercial maintenance practices and shall keep the Vessels with full unexpired classification and other required certificates at all times, including, without limitation, unexpired steamboat inspection certificates.

CLAUSE 8. Drydocking. The Charterer shall drydock the Vessels and clean and paint their underwater parts, when necessary, and not less than once in about every nine (9) months from date of delivery. The Charterer shall give the Owner reasonable notice of the time and place of drydocking and if practicable fifteen (15) days in advance thereof and afford the Owner an opportunity to inspect the Vessels while drydocked. The Charterer shall also promptly notify the Owner sufficiently in advance to enable its representative to be present at repairs or surveys of the Vessels, and shall furnish the Owners with copies of reports made pursuant to such surveys.

CLAUSE 9. Inspections. The Owner shall have the right at any time, without notice, to inspect or survey the Vessels at its own expense, to ascertain their condition and to satisfy itself that the Vessels are being properly repaired and maintained in accordance with good commercial maintenance practices. The Charterer shall make all such repairs, at its own expense, as such inspection or survey may show to be required in compliance with the Charterer's obligations under this Agreement. The Charterer shall also permit the Owner to inspect the Vessel's logs whenever requested, and shall furnish the Owner upon request with full information regarding any casualties or other accidents or damage to the Vessels.

CLAUSE 10. Charterer to man, etc. During the period of this Agreement the Charterer shall, at its own expense, and by its own procurement, man, victual, navigate, operate, supply, fuel and, except as otherwise expressly provided in Clause 2 (a) and 2 (b) of this Agreement, repair the Vessels and pay all charges and expenses of every kind and nature whatsoever incident to the use and operation of the Vessels under this Agreement. Except as otherwise expressly provided in Clause 25 of this Agreement the Charterer and not the Owner shall have exclusive possession, control and command of the Vessels during the entire period of use under this Agreement.

CLAUSE 11. Structural changes. The Charterer shall make no structural changes in the Vessel and shall make no changes in the machinery, boilers, appurtenances or spare parts thereof without in each instance first securing the written approval of the Owner.

CLAUSE 12. Basic charter hire. The Charterer shall pay to the Owner the basic charter hire at the monthly rate provided for in Part I hereof from the day and hour of delivery of the Vessels until and including the day and hour of redelivery to the Owner pursuant to the terms of this Agreement; or if any Vessel shall be lost, hire shall continue until the time of her loss, if known, or if the time of loss be uncertain then up to and including the time last heard from. Payment of such basic charter hire shall be made to the Owner at Washington, D. C., on delivery of the Vessel for the remainder of the calendar month in which delivery is made, and thereafter monthly in advance on the first day of each month.

CLAUSE 13. Additional Charter Hire. After redelivery of all Vessels under this Agreement, if the cumulative net voyage profits computed for the period of the agreement (after the payment of the basic charter hire provided herein and payment of the Charterer's fair and reasonable overhead expenses applicable to operation of the Vessels) shall be in excess of a rate of ten (10) per centum per annum on the Charterer's capital necessarily employed in the business of the Vessels during the period of the agreement (all as hereinafter defined in Clause 23) the Charterer shall pay to the Owner at Washington, D. C. within sixty (60) days thereafter, an amount equal to one-half of such cumulative net voyage profit in excess of an amount computed for the period of the agreement at the rate of ten (10) per centum per annum on such capital as hire in addition to the hire payable under Clause 12; Provided, however, That such payment of additional charter hire shall be deemed to be preliminary and subject to adjustment upon the completion of final audit by the Owner, at which time such payments will be made by or to the Owner as such final audit may show to be due. The Charterer shall, (1) keep its books, records and accounts relating to the management, operation, conduct of the business of and maintenance of the vessels covered by this Agreement in accordance with the "Uniform System of Accounts for Operating-Differential Subsidy Contractors" prescribed by the United States Maritime Commission in its General Order No. 22 and under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Owner: Provided, however, That, if the Charterer is subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Owner shall not require the duplication of books, records, and accounts required to be kept in some other form by that Commission; and (2) file, upon notice from the Owner, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, and such other statements of operation, special reports, memoranda of any facts and transactions, which, in the opinion of the Owner, affect the results in, the performance of, or transactions or operations under this Agreement. The Owner is hereby authorized to examine and audit the books, records, and accounts of the Charterer in so far as the same relate to operations under this Agreement whenever it may deem it necessary or desirable so to do.

CLAUSE 14. Termination. (A) Either the Owner or the Charterer may terminate the period of use of any of the vessels by giving written notice to the other party at least fifteen (15) days prior to the termination of any voyage hereunder, in which event the vessel shall be redelivered at the port of redelivery provided for in Clause G of Part I hereof upon termination of the voyage during which such notice is given.

(B) In addition to the right given to the Charterer in paragraph (A) hereof to terminate the period of use of any vessel, the Charterer may also terminate the period of use of the Vessel by giving written notice to the Owner,

(1) If the Vessel is in a continental U. S. port free of cargo, or

(2) If, in the event it is in a continental U. S. port with cargo on board, the Owner advises the Charterer that it is satisfied that the removal of the cargo and the redelivery of the Vessel will not subject the Owner or the Vessel to any liability whatsoever, in which event the Vessel shall be redelivered at the port of redelivery provided for in Clause G of Part I hereof not sooner than 15 days after receipt of such written notice, unless otherwise agreed.

CLAUSE 15. Redelivery of vessel. The Vessels shall be redelivered to the Owner (unless lost) pursuant to the terms of this Agreement in the same or as good order, condition and class as that in which they were delivered, unless the lack of good order, condition and class is due solely to ordinary wear and tear. At the redelivery survey provided for in Clause 2, surveyors representing both the Charterer and the Owner, or a surveyor satisfactory to both sides, shall be present, who shall determine and state the repairs or work necessary to place the Vessel on the date of redelivery in the condition and class required in this paragraph, which findings shall include all repairs or work (as distinguished from postponed annual or periodical surveys) required by outstanding classification or steamboat inspection requirements in effect as of date of delivery to place her in such condition. The Charterer, before redelivery, shall make all such repairs and do all such work so found to be necessary at its expense and time, or at Owner's option, the Charterer shall on Owner's request discharge such obligation by payment to the Owner of an amount sufficient to place the Vessel in such condition and class and to provide for the foregoing work and repairs at the prices current at the time of redelivery, which amount shall also include compensation at the rate of basic hire payable under this Agreement for the time reasonably required under then existing conditions to complete such work or repairs and compensation for other expenses (including insurance) incident to such work or repairs or which would have been borne by the Charterer if the repairs had been effected prior to redelivery. The Charterer shall not be required to make any repairs or to satisfy any classification or steamboat inspection requirements which were for Owner's account under Clause 2 of this Agreement but if such repairs were made or such requirements were satisfied after delivery under this Agreement and paid for by the Owner, they shall be considered as having been made at the time of delivery for the purpose of determining the Charterer's obligations under this Clause 15.

CLAUSE 16. Insurance. The Charterer shall at all times during the period of the Vessel's use under this Agreement carry and maintain on the Vessel insurance covering all customary marine and war risk hull and marine and war risk protection and indemnity insurances and such crew insurance as is required by applicable decisions of the Maritime War Emergency Board in such amount and in such form and with such insurance companies, underwriters or funds as the Owner may require and approve. All insurance required under the terms of this Agreement to be carried by the Charterer shall be placed and kept with responsible insurers satisfactory to the Owner, and shall include the United States of America as an assured, without right of subrogation against the United States insofar as its interest in said Vessel is concerned. The hull and disbursement insurance on the Vessel shall be in an amount no less than the valuation set forth in Part I. The marine P. & I. insurance shall be in the amount of not less than $175 per gross ton, or the hull valuation figure set forth in Part I whichever is higher. The war risk P. & I. insurance shall be in an amount of not less than $60 per gross ton.

All losses under the policies of insurance carried on the Vessel shall be made payable to the Owner for distribution by it to itself and the Charterer as their interests may appear: Provided, however, That in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary P. & I. claims in amounts not exceeding $5000 may be payable directly to the Charterer. Charterer shall at Charterer's expense keep the vessels entered in the Marine Index Bureau Inc. The originals of all cover notes or binders and policies, including certificate of entry in such Bureau shall be delivered promptly to the Owner for its custody and approval.

In the event that any of the insurance hereinbefore provided for, by reason of any act, omission, or negligence of the Charterer, shall not be kept in full force and effect, or for any reason (including but without limitation the existence of any deductible average, franchise provision, or other exclusion contained therein but excluding insolvency of the underwriters) does not cover in full all losses, damages, claims or demands, the Charterer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Owner against all such losses, claims and demands.

No tender of abandonment as a constructive total loss shall be made without the prior approval of the Owner: Provided, however, That in the event the Owner neglects or refuses to approve such tender, then charter hire shall cease ten days after receipt of Charterer's request in the event it is determined that abandonment was proper under all the circumstances.

CLAUSE 17. Bills of lading or voyage charters. All bills of lading or voyage charters issued under this Agreement shall contain directly or by reference substantially the following clauses:

(i) Clause paramount. "This bill of lading shall have effect subject to the provisions of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of United States, approved April 16, 1936, which shall be deemed to be incorporated herein, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed a surrender by the Carrier of any of its rights or immunities or an increase of any of its responsibilities or liabilities under said Act. If any term of this bill of lading be repugnant to said Act to any extent, such term shall be void to that extent but no further."

(ii) Both-to-blame collision clause. "If the ship comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect or default of the master, mariner, pilot or the servants of the carrier in the navigation or in the management of the ship, the owners of the goods carried hereunder will indemnify the carrier against all loss or liability to the other or noncarrying ship or her owners in so far as such loss or liability represents loss of, or damage to, or any claim whatsoever of the owners of said goods, paid or payable by the other or noncarrying ship or her owners to the owners of said goods and set-off, recouped or recovered by the other or noncarrying ship or her owners as part of their claim against the carrying ship or carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators or those in charge of any ship or ships or objects other than, or in addition to, the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision or contact."

(iii) General average clause. "General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled, according to Rules 1 to 15, inclusive, 17 to 22, inclusive, and Rule F of York-Antwerp Rules 1924, at such port or place in the United States as may be selected by the carrier, and as to matters not provided for by these Rules, according to the laws and usages at the port of New York. In such adjustment, disbursements in foreign currencies shall be exchanged into United States money at the rate prevailing on the dates made and allowances for damage to cargo claimed in foreign currency shall be converted at the rate prevailing on the last day of discharge at the port or place of final discharge of such damaged cargo from the ship. Average agreement or bond and such additional security, as may be required by the carrier, must be furnished before delivery of the goods. Such cash deposit as the carrier or his agents may deem sufficient as additional security for the contribution of the goods and for any salvage and special charges thereon, shall, if required, be made by the goods, shippers, consignees, or owners of the goods to the carrier before delivery. Such deposit shall, at the option of the carrier, be payable in United States money, and be remitted to the adjuster. When so remitted the deposit shall be held in a special account at the place of adjustment in the name of the adjuster pending settlement of the general average and refunds or credit balances, if any, shall be paid in United States money."

(iv) Amended "Jason" clause. "In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster before or after commencement of the voyage resulting from any cause whatsoever, whether due to negligence or not, for which or for the consequence of which the carrier is not responsible by statute, contract, or otherwise, the goods, shippers, consignees, or owners of the goods shall contribute with the carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, losses or expenses of a general average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully as if the salving ship or ships belong to strangers."

(v) Liberties clauses. "In any situation whatsoever and wheresoever occurring and whether existing or anticipated before commencement of or during the voyage, which in the judgment of the carrier or master is likely to give rise to risk of capture, seizure, detention, damages, delay or disadvantage to or loss of the ship or any part of her cargo, or to make it unsafe, imprudent, or unlawful for any reason to commence or proceed on or continue the voyage or to enter or discharge the goods at the port of discharge, or to give rise to delay or difficulty in arriving, discharging at or leaving the port of discharge or the usual place of discharge in such port, the carrier may before loading or before the commencement of the voyage, require the shipper or other person entitled thereto to take delivery of the goods at port of shipment and upon their failure to do so, may warehouse the goods at the risk and expense of the goods; or the carrier or master, whether or not proceeding toward or entering or attempting to enter the port of discharge or reaching or attempting to reach the usual place of discharge therein or attempting to discharge the goods there, may discharge the goods into depot, lazaretto, craft or other place; or the ship may proceed or return, directly or indirectly, to or stop at any such port or place whatsoever as the master or the carrier may consider safe or advisable under the circumstances, and discharge the goods, or any part thereof, at any such port or place; or the carrier or the master may retain the cargo on board until the return trip or until such time as the carrier or the master thinks advisable and discharge the goods at any place whatsoever as herein provided; or the carrier or the master may discharge and forward the goods by any means at the risk and expense of the goods. The carrier or the master is not required to give notice of discharge of the goods or the forwarding thereof as herein provided. When the goods are discharged from the ship, as herein provided, they shall be at their own risk and expense; such discharge shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. For any service rendered to the goods as herein provided the carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation.

"The carrier, master and ship shall have liberty to comply with any orders or directions as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by the government of any nation or department thereof or any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of such government or of any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, under the terms of the war risk insurance on the ship, the right to give such orders or directions. Delivery or other disposition of the goods in accordance with such orders or directions shall be a fulfillment of the contract voyage. The ship may carry contraband, explosives, munitions, warlike stores, hazardous cargo, and may sail armed or unarmed and with or without convoy.

"In addition to all other liberties herein the carrier shall have the right to withhold delivery of, reship to, deposit or discharge the goods at any place whatsoever, surrender or dispose of the goods in accordance with any direction, condition or agreement imposed upon or exacted from the carrier by any government or department thereof or any person purporting to act with the authority of either of them. In any of the above circumstances the goods shall be solely at their risk and expense and all expenses and charges so incurred shall be payable by the owner or consignee thereof and shall be a lien on the goods."

CLAUSE 18. General average. General average adjusters shall be appointed by the Charterer from a list of adjusters satisfactory to the Owner, who shall attend to the settlement and collection of both general and particular average losses subject to customary charges. The Charterer agrees to assist the adjuster in preparing the average statement and to take all other possible measures to protect the interests of the Vessel and the Owner.

CLAUSE 19. Salvage. Earned salvage shall be pro rated 25% to the Owner and 75% to the Charterer, after deducting Owner's and Charterer's expenses, Master's and Crew's shares, and legal and other expenses incident to the salvage: Provided however, That hire of the vessels shall not be considered an item of the Charterer's expense hereunder. Salvage earned by the Charterer shall be considered gross income as defined in Clause 23. Settlement of claims for salvage shall be subject to the approval of both Owner and Charterer: Provided, That the amount of awards for the salving of vessels of which the United States or any department or agency thereof is the Owner or Owner pro hac vice, or for their cargoes and freights on such vessels, shall be determined by the Owner.

CLAUSE 20. Libels. Neither the Charterer nor the Masters of the Vessels nor any other person shall have the right, power, or authority to create, incur, or permit to be placed upon the Vessels any liens whatsoever other than for crew's wages or salvage. The Charterer agrees to carry a properly certified copy of this Agreement with the ship's papers on board the Vessels, and agrees to exhibit the same to any person having business with the Vessels, and agrees also to exhibit the same to any representative of the Owner on demand.

The Charterer agrees to notify any person furnishing repairs, supplies, towage, or other necessaries to the Vessels that neither the Charterer nor the Masters have any right to create, incur, or permit to be imposed upon the Vessels any liens whatsoever, except for crew's wages and salvage. Such notice as far as may be practicable shall be in writing. The Charterer further agrees to fasten in the Vessels in a conspicuous place, and to maintain during the charter period, a notice reading as follows:

"This Vessel is the property of the United States of America. It is under charter to and, by the terms of the charter neither the Charterer nor the Master has any right, power, or authority to create, incur, or permit to be imposed upon the vessel any lien whatsoever, except for crew's wages and salvage."

The Owner shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend the Charterer against any liens, claims or liabilities of whatsoever nature upon the vessels at the time of their delivery under this Agreement. The Charterer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Owner against any liens of whatsoever nature upon the Vessels and against any claims against the Owner arising out of the operation of the Vessels by the Charterer, or out of any act or neglect of the Charterer, in relation to the Vessels, or the operation thereof, except insofar as such liens or claims arise out of any matter covered by the insurance procured and in force, as provided herein. If a libel should be filed against any Vessel or if any Vessel is otherwise levied against or taken in custody by virtue of legal proceedings in any court because of any liens or claims arising out of the operation of the Vessel by the Charterer, the Charterer shall at its own expense within fifteen (15) days thereof cause the Vessel to be released and the lien to be discharged.

CLAUSE 21. Bond. The Charterer, at or before delivery of the first vessel or vessels under this Agreement, will furnish the Owner with a bond with sufficient surety, in an amount of not less than $25,000 per vessel for all vessels chartered hereunder, such bond to be approved by the Owner, both as to form and sufficiency of surety, and to be conditioned upon the true and faithful performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements of the Charterer contained in this Agreement, including, but not limited to, the Charterer's obligation to pay charter hire and damages. The Charterer may, in lieu of furnishing such bond, pledge United States Government securities in the face value of the required amount under an agreement satisfactory in form and substance to the Owner.

CLAUSE 22. No transfer or assignment. The Charterer shall not, without the Owner's consent, sell, transfer, or assign this Agreement or any interest therein, or time charter or sub-charter any Vessels, or make any arrangement whereby the maintenance, management, or operation of the Vessels is to be performed by any other person.

CLAUSE 23. Definitions. The terms "net voyage profit", "fair and reasonable overhead expenses", and "capital necessarily employed" as used herein with respect to the operations of the Vessel and services incident thereto are hereby defined, for the purposes of this Agreement only, as follows:

(a) "Net voyage profit" shall be determined by deducting from gross income, as hereinafter defined, such direct vessel operating expenses, terminal and other auxiliary operating expenses, overhead expenses, interest expense, amortization of deferred charges, depreciation on property utilized in the operation of the vessels, and all other charges which are customarily made in accordance with sound accounting practice in determining net profits before provision for federal income taxes, all as the Owner may deem fair and reasonable, Provided, That in instances where the Charterer engaged in other activities in addition to the operation of the Vessels, covered by this Agreement, such charges, other than those directly and exclusively allocable to the operation of the vessels shall be prorated between these activities on such basis as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable.

"Gross Income" shall include such items as revenue earned from the carriage of cargo, passengers, and mail, terminal and other auxiliary operations, and miscellaneous profits and losses, such as those arising from pooling agreements, advance and prepaid beyond items, bar and slop chest, and such other transactions as the Owner may determine are properly included. "Gross Income" shall include also interest earned, dividends received, and other non-operating income, as well as all accruals to the Charterer as an operating-differential subsidy. If the Charterer engages in any other activities in addition to the operation of the Vessels, the revenues and miscellaneous income, other than those exclusively applicable to the operation of the Vessels, shall be prorated between these activities, on such basis as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable.

Income consisting of capital gains and expense consisting of capital losses shall in no event be included in the computation of "Net Voyage Profit", as above defined.

Income from and expenses attributable to assets, other than the Vessels, excluded in the computation of "Capital Necessarily Employed", as hereinafter defined, shall not be included in the computation of "Net Voyage Profit", as above defined.

(b) "Fair and Reasonable Overhead Expenses" shall include those expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the conduct of the business of operating the Vessels, such as salaries of officers; wages of employees; legal and accounting fees and expenses; rent, heat, light, and power; communication expenses; office supplies, stationery, and printing; membership dues and subscriptions; entertaining and solicitation; traveling expenses; insurance and bond premiums; postage; maintenance of office equipment; and miscellaneous administrative and general expenses, all as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable and properly included: Provided, That there shall be deducted from the total of such expenses (1) the amount by which wages, salary and allowances of compensation in any form for personal services received by any director, officer or employee (which term shall be construed in the broadest sense to include, but not to be limited to, managing trustees or other administrative agents) from the charterer and its affiliates, subsidiaries, and associates, directly or indirectly, shall in any instance exceed the amount of $25,000 per annum, prorated to the period of the agreement, and (2) agency fees, commission, brokerage, and such other miscellaneous earnings as the Owner may determine to be properly deductible.

"Fair and Reasonable Overhead Expenses" shall include also freight, passenger and other expenses incident to advertising the Vessel and the line served by it; taxes other than federal income taxes; and management and operating commissions but only if and in the cases where the express written consent of the Owner has been given the Charterer to employ another person or concern as the managing or operating agent of the Charterer; all as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable and properly included.

If the Charterer engages in other activities in addition to the operation of the Vessels the "Fair and Reasonable Overhead Expenses" other than those directly and exclusively allocable to the operation of the Vessel shall be prorated between such activities on such basis as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable.

(c) "Capital Necessarily Employed" shall be determined upon the basis of the net worth reported by the Charterer in its balance sheet as of the close of the month preceding the date of delivery of the first vessel under this agreement, adjusted as hereinafter provided. For the purpose of this determination, net worth, as stated in the balance sheet of the Charterer, shall be deemed to include capital stock; surplus and such subdivisions thereof as capital surplus, earned surplus and accounts of like nature. Net worth, as thus stated, shall be adjusted in such manner as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable, including the elimination of appreciation, adequate statement of the liabilities, and such other adjustments as are consistent with sound accounting principles. In the computation of "Capital Necessarily Employed," good will, intangibles not actually purchased and paid for, and stock held in treasury shall be excluded.

Property and other assets utilized in the operation of the Vessels shall be valued at cost, including betterments and reconditioning costs, to the present owner or to any former owner at any time affiliated or associated directly or indirectly with the present owner, whichever is the lower, less depreciation: Provided, That the cost of acquisition of assets acquired in exchange for capital shares or other securities of the Charterer from other than holding, subsidiary, affiliated, or associated companies, shall not be in excess of the fair value of such property at the date of acquisition.

If the Charterer engages in other activities in addition to the operation of the Vessels, the Owner shall determine the proper allocation of capital as between such activities. The amount so allocated to the operation of the Vessels shall be deemed to be the "Capital Necessarily Employed."

CLAUSE 24. Events of default. The following shall constitute events of default under this agreement:

(a) The failure of the Charterer to pay the charter hire on any Vessel as and when the same shall be due under the terms of this Agreement.

(b) The failure of the Charterer to operate any Vessel as required by Clause D of Part I or the Operation of any Vessel on some other route without the prior written approval of the Owner.

(c) Any material misrepresentation by the Charterer in connection with this Agreement whether before or after execution hereof and whether made in an application, report or otherwise, or any willful failure by the Charterer to disclose information necessary to cause any material representation by it not to be misleading.

(d) The occurrence of any event causing the Charterer to be ineligible for charter of the Owner's Vessels.

(e) A voluntary sale by the Charterer of this Agreement or any interest therein, or an assignment, transfer, agreement or arrangement whereby the maintenance, management or operation of the above described service, route, or Vessel shall pass out of the direct control of the Charterer without the consent of the Owner.

(f) The filing of a petition in bankruptcy by the Charterer, or the entry of an order, upon petition against the Charterer, adjudicating the Charterer a bankrupt, or the making of a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the Charterer losing its charter by forfeiture or otherwise, or the appointment of a receiver or receivers of any kind whatsoever, whether appointed or not in Admiralty, Bankruptcy, Common Law or Equity proceedings, and whether temporary or permanent, for the property of the Charterer, or the filing of a petition by the Charterer for reorganization under the Bankruptcy Act, or the filing of such a petition by creditors and the same approved by the court, or the approval of the court of a reorganization of the Charterer under said Act, whether proposed by a creditor, a stockholder or any other person whomsoever.

(g) Any breach by the Charterer of its obligations under this Agreement or any agreement executed in connection therewith, or any ship mortgage given to or construction agreement made with the United States.

(h) Failure by the Charterer to comply with any applicable provisions of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, or of any law relating to the operation of the Vessel.

CLAUSE 25. Termination upon Default. (a) The Owner may terminate this Agreement in whole or in part without notice to the Charterer in case any event of default specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of the preceding Clause 24 shall occur or if any other default specified in paragraphs (g), or (h) of said clause shall occur and shall continue for a period of 30 days after notice thereof has been mailed or telegraphed by the Owner to the Charterer.

(b) Upon termination, the Owner may, at its option, retake the Vessels or any of them wherever the same may be found, whether upon the high seas or in any port, harbor, or other place, without prior demand and without legal process and for that purpose may enter upon any dock, pier, or other premises where the Vessels may be and may take possession thereof, or may require the Charterer to redeliver such Vessels in accordance with terms of this Agreement immediately upon the receipt of a notice demanding such redelivery.

(c) The rights conferred upon the Owner by this clause are cumulative and in addition to any rights which it may have at law or in equity or by virtue of the terms of this Agreement.

CLAUSE 26. Effect of ship sales charter. Any provisions as to survey, drydockings, or inventory may at Charterer's option be waived or modified to the extent necessary to conform to any provisions in any charter of these Vessels which may be executed between the Owner and Charterer hereunder pursuant to the provisions of the Act of Congress known as the Merchant Ship Sales Act, 1946.

CLAUSE 27. Cancellation or modification by mutual consent: Waivers. This Agreement may be terminated, modified, or amended at any time by mutual consent.

CLAUSE 28. Settlement on termination. Upon redelivery of the last vessel under this Agreement, the Charterer shall at his own expense make to the Owner such accounting as the Owner may require of all matters arising out of the operation of the Vessels and this Agreement, and shall adjust, settle, and liquidate such accounts: Provided, however, That the Owner may collect directly all freight moneys or other debts earned by the Vessels remaining unpaid and apply any moneys collected on any unpaid balance due from the Charterer to the Owner. All expenses of such collecting shall be for the account of Charterer.

CLAUSE. 29. Officials not to benefit nor to be employed. No member of or delegate to Congress, nor Resident Commissioner, shall be admitted to any share or part of this Agreement or to any benefit that may arise therefrom, except as provided in Section 116 of the Act approved March 4, 1909 (35 Stat. 1109).

CLAUSE 30. The Charterer warrants that it has not employed any person to solicit or secure this Agreement upon any agreement for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee. Breach of this warranty shall give the Owner the right to annul this Agreement or, in its discretion, to deduct from any sums payable under this Agreement the amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fees. This warranty shall not apply to commissions payable by the Charterer upon agreements or sales secured or made through bona fide established commercial or selling agencies maintained by the Charterer for the purpose of securing business.

CLAUSE 31. Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement or mutually agreed upon, all payments, notices and communications from the Owner to the Charterer, pursuant to the terms of or in connection with this Agreement, shall be made or addressed to the Charterer at the address provided in Part I, and all payments, notices and communications from the Charterer to the Owner, pursuant to the terms of or in connection with this Agreement, shall be made or addressed to the Owner at its offices in Washington, District of Columbia.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

HOPE NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

APRIL 25, 1946.

Notice is hereby given that on April 10, 1946, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission by Hope Natural Gas Company ("applicant"), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of West Virginia, and having its principal place of business at 445 West Main Street, Clarksburg, West Virginia, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of certain additional gas transmission facilities described in the application as follows:

(1) Additions to Hastings Compressor Station in Wetzel County, W. Va. One 2,000 horsepower steam engine gas compressor unit.

(2) Additions to Jackson Compressor Station in Kanawha County, W. Va. Nine new gas compressor cylinders on present engines to replace present high stage compressors; and new discharge piping and gas cooler.

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

(3) Loup Creek Compressor Station in Wyoming County, W. Va. One 800 horsepower gas engine driven gas compressor unit; water coolers and gas coolers;

Buildings consisting of main pump house and auxiliary machinery consisting of water pumps, air compressor, tanks, pipe and fittings and other miscellaneous equipment; and

Four dwelling houses for employees.

(4) Oscar Nelson Compressor Station in Wyoming County, W. Va. Three 800 horsepower gas engine driven gas compressor units;

Water coolers and gas coolers;

Buildings consisting of main pump house and auxiliary machinery structure, and auxiliary machinery consisting of water pumps, air compressors, tanks, pipe and fittings and other miscellaneous equipment; and

Four dwelling houses for employees.

The application states that the applicant's transmision facilities now in operation and which it has proposed in the proceeding now pending In the Matter of Hope Natural Gas Company, Docket No. G-695, are designed to handle a maximum of 23,500 Mcf of Wyoming County gas daily at natural pressures on the general suction of Jackson Compressor Station. The construction and operation of Oscar Nelson Compressor Station and Loup Creek Compressor Station, together with the alterations now proposed at Jackson Compressor Station, will enable applicant to handle approximately 43,500 Mcf of Wyoming County gas daily.

Applicant proposes to install the new 2,000 horsepower steam engine driven compressor unit at Hastings Compressor Station No. 2, to increase the high pressure discharge capacity of the station. With the addition of 2,000 horsepower steam engine driven compressor unit proposed by applicant, Docket No. G-696, above referred to, Hastings Compressor Station No. 2 will have four units aggregating 8,000 horsepower available for the high pressure discharge of 800 or more pounds per square inch gauge. This will provide capacity of approximately 120,000 Mcf of natural gas per day to be divided between The East Ohio Gas Company and New York State Natural Gas Corporation. With the additional unit proposed in the application herein, applicant will have five units aggregating 10,000 horsepower available for the high pressure discharge and will have capacity from 140,000 to 145,000 Mcf of natural gas per day. This will provide for increased deliveries to New York State Natural Gas Corporation, the application states.

The proposed facilities are to be installed, according to the application, to meet the increasing requirements of applicant's present customers, particularly those of New York State Natural Gas Corporation. The requirements to be placed by that company upon applicant are expected to increase by approximately 8,000,000 Mcf of natural gas per year, the application states. New York State Natural Gas Corporation has requested applicant to increase from 14,000,000 Mcf to 22,000,000 Mcf annually the maximum volumes of natural gas deliverable under Hope Natural Gas Company Rate Schedule FPC No. 9. A supplemental agreement has been entered into between the companies which would modify the existing rate schedule so as to increase the volumes deliverable to the maximum requested, according to the application.

The estimated total cost of the proposed additions is $816,000.00, and is to be financed from cash on hand, the application states.

Any interested state commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of Part 67 of the provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with the reasons for such request.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application of Hope Natural Gas Company should, on or before the 12th day of May 1946, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

[Docket No. G-718]

UNITED NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

APRIL 25, 1946.

Notice is hereby given that on April 11, 1946, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission by United Natural Gas Company ("applicant"), a corporation organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and having its principal place of business at 308 Seneca Street, Oil City, Pennsylvania, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of certain additional facilities to its existing natural gas transmission system as hereinafter described.

Applicant is engaged in the business of producing, purchasing and transporting natural gas in northwestern Pennsylvania and distributing it as a public utility in various cities, towns and villages in the western and northwestern portions of the state of Pennsylvania, and in a small portion of Ohio. Applicant also delivers gas to Andover Gas Company at the Pennsylvania-Ohio state line and to Iroquois Gas Corporation of Buffalo, New York, at the Pennsylvania-New York state line.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate approximately 19.5 miles of 12-inch welded steel pipe line to loop an existing 20-inch pipe line between applicant's Lamont Compressor Station in Jones Township, Elk County, Pennsylvania, and extending northerly to its Lewis Run By-Pass located in Lewis Run Borough, McKean County, Pennsylvania.

Applicant states that through the existing 20-inch pipe line it transports most of the gas which it delivers to Iroquois Gas Corporation, and a break in this line would seriously interrupt deliveries of gas to Buffalo, New York. According to the application, the construction and operation of the proposed 12-inch loop line would eliminate a hazardous situation, and would allow greater flexibility of operation with respect to gas wells and compressor stations and will permit higher rates of delivery on peak load days. Applicant states that peak load requirements on this system have increased greatly in recent years.

Applicant states that no industrial consumers are served from the existing 20-inch pipe line and none will be served from either that line or the proposed 12-inch line.

According to the application the necessity for the construction of the proposed 12-inch loop line became apparent several years ago when production from wells in New York state began to decline rapidly. Plans then made for its construction were delayed because of the war conditions which developed shortly thereafter.

The accelerated drain on production from all wells during World War II and the failure of recent drilling to develop new gas pools of any consequence in New York state makes the construction of the loop necessary at this time in order to maintain deliveries to Iroquois Gas Corporation with less danger of serious interruptions, the application states.

The estimated total over-all capital cost of the proposed construction is $450 000.00, and is to be financed from applicant's own resources.

Any interested state commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of Part 67 of the provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act, and if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint concurrent hearing, together with the reasons for such request.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application of United Natural Gas Company should, on or before the 12th day of May 1946, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

SOUTHERN DESK CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 15 and 16 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119; it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's ceiling prices. Southern Desk Company of Hickory, North Carolina may compute its adjusted ceiling prices for all articles of school, office, church and theater furniture which it manufactures as follows:

(1) For an article in its line during October 1941, the adjusted ceiling price is the highest price charged during that month to each class of purchaser increased by 20.4 percent.

(2) For an article not in its line during October 1941, but which has a properly established ceiling price, in effect before the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the article's properly established ceiling price for the particular sale (exclusive of all permitted increases or adjustment charges) increased by the percentage determined in accordance with "Note 3" in section 8 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119.

(3) For an article which is first offered for sale after the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the maximum price hereafter properly determined or established in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 188; and prices so fixed may not be increased under this order.

(4) The manufacturer's adjusted ceiling price fixed in accordance with this order is his new ceiling price if it is higher than his previously established ceiling price including all increases and adjustments otherwise authorized for him individually or for his industry.

The adjustment charge determined in accordance with this order must be separately stated by the manufacturer on each invoice to a purchaser for resale.

(b) Resellers' ceiling prices. Resellers of an article which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

A reseller who had a properly established maximum price in effect before this order was issued for an article covered by this order may add to that maximum price an adjustment charge in the same dollar-and-cents amount as the adjustment charge authorized by this order for, and which he had paid to his supplier.

If the reseller did not have a properly established maximum price for the article in effect before this order was issued he shall first determine a maximum price (exclusive of adjustment charges), and to that price he may add an adjustment charge in the same dollar-and-cents amount as the adjustment authorized by this order for, and which he has paid to, his supplier. To find his maximum price (exclusive of adjustment charges) for this purpose the reseller shall add to his invoice cost, less an adjustment charge stated on that invoice, the same percentage mark-up which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has properly established ceiling price. For this purpose the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(1) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(2) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(3) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of articles to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage mark-up is applied.

(4) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620–759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to resale prices or articles covered by this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Maximum prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, allowances and other price differentials in effect during March 1942, or which have been properly established under the applicable OPA regulation.

[Rev. SO 119, Order 178]

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 15 and 16 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's ceiling prices. Ohmer Corporation, Post Office Box 998, Dayton, Ohio, may compute its adjusted ceiling prices for its sales of the cash registers, bus registers and taximeters which it manufactures, as follows:

(1) For an article which has properly established ceiling price in effect before the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the article's properly established ceiling price for the particular sale (exclusive of all permitted increases or adjustment charges) increase by 51 percent.

(2) For an article which is first offered for sale after the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the maximum price hereafter properly determined or established in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 188; and prices so fixed may not be increased under this order.

(3) The manufacturer's adjusted ceiling price fixed in accordance with this order is his new ceiling price if it is higher than his previously established ceiling price including all increases and adjustments otherwise authorized for him individually or for his industry.

(b) Resellers' ceiling prices. Resellers of an article which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

(1) A reseller who had a properly established maximum price in effect before this order was issued for an article covered by this order may add to that maximum price an adjustment charge in the same dollar-and-cent amount as the adjustment charge authorized by this order for, and which he has paid to, his supplier.

(2) If the reseller did not have a properly established maximum price for the article in effect before this order was issued he shall first determine a maximum price (exclusive of adjustment charges), and to that price he may add an adjustment charge in the same dollar-and-cents amount as the adjustment authorized by this order for, and which he has paid to, his supplier. To find his maximum price (exclusive of adjustment charges) for this purpose the reseller shall add to his invoice cost, less an adjustment charge stated on that invoice, the same percentage markup which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(i) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of articles to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form No. 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(3) If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to the seller's terms, discounts and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter properly established under OPA regulations.

(d) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to sales of any articles covered by this order.

(e) Changes in resellers' margins. Resellers' maximum prices adjusted in accordance with this order are subject to further adjustments which may result from any change in resellers' margins which may be effected by the Office of Price Administration to obtain absorption by resellers of any industry-wide increase in manufacturers' maximum prices.

(f) Notification. At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order, showing prices adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

The amount of the adjustment determined in accordance with this order must be stated separately on invoices for all sellers of the article covered by this order.

(g) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(h) This order shall become effective on the 25th day of April 1946.

Issued this 25th day of April 1946.

Administrator.

[RMPR 113, Order 8]

IRON ORE PRODUCED IN MINNESOTA, WISCONSIN, OR MICHIGAN

ORDER AUTHORIZING ADJUSTABLE PRICING

The Price Administrator has been advised by his Iron Ore Industry Advisory Committee that it believes that appropriate adjustments will be required, in the near future, in the maximum prices established by Revised Maximum Price Regulation 113 for sales of iron ore produced in the Lake Superior District. The Committee has recommended that persons subject to the Regulation be authorized to deliver, or agree to deliver, pending the disposition of this case, iron ore at prices to be adjusted upwards in accordance with action which may be taken by the Office of Price Administration.

The Office of Price Administration is presently conducting a survey of representative producers of iron ore for the purpose of measuring the propriety of existing maximum prices under the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and applicable Executive orders. It has become apparent, however, that an immediate decision cannot be reached because of uncertain factors and the peculiar seasonal nature of the industry. The granting of permission to enter into adjustable pricing agreements is therefore necessary, in the opinion of the Administrator, to promote the distribution of iron ore vitally needed for effective transition to a peacetime economy.

A similar situation arose in 1944 and the Price Administrator granted adjustable pricing permission to iron ore producers in Order No. 7 under section 3 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 113. The opinion accompanying that action stated in part:

Unlike most manufacturing industries, the iron ore industry in the Lake Superior region conducts its affairs upon a seasonal basis due primarily to the fact that shipments are made only during the months of navigation on the Great Lakes. Customarily, one price is charged for ore shipped during a given season and payments are made in twelve monthly installments. All payments before the end of the season, however, are subject to final adjustment for grade and analysis after all ore has been shipped. Under these circumstances, it is necessary to take measures which will insure that any adjustment in maximum prices which may be granted during the 1944 season will be applicable to all ore shipped during that season. Unless this is done, serious disruption may occur in the even flow of this essential commodity. Uncertainty about price may result in hesitancy to enter into firm commitments for the full season and producers who ship both captive and merchant ore may find it desirable to restrict shipments of the latter type until a decision has been reached. The granting of authorization to enter into adjustable pricing agreements will remove these difficulties and will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. This action is not to be considered as an indication of whether, or to what extent, an increase in maximum prices will be made.

Similar considerations are pertinent to present circumstances, and this order is being issued to permit again iron ore producers to enter into adjustable pricing agreements until such time as the Price Administrator acts upon the pending request for price adjustment or the permission is withdrawn.

Therefore, in accordance with section 3 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 113, It is ordered:

(a) Persons selling iron ore produced in Minnesota, Wisconsin or Michigan may deliver or agree to deliver, and purchasers may receive or agree to receive, such ore at prices to be adjusted upward after delivery to an amount not in excess of the maximum prices established by the Office of Price Administration in taking final action upon the pending request for an increase in existing maximum prices. Prior to such action, no payment in excess of the maximum prices in effect at time of delivery shall be made or received.

(b) This order shall be automatically revoked upon the effective date of any amendment or other formal action by the Office of Price Administration increasing maximum prices for iron ore produced in Minnesota, Wisconsin or Michigan or upon denial of the pending request for an increase in the present maximum prices for such ore. It may be revoked or amended by the Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective April 26, 1946.

Issued this 26th day of April 1946.

Administrator.

RECONVERSION CONSUMER DURABLE GOODS PRODUCTS

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to § 1499.159e of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, It is ordered, That Order No. 8 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 be amended in the following respects:

1. Section 3 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Increase factor. Manufacturers may increase, by seven per cent, their maximum prices (exclusive of any permitted increases) properly established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 or the "comparability method" of Order No. 4332 under that regulation for sales to all persons except ultimate consumers.

2. Section 3 (c) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) His maximum price properly established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 or the "comparability method" of Order No. 4332 under that regulation increased by seven per cent in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

3. Section 3 (d) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) If his selling price for the article is not more than seven per cent above its properly established maximum price to a particular class of purchaser (exclusive of all permitted increases), his unadjusted maximum price to that class of purchaser is that properly established maximum price (exclusive of all permitted increases).

4. Section 3 (d) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) If his selling price for the article is more than seven percent above its properly established maximum price to a particular class of purchaser (exclusive of all permitted increases) he finds his unadjusted maximum price to that class of purchaser as follows:

Step 1. He determines the percentage amount by which his actual selling price exceeds his properly established maximum price (exclusive of all permitted increases).

Step 2. He deducts seven percentage points from the percentage found in Step 1.

EXAMPLE OF HOW A MANUFACTURER FINDS HIS "UNADJUSTED MAXIMUM PRICE" WHEN HIS SELLING PRICE IS MORE THAN SEVEN PERCENT ABOVE HIS MAXIMUM PRICE

A manufacturer has a properly established maximum price (exclusive of all permitted increases) of $30.00 for a metal dinette set. He has received an order under Supplementary Order No. 119 permitting him to increase his maximum prices by ten percent, however, his actual selling price on a particular sale is only $32.40. The steps by which he finds his "unadjusted maximum price" are as follows:

Step 1. His selling price is $2.40 above his previous maximum price. This he finds to be 8 percent above that maximum price.

Step 2. He deducts seven percentage points from eight percent, and the result is one percent.

Step 3. He adds one percent to his previous maximum price of $30.00. The "unadjusted maximum price" which he shows on his invoice for that sale is therefore $30.30.

5. Footnote 2 to section 3 (c) (2) is amended to read as follows:

[2] This refers to Supplementary Orders Nos. 118 and 148, and to orders issued under Supplementary Orders Nos. 119, 133 and 148, and Order No. A–2 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

6. Section 12 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Supplementary Order Nos. 118, 119, 133 and 148, or Order No. A–2 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. If a manufacturer is eligible for an adjustment under Supplementary Orders Nos. 118, 119, 133, or 148, he may nevertheless adjust his maximum prices under this order instead of under those provisions.

Manufacturers may continue to adjust their maximum prices in accordance with any increases permitted under Supplementary Orders Nos. 118, 119, 133, and 148 or Order No. A–2 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, instead of the increase factor specified in section 3.

Issued this 26th day of April 1946.

Acting Administrator.

SHOVELS, SPADES AND SCOOPS

INTERIM ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, it is ordered:

SEC. 1. Purpose of this order. This order is issued to allow manufacturers of steel shovels, spades and scoops an interim price increase. It is based on the operating experience of certain representative manufacturers and will remain in effect until the Office of Price Administration can obtain further information on which to base a final determination of the increases in maximum prices which can be authorized. Interim adjustments are also made in resellers' maximum prices.

SEC. 2. Manufacturers' maximum prices. Manufacturers of steel shovels, spades and scoops may add to their maximum prices for these articles determined under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 an adjustment charge equal to 9% of their maximum price to each class of purchaser. The amount of the adjustment shall be separately stated on each invoice.

SEC. 3. Resellers' maximum prices. A reseller of articles covered by this order may add to his properly established maximum prices under the General Maximum Price Regulation an adjustment charge in the same dollar-and-cents amount as the adjustment charge authorized by this order for, and which is paid by him to his supplier. A reseller who has not properly established his maximum price under the General Maximum Price Regulation for an article covered by this order shall first determine a maximum price (exclusive of adjustment charges) and to that price he may add an adjustment charge in the same dollars-and-cents amount as the adjustment authorized by this order for, and which he has paid to, his supplier.

SEC. 4. Notification. At the time of, or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale, each seller shall notify the purchaser of the adjustment in resellers' prices provided by this order. This notification may be given in any convenient form.

This order shall become effective April 26, 1946.

SEATTLE GAS CO.

NOTICE OF FILING OF AMENDED PLAN AND ORDER RECONVENING HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 25th day of April A. D. 1946.

Seattle Gas Company ("Seattle"), a gas utility company and a subsidiary of Portland General Electric Company and Portland Electric Power Company, registered holding companies, having on April 7, 1945, filed an application for approval of a plan of recapitalization of Seattle for the purpose of complying with the provisions of section 11 (b) (2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; the Commission in its notice of filing and order for hearing issued April 13, 1945 (Holding Company Act Release No. 5725), having summarized the terms of said plan and having ordered a hearing thereon; Seattle having on May 8, 1945, filed an amendment to its plan of recapitalization modifying the original plan filed April 7, 1945, in various respects; and hearings having been held pursuant to such notice on said original plan and the amendment thereto, extensive testimony having been taken and numerous exhibits having been introduced, and the hearing having been continued subject to the call of the trial examiner; and

Seattle having on November 28, 1945 filed an application (File No. 70-1197) pursuant to section 6 (b) of the act and Rule U-50 promulgated thereunder proposing to issue and sell, at a price to be determined by competitive bidding, $4,800,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds; and the Commission having on December 3, 1945 issued its notice of filing and order for hearing and directed that such application (File No. 70-1197) and the proceedings theretofore commenced and instituted by the Commission (File No. 54-124 and File No. 59-79) be consolidated and that a consolidated hearing under the applicable provisions of the act be reconvened for the purpose of considering said application in the light of the matters and questions contained in the record theretofore instituted before this Commission; and the Commission having granted said application in its findings and opinion and order, dated December 28, 1945, and in its supplemental order thereto, dated January 15, 1946; and Seattle having applied the net proceeds of the $4,800,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, 3⅜% Series, due 1976, to redeem the then outstanding $4,678,250 principal amount of First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds, 5% Series A, due October 1, 1954:

Notice is hereby given that on April 16, 1946 Seattle filed an amended plan of recapitalization, which amended plan modifies the original plan filed April 7, 1945 in various respects.

All interested persons are referred to said amended plan which is on file in the offices of this Commission, for a full statement of the transactions therein proposed which, insofar as they differ substantially from those proposed in the original plan of recapitalization filed April 7, 1945, may be summarized as follows:

1. By amendment to its articles of incorporation, the authorized capital stock of Seattle of which there are presently outstanding 47,105 shares of $5 first preferred stock, 27,338 shares of second preferred stock and 23,739 shares of common stock will be reclassified into 500,000 shares of new common stock, par value $20 per share, or an aggregate par value of $10,000,000.

2. Of the 500,000 shares of new common stock to be authorized, 262,812 shares will be distributed to the holders of the presently outstanding capital stock of Seattle as follows:

(a) 5½ shares of new common stock for each share of $5 first preferred stock and all accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon. The holders of the $5 first preferred stock will receive a total of 259,078 shares of new common stock having an aggregate par value of $5,181,560;

(b) 1/10th of a share of new common stock for each share of second preferred stock and all accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon. The holders of the second preferred stock will receive a total of 2,734 shares of new common stock having an aggregate par value of $54,680;

(c) The existing common stock will be cancelled and no new common stock will be issued therefor.

Accordingly, all of the new common stock to be issued under the amended plan of recapitalization will be allocated to the holders of the presently outstanding $5 first preferred stock and second preferred stock in the proportions of approximately 98.96% and 1.04%, respectively. Scrip certificates will be issued for fractional interests in the new common shares and will be exchangeable for full shares of new common stock within two years from the first day of the month in which the amendment to the articles of incorporation of Seattle shall become effective. The amended plan further provides that after the expiration of such two-year period, the shares of new common stock reserved for issuance in exchange for scrip certificates will be sold by the company and for a period of three additional years the holders of such scrip certificates will be entitled to receive their pro rata share of the proceeds of sale, at the end of which period the scrip certificates are to become void for all purposes. In addition, the amended plan provides that the holders of the presently outstanding $5 first preferred stock and second preferred stock who do not surrender their stock certificates in exchange for new common shares (or cash proceeds after the initial two-year period as provided for in the exchange of scrip certificates) to which they are entitled under the amended plan within five years of the first day of the month in which the amendment to the articles of incorporation of Seattle shall become effective, shall not be entitled or permitted thereafter to make such exchange, and the shares of the existing $5 first preferred stock and second prefered stock then held by such holders shall become void for all purposes.

3. It is also provided in the amended plan that the capital surplus of the company which will be created by the consummation of the amended plan will not be applied by the company to the payment of dividends upon shares of its new capital stock and that earned surplus appearing on the balance sheet of the company after consummation of the amended plan will be dated to indicate that such earned surplus has been earned subsequent to the consummation of the amended plan.

4. The applicant company has stated that it does not propose to hold a stockholders' meeting for the purpose of electing directors prior to the annual meeting to be held for the purpose of electing directors in May 1947, for the reason that a majority of the present board of directors have been elected by the holders of the presently outstanding $5 preferred stock.

5. The amended plan further provides that all reasonable fees and expenses incurred in connection with the recapitalizatiton of Seattle will be paid by the company subject to the approval of the Commission.

6. The application states that the amended plan was filed in order to remedy the existing inequitable distribution of the voting power so as to enable the applicant to meet the requirements of section 11 (b) (2) of the act for effectuating a fair and equitable distribution of the voting power among the holders of its securities. The applicant does not propose to solicit the consent of any of its security holders to the amended plan of recapitalization.

The applicant requests that the Commission find the amended plan to be necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of said act and to be fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby, issue an order approving the plan, and apply to an appropriate United States District Court to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of said amended plan.

It appearing to the Commission that the hearing should be reconvened for the purpose of considering said amended plan in the light of such of the issues designated or specified in the Commission's order of April 13, 1945 as are applicable to said amended plan; and

It further appearing that the trial examiner heretofore designated to preside at the consolidated hearing is unable to preside at the time hereinafter mentioned and that a new trial examiner should be designated at the consolidated hearing herein:

It is ordered, That the record herein be reopened and that the hearing herein be reconvened before the trial examiner hereinafter designated at 10:00 a. m., on the 20th day of May 1946, at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania, in such room as the hearing room clerk in room 318 will at that time designate. All persons who have not heretofore entered their appearances in these consolidated proceedings and desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate, should file with the Commission, on or before May 17, 1946, a written request relative thereto as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That Allen MacCullen, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, be and he is hereby designated to preside at such reconvened hearing in lieu of the trial examiner heretofore designated to preside at the hearing "In the Matter of Seattle Gas Company, File No. 54-124, File No. 59-79, File No. 70-1197", and the said Allen MacCullen is hereby granted all the powers heretofore granted to the trial examiner heretofore designated.

It is further ordered, That notice of this hearing be given by the Secretary of the Commission to Seattle Gas Company, Portland Electric Power Company, Portland General Electric Company, the Department of Public Utilities of the State of Washington and the Mayor of Seattle, Washington, by mailing a copy of this notice and order forthwith by registered mail, and that notice be given to all other persons by publication of a copy of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That Seattle Gas Company mail a copy of the amended plan of recapitalization and notice of the date that the hearing in this matter is to be reconvened at least twenty days prior to the time of such hearing to each of its stockholders at his last known address.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

MARY CHEELY

Mary Cheely of 122 East Seventh Street, Los Angeles, California, is engaged in the business of manufacturing children's wear. On January 2, 1946, a temporary suspension order was issued against Mary Cheely directing her to immediately cancel outstanding CC rated textile orders for fabrics in excess of the amount authorized, and to place no CC rated orders for any textile fabrics during the first quarter of 1946. On October 24, 1945, Mary Cheely filed form WPB-4342 certifying that she had placed rated orders during the fourth quarter of 1945 for 12,510 yards of cotton fabrics, whereas in fact, she had placed rated orders for 17,570 yards of such cotton fabrics during that quarter. The furnishing of this false information subjected Mary Cheely to the administrative action provided for under the provisions of the Conservation Order M-328-B and Priorities Regulation No. 1. During the fourth quarter of 1945, Mary Cheely placed orders bearing CC ratings for and accepted delivery of 12,510 yards of outing flannel, although she was authorized to place rated orders for and to receive only 6,255 yards of such material. The placing of these rated orders for 6,255 yards of outing flannel in excess of the authorized amount constituted a violation of Priorities Regulation No. 3. In addition, during the period from November 1, 1945 through January 15, 1946, Mary Cheely incorporated outing flannel acquired by means of preference ratings into the manufacture of 101 dozen two-piece pajamas in the price range of $21 per dozen, although she was specifically authorized to use such flannel in the manufacture of pajamas in the maximum price range of $13.50 per dozen, in violation of the express authorization. These violations were wilful and have diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the Civilian Production Administration. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered that:

§ 1010.936 Suspension Order No. S-936. (a) In addition to the restriction contained in the temporary suspension order issued on January 2, 1946, Mary Cheely shall not apply or extend any preference ratings nor shall any authorization be granted to her to apply or extend any ratings during the second quarter of 1946.

(b) Mary Cheely shall refer to this order in any applications or appeal which she may file with the Civilian Production Administration during the second quarter of 1946.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Mary Cheely from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Civilian Production Administration, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Issued this 26th day of April 1946.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATIONS OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 33, Direction 5, as Amended Apr. 29, 1946]

GYPSUM BOARD AND GYPSUM LATH

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of building materials and building supplies for defense, for private account and for export; and the following direction is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

(a) Purpose of this direction. Priorities Regulation 33 provides for the assignment to builders of HH preference ratings to secure materials, listed on Schedule A of that regulation, which are required for use in the Veterans' Emergency Housing Program. Among these are gypsum board and gypsum lath. This direction explains the use of HH rating and also what the restrictions are in connection with the sale of gypsum board and gypsum lath by producers and dealers.

In order to meet the Veterans' Emergency Housing Program and the needs of other essential construction it is necessary to increase the production of many building materials including gypsum board and gypsum lath, and to do this increased tonnage of gypsum liner must be made available to producers of gypsum board and lath. This direction makes provision for directives to be issued by the Civilian Production Administration from time to time for the purpose of securing the production and delivery of gypsum liner for the manufacture of gypsum board and gypsum lath.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this direction:

(1) "Gypsum board" means only those products made from gypsum and commonly referred to in the building trade as wall board, long board, wide board, laminated board or sheathing. The term does not include precast reinforced gypsum roof plank.

(2) "Gypsum lath" means the gypsum product made especially for use as a plaster base.

(3) "Producer" means a person owning or operating facilities in which gypsum board or gypsum lath are manufactured.

(4) "Dealer" means a person who buys gypsum board or gypsum lath from a producer or other person for resale as such.

(c) HH ratings are not extendible. A dealer who receives an HH rated order for gypsum board or gypsum lath shall not extend the rating.

(d) Handling of HH rated orders by producers. A producer need not accept any HH rated orders for gypsum board or gypsum lath. This is the general rule. But a producer who sells any portion of his production directly to persons other than dealers or manufacturers of pre-fabricated housing must sell that portion according to the following rule: Beginning February 1, 1946, at least two-thirds of all gypsum board and gypsum lath (calculated on a combined square footage basis) sold by the producer to persons other than dealers or manufacturers of pre-fabricated housing, must be sold on HH or AAA rated orders. Thus a producer shall not sell or deliver more gypsum board or gypsum lath to such persons on other than HH rated orders than one-half of the quantity he has sold or delivered on HH or AAA rated orders since February 1, 1946.

(e) Maximum amounts dealers need to sell on HH rated orders. Dealers must accept and fill rated orders (AAA, MM, CC, and HH) for gypsum board or gypsum lath in accordance with the provisions of Priorities Regulation 1, except that no dealer is required to accept HH rated orders for more than two-thirds of all gypsum board and gypsum lath (calculated on a combined square footage basis) sold or delivered by him since February 1, 1946. Direct shipments from a producer to a user for a dealer's account shall be considered as deliveries by the dealer. Sales or deliveries by dealers to other dealers shall not be considered as sales or deliveries for the purposes of this paragraph. A dealer may not reject an HH rated order which he is not required to fill under the above rule, but must promptly notify his customer approximately when he expects to fill the order out of later shipments.

(f) Directives for gypsum liner. The Civilian Production Administration, in order to increase the production of gypsum board and gypsum lath, may issue directives from time to time to the manufacturers of boxboard, requiring them to produce specified quantities of gypsum liner and to make delivery to producers of gypsum board and gypsum lath. The production of gypsum liner covered by the directives will be distributed among the boxboard mills in as equitable a manner as is possible taking into account the following:

(1) The facilities of all mills in the boxboard field which can produce either creamfaced, greyback or lath board and which have suitable machines and roll equipment for the production of liner of the basic weight required.

(2) From the total tonnage of gypsum liner needed to produce the required tonnage of gypsum board and lath for housing and other essential construction, including maintenance and repair, there will be deducted the tonnage of gypsum liner being produced by the regular suppliers for the gypsum board and lath producers. The additional tonnage of gypsum liner necessary to meet the requirements for gypsum board and gypsum lath will be spread through the means of directives among the boxboard mills on an approximate percentage basis of their production, calculated on the boxboard and miscellaneous board produced by them during the first three months of 1946.

(g) Appeals. (1) Any appeal from the provisions of this direction should be made by mailing a letter in triplicate to the Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: PR-33, Direction 5, stating the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds for the appeal.

(2) If an appeal from a directive issued under paragraph (f) is to be made on the ground that compliance with the action will result in production at a loss, an application for price relief on that ground must first be filed with the Secretary of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and a copy filed with the appeal. If the Civilian Production Administration appeal is granted, the directive for increases above current production will be suspended until the decision of the Office of Price Administration upon the application for price relief. This paragraph does not indicate or limit the extent or kind of price relief, if any, which may be granted by the Office of Price Administration.

Issued this 29th day of April 1946.

PART 4700—VETERANS' EMERGENCY HOUSING PROGRAM

[Veterans' Housing Program Order 1, Interpretation 2]

PROHIBITED DELIVERIES

The following interpretation is issued with respect to Veterans' Housing Program Order 1:

Paragraph (g) of Order VHP-1 provides that "No person shall accept an order for, sell, deliver or cause to be delivered materials which he knows or has reason to believe will be used in work prohibited by this order".

The purpose of this provision is to prohibit the sale or delivery of materials by a supplier if he knows or has reason to believe that the materials supplied will be used in violation of VHP-1. This provision does not impose upon a fabricator or supplier any duty to investigate whether a proposed construction job for which he is asked to supply materials will be begun or carried on in violation of Veterans' Housing Program Order 1, or whether it has been specifically authorized or is exempt under that order. Mere knowledge that the kind of work involved is a kind which ordinarily would require authorization under the order does not constitute reason to believe that the work will be begun or carried on in violation of the order and, in the absence of information to the contrary, the supplier may rely on the builder to get an authorization for the job if authorization is required.

Paragraph (g) of VHP-1 does not require a supplier to get from a customer a certificate to the effect that the customer is not violating and will not violate VHP-1, or a certificate to the effect that the job for which the materials will be used is exempt under the order or has been authorized under the order.

Section 944.14a of Priorities Regulation 1 contains a provision, similar to that in paragraph (g) of VHP-1, with respect to all Civilian Production Administration orders and regulations. In addition, Priorities Regulation 32, which controls inventories, contains a similar provision affecting suppliers, in paragraph (b), which is explained in detail in Interpretation 3 to that regulation.

[Docket No. G-710]

CENTRAL KENTUCKY NATURAL GAS CO., AND CINCINNATI GAS TRANSPORTATION CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

APRIL 25, 1946.

Notice is hereby given that on April 1, 1946, Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company (Central Kentucky) and Cincinnati Gas Transportation Company (Cincinnati Transportation), both companies being subsidiaries of Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, with their principal place of business in Charleston, West Virginia, filed a combined application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity under section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the purchase and operation by Central Kentucky and the sale by Cincinnati Transportation of the properties and assets of the latter.

Central Kentucky is a natural-gas company within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act and holds a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued by an order of the Federal Power Commission dated September 7, 1943. Cincinnati Transportation is a natural-gas company within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act and holds a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued by an order of the Federal Power Commission dated January 18, 1944. Both companies own and operate facilities in the Commonwealth of Kentucky and Cincinnati Transportation also owns and operates certain facilities in the State of West Virginia, in addition to facilities leased to United Fuel Gas Company in West Virginia. Cincinnati Transportation's properties consist principally of approximately 138 miles of pipe line and appurtenant facilities located in the Commonwealth of Kentucky and approximately 54 miles of pipe line and appurtenant facilities located in the State of West Virginia. Cincinnati Transportation transported and sold 12,620,564 Mcf natural gas during the year 1944 to The Cincinnati Gas and Electric Company. The Union Light, Heat and Power Company, Bracken County Gas Company and Kentucky Utilities Company by means of a pipe line extending from a point near Kenova, West Virginia, in a general northwesterly direction across the Commonwealth of Kentucky to a point on the Kentucky-Ohio State line near Cincinnati, Ohio.

Cincinnati Transportation proposes to sell to Central Kentucky all of its properties plant and equipment and other assets. Central Kentucky proposes to purchase from Cincinnati Transportation all of that company's property, plant and equipment and other assets. As consideration for the purchase, Central Kentucky will assume all of the debts and obligations of Cincinnati Transportation and in exchange for the property and other assets will issue to Cincinnati Transportation 128,139 shares of its capital stock, $25.00 par value. The number of shares of capital stock to be so issued by Central Kentucky has been determined on the basis of the par value of the capital stock of Central Kentucky and the book value as of December 31, 1945, of the net assets of Cincinnati Transportation to be acquired.

It is the intention of Central Kentucky, after acquisition of Cincinnati Transportation, to continue the services as presently being rendered under the same method of supervision and at the present rates. It is proposed that if the acquisition is consummated prior to the completion by Cincinnati Transportation of its proposed 14-inch natural gas pipe line of approximately 70 miles in length extending from a point near Foster, Bracken County, Kentucky, to a connection with the pipe line of Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company near Means, Menifee County, Kentucky, for which authorization is requested under Docket No. G-698, to complete the proposed new line. It is stated that the proposed transaction will combine the business and activities of Central Kentucky and Cincinnati Transportation and effect certain savings in operating expenses by the elimination of various reports and duplication of activities and the combined cash resources of the two companies will be sufficient to finance the construction of the new line for which authorization is requested in Docket No. G-698.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of Part 67 of the provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act, and if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with the reasons for such request.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 13th day of May 1946, file with the Federal Power Commission's provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

Office desks: Model Nos. R60, SF40–6, SF 40–4, SF 45–6, SF 45–4 SF 50–6, SF 50–6, SF 50–4, SF 60–8, SF 60–6, SF 60–4, SF 66–8, SF 66–6, SF 66–4, DF 60–8, DF 60–4, CF 50, SD 36, BL 72.

Typewriter desks: Model Nos. TFB 42–6, TFB 42–4, T 45–6, T 45–4, T 50–8, T 50–6, T 50–4, T 60–8, T 60–6, T 60–4, TP 60–8, TP 60–6, TP 60–4.

Typewriter stand, Model No. TS 34.

Tables: Model Nos. OT 40, OT 45, OT 50, OT 60, OT 66, OT 72.

Calculating desks: Model Nos. CM 45, CM 45 BP, SGU 60.

Telephone stands: Model Nos. TS 20 and TSL 20.

(1) For an article in its line during October 1941, the adjusted ceiling price is the highest price charged during that month to each class of purchaser increased by 17 percent.

(2) For an article not in its line during October 1941, but which has a properly established ceiling price, in effect before the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the article's properly established ceiling price for the particular sale (exclusive of all permitted increases or adjustment charges) increased by the percentage determined in accordance with "Note 3" in section 8 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119.

(3) For an article which is first offered for sale after the effective date of this order, the adjusted ceiling price is the maximum price hereafter properly determined or established in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 188; and prices so fixed may not be increased under this order.

(4) The manufacturer's adjusted ceiling price fixed in accordance with this order is his new ceiling price if it is higher than his previously established ceiling price including all increases and adjustments otherwise authorized for him individually or for his industry.

The adjustment charge determined in accordance with this order must be separately stated by the manufacturer on each invoice to a purchaser for resale.

(b) Resellers' ceiling prices. Resellers of an article which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

A reseller who had a properly established maximum price in effect before this order was issued for an article covered by this order may add to that maximum price an adjustment charge in the same dollar-and-cents amount as the adjustment charge authorized by this order for, and which he had paid to his supplier.

If the reseller did not have a properly established maximum price for the article in effect before this order was issued, he shall first determine a maximum price (exclusive of adjustment charges), and to that price he may add an adjustment charge in the same dollar-and-cents amount as the adjustment authorized by this order for, and which he has paid to, his supplier. To find his maximum price (exclusive of adjustment charges) for this purpose the reseller shall add to his invoice cost, less the adjustment charge stated on that invoice, the same percentage mark-up which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has properly established ceiling price. For this purpose the "most comparable article" is one which meets all of the following tests:

(1) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(2) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(3) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of articles to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage mark-up is applied.

(4) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620–759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that Section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to resale prices determined under this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Maximum prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, allowances and other price differentials in effect during March 1942, or which have been properly established under the applicable OPA regulation.

(d) Notification. At the time of or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale, showing a price adjusted in accordance with the terms of this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the methods established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resales of the articles covered by this order. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) Revocation or amendment. This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to resale prices of articles covered by this order.

(f) Effective date. This order shall become effective on the 26th day of April 1946.

Issued this 26th day of April 1946.

Administrator.

[SO 133, Order 33]

E. LEGANGER AND CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to Supplementary Order No. 133, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's maximum prices. E. Leganger and Company, 925 West Chicago Avenue, Chicago 22, Illinois, may increase its maximum prices properly established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, (exclusive of any adjustment charges) for articles of fibre and rattan furniture which it manufactures by 8 per cent of each such maximum price.

(b) Resellers of articles which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

(1) A retailer who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 580 and a wholesaler who must determine his ceiling prices under Maximum Price Regulation No. 590, shall compute their ceiling prices in the manner provided by those regulations. However, if the supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, the reseller shall compute his ceiling prices under those regulations as they have been modified by Order No. 4800 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(2) A reseller who determines his maximum resale price under the General Maximum Price Regulation, and whose supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, shall compute his ceiling prices under that regulation as modified by Order No. 4800 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

If his supplier's invoice does not state an "unadjusted maximum price", the reseller shall calculate his ceiling prices by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage markup which he had on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose, the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(i) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of article to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620–759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method, the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(3) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to the determination of ceiling prices for resales of articles covered by this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter, properly established under Office of Price Administration regulations.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order, showing prices adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) The manufacturer shall file the report described in section 5 of Supplementary Order No. 133 with the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., and shall comply with the invoicing and reporting provisions of Order 4800 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(f) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This order shall become effective on the 27th day of April 1946.

Issued this 26th day of April 1946.

PAUL A. PORTER,
Administrator.

(d) "Adjusted maximum price". A manufacturer's "adjusted maximum price" is the higher of the following two amounts:

(1) His "unadjusted maximum price" increased by 9 percent in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) His maximum price properly established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, plus any increases in that maximum price permitted by an OPA order, other than this order.

A manufacturer may make sales and deliveries at or below his adjusted maximum price computed under this section.

(e) Price lists. Every price list which a manufacturer of articles covered by this order issued after April 26, 1946 must show the manufacturer's "unadjusted maximum price" determined under this section. The price list shall also contain the manufacturer's "adjusted maximum price" determined under this section, or a statement that the "unadjusted maximum prices" shown are subject to an OPA adjustment charge of 9%.

5. Section 4 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) "Unadjusted maximum prices." A distributor's "unadjusted maximum price" for sales to each class of purchaser of an article covered by this order is:

(1) The highest zone "unadjusted maximum price" quoted for such a sale by the manufacturer of such unit in his last price list in which the article was listed; or

(2) If the manufacturer's last price list in which the article was listed does not state prices on a zone basis, the distributor's unadjusted price shall be the f. o. b. factory "unadjusted maximum price" quoted for such a sale in that price list,[2] plus the differential over the manufacturer's f. o. b. factory prices which the distributor charged in October 1941 on his sale in each zone of articles covered by this order of the same weight.

(3) If the distributor's unadjusted maximum price for a particular sale cannot be determined under (1) or (2) that unadjusted maximum price shall be the price approved in writing by the Office of Price Administration, after the distributor has submitted to it an application stating:

(i) The date of the application.

(ii) The manufacturer's name, number or other identification of the article.

(iii) The manufacturer's and the distributor's name and address.

(iv) The proposed unadjusted maximum price.

After receipt of such application, the Office of Price Administration will issue an order establishing unadjusted maximum prices for the distributor's sale of the articles which will be in line with the level of unadjusted maximum prices established by or under this section. The distributor may not sell, or offer to sell, or deliver the article until after the issuance of such order.

6. Section 6 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 6. Maximum prices of retailers whose sales are covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 580. If the retailer determines his maximum price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 580, he shall calculate his maximum price following the rules set forth in that regulation, by using a "net cost" based on his supplier's "unadjusted maximum price" as it appears on his purchase invoice.

7. Section 12 is redesignated section 13 and a new section 12 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 12. Modification of this order by individual adjustment orders. The provisions of this order may be modified, in the case of an individual manufacturer, and of purchasers for resale from him, by an adjustment order issued to such manufacturer under Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, or Supplementary Order No. 133, or Order No. A-2 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting provisions of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942, as amended.

[File No. 70-1249]

POTOMAC EDISON CO. ET AL

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 25th day of April, A. D. 1946.

In the matter of the Potomac Edison Company, Northern Virginia Power Company, Page Power Company, Madison Power Company, Massanutten Power Company, File No. 70-1249.

The Potomac Edison Company ("Potomac"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary of American Water Works and Electric Company, Incorporated, and of The West Penn Electric Company, also registered holding companies, and four direct subsidiaries of Potomac, namely, Northern Virginia Power Company ("Northern Virginia"), Page Power Company ("Page"), Madison Power Company ("Madison") and Massanutten Power Company ("Massanutten"), have filed a joint application-declaration and five amendments thereto pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder relating to the following transactions:

1. Potomac, presently the owner of all the outstanding capital stocks of Page, Madison and Massanutten, purchased by Potomac pursuant to appropriate authorization of this Commission at an aggregate cost of $1,956,077.97 in cash, proposes to transfer to Northern Virginia all of said capital stocks in exchange for 19,560 shares of common stock, par value $100 per share, of Northern Virginia, plus or minus, as the case may be, 10 additional shares of such stock for each full $1,000 of the net amount of certain adjustments to be made on the basis of the excess of Potomac's cost of the stocks of said companies over the aggregate par value of the common stock of Northern Virginia to be received by Potomac and on the basis of net changes in utility plant and current asset accounts of the three companies being transferred between September 1, 1945 and the date of acquisition of said stocks by Northern Virginia (any adjustment amounting to less than $1,000 to be discharged by a cash payment).

2. At the present time, the capital stocks of Page, Madison and Massanutten are pledged under the indenture and first supplemental indenture of Potomac securing its First Mortgage and Collateral Trust Bonds. Potomac proposes to pledge the common stock of Northern Virginia and any cash to be received from the sale of the stocks of Page, Madison and Massanutten with the indenture trustee in exchange for the release of these shares of capital stock. Potomac also proposes to purchase 6,810 additional shares of common stock of Northern Virginia for $681,000 in cash and to pledge such shares with Potomac's bond indenture trustee.

3. Northern Virginia presently has outstanding indebtedness payable on demand to Potomac in the aggregate amount of $681,744.46 (consisting of a promissory note in the face amount of $291,373.91 and open account indebtedness amounting to $390,400.55) which indebtedness is now pledged by Potomac with its bond indenture trustee. Northern Virginia proposes to discharge and retire such indebtedness by payment to Potomac of $681,744.46 in cash. Potomac's bond indenture trustee will thereupon release such indebtedness from the lien of the mortgage indenture of Potomac.

4. As soon as practicable after the acquisition by Northern Virginia of the capital stocks of Page, Madison, and Massanutten, these companies will be merged into Northern Virginia. In connection with such merger, Northern Virginia proposes to surrender to the issuing companies for cancellation and retirement all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Page, Madison, and Massanutten.

The filing contains orders of the Maryland Public Service Commission, West Virginia Public Service Commission, Virginia State Corporation Commission and the Federal Power Commission, wherein each of said commissions has, to the extent that the transactions hereinbefore discussed are subject to their juridiction, authorized the consummation of the proposed transactions. Said joint application-declaration having been filed on 7th day of March, 1946 and the last amendment thereto having been filed on April 23, 1946, and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect thereto within the period specified in said notice or otherwise and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and
